PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Pastor Varilus Pierre, Jr., Florida Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, West Palm Beach:

Almighty God, our creator, our sustainer, and our very source of life, we glorify your name and we worship you for who you are. Before you, there was none; beside you, there is none; and after you, there will be none. For you are God all by yourself. We praise your name because you are good, and we love you. We have come before you this morning imploring forgiveness for our trespasses, and seeking your guidance and direction as we move forward in our life journeys. We thank you for the many blessings you have bestowed upon us—both spiritual and material. We thank you for the gift of time, health, the ability to function in our right mind, and the many opportunities that you have given to us to succeed.

We thank you, oh God, for the leaders of our country and, especially, the ones serving here in our state. We thank you for their faithfulness and dedicated service to the citizens of the great sunshine state. We pray that you will continue to guide and protect the members of the Florida State Senate. Bless their efforts, be part of their decision-making, bless their families, and grant them a special portion of your holy spirit to influence their mind. May their policies reflect your love, your grace, and your compassion to all.

Shower us with your blessings. Teach us how to love one another regardless of our political affiliation. Please help us truly understand your words. Bless all the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Bless all the pure in heart, for they will see God. Bless all the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Help us to be united and not divided. Help us put our personal agenda aside and focus on doing what is right. Help us put our differences aside and concentrate on what matters most.

Oh Heavenly Father, please guide us, inspire us, and use us as a tool to be a blessing to those whom we serve. Bless us indeed and enlarge our territory. Keep us from sin and may we stay together at the end of the day. May your will be done in each of our lives. Nothing more, nothing less. Forever and ever, amen.

Section 1. Section 741.04, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

(Substantial rewording of section. See

s. 741.04, F.S., for present text.)

741.04 Issuance of marriage license.—

(1) A county court judge or clerk of the circuit court may not issue a license to marry to any person younger than 18 years of age, unless:

(a) The person is at least 17 years of age and provides the written consent of his or her parents or legal guardian, which is acknowledged by an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgements and administer oaths; and

(b) The older party to the marriage is not more than 2 years older than the younger party to the marriage.

(2) A county court judge or clerk of the circuit court may not issue a license to marry until the parties to the marriage file with the county court judge or clerk of the court a written and signed affidavit, made and subscribed before a person authorized by law to administer an oath, which provides:

(a) The social security number or any other available identification number for each person.

(b) The respective ages of the parties.

(3) The submission of social security numbers as provided in this section is intended to support the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The state has a compelling interest in promoting not only marriage, but also responsible parenting, which may include the payment of child support. Any person who has been issued a social security number shall provide that number in satisfying the requirement in subsection (2). Social security numbers or other identification numbers obtained under this section may be used only for the purposes of administration in Title IV-D child support enforcement cases.

(a) Any person who is not a citizen of the United States may provide either a social security number or an alien registration number issued by the United States Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services.

(b) Any person who is not a citizen of the United States and who has not been issued a social security number or an alien registration number is encouraged to provide another form of identification.

This subsection does not prohibit a county court judge or clerk of the circuit court from issuing a marriage license to individuals who are not citizens of the United States if one or both of them are unable to provide a social security number, an alien registration number, or another identification number.

(4) A county court judge or clerk of the circuit court may not issue a license for the marriage of any person unless the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court is first presented with both of the following:

(a) A written statement, signed by both parties, which specifies whether the parties, individually or together, have completed a premarital preparation course.

(b) A written statement that verifies that both parties have obtained and read or otherwise accessed the information contained in the handbook or other electronic media presentation of the rights and responsibilities of parties to a marriage specified in s. 741.0306.

(5) If a couple does not submit to the clerk of the circuit court valid certificates of completion of a premarital preparation course, the clerk shall delay the effective date of the marriage license by 3 days from the date of application, and the effective date must be printed on the marriage license in bold type. If a couple submits valid certificates of completion of a premarital preparation course, the effective date of the marriage license may not be delayed. The clerk shall grant exceptions to the delayed effective date requirement to non-Florida residents and to couples asserting hardship. Marriage license fee waivers are available to all eligible couples. A county court judge issuing a marriage license may waive the delayed effective date requirement for Florida residents who demonstrate good cause.
