5 Amendment (with title amendment)

6 Between lines 1069 and 1070, insert:

7 Section 20. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section
8 1012.22, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

9 1012.22 Public school personnel; powers and duties of the 10 district school board.—The district school board shall:

11 (1) Designate positions to be filled, prescribe
12 qualifications for those positions, and provide for the 13 appointment, compensation, promotion, suspension, and dismissal
14 of employees as follows, subject to the requirements of this 15 chapter:

16 (a) Positions, qualifications, and appointments.—

Amendment No.

17 1. The district school board shall act upon written
18 recommendations submitted by the district school superintendent
19 for positions to be filled, for minimum qualifications for 20 personnel for the various positions, and for the persons
21 nominated to fill such positions.

22 2. The district school board may reject for good cause any 23 employee nominated.

24 3. If the third nomination by the district school
25 superintendent for any position is rejected for good cause, if
26 the district school superintendent fails to submit a nomination
27 for initial employment within a reasonable time as prescribed by 28 the district school board, or if the district school
29 superintendent fails to submit a nomination for reemployment
30 within the time prescribed by law, the district school board may 31 proceed on its own motion to fill such position.

32 4. The district school board's decision to reject a
33 person's nomination does not give that person a right of action
34 to sue over the rejection and may not be used as a cause of 35 action by the nominated employee.

36 5. The district school board may review and reappoint any 37 member of the district executive staff. This provision does not 38 apply to a school district with an elected superintendent.
