Senator Braynon moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 409 and 410

insert:

Section 9. Section 790.301, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

790.301 AR-15 assault rifles; moratorium; study.—Upon this act becoming a law, a moratorium is imposed on the sale, delivery, and transfer of all AR-15-style assault rifles and it must remain in effect for a minimum period of 2 years. The Department of Law Enforcement is directed to conduct a study to 12 determine whether banning the AR-15-style assault rifle should 13 be permanent or whether regulations can sufficiently be 14 implemented to eliminate or significantly reduce the risk of 15 mass shootings posed by the availability of AR-15-style assault

16 rifles. The department shall submit its resulting findings and 17 recommendations to the Governor, the President of the Senate,
18 the Speaker of the House or Representatives, and the Majority 19 and Minority Leaders of the Senate and the House of 20 Representatives. The moratorium imposed by this section may not 21 be repealed until the Legislature enacts a law that adopts,
22 modifies, or rejects the department's recommendations.
