That the following amendment to Section 4 of Article IV of the State Constitution is agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE IV

EXECUTIVE

SECTION 4. Cabinet.-

- (a) There shall be a cabinet composed of an attorney general, a chief financial officer, and a commissioner of agriculture. In addition to the powers and duties specified herein, they shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by law. In the event of a tie vote of the governor and cabinet, the side on which the governor voted shall be deemed to prevail.
- (b) The attorney general shall be the chief state legal officer. There is created in the office of the attorney general the position of statewide prosecutor. The statewide prosecutor shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the state attorneys to prosecute violations of criminal laws occurring or having occurred, in two or more judicial circuits as part of a related transaction, or when any such offense is affecting or has affected two or more judicial circuits as provided by general law. The statewide prosecutor shall be appointed by the attorney general from not less than three persons nominated by the judicial nominating commission for the supreme court, or as otherwise provided by general law.

- (c) The chief financial officer shall serve as the chief fiscal officer of the state, and shall settle and approve accounts against the state, and shall keep all state funds and securities. It is a paramount duty of the state to collect, maintain, and make available accurate, verifiable, and auditable state and local government financial information. Accordingly, the chief financial officer shall:
- (1) Establish and maintain uniform accounting of funds for the legislative and judicial branches and all state agencies, state universities, state and community colleges, school districts, water management districts, other local governments, and all statutorily authorized governmental entities; and
- (2) Supervise matters pertaining to the accounting of funds, except as otherwise provided by law. Enforcement mechanisms involving financial or budgetary restrictions that ensure compliance with accounting procedures and financial requirements may be imposed as provided by general law.
- (d) The commissioner of agriculture shall have supervision of matters pertaining to agriculture except as otherwise provided by law.
- (e) The governor as chair, the chief financial officer, and the attorney general shall constitute the state board of administration, which shall succeed to all the power, control, and authority of the state board of administration established pursuant to Article IX, Section 16 of the Constitution of 1885, and which shall continue as a body at least for the life of Article XII, Section 9(c).

- (f) The governor as chair, the chief financial officer, the attorney general, and the commissioner of agriculture shall constitute the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund and the land acquisition trust fund as provided by law.
- (g) The governor as chair, the chief financial officer, the attorney general, and the commissioner of agriculture shall constitute the agency head of the Department of Law Enforcement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the following statement be placed on the ballot:

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

ARTICLE IV, SECTION 4

DUTIES OF THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER.—Proposing an amendment to the State Constitution to require the Chief Financial Officer to establish and maintain uniform accounting of funds for the legislative and judicial branches and all governmental entities and supervise such accounting, and to authorize the enforcement of financial and budgetary restrictions provided by law which ensure compliance with accounting procedures and financial requirements.
