Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

2728

29

Section 1. Section 790.332, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

24-00615-12 20121732

 $\underline{790.332}$ Regulation of knives and weapons; preemption to the state.—

- (1) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the "Uniform Knife and Weapons Act."
- (2) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The Legislature intends to occupy the whole field of regulation of knives, common pocketknives, and weapons. This section is intended to provide uniformity of laws by prohibiting state agencies and political subdivisions from enacting regulations or restrictions on the sale, transfer, possession, use, and manufacture of knives or weapons. This section is intended to:
 - (a) Require the enforcement of uniform state laws;
- (b) Mandate the repeal of rules, ordinances, and regulations prohibited by the section;
- (c) Impose penalties for failing to repeal or enacting rules, ordinances, or regulations that conflict with this section;
- (d) Render void any rules, ordinances, and regulations in effect on the effective date of this act and prohibit the future enactment of rules, ordinances, or regulations relating to knives, common pocketknives, and weapons by any entity other than the Legislature; and
- (e) Compel government officials and governmental entities to obey the uniform laws of the state and to constrain the proliferation of regulations and ordinances.
 - (3) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the term:
- (a) "Common pocketknife" means any knife that can be carried in a pocket, purse, handbag, backpack, briefcase, or sheath, or similar container.

(b) "Knife" means a cutting instrument that includes a sharpened or pointed blade, including a sheath knife commonly used for fishing, hunting, outdoor recreation, or work activities.

- (c) "Political subdivision" has the same meaning as defined in s. 1.01(8).
- (d) "State agency" means a separate agency or unit of state government created or established by law and includes, but is not limited to, the following and the officers thereof:

 authority, board, branch, bureau, commission, department, division, institution, office, officer, or public corporation, as the case may be, except any such agency or unit within the legislative branch of state government other than the Florida
 Public Service Commission.
 - (e) "Weapon" has the same meaning as defined in s. 790.001.
 - (4) PROHIBITIONS.—
- (a) A state agency or political subdivision may not enact an ordinance, rule, regulation, or tax relating to, and including, but not limited to, the transportation, possession, carrying, sale, transfer, purchase, gift, devise, licensing, registration, or use of a knife, knife-making components, a common pocketknife, or a weapon.
- (b) A state agency or political subdivision may not enact a rule, ordinance, or regulation that relates to the manufacture of a knife, common pocketknife, or a weapon.
- (c) A rule, ordinance, or regulation by a state agency or political subdivision which relates to knives, common pocketknives, or weapons is void on the effective date of this act and must be repealed by the state agency political 88 subdivision by July 1, 2012.

(5) PENALTIES.—

- (a) A state agency or political subdivision that violates the Legislature's occupation of the whole field of regulation of weapons and knives, as declared in this section, by enacting or causing to be enforced a rule, ordinance, or regulation or failing to repeal a rule, ordinance, or regulation impinging upon such exclusive occupation of the field is liable as set forth in this subsection.
- (b) If a state agency or political subdivision violates this section, the court must:
 - 1. Declare the rule, ordinance, or regulation invalid;
- 2. Issue a permanent injunction against the state agency or political subdivision prohibiting it from enforcing the rule, ordinance, or regulation; and
 - 3. Order the repeal of the ordinance, regulation, or rule.
- It is not a defense that in enacting or failing to repeal the rule, ordinance, or regulation the state agency or political subdivision was acting in good faith or upon advice of counsel.
- (c) If the court determines that a violation was knowing and willful, the court must assess the greater of, statutory damages of $5,000 or actual damages of not more than $100,000, against the elected or appointed political subdivision official or officials or state agency head under whose jurisdiction the violation occurred.
- (d) Except as otherwise required by law, public funds may not be used to defend or reimburse a person found to have knowingly and willfully violated this section.

(e) A knowing and willful violation of this section by a person acting in an official capacity for a state agency or political subdivision or otherwise acting under color of law by enacting or causing to be enforced an ordinance, administrative rule, or regulation prohibited under this section is grounds for termination of employment or similar contract or removal from office by the Governor.

- (f) A person or an organization whose membership is adversely affected by a rule, ordinance, or regulation, measure, directive, enactment, order, or policy adopted or caused to be enforced in violation of this section may file suit against any state agency or political subdivision for declaratory and injunctive relief and for actual damages, as limited by this subsection, caused by the violation. A court shall award the prevailing plaintiff in any such suit:
- 1. Reasonable attorney fees and costs, including a contingency fee multiplier, as authorized by law; and
 - 2. The actual damages incurred, but not more than $100,000.

Interest on the sums awarded pursuant to this subsection shall accrue at the rate established pursuant to s. 55.03 from the date on which suit was filed.

Section 2. The Division of Statutory Revision is directed to replace the phrase "the effective date of this act" wherever it occurs in this act with the date this act becomes law.

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
