Amendment No.

disclaimer: "Created in whole or in part with the use of generative artificial intelligence (AI)."

- (3) (a) A person responsible for creating the content of a political advertisement, electioneering communication, or miscellaneous advertisement who fails to include the required disclaimer prescribed in this section in such advertisement or communication commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.
- (b) Any person may file a complaint with the Florida

 Elections Commission pursuant to s. 106.25 alleging a violation of this section. The commission shall adopt rules to provide an expedited hearing of complaints filed under this section, or, in cases referred to the Division of Administrative Hearings pursuant to s. 106.25(5), the director shall assign an administrative law judge to provide an expedited hearing.
- (c) This section does not apply to the following persons or entities that publish or disseminate a political advertisement, electioneering communication, or other miscellaneous advertisement, which is required to include the disclaimer required under subsection (2):
- 1. A radio or television broadcasting station, including a cable or satellite television operator, programmer, or producer, paid to broadcast a political advertisement, electioneering communication, or other miscellaneous advertisement.

Amendment No.

2. An internet website, a regularly published newspaper, magazine, or other periodical of general circulation, including an internet or electronic publication, that routinely carries news and commentary of general interest, if such website, newspaper, magazine, or periodical clearly states that the political advertisement, electioneering communication, or other miscellaneous advertisement does not accurately represent a ballot issue or candidate.
