27
28 Section 1. Section 11.63, Florida Statutes, is created to 29 read:

30 11.63 Minority impact statements.—

31 (1) Upon filing, and before it may be considered, any bill 32 that creates a new criminal offense, modifies an existing 33 criminal offense, or modifies the penalty for an existing 34 criminal offense shall be referred by the Office of Legislative 35 Services to the Office of Economic and Demographic Research for 36 preparation of a minority impact statement. The Office of 37 Economic and Demographic Research may request the assistance of 38 an executive agency in preparing the required statement, and the 39 agency shall promptly provide all necessary information to the 40 Office of Economic and Demographic Research.

41 (2) The minority impact statement must include an estimate 42 of the number of criminal cases per year that the bill will 43 affect, the effect of the bill on members of racial minority 44 groups and on the operations of correctional institutions, and 45 any other matter that the Office of Economic and Demographic 46 Research considers appropriate. In preparing the minority impact 47 statement, the Office of Economic and Demographic Research shall 48 issue a finding as to whether the bill has a disparate impact on 49 members of racial minority groups.

50 (3) If the minority impact statement indicates a disparate 51 impact on members of racial minority groups, the sponsor of the 52 bill shall consider whether to amend it to achieve its purpose

53 with a lessened impact on members of racial minority groups. If 54 the sponsor of the bill elects not to amend the bill, he or she 55 shall provide in writing his or her reasons for advancing the 56 bill without amendment despite the findings of the statement.
57 The sponsor's statement shall be included as an appendix to the 58 minority impact statement.

59 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2015.
