COMMITTEE/SUBCOMMITTEE AMENDMENT

Bill No. HB 7131 (2013)

	Amendment No.
20	(d) "Special private gain or loss" means an economic
21	benefit or harm that would inure to the officer, his or her
22	relative, business associate, or principal. If a vote affects a
23	class of people that includes the officer, his or her relative,
24	business associate, or principal, at least the following factors
25	must be considered when determining whether a special private
26	gain or loss exists:
27	1. The size of the class affected by the vote;
28	2. The nature of the interests involved;
29	3. The degree to which the interests of all members of the
30	class are affected by the vote;
31	4. The degree to which the officer, his or her relative,
32	business associate or principal receives a greater benefit or
33	harm when compared to other members of the class; and
34	5. The degree to which there is uncertainty at the time of
35	the vote as to whether there would be any gain or loss to the
36	public officer, his or her relative, business associate, or
37	principal and, if so, what the nature or magnitude of the gain
38	or loss might be.
