 2           An act relating to legislative reauthorization of
 3           agency rulemaking authority; amending s. 120.536,
 4           F.S.; providing for suspension of certain rulemaking
 5           authority after a specified period, until reauthorized
 6           by general law; providing for expiration of such 7           reauthorization after a specified period; requiring
 8           legislative ratification of rules adopted while
 9           rulemaking authority is suspended; authorizing the
 10          Governor to delay suspension of rulemaking authority
 11          for a specified period upon declaration of a public
 12          necessity; providing exceptions; providing
 13          applicability; amending s. 120.54, F.S.; revising
 14          circumstances under which emergency rules may be
 15          renewed; providing an effective date.

16
 17 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

18
 19           Section 1. Subsections (2) through (4) of section 120.536,
 20           Florida Statutes, are renumbered as subsections (3) through (5),
 21           respectively, and a new subsection (2) is added to that section
 22           to read:

23           120.536 Rulemaking authority; reauthorization; repeal;
 24           challenge.—

25           (2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and

26 except as provided in paragraph (d), any new rulemaking
27 authority is suspended 4 years after the effective date of the 28 law granting rulemaking authority until reauthorized by general
29 law. Any rulemaking authority effective on or before July 1,
30 2017, is suspended July 1, 2021, until reauthorized by general
31 law.

32 (b) Reauthorized rulemaking authority is suspended upon
33 expiration of the period specified in the law reauthorizing
34 rulemaking authority or, if there is no period specified, 4
35 years after the effective date of the law reauthorizing
36 rulemaking authority until reauthorized again by general law.

37 (c) During the suspension of any rulemaking authority
38 under this subsection, a rule may be adopted pursuant to such 39 rulemaking authority but does not take effect unless ratified by 40 the Legislature.

41 (d) Upon written declaration by the Governor of a public
42 necessity, suspension of any rulemaking authority may be delayed
43 for up to 90 days, allowing the Legislature an opportunity to 44 reauthorize the rulemaking authority. A declaration of public
45 necessity may be issued only once with respect to a suspension
46 of rulemaking authority.

47 (e) This subsection does not apply to:

48 1. Emergency rulemaking pursuant to s. 120.54(4).

49 2. Rulemaking necessary to maintain the financial or legal
50 integrity of a financial obligation of the state or its agencies

51 or political subdivisions.

52 (f) Rules lawfully adopted remain in effect during a
 53 suspension of rulemaking authority under this subsection.

54 Section 2. Paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of section
 55 120.54, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

56 120.54 Rulemaking.—

57 (4) EMERGENCY RULES.—

58 (c) An emergency rule adopted under this subsection shall 59 not be effective for a period longer than 90 days and shall not 60 be renewable, except when the agency finds that the immediate 61 danger remains and continues to require emergency action, the 62 agency has initiated rulemaking to adopt rules addressing the
 63 subject of the emergency rule, and one of the following
 64 conditions has delayed implementation of the rules either:

65 1. A challenge to the proposed rules has been filed and 66 remains pending; or

67 2. The proposed rules have been filed for adoption and are
 68 awaiting ratification by the Legislature pursuant to a law
 69 requiring ratification for the rules to be effective s.

70 ~~120.541(3).~~

71
 72 ~~Nothing in~~ This paragraph does not prohibit ~~prohibits~~ the agency
 73 from adopting a rule or rules identical to the emergency rule
 74 through the rulemaking procedures specified in subsection (3).

75 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2017.
