

1 A bill to be entitled
 2 An act relating to public records; amending s.
 3 943.0595, F.S.; providing an exemption from public
 4 records requirements for criminal history records that 5 are automatically expunged upon restoration of a
 6 person's civil rights; providing an exception;
 7 providing for future legislative review and repeal of 8 the exemption under the Open Government Sunset Review
 9 Act; providing a statement of public necessity;
 10 providing a contingent effective date.

11
 12 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

13
 14 Section 1. Subsection (6) is added to section 943.0595,
 15 Florida Statutes, to read:

16 943.0595 Automatic expunction of criminal history record
 17 upon restoration of civil rights; exceptions.—

18 (6) PUBLIC RECORDS.—

19 (a) A criminal history record expunged under this section
 20 that is retained by the department is confidential and exempt
 21 from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State 22 Constitution, except that the record shall be made available to 23 criminal justice agencies for their respective criminal justice
 24 purposes. Otherwise, such record shall not be disclosed to any 25 person or entity, except upon order of a court of competent 26 jurisdiction. A criminal justice agency may retain a notation

27 indicating compliance with an expunction.

28 (b) This subsection is subject to the Open Government
29 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand 30 repealed on October 2, 2020, unless reviewed and saved from 31 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

32 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 33 necessity that a criminal history record expunged under s.
34 943.0595, Florida Statutes, that is retained by the Department
35 of Law Enforcement be made confidential and exempt from s.
36 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the 37 State Constitution. Persons whose civil rights have been 38 restored and whose criminal history records have been expunged 39 could face barriers to employment and other opportunities if 40 their criminal history records remain on record and accessible 41 to potential employers and other persons. Therefore, it is 42 necessary to make these records confidential in order for 43 persons whose civil rights have been restored to have the 44 opportunity to rebuild their lives and fully reenter society.

45 Section 3. This act shall take effect on the same date 46 that HB 1135 or similar legislation takes effect, if such 47 legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an 48 extension thereof and becomes a law.
