CHAMBER ACTION

Senate House

Representative Attkisson offered the following:

Amendment to Amendment (129467) (with title amendment)

Between lines 4 and 5, insert:

Section 1. Paragraph (f) of subsection (7) of section 212.055, Florida Statutes, is redesignated as paragraph (g), and a new paragraph (f) is added to that subsection to read:

212.055 Discretionary sales surtaxes; legislative intent; authorization and use of proceeds.—It is the legislative intent that any authorization for imposition of a discretionary sales surtax shall be published in the Florida Statutes as a subsection of this section, irrespective of the duration of the levy. Each enactment shall specify the types of counties authorized to levy; the rate or rates which may be imposed; the maximum length of time the surtax may be imposed, if any; the procedure which must be followed to secure voter approval, if 528739 required; the purpose for which the proceeds may be expended; and such other requirements as the Legislature may provide. Taxable transactions and administrative procedures shall be as provided in s. 212.054.

- (7) VOTER-APPROVED INDIGENT CARE SURTAX. --
- (f) Notwithstanding any provision of this subsection except paragraphs (b) and (g), a hospital surtax may be levied upon approval of a referendum by the electors in a county that has more than one independent special hospital district and a population of fewer than 50,000 residents, not including inmates and patients residing in institutions operated by the Federal Government, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Health, or the Department of Children and Family Services.

  Subject to the cap imposed in paragraph (g), the surtax may be levied at a rate not to exceed 1 percent.
- 1. At least 90 days before submitting the referendum to the voters, the governing body of the county shall certify to the Department of Revenue the populations of each independent special hospital district. If the surtax referendum is approved, surtax proceeds shall be allocated to each such district in proportion to the relative populations certified by the county governing body.
- 2. In addition to the uses authorized by this subsection, an independent special hospital district may pledge surtax proceeds to service new or existing bond indebtedness and may use surtax proceeds to pay the direct costs incurred to finance, plan, construct, or reconstruct a public or not-for-profit hospital in the county; the costs incurred for land acquisition, 528739

- land improvement, design, engineering, equipment, and furnishing related to the hospital; or the direct costs associated therewith. An independent special hospital district may use the services of the Division of Bond Finance of the State Board of Administration pursuant to the State Bond Act to issue bonds under this paragraph.
- 3. Any county having a population of fewer than 50,000 residents at the time bonds authorized in this paragraph are issued shall retain the authority granted under this paragraph throughout the term of such bonds, including the term of any refinancing bonds, regardless of any subsequent increase in population that results in the county having 50,000 or more residents.
- 4. If the indebtedness issued by one independent special hospital district expires before the indebtedness issued by another independent special hospital district, the full amount of the surtax proceeds shall be applied to service the remaining indebtedness until the indebtedness is extinguished.

65 TITLE AMENDMENT

Remove line 126 and insert:

An act relating to local governments; amending s. 212.055, F.S.; expanding authorization for voter-approved indigent care surtaxes; authorizing certain counties to levy a hospital surtax subject to referendum approval; providing for allocation and uses of surtax proceeds; preserving certain bonding authority;
