| Polk County, the greater Tampa Bay, and Central Florida. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured? A review of behavioral health emergency services and the connection to community based "primary" behavioral health services demonstrates that there is disconnect between Florida's emergency services and community-based care. Many high-risk, high need individuals cycle through jails, emergency rooms, and homeless facilities, leading to deterioration of the person's mental health and creating immense costs for multiple publicly funded systems. The facilities and programs that will be funded will significantly reduce costs to the State Medicaid Budget. A 2016 analysis of 85 million diagnostic and billing records from 302 Florida hospitals from all 67 counties found that costs linked to heroin-related overdoses, Hepatitis C, |
