PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Dr. Evon Horton, Senior Pastor, Brownsville Assembly of God, Pensacola:

O Lord, on this day of the session for the Senate of the State of Florida, I ask for your mercy and grace. We are still in great need of your help and divine intervention. I thank you, O Lord, for your protection over our schools. Especially, O Lord, bring safety to our children and teachers, and watch over them. I pray you station your mighty angels in the hallways, in the classrooms, and the lunchrooms. I pray you give them mighty swords to protect our children and teachers in the gymnasiums and the playgrounds. I thank you now for the safety over our children and in our Florida schools.

I also pray for protection for our Senators, our Congressmen, and our Governor. I pray for you to watch over our judicial system and law enforcement officers. I pray specifically for communities that are struggling, such as Brownsville, who need the help of our brothers and sisters across this state. I know, Lord, there are other needy communities, but I pray we continue to watch for each other, care for each other, and have godly compassion for each other.

I thank you, Lord, for the privilege of residing in this great nation and the great State of Florida. We don't take it for granted and pray for your continued blessings upon each one of us. I pray for the legislators and staff here in our Capitol, that you will continue to direct and guide them to make a difference with the authority, responsibility, and power they have within their hands. I pray, Lord, as we approach Passover and Easter, we will realize you are our God and creator and we come to worship our king.

I thank you, Lord, for the relationship I have with my king. I am thankful, O Lord, for my mentor, Dr. Samuel H. Proctor, an African-American who mentored Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Sam Proctor taught me to understand my king, and preached that God was in his heart, his life, and was a fire shut up in his bones. We all need to understand who our king is. The Bible says, "You are the king of kings and the Lord of lords, king of the ages, and king of heaven, you are the king of glory." You are my king.

The Bible says, "The heavens declare the glory of God." The earth shows your handiwork; you are enduringly strong, entirely sincere, immortally graceful, imperially powerful, impartially merciful. You are my king—you are unique, unparalleled, and unprecedented—the loftiest idea in literature, highest personality in philosophy. You are able to supply all my needs, supply strength for the weak, guard and guide, heal the sick, forgive the sinner, deliver the captives, and defend the feeble. You are my king.

I wish I could describe you, O God, to everyone here today, but you are indescribable, incomprehensible, invincible, and irresistible. We cannot explain what a great and wonderful God you are, my king. You are the wellspring of wisdom, the doorway of deliverance, the pathway of peace, the roadway of righteousness, the highway of holiness, the gateway of glory, captain of the conquerors, head of the heroes, leader of the legislators, governor of the governors, prince of the princes, king of kings, and Lord of lords. But Lord, I ask—I pray—that everyone here would know you because you are my king. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. When we are done with all the forevers, then I ask this in Jesus' name, my king. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Shannon Harner of Pinellas Park; Ethan Nunn of Valrico; and Holden Margheim of DeBary, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

DOCTOR OF THE DAY

The President recognized Dr. Michael Forsthoefel of Tallahassee, sponsored by Senator Montford, as the doctor of the day. Dr. Forsthoefel specializes in internal medicine.

THE PRESIDENT PRESIDING

SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF SENATOR GRIMSLEY

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

A video tribute was played honoring Senator Grimsley.

REMARKS

On motion by Senator Braynon, by two-thirds vote, the following remarks were ordered spread upon the Journal:

Senator Mayfield: Thank you, Mr. President. Denise and I were just sharing earlier some fond memories of her in the House. You know, when I decided I was going to run for the House, one of the things my late husband, Stan Mayfield, said to me was, “When you get to the House, make sure you follow the lead of Representative Grimsley. She is a lady; she is very respectful, and she loves the process. You can never go wrong if you just follow her lead.” Denise, thank you for being such a great friend to my husband at the time, especially during his last two years up here. You have truly been a friend, you truly are a lady, and you truly love this process. I really wish you a lot of luck in your next endeavor in life. Thank you very much.

Senator Stargel: Thank you, Mr. President. I wasn’t as close to Denise when we were serving in the House. I don’t know why; we’ve been in the same delegation for a while. When we came over to the Senate and watching her in the House, and the way she always handled everything, I guess, in a way, intimidated me. She always had such grace, but yet such power. Seeing that personality about you is something I’ve admired, because, as I’ve told some of the people, I tend to be emotional, freaking out, and yelling, and you were always calm, cool, and collected. Yet, you got what you needed to get done. You did it effectively, efficiently, and I’m looking to be more like you in the future, maybe someday soon. But, anyhow, you do a good job.

Also having her in the delegation, I always used to rely on Denise for everything health care, and she would always come to me on everything education. Every time there was a health care issue, I’d talk to her, and this year, we had this flip-flop where I’m working in health care and she is working in education. So, we had a lot more conversations over these last couple of years. I compare everything I do in health care to education, and I think she might have been comparing the things she was learning in education based on her knowledge of health care.

It has been nice to have a friend like you, someone who I can share things with at home and up here; someone who’s been through this process and has done it very efficiently. Like I said, to be the Appropriations Chair in the House and to watch how you maneuvered and how you negotiated with a very powerful partner on the side, and how you handled that back home, was something to be admired. I’m looking forward to working with you in the future.

Senator Gibson: Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Grimsley and I have been very good friends from the very beginning. She’s a true consensus builder and that’s something that’s sometimes missing in this process. I’ve never seen her vehemently upset about anything. When you saw her kneeling in those pictures, I think about the fact that she’s kneeling because she’s trying to get to a certain place in what she’s trying to do.

I think that our bond really came together because she’s a nurse. Nurses are very caring people. I know, because I was raised by one. So when that happens, it transfers into what she tries to do for her district, or what she has done for her district, and for the people of the State of Florida. Even if we couldn’t necessarily fully agree about something—as you saw the kneeling—she’s working it out. She’s always been that way.

I’m extremely appreciative of our friendship that had nothing to do with legislation; it had nothing to do with whether we supported certain issues; it had everything to do with who she is and wanting to have friendship, over anything else, to get things done both in the House and the Senate. You know darn well I’m going to miss you very, very much. I wish you much success.

Senator Galvano: Thank you, Mr. President. I first met Senator Grimsley when she was a candidate for the Florida House. I met her and I felt like she had everything it took to be a good member of the House. When she exceeded what I had perceived, I decided to help her. Through my campaign, I had gone to great lengths to have these massive sign frames built. We had carpenters all up and down the street, and my neighbors were calling the homeowners’ association and all this stuff. I said, “Denise, I have a way I can help you. I have all of these sign frames, would you like them?” She said, “Sure.” I got a whole crew to bring them up but I said, “I want them back. We put a lot of work into them, and we want them back eventually.” No sooner had I delivered them and she got them up and, what was it, Hurricane Andrew, came through? She calls me and she is like, “Hey, I don’t think you are getting your sign frames back. I think they are still strewn all over the heartland at this point.”

But when she came to the Senate, and I became Majority Leader, President Gardiner asked me, “Who do you want to have as your Deputy Majority Leader?” It was so easy for me to say, “I would like Denise Grimsley to fulfill that job.” Just as it was described, her demeanor and her focus, you see her going quietly but forcefully around the chamber and doing what she needs to do to make sure that not just her goals get achieved, but everybody gets their voices heard with her help. That meant a lot to me and she excelled in that position.

I really got to know her when we got redistricting, or right before redistricting when the first redistricting of—I think of 2008—but the one where I picked up a big chunk of her old district. You get to know how someone is loved when you start interacting with the people they represent. I still remember going into a town hall meeting in Moore Haven, and I walked in and they are all looking at me and I am like, “Hey I’m Bill, your Senator.” One guy is like, “Where is Denise?” That happened in Hardee County, in Highlands County, and in DeSoto County. Everywhere I went, it was like, “That is good, we hear you, but what does Denise think about this?” I was like, “Look, she doesn’t represent you anymore, okay?” It is so evident how much you are loved back home and continue to be loved in this chamber. I know, personally, I am going to miss you very, very much.

Senator Rouson: Thank you very much, Mr. President. Senator Grimsley, I recall building a relationship with you just prior to you being Appropriations Chair in the House. I remember feeling really fortunate when you became Appropriations Chair. You helped me along the process, you made me feel welcome in the suite, and I really learned to walk the suite while you were Chair.

The good news was that we shared ideas; we shared passions. With your medical background, you helped with mental health and substance abuse issues. You fought as hard for some of them as I did when I brought them to you. I want to thank you for that. You taught me calmness; you taught me demeanor. People don’t know the reason I wear these boots is because I feel like kicking doors in when the doors are closed. You showed me there’s a way that you can walk in and get more when the door opens than by kicking in the door. I want to thank you for the lessons, thank you for the shared passion, and thank you for serving.

President Negron: I would like to make a few comments before we recognize Senator Grimsley. As I was thinking about this for the last several days, I started rewinding through memories and experiences. We had a chance to serve together in the House and then also here in the Senate. Three things came to mind: One, I think you are a person of class and grace. Two, you are someone who developed an extraordinary budget expertise. The budget is a lot of detail and there are technical parts of the budget that require a certain level of proficiency to be able to navigate through. When I think of you, and see you, I think of somebody who learned the health and human services budget first. It is the most complex part of the budget, in my view. Then, of course, becoming the full Appropriations Chair in the House, which shows how well you did in the responsibilities that you had before you received that position. The final thing is the pride and commitment that you have being a nurse—to appreciating and respecting the nursing profession, looking out for their interests, and making sure that this body understood.

When you were in the House, you understood how important nurses are to the delivery of medicine. They are a critical part of the medical team. Frequently, in hospitals and other environments, a patient may only see a nurse and may not even see a doctor. The doctor may be doing things behind the scenes. Those are the three things. So when we were thinking about what legislation would be part of your legislative legacy, including obviously a lot of budget issues that you worked on, I chose HB 1209 that you passed in 2009. It was really a comprehensive reorganization of the nursing profession and makes things go more smoothly for people trying to get into the profession. It was a multiyear effort and, to me, you left the nursing profession stronger and more respected than when you found it.

Senator Grimsley: Thank you, Mr. President and President Designate Galvano. It is hard to believe that it has been 14 years. I came in with Senator Flores and Senator Hukill. I think we are the only ones left that came in 2004. In the video that you saw, the pictures outside are from the farm and the ranch where I grew up and still live there today. I came in thinking I was going to change the world and I was going to get rid of all of the bureaucracy. I had been running our family's business for 10 years and dealing with regulatory agencies. I came in planning to get rid of all of the bureaucracy. It didn't happen as fast as I thought it would happen. I thought I was going to come in and cure citrus canker; that didn't happen. But I learned to respect the process. Mr. President, you were instrumental in that because you were the Budget Chair when I came in. As a freshman member of either body, you come in, you don't know anything, and you have to try to depend on others to help you get through it and find your way. I will say that you showed me such grace and kindness. Many people in the process will jerk new members around. You never did that; you were always very upfront and honest—"I can do this" or "I can't do that"—and you taught me about the budget process. Thank you for everything that you have done for me. I have been honored to serve under you as President. Thank you very much.

I worked on a lot of things since I have been here, mostly health care related or agriculture oriented, because those are my two passions and the nursing bill that you talked about. What I discovered pretty quickly is that there were many people who were turned away from being admitted to nursing schools. We realized pretty quickly that there was a lot of bureaucracy within the Department of Health and within the Board of Nursing. So, I want to recognize a lady that is in the gallery today, Martha DeCastro. She is the Vice President of Nursing for the Florida Hospital Association, and I didn't know her coming into the process. I met her and we started talking about what we have to do to fix these nursing schools. It was five years, maybe, the process of actually getting it done. The Board of Nursing, I will tell you, is better today. They are doing what they should be doing, and I couldn't be prouder of them. I wouldn't have been able to do it without Martha's expertise.

I want to thank a few people. I want to talk about my family back home. My parents, who you saw in the video, my dad is 80 years old. He just had his birthday in January. They taught me the value of hard work; how to treat people with respect; and they taught me about the love of Jesus, how to transmit that to people, and how to be kind. All of those pictures you saw where I was kneeling, I could have been begging. I don't really know what I was doing. But I think it was Senator Gibson who said it best. You have to meet people in this process or outside in the world. You have to meet people where they are, and you have to be able to build consensus. I have never looked at members as Republicans or Democrats. I think we are Americans and we are Floridians. We are here to do a job for the people that we represent. When partisan politics interfere with that, it creates a division and many times, we just don't get things done. I watched my parents sit around the dining room table when I was growing up, trying to figure out how to get enough money to make their business run; how to get enough money to buy that other grove; how to get enough money to buy that other convenience store. I didn't quite understand it as a kid, but I learned to appreciate it as an adult. Senator Baxley has a tie to my family. His dad actually married my parents. When they had their 50th wedding anniversary, he was able to come down and help them renew their vows. It was pretty special. You never know who you are going to meet in this process.

My daughter is a fourth grade school teacher. She is an amazing teacher, and I am so proud of her. The two children are my grandchildren, Tyson and Julian, who I pray for every day. I don't just pray for them because they are my grandchildren. I pray for them and their future. I pray for their future spouses because I know that God has a plan for all of our lives. We don't always know what that is, and he takes us—I said I would never run for the legislature; I said I would never run for office—we don't always know where he is sending us. We just have to be open to what he has in store for us.

I want to also talk about my district staff. Andrea Jahna is back home. She just left the legislative office to run my campaign, but she is the same age as my daughter, grew up with my daughter, and stayed at my house a lot when they were growing up. I am so proud of her. She has amazing organizational skills. Anne Bell is with me, over on the wall this morning from Fort Meade. Anne has been with us four years now, I believe. Anne, when someone asks me who they need to call in my office, I say, "Well, call and ask for the bulldog." She is the bulldog. If you have an issue with a state agency—you know, I talked about children earlier this week—especially if it has to do with the Department of Children and Families, she is your girl because she will get it done. She will stop at nothing. Jae Williams is back in the district in Punta Gorda. Jae was with us probably a year before I ever met her. She does an amazing job representing us in Charlotte County. Larry Ford was with Senator Alexander before me, and Judge Lorente before that. He was with us for many, many years and just retired last year. He was an instrumental part of our team. Hilary Holley was also a legislative aide here in the building for a while. Kim Hamilton, who represented us in Collier, Hendry, and Glades Counties, is now a legislative assistant over in the House. Maura Palmer is back home in Representative Pigman's office now. Maura was my store supervisor, oversaw our 10 convenience stores, and when we sold our business, she said, "Well I may as well go with you," and she stayed. Very proud of her as well. Marty Mielke, who has been with me for 14 years, was with Representative Spratt before that and Representative Bert Harris. I joked with her when I left the House of Representatives that I had been in her training programs for eight years. Now I have been there for 14 years, and she is still bailing me out. I still don't know what dates we have to file our bills; I don't know any of that stuff. She does it, and somebody will ask me, and I will say, "I don't know. You have to ask Marty." Marty, you have been a real good friend, and I don't know where we are going from here, but we are going somewhere.

I also want to thank Allen Brown, who I had the opportunity to work with quite a bit on health care issues. I want to recognize my other legislative staff. Allen has been instrumental helping get bills like HB 1209 passed, and multiple other things. Allen, thank you. Katherine Becker is the staff director for Agriculture Committee this year. I have enjoyed working with her very much. Diana Caldwell—I have chaired the Energy Committee for a year—and she is an amazing lady. She inspired me not just on the legislative side, but you know I am a runner, and she is a runner. She is much better than I am so she inspired me to stay healthy. Katie and Gino Betta, I don't know where you guys are, but Gino was my staff director in Appropriations. Katie was with me in the House and now here in the Senate. They are an amazing couple, and they do an amazing job for the people of Florida.

Joe Spratt, who is not here today, was a State Representative before me. I took his seat, and we joke about him. He is here. We joke that he is the honorary staff member in our office. You know, I ran for a seat that I didn't think I could win. Senator Galvano, just like you going into somebody else's district, I would knock on the door and they would say, "Are you running against Joe Spratt? Well, what does Joe Spratt think about you?" So, I know how you felt going in there. And Senator Alexander back home. I took his seat in the Senate. We were first grade classmates together. We were Appropriations Chairmen together, and we joked about if our first grade teacher was still alive, she would say, "I don't even know how this happened." I also want to say, Madam Secretary, your staff, and the Sergeant's staff as well.

I just want to close by saying what an incredible honor it has been to be both a Representative and a Senator. It is time for me to go home, and I am ready. I am ready to see those grandkids, but if I could leave you with one thing, that is Luke 6:31. If you use that, essentially, it says treat other people like you want to be treated. If you do that, you are successful, whether it is in this process or not. The other thing to remember is to always remember where you came from. Those people brought you to the dance, that is who you go to the grocery store with, and that is who you see when you go home. I am ready to come back to District 26. Thank you, Mr. President.

By direction of the President, the rules were waived and the Senate proceeded to—

SENATOR BENACQUISTO PRESIDING

THE PRESIDENT PRESIDING

SENATOR FLORES PRESIDING

SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF PRESIDENT NEGRON

SPECIAL GUESTS

Senator Flores introduced the President’s wife, Rebecca Negron, who was present in the chamber.

REMARKS

On motion by Senator Braynon, by two-thirds vote, the following remarks were ordered spread upon the Journal:

Senator Flores: Thank you, Mr. President. You still put me in charge up here so I can say whatever I want, but I won’t. You all know that the President is an incredibly private and very shy person. No one knows this better than his amazing and wonderful bride and wife. Thank you for being here, Rebecca. I’d like to introduce the First Lady of the Senate, Rebecca Negron. You couldn’t get away with no one saying anything, so a couple of people are going to say a few things. President Designate Galvano, who has been President Negron’s roommate for several years, wanted to share some thoughts today.

Senator Galvano: Thank you, Madam President. I first met President Negron at a truck stop off I-75; it wasn’t fortuitous, it was actually planned, and I know he remembers this. He had reached out and he wanted to give me some dollars that he had raised. In President Negron fashion, he was so matter-of-fact about it. He was like, “Be at this truck stop at exactly 2:13 p.m. on Tuesday.” I think we literally had cars that came up next to each other, and he handed me some checks and moved on. That began a friendship that has lasted for many, many years.

As I had gone into my second term in the House, one of his two roommates was leaving, so President Negron invited me to come in and be his roommate. I knew he was conservative at the time, but when I saw the place where they lived, I realized just how conservative he was and is—well, was, because he has changed a little bit. Mr. President, do you remember this place? I thought you were crazy. I literally did. I mean, not to belabor the point, but I literally went into this place and it is supposedly furnished. I opened the top drawer of my dresser to put change in and it starts bouncing all the way down because there is a hole in the drawer. I opened the second drawer and there are clothes in it. I went out into the main area of the place and I called President Negron and Mark Mahon. I am like, “Guys, what is this place? There are literally clothes in the dresser of the place you have chosen.” I mean not to mention the smells, the other aesthetics of the place, and now Judge Mahon goes, “If you think that is bad, go look in that closet down the hall.” So we go down the hall, look in the closet, and there is a whole wardrobe, shoes and everything. I was like, “Whose are they?” I remember Mahon said, “Look at the size of those shoes. Whoever they belong to, when he comes back, he is going to find it just as he left it.” That was when I decided from then on, I would be the one who chose the place where we lived. There were some issues that I won’t get into on a couple of other places, including a time we were very close to eviction, some other law enforcement issues in the front yard, and things of that nature. I will share those later with you privately. I can honestly tell you—and this is an important aspect—when we got into the second year, or third, he became the Appropriations Chair. Geography is everything in this business. I became very popular, very fast, because I was rooming with the Appropriations Chair. Those were the good old days, and that is when I could slip an appropriation under his door before going to bed at night and, somehow, it would end up in the budget. That doesn’t happen anymore. In fact, the opposite happens.

I found President Negron to be one of the hardest working public servants that I have ever interacted with. In the House and in the Senate, I have watched his work ethic and his dedication. When you room with somebody, you get to know how they are in the morning, what they are studying, and where they are going. He works so hard for all of you. He works so hard for his constituents back home. As President of the Senate, he works very hard for the people of Florida. I also know he takes it seriously to be fair. If I had to use a word to describe him in any situation, it's, "How can I be the most fair? What is the most balanced? What have we learned in the past about addressing this issue and how do we do it in the absolute right way?" He is never quick to cut off an opposing argument; oftentimes, he will not even make up his mind until he has heard from all sides. He will say, "Wait, let me get a pad. Let me get a pen. I want to hear this again." He will take notes, he will go back, and he will look at it. To me, that is the mark of a true public servant. Someone who wants to make sure the decisions that he or she is making are fair, balanced, well researched, and have the best possible outcome for those they affect. I have learned from that, I truly have, in the time that we have spent together.

The other thing I know is that he listens and he keeps track of what is important to other people. He will do it in, sometimes, quirky ways on little pieces of paper and things of that nature, but if you tell him something, if you raise something with him, it doesn't go in one ear and out the other. If it is important to you and the people you represent, he remembers it and tries his best to make it come to fruition. That was true in the Florida House, and that was true here. Those types of qualities are what build trust. That is why presiding officers have trusted him to be an Appropriations Chair in the House, and Appropriations Chair in the Florida Senate, to be in leadership roles really every session and year that he has served in the process. You have to have trust not only from the presiding officer, but from the people that you will be working with so that there is a comfort level that this is a person who will do the right thing.

The most important, or maybe equally important thing that I have learned from him is that you have to have vision. This man will lay out his vision, and we have heard it. We have heard it from here; we have heard it privately; whether it is the big issues or the small issues, he will tell you what he wants to achieve and find a road map to get there. He always knows that working with us, some of us, all of us, whoever, we are moving in a direction to accomplish something. While it is his vision, he is always open to new ideas to make it better and to make it run more smoothly. Because of that, he has been extremely successful during his presidency. He will leave the presidency having changed so much in the state from education, to the environment, to criminal justice, and so many other areas. I will continue to learn from you, admire you, and I am really proud to be your friend and your roommate.

Senator Braynon: Thank you, Senate President. You know, we have had a very good relationship as President and—you always call me Democratic Leader—but let's be honest, I'm the Minority Leader. But you know, the fact that you call me Democratic Leader has always made me realize that I'm not the minority. I'm just a leader of a group of people. You respect that, and you've always shown me that respect. You've never been someone that's said, "Well, you know, you have 15 or 16 and I have this many, so therefore, take it." You've always treated me as a leader and that's why you always refer to me as leader even though I am very informal. I'll say "Joe" and things like that; you keep referring to me as Leader.

I have learned a lot from you. I always prided myself on being a good personal communicator. If I stood in front of someone, I believed I could explain to them what I meant, and they would get it as if I'm talking to them all the time. You have taught me that I'm not as good as I thought. The perfect example is I have a tendency to say, "You know what I'm saying? You know what I mean?" You were probably one of the only people that would say, "No, I don't know what you mean. I don't know what you're saying." And I was like, "Is he kidding? Does he not know?" So I do a new thing that I learned from him, which is, he keeps lists; he writes everything down. So before I would meet with him, I would write down what I mean, what I'm saying, therefore, I could go through it list by list and point by point. I'd look him in the face and then I would say, "Do you know what I mean?" He would say "yes" or "no" and then I would say, "All right, we will go back to that point and we'll go over it again." It was very formal, but it taught me to be an even better communicator. For a while there, I was thinking he knew exactly what I meant and it wouldn't happen. Then I would say, "Hey man, I said such and such," and he's like, "That's not exactly what you said," because he takes everything so literally. I got a lot better at that and I appreciate that.

This is a story that Chris Smith told me. He said, "The difference between the Minority Leader in the House and the Minority Leader in the Senate is, in the House, you are fighting against leadership; in the Senate, you are part of leadership." You've always kept me informed. I felt like a part of your leadership team, and I know that's not always the case when I've been here. I felt like somebody that was able to help you with your priorities as you've helped me with my priorities. I felt like we've been able to run the chamber, and I've helped you as much as you've helped me. I've really appreciated your leadership, when necessary, and I appreciate your trust in me to be able to deliver and help you on things. I couldn't have asked for another member, a better member, to be the Yin to my Yang when I was Minority Leader. Let me tell you, I really like Andy; I mean, I even made angry faces for him. But I really, really appreciate what you've done, and I really wish you all the best, even though I don't know if you're leaving or not. But I hope that's a picture of just you and there is no picture of me behind you.

Senator Benacquisto: This may go down as one of the hardest things I do. The first time I met Joe Negron was not at a truck stop, but it was a diner. He has this recurring theme—he likes cheap restaurants in his life. It comes from his humble upbringing. I sit down at the table. I do not know him at all. I do not know anything about him. I was just instructed to meet with him because I was going to be a candidate for the Florida Senate. He walks in, he's very nice, and I sit down. I'm nervous, as you could imagine, because I don't really know anything about this. He starts arranging the knife and fork, and rearranging the knife and fork, and arranging the napkin, and rearranging the plate. I thought, "Holy mackerel, who is this guy? How is he going to help me? He can't even keep the plate straight on the table." It was so instructive as to who he is. We had a great meeting, he helped me, and I came to the Florida Senate.

Here's what makes it so hard today, because I said—when I was speaking of Senator Garcia—that I didn't know anything about this process. But you made me feel like I belonged. Other people said, "You're going to flame out. You don't know what you're doing. You'll trip and fall within your first week. You'll be an embarrassment." People actually said those things. But there's my trusty friend, Joe, to say, "Keep your chin up. You belong here. The people of your community had faith in you. We all have faith in you."

So, as a result of that friendship, you always stuck up for me when it was time for the next presiding officer to say, "Who should we place where?" That meant a lot because having to prove yourself from zero right at the beginning, for people to have the faith in all of us, to give us the opportunities that you've given us, that they gave us, allowed us to prove that we really did belong. We did have value. That, to me, meant the world.

It has been a crazy couple of years. We've taken bus rides to tour universities, and those are some of the most treasured memories that we'll have as a group. We've had so many, "I can't believe that just happened!" moments that are not fit for sharing here in the chamber today. I have three brothers that I love and cherish, but you have become number four. That is so important and wonderful.

I did get a hall pass from Mrs. Negron to say the following. I wouldn't do it otherwise, but she did give me permission. When it comes right down to it, you put everyone else in front of you. In the moments that it mattered most, where we had been here for 60 days fighting for the things that were important to us, you put us, all of us, before you. That rarely happens, but we are eternally grateful for that.

This year, we spent our time pushing you forward, making sure you got what you needed. I know everyone in this chamber is so glad to have done that. When that action happens and you're totally happy, it is something we're all very grateful to have been a part of making happen for you. This is not goodbye, because you're not going anywhere. I don't care what the paper said. Whatever you decide to do, you have a family here in addition to the wonderful family you have at home waiting for you. You have a family of people here who just think you're really cool, sometimes funny, really important in your focus for what's important and right. Thank you for always giving to each of us everything you have to make us successful. We very much appreciate you.

Senator Flores: I just wanted to say a couple of things. Senator Grimsley, today when she spoke, she talked about how we all start this process coming in here saying, "We're going to change the world. These are the things we're going to do. We're going to eliminate the bureaucracy—we're going to do this; we're going to do that." Early on, we realize that we can't. You've heard me say before that while we can't change the whole world, every now and then, we can change the world for a person. Cumulatively, over the years, you look back and you say, "Wow, maybe I did kind of change the world."

I just want to focus on a couple of quick things that President Negron has focused on, not because a lobbyist asked, not because a special interest asked. Most of the time, in spite of the lobbyist and in spite of the special interest, things in Florida will be drastically different and will be a better place because of President Negron. You hear him talk about the men and women who shaped our community—origination credit to Senator Benacquisto for that phrase—but these are our frail and elderly Floridians, the people who made us who we are that are in nursing homes. A couple of years ago, he was preparing for what he would focus on. He said, "You know, I think that we'd really like to provide more money for nursing homes to be able to really focus on quality of care." So he started this session saying he wanted to put in an extra $50 million for nursing homes. After that, he asked me to be in Health and Human Services Appropriations. I said, "Okay, well, I don't know where we're going to find the money for that, but we'll figure out a way." Many times over the last week, we did not think that could happen. Many times over the last couple of days, the President turned to a couple of folks and said, "Don't worry about getting it to 50. Let's make it less. Let's take care of some other things." We said, "No. This is what you said you were going to do, and this is what we're going to do." For those men and women who shape our community, you made their lives better.

Then, he had this idea to make our universities destination universities, a place where people from across the country would want to come for our universities. He said, "Let's get on a bus and let's go visit all 12 state universities." We said, "Okay." When we went to the state universities—again, we didn't meet with the donors, the board of trustees, the lobbyists—we met with the students, and in many of the universities, they would bring us the best students. He said, "No, I want to just go through the student union. I want to go sit around and just talk to people and listen to what they say, listen to their ideas." The ideas that we've passed in Senate Bill 4, the ideas that we've passed on the floor, came from those very students, and our universities will be infinitely better because of that.

Then lastly, his focus on the environment. When President Negron said that he wanted to end the discharges that were coming from Lake Okeechobee—that he didn't want to see the guacamole water anymore—we all said, "Okay, let's see how that goes." He put together the very ambitious plan, a plan that nobody ever thought was going to happen. Many times, the plan was dared that it wouldn't even get a hearing in a committee, much less pass and become law and get signed by the Governor. It did; it happened, and it is 100 percent because of your tenacity.

With that, I'm going to present to you a man who will choose Chick-fil-A over a 5-star restaurant every single time. He'll choose Pepperidge Farm cakes over any fancy sweets every time. He is someone who is a true public servant and beyond loyal, and every single time, will look to somebody else's interests before his own. Our President, Joe Negron.

President Negron, we had to make room for a new portrait, so we had to retire a past Senate President, President Calkins. President Negron, I know you want to make some comments about President Calkins.

RETIRING OF PORTRAIT

President Negron: Thank you very much. Yes, I did want to talk about him because it's amazing how many similarities there are between his work and our work. He was President of the Senate in 1919, and served in the Senate from 1910-1921. He was a lawyer from Fernandina and Mayor of Fernandina. At the time he came to the Senate, and was Senate President, World War I had just been completed. Since we're a little informal here, does anyone want to guess what the population of Florida was in 1920? Over 962,000, so we had less than a million residents in Florida at that time. So they had their own version of a "Visit Florida" fight. The Governor always won the "Visit Florida" fights back then, and even today. We've always been with the Governor on that issue, for the record. An enormous issue that legislative session was that the President came forward with an idea. He said, "We need to start advertising Florida to the north and to the west." That's what they did. They started doing all the forms of advertising back then to have visitors and residents to move to Florida, and went from 962,000 to almost 21 million today. That was one of his accomplishments. Secondly, I'm not making this up; literally, there were many tens of thousands of returning soldiers and sailors that were coming back from World War I. He had an enormous emphasis on our universities and said that we want the soldiers and sailors that are coming back to Florida, that are residents, to be able to get a higher education. After his time of service in the Senate, he left Fernandina, and he moved to Miami. He practiced law in Miami until his death. That's a little bit about President James Calkins, President of the Senate in 1919.

UNVEILING OF PORTRAIT

Senator Flores invited President Negron and his wife, Rebecca, to the front of the chamber where the President's portrait was unveiled by Sergeant at Arms Tim Hay. The portrait was created by artist Steve Childs of Leon Loard Commission Portraits.

THE PRESIDENT PRESIDING

ADDRESS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Negron: Well, thank you all very much. We have a lot of work to get done so I'm going to be brief. I'm not the most sentimental person in the world, but I did have a couple of things I wanted to mention. First, thanks to all of you. Obviously, serving as a presiding officer here in the Senate has been the honor of a lifetime, and I want to thank all of you for the opportunity for that to happen. You know, we're all affected by and formed by, I think primarily, how we grew up. By the time you're about 40 years old, you're just sort of a larger, more anxious version of what you were as a teenager in high school. So my growing up—I'm the oldest of seven boys—I never had aspired to be the center of attention and why should I be? I'm surrounded by strong, capable leaders that are here. All of you, I've met with to talk about things you wanted to try to accomplish. Self-promotion and attention-seeking were behaviors that were strongly discouraged in our household growing up. That helps explain why I want to get things done and I want to work hard, but I've never been the kind of person that thinks that people ought to make a big ado when I come walking into the room.

I want to thank a few people, a few of my colleagues who have been there every step of the way. Senator Flores—you will never find a fiercer jersey-wearer than Senator Flores. Senator Flores, thank you. Senator Benacquisto, the Rules Chair, has been unfailingly loyal from day one and has provided me with very wise counsel through all these years. Senator Galvano, who has said we roomed together for many years—he has what I call the "Galvano Swagger." I don't have that. I make up for that by writing things down in the budget notebook and then it actually gets done, and he does the same. But we all have our different talents. There are some similarities—my leadership race took three and a half years; his took three and a half weeks. I used to joke that I would just want to walk behind him and the pledge cards that fell out of his pocket, I could kind of pick up.

Speaker, thank you for your courtesy in coming over—it's very gracious of you. Congratulations on all the accomplishments that you had in K-12 education and empowering parents through the educators, letting them make decisions that they feel are best for their children. I have been happy to be part of making that happen, and I know you have been an incredible partner in sharing the vision I have for higher education. Thank you for your courtesy in coming by today.

Senator Bradley didn't know what he was getting into, but he took on Senate Bill 10 last session, and I appreciate you getting that bill across the finish line and signed into law by Governor Scott. Leader Braynon mentioned this, but he's done an admirable job serving his caucus, but has also worked with me as a partner to accomplish many things. I appreciate that, Leader Braynon. The last Senator I'll mention is the Majority Leader of the Senate, Senator Simpson. Senator Simpson has never lost a floor vote that I've needed in two years. Now, we have a few hours left, so let's see if we can keep that streak alive. He's all performance and all making it happen, so thank you for everything that you've done.

I'll be very abbreviated in this, but I just want to mention, as Senator Flores already did, thank you for the work that we've been able to do with Lake Okeechobee. I think it's going to make enormous differences in our communities—not just east of the lake—but also west of the lake, and to southwest Florida. I'm so proud that the project has been improved, it's being implemented, and our federal partners are on board. Someday we'll look back and say, "We've made a big difference there." That means a lot, so thank you.

As I've said, my focus on universities isn't about bragging rights. It's about the transformational power of education and opportunity. That's why I care about universities.

Senator Flores touched on it, but I'll try to get through this, because this is a little emotional. If I can't get through it, just remember what she said about nursing homes. Many of you have probably been to nursing homes. I've been to a lot of nursing homes. I enjoy going to nursing homes. When you go to a nursing home—and they know you're coming—the women that greet you, this is the highlight of their day. They wear their best dress. They're frequently in a wheelchair. Senator Benacquisto does get origination credit for the line, "These are the women who shaped our communities." They'll talk to you about what they've done. Many of them worked in factories during World War II making munitions and making sure we won the war. There's a certain elegance and dignity that they have, and so I've always felt an obligation to be on their side. I've done my best to keep my word, to honor my commitments, to fight relentlessly for all your budget priorities, and with that, I'm content. Thank you all.

—was taken up out of order and read the second time by title.

Senators Book and Benacquisto offered the following amendment which was moved by Senator Book and adopted:

Amendment 1 (479972) (with title amendment)—Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Present paragraphs (a) through (g) of subsection (2) of section 11.045, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as paragraphs (b) through (h), respectively, a new paragraph (a) is added to that subsection, and subsection (8) of that section is amended, to read:

11.045 Lobbying before the Legislature; registration and reporting; exemptions; penalties.—

(2) Each house of the Legislature shall provide by rule, or may provide by a joint rule adopted by both houses, for the registration of lobbyists who lobby the Legislature. The rule may provide for the payment of a registration fee. The rule may provide for exemptions from registration or registration fees. The rule shall provide that:

(a) Each lobbyist shall certify, upon registration, that he or she has read the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees in part III of chapter 112, and that he or she has read the rules governing conduct of members of the Legislature and legislative lobbyists.

(8)(a) Any person required to be registered or to provide information pursuant to this section or pursuant to rules established in conformity with this section who knowingly fails to disclose any material fact required by this section or by rules established in conformity with this section, or who knowingly provides false information on any report required by this section or by rules established in conformity with this section, commits a noncriminal infraction, punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000. Such penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty assessed by a house of the Legislature pursuant to subsection (7).

(b) The President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House of Representatives may suspend or revoke the registration of any person who is required to register as a lobbyist under this section who violates applicable rules prohibiting workplace harassment, including sexual harassment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all owners or drivers of commercial motor vehicles that are engaged in intrastate commerce are subject to the rules and regulations contained in 49 C.F.R. parts 382, 383, 385, and 390-397, ~~with the exception of 49 C.F.R. s. 390.5 as it relates to the definition of bus~~, as such rules and regulations existed on December 31, 2017 ~~2012~~.

(c) The emergency exceptions provided by 49 C.F.R. s. 392.82 also apply to communications by utility drivers and utility contractor drivers during a Level 1 activation of the State Emergency Operations Center, as provided in the Florida Comprehensive Emergency Management plan, or during a state of emergency declared by executive order or proclamation of the Governor.

(d) Except as provided in ~~s. 316.215(5), and except as provided in s.~~ 316.228 for rear overhang lighting and flagging requirements for intrastate operations, the requirements of this section supersede all other safety requirements of this chapter for commercial motor vehicles.

(e) For motor carriers engaged in intrastate commerce who are not carrying hazardous materials in amounts that require placards, the requirement for electronic logging devices and hours of service support documents shall take effect December 31, 2018.

(2)(a) A person who operates a commercial motor vehicle solely in intrastate commerce not transporting any hazardous material in amounts that require placarding pursuant to 49 C.F.R. part 172 need not comply with 49 C.F.R. ss. 391.11(b)(1) and ~~395.3 395.3(a) and (b)~~.

Section 14. Subsections (3) and (4) of section 316.515, Florida Statutes, are amended, and subsection (16) is added to that section, to read:

316.515 Maximum width, height, length.—

(3) LENGTH LIMITATION.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, length limitations apply solely to a semitrailer or trailer, and not to a truck tractor or to the overall length of a combination of vehicles. No combination of commercial motor vehicles coupled together and operating on the public roads may consist of more than one truck tractor and two trailing units. Unless otherwise specifically provided for in this section, a combination of vehicles not qualifying as commercial motor vehicles may consist of no more than two units coupled together; such nonqualifying combination of vehicles may not exceed a total length of 65 feet, inclusive of the load carried thereon, but exclusive of safety and energy conservation devices approved by the department for use on vehicles using public roads. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a truck tractor-semitrailer combination engaged in the transportation of automobiles or boats may transport motor vehicles or boats on part of the power unit; and, except as may otherwise be mandated under federal law, an automobile or boat transporter semitrailer may not exceed 50 feet in length, exclusive of the load; however, the load may extend up to an additional 6 feet beyond the rear of the trailer. The 50-foot length limitation does not apply to non-stinger-steered automobile or boat transporters that are 65 feet or less in overall length, exclusive of the load carried thereon, ~~or~~ to stinger-steered ~~automobile or~~ boat transporters that are 75 feet or less in overall length, exclusive of the load carried thereon, or to stinger-steered automobile transporters that are 80 feet or less in overall length, exclusive of the load carried thereon. For purposes of this subsection, a “stinger-steered automobile or boat transporter” is an automobile or boat transporter configured as a semitrailer combination wherein the fifth wheel is located on a drop frame located behind and below the rearmost axle of the power unit. Automobile transporters operating under this subsection may backhaul cargo or general freight when the weight limits of s. 316.535 are not exceeded. Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), any straight truck or truck tractor-semitrailer combination engaged in the transportation of horticultural trees may allow the load to extend up to an additional 10 feet beyond the rear of the vehicle, provided said trees are resting against a retaining bar mounted above the truck bed so that the root balls of the trees rest on the floor and to the front of the truck bed and the tops of the trees extend up over and to the rear of the truck bed, and provided the overhanging portion of the load is covered with protective fabric.

(a) Straight trucks.—A straight truck may not exceed a length of 40 feet in extreme overall dimension, exclusive of safety and energy conservation devices approved by the department for use on vehicles using public roads. A straight truck may attach a forklift to the rear of the cargo bed, provided the overall combined length of the vehicle and the forklift does not exceed 50 feet. A straight truck may tow no more than one trailer, and the overall length of the truck-trailer combination may not exceed 68 feet, including the load thereon. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a truck-trailer combination engaged in the transportation of boats, or boat trailers whose design dictates a front-to-rear stacking method may not exceed the length limitations of this paragraph exclusive of the load; however, the load may extend up to an additional 6 feet beyond the rear of the trailer.

(b) Semitrailers.—

1. A semitrailer operating in a truck tractor-semitrailer combination may not exceed 48 feet in extreme overall outside dimension, measured from the front of the unit to the rear of the unit and the load carried thereon, exclusive of safety and energy conservation devices approved by the department for use on vehicles using public roads, unless it complies with subparagraph 2. A semitrailer which exceeds 48 feet in length and is used to transport divisible loads may operate in this state only if issued a permit under s. 316.550 and if such trailer meets the requirements of this chapter relating to vehicle equipment and safety. Except for highways on the tandem trailer truck highway network, public roads deemed unsafe for longer semitrailer vehicles or those roads on which such longer vehicles are determined not to be in the interest of public convenience shall, in conformance with s. 316.006, be restricted by the Department of Transportation or by the local authority to use by semitrailers not exceeding a length of 48 feet, inclusive of the load carried thereon but exclusive of safety and energy conservation devices approved by the department for use on vehicles using public roads. Truck tractor-semitrailer combinations shall be afforded reasonable access to terminals; facilities for food, fuel, repairs, and rest; and points of loading and unloading.

2. A semitrailer which is more than 48 feet but not more than 57 feet in extreme overall outside dimension, as measured pursuant to subparagraph 1., may operate on public roads, except roads on the State Highway System which are restricted by the Department of Transportation or other roads restricted by local authorities, if:

a. The distance between the kingpin or other peg that locks into the fifth wheel of a truck tractor and the center of the rear axle or rear group of axles does not exceed 41 feet, or, in the case of a semitrailer used exclusively or primarily to transport vehicles in connection with motorsports competition events, the distance does not exceed 46 feet from the kingpin to the center of the rear axles; and

b. It is equipped with a substantial rear-end underride protection device meeting the requirements of 49 C.F.R. s. 393.86, “Rear End Protection.”

(c) Tandem trailer trucks.—

1. Except for semitrailers and trailers of up to 28 1/2 feet in length which existed on December 1, 1982, and which were actually and lawfully operating on that date, no semitrailer or trailer operating in a truck tractor-semitrailer-trailer combination may exceed a length of 28 feet in extreme overall outside dimension, measured from the front of the unit to the rear of the unit and the load carried thereon, exclusive of safety and energy conservation devices approved by the Department of Transportation for use on vehicles using public roads.

2. Tandem trailer trucks conforming to the weight and size limitations of this chapter and in immediate transit to or from a terminal facility as defined in this chapter may operate on the public roads of this state except for residential neighborhood streets restricted by the Department of Transportation or local jurisdictions. In addition, the Department of Transportation or local jurisdictions may restrict these vehicles from using streets and roads under their maintenance responsibility on the basis of safety and engineering analyses, provided that the restrictions are consistent with the provisions of this chapter. The Department of Transportation shall develop safety and engineering standards to be used by all jurisdictions when identifying public roads and streets to be restricted from tandem trailer truck operations.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this section, within 5 miles of the Federal National Network for large trucks, tandem trailer trucks shall be afforded access to terminals; facilities for food, fuel, repairs, and rest; and points of loading and unloading.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, all local system tandem trailer truck route review procedures must be consistent with those adopted by the Department of Transportation.

5. Tandem trailer trucks employed as household goods carriers and conforming to the weight and size limitations of this chapter shall be afforded access to points of loading and unloading on the public streets and roads of this state, except for streets and roads that have been restricted from use by such vehicles on the basis of safety and engineering analyses by the jurisdiction responsible for maintenance of the streets and roads.

(d) Maxi-cube vehicles.—Maxi-cube vehicles shall be allowed to operate on routes open to tandem trailer trucks under the same conditions applicable to tandem trailer trucks as specified by this section.

(4) LOAD EXTENSION LIMITATION.—The load upon any vehicle operated alone, or the load upon the front vehicle of a combination of vehicles, may not extend more than 3 feet beyond the front wheels of the vehicle or the front bumper of the vehicle if it is equipped with a bumper. However, the load upon any stinger-steered automobile transporter may not extend more than 4 feet beyond the front bumper of the vehicle.

(a) The limitations of this subsection do not apply to bicycle racks carrying bicycles on public sector transit vehicles.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a front-end loading collection vehicle, when:

1. The front-end loading mechanism and container or containers are in the lowered position;

2. The vehicle is engaged in collecting solid waste or recyclable or recovered materials;
3. The vehicle is being operated at speeds less than 20 miles per hour with the vehicular hazard-warning lights activated; and
4. The extension does not exceed 8 feet 6 inches.

(16) TOWAWAY TRAILER TRANSPORTER COMBINATIONS.—An unladen power unit may tow two trailers or semitrailers when the combination is not used to carry property, the overall combination length does not exceed 82 feet, and the total gross weight of the combination does not exceed 26,000 pounds. The trailers or semitrailers must constitute inventory property of a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer of such trailers or semitrailers.

Section 15. Subsection (3) is added to section 316.85, Florida Statutes, to read:

316.85 Autonomous vehicles; operation.—

(3) The Florida Turnpike Enterprise and any authority formed under chapters 343, 348, and 349 may fund, construct, and operate facilities for the advancement of autonomous and connected innovative transportation technology solutions for the purposes of improving safety and decreasing congestion for the traveling public and to otherwise advance the enterprise's or authority's objectives as set forth under the Florida Transportation Code or the authority's enabling statutes, respectively.

Section 16. Section 316.87, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

316.87 Nonemergency medical transportation services.—

(1) To ensure the availability of nonemergency medical transportation services throughout the state, a provider licensed by the county or operating under a permit issued by the county may not be required to use a vehicle that is larger than needed to transport the number of persons being transported or that is inconsistent with the medical condition of the individuals receiving the nonemergency medical transportation services. This section does not apply to the procurement, contracting, or provision of paratransit transportation services, directly or indirectly, by a county or an authority, pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended.

(2)(a) Subject to state and federal Medicaid requirements, Medicaid nonemergency transportation services may be provided to a Medicaid beneficiary by a transportation network company contracted with a Medicaid managed care plan, a transportation broker under contract with a Medicaid managed care plan, or a transportation broker under direct contract with the Agency for Health Care Administration. The Agency for Health Care Administration shall update the Non-Emergency Transportation Services Coverage Policy pursuant to this subsection by October 1, 2018. Requirements for transportation network companies and transportation network company drivers may not exceed those imposed under s. 627.748, except as necessary to conform to federal Medicaid transportation requirements administered by the Agency for Health Care Administration.

(b) This subsection may not be construed to expand or limit the existing transportation benefit provided to Medicaid beneficiaries or to require a Medicaid managed care plan to contract with a transportation network company or a transportation broker.

Section 17. Subsection (9) of section 318.14, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

In such a case, adjudication must be withheld and points, as provided by s. 322.27, may not be assessed. However, a person may not make an election under this subsection if the person has made an election under this subsection in the preceding 12 months. A person may not make more than five elections within his or her lifetime under this subsection, except that a person who is 30 years of age or older who has previously made five elections may make an election under this subsection if the person has not made an election in the preceding 36 months. The requirement for community service under s. 318.18(8) is not waived by a plea of nolo contendere or by the withholding of adjudication of guilt by a court. If a person makes an election to attend a basic driver improvement course under this subsection, 18 percent of the civil penalty imposed under s. 318.18(3) shall be deposited in the State Courts Revenue Trust Fund; however, that portion is not revenue for purposes of s. 28.36 and may not be used in establishing the budget of the clerk of the court under that section or s. 28.35.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Consideration of HB 7037 and CS for CS for HB 937 was deferred.

RULING ON POINT OF ORDER

The President recognized Senator Benacquisto, Chair of the Committee on Rules, on SB 100, in returning messages, which was previously considered this day with pending Senate Amendment 1 (644860) and pending point of order.

Senator Benacquisto: Senator Rader raised a point of order that the amendment by Senator Brandes, barcode 644860, to SB 100 was not germane to the Senate bill. The subject of the Senate bill is identification of driver licenses for veterans. The amendment includes the transportation package previously passed by the Senate. The amendment changes the relating to clause to an act relating to transportation, clearly expanding the bill beyond its original purpose, contrary to Rule 7.1(6). The amendment is also drawn to the original Senate bill rather than the House amendment, as required by Senate Rule 7.8. Therefore, Mr. President, I recommend that the point by Senator Rader be well taken and Senator Brandes' amendment be found out of order.

President Negron: Based on the recommendation of Rules Chair Benacquisto, I find that the point is well taken and the amendment is out of order.

On motion by Senator Book, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which Amendment 1 (813382) was adopted March 8.

Pursuant to Rule 7.1, there being no objection, consideration of the following late-filed amendment was allowed:

Senator Steube moved the following amendment to Amendment 1 (813382) which was adopted by two-thirds vote:

Amendment 1A (805216) (with title amendment)—Delete lines 5-118 and insert:

Section 3. Effective January 1, 2019, section 787.061, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

787.061 Civil actions by victims of human trafficking.—

(1) FINDINGS.—The Legislature finds that, to achieve the intent of the Legislature relating to human trafficking expressed in s. 787.06(1)(d), it is necessary to provide a civil cause of action for the recovery of compensatory and punitive damages, attorney fees, and costs.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the term:

(a) “Facilitator” means a person who knowingly, or in willful blindness, assists or provides resources or goods or services to a trafficker which assist or enable the trafficker to carry out human trafficking. The term does not include a person who facilitates human trafficking as a result of force, threat, or coercion.

(b) “Human trafficking” has the same meaning as provided in s. 787.06.

(c) “Trafficker” means any person who knowingly engages in human trafficking, attempts to engage in human trafficking, or benefits financially by receiving anything of value from participation in a venture that has subjected a person to human trafficking.

(d) “Venture” means any group of two or more individuals associated in fact, whether or not a legal entity.

(e) “Victim of human trafficking” means a person subjected to coercion, as defined in s. 787.06, for the purpose of being used in human trafficking; a child under 18 years of age subjected to human trafficking; or an individual subjected to human trafficking as defined by federal law.

(f) “Willful blindness” exists when a person has knowledge of information that would raise suspicions in a reasonable person and he or she deliberately refrains from obtaining confirmation of or acting on the information because he or she wants to remain in ignorance, such that knowledge of the facts avoided can reasonably and fairly be imputed to the person who avoided confirming it.

(3) CIVIL CAUSE OF ACTION.—

(a) A victim of human trafficking has a civil cause of action against the trafficker or facilitator who victimized her or him and may recover damages as provided in this section.

(b) The action may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction, and the standard of proof is the greater weight of the evidence, but the standard of proof for punitive damages under this section is clear and convincing evidence.

(c) A victim who prevails in any such action is entitled to recover economic and noneconomic damages, punitive damages, reasonable attorney fees, reasonable investigative expenses, and costs.

1. Economic damages include, but are not limited to, past and future medical and mental health expenses; repatriation expenses, when a victim elects repatriation; and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the victim in the past or estimated to be incurred by the victim in the future as a result of the human trafficking.

2. Noneconomic damages include pain and suffering, inconvenience, physical impairment, mental anguish, disfigurement, loss of capacity for enjoyment of life, and other nonfinancial losses.

(d) The remedies provided in this section are in addition to and cumulative with other legal and administrative remedies available to victims of human trafficking, except that a victim may not recover under this section and s. 772.104(2). If a parent or legal guardian knowingly or through willful blindness trafficked the victim, facilitated such trafficking, or otherwise participated in the human trafficking of the victim, such parent or legal guardian is not entitled to damages or distributions under this section.

(e) If a victim prevails in an action under this section, and if one or more law enforcement agencies rescued the victim or stopped the abuse or exploitation of a victim on the property where it occurred, the court shall assess a civil penalty against the defendant in the amount of $50,000 and award the penalty to such law enforcement agencies to fund future efforts to combat human trafficking. This penalty is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other damage award. The court shall equitably distribute this civil penalty among the law enforcement agencies. The entire $50,000 civil penalty shall be distributed to the law enforcement agencies unless the proceeds become subject to equitable distribution under paragraph (f).

(f) If an action brought under this section is either settled before a jury verdict or the victim is unable to recover the full amount of the compensatory damages caused by the human trafficking, the court must determine the percentage of the victim's damages that were recovered, after deducting a victim's reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses, but before attorney fees, and that same percentage of $50,000 must be paid from the recovery to the law enforcement agencies to fund future efforts to combat human trafficking if one or more law enforcement agencies are entitled to a civil penalty under paragraph (e).

(g) The court shall have specific authority to consolidate civil actions for the same trafficker or facilitator for the purpose of case resolution and aggregate jurisdiction.

And the title is amended as follows:

Delete lines 233-239 and insert: to impose a civil penalty under certain circumstances; providing that such actions are subject to

DISSOLUTION OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HB 7067

House Concurrent Resolution 1457, having been adopted this day, did not include issues relating to HB 7067. The following statement was released by President Negron and Speaker Corcoran regarding the Conference Committee on Gaming and HB 7067:

Joint Statement Concerning the Conference Committee

Despite the good faith efforts of both the House and Senate, a gaming bill will not pass the Legislature this session. We appreciate the tireless efforts of Chair Hutson and Chair La Rosa, as well as the many members of the House and Senate, and the professional staff, who worked diligently during these final days and hours of session. Gaming remains one of the most difficult issues we face as a Legislature. We are pleased with the progress made over the last week and know that our colleagues will continue to work on this important issue.

The Senate resumed consideration of—

CS for HB 1301—A bill to be entitled An act relating to sexual offenders and predators; amending s. 775.21, F.S.; reducing the aggregate and consecutive number of days used to determine residency for purposes of sexual predator or sexual offender registration; providing for a mandatory minimum sentence of community control with electronic monitoring for certain offenses committed by sexual predators if the court does not impose a prison sentence; amending s. 943.0435, F.S.; providing for a mandatory minimum sentence of community control with electronic monitoring for certain offenses committed by sexual offenders if the court does not impose a prison sentence; providing an effective date.

—which was previously considered this day with pending Amendment 1 (813382) by Senator Book and pending point of order.

RULING ON POINT OF ORDER

The President recognized Senator Benacquisto, Chair of the Committee on Rules, on CS for HB 1301 with pending Amendment 1 (813382) and pending point of order.

Senator Benacquisto: Senator Broxson raised a point of order that the amendment by Senator Book, barcode (813382) to CS for HB 1301 was not germane to the House bill. The subject of the House bill is sexual offenders and predators. The amendment relates to human trafficking and a civil cause of action. After reviewing the relevant papers and consulting with professional staff, mainly the staff director of the Criminal Justice Committee, I have determined that the amendment expands the original purpose of the bill and requires an amendment to the relating clause that would be needed to accommodate this expansion, and such title change is not provided in the amendment. Therefore, Mr. President, I recommend that the point be well taken by Senator Broxson and that the Book amendment be ruled out of order pursuant to Rule 7.1(6).

President Negron: Based on the recommendation of Rules Chair Benacquisto, I find that the point is well taken and the amendment is out of order.

Senator Book moved the following amendment which failed to receive the required two-thirds vote:

Amendment 3 (706938)—

In title, delete line 2 and insert: An act relating to public safety;

Pursuant to Rule 7.1, there being no objection, consideration of the following late-filed amendment was allowed:

Senator Book moved the following amendment which was adopted by two-thirds vote:

Amendment 4 (232322) (with title amendment)—Delete line 206 and insert:

Section 3. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this act, this act shall take effect July 1, 2018.

And the title is amended as follows:

Delete line 14 and insert: prison sentence; providing effective dates.

On motion by Senator Book, CS for HB 1301, as amended, was passed and certified to the House. The vote on passage was:

Section 1. Section 456.0301, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

456.0301 Requirement for instruction on controlled substance prescribing.

(1)(a) The appropriate board shall require each person registered with the United States Drug Enforcement Administration and authorized to prescribe controlled substances pursuant to 21 U.S.C. s. 822 to complete a board-approved 2-hour continuing education course on prescribing controlled substances offered by a statewide professional association of physicians in this state that is accredited to provide educational activities designated for the American Medical Association Physician's Recognition Award Category 1 Credit or the American Osteopathic Category 1-A continuing medical education credit as part of biennial license renewal. The course must include information on the current standards for prescribing controlled substances, particularly opiates; alternatives to these standards; nonpharmacological therapies; prescribing emergency opioid antagonists; and the risks of opioid addiction following all stages of treatment in the management of acute pain. The course may be offered in a distance learning format and must be included within the number of continuing education hours required by law. The department may not renew the license of any prescriber registered with the United States Drug Enforcement Administration to prescribe controlled substances who has failed to complete the course. The course must be completed by January 31, 2019, and at each subsequent renewal. This paragraph does not apply to a licensee who is required by his or her applicable practice act to complete a minimum of 2 hours of continuing education on the safe and effective prescribing of controlled substances.

(b) Each practitioner required to complete the course required in paragraph (a) shall submit confirmation of having completed such course when applying for biennial license renewal.

(c) Each licensing board that requires a licensee to complete an educational course pursuant to this subsection must include the hours required for completion of the course in the total hours of continuing education required by law for such profession unless the continuing education requirements for such profession consist of fewer than 30 hours biennially.

(2) Each board may adopt rules to administer this section.

Section 2. Paragraph (gg) of subsection (1) of section 456.072, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

456.072 Grounds for discipline; penalties; enforcement.—

(1) The following acts shall constitute grounds for which the disciplinary actions specified in subsection (2) may be taken:

(gg) Engaging in a pattern of practice when prescribing medicinal drugs or controlled substances which demonstrates a lack of reasonable skill or safety to patients, a violation of ~~any provision of~~ this chapter or ss. 893.055 and 893.0551, a violation of the applicable practice act, or a violation of any rules adopted under this chapter or the applicable practice act of the prescribing practitioner. Notwithstanding s. 456.073(13), the department may initiate an investigation and establish such a pattern from billing records, data, or any other information obtained by the department.

Section 3. Paragraphs (a) through (g) of subsection (1) of section 456.44, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as paragraphs (b) through (h), respectively, a new paragraph (a) is added to that subsection, subsection (3) of that section is amended, and subsections (4), (5), and (6) are added to that section, to read:

456.44 Controlled substance prescribing.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the term:

(a) “Acute pain” means the normal, predicted, physiological, and time-limited response to an adverse chemical, thermal, or mechanical stimulus associated with surgery, trauma, or acute illness. The term does not include pain related to:

1. Cancer.

2. A terminal condition. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term “terminal condition” means a progressive disease or medical or surgical condition that causes significant functional impairment, is not considered by a treating physician to be reversible without the administration of life-sustaining procedures, and will result in death within 1 year after diagnosis if the condition runs its normal course.

3. Palliative care to provide relief of symptoms related to an incurable, progressive illness or injury.

4. A traumatic injury with an Injury Severity Score of 9 or greater.

(3) STANDARDS OF PRACTICE FOR TREATMENT OF CHRONIC NONMALIGNANT PAIN.—The standards of practice in this section do not supersede the level of care, skill, and treatment recognized in general law related to health care licensure.

(a) A complete medical history and a physical examination must be conducted before beginning any treatment and must be documented in the medical record. The exact components of the physical examination shall be left to the judgment of the registrant who is expected to perform a physical examination proportionate to the diagnosis that justifies a treatment. The medical record must, at a minimum, document the nature and intensity of the pain, current and past treatments for pain, underlying or coexisting diseases or conditions, the effect of the pain on physical and psychological function, a review of previous medical records, previous diagnostic studies, and history of alcohol and substance abuse. The medical record shall also document the presence of one or more recognized medical indications for the use of a controlled substance. Each registrant must develop a written plan for assessing each patient’s risk of aberrant drug-related behavior, which may include patient drug testing. Registrants must assess each patient’s risk for aberrant drug-related behavior and monitor that risk on an ongoing basis in accordance with the plan.

(b) Each registrant must develop a written individualized treatment plan for each patient. The treatment plan shall state objectives that will be used to determine treatment success, such as pain relief and improved physical and psychosocial function, and shall indicate if any further diagnostic evaluations or other treatments are planned. After treatment begins, the registrant shall adjust drug therapy to the individual medical needs of each patient. Other treatment modalities, including a rehabilitation program, shall be considered depending on the etiology of the pain and the extent to which the pain is associated with physical and psychosocial impairment. The interdisciplinary nature of the treatment plan shall be documented.

(c) The registrant shall discuss the risks and benefits of the use of controlled substances, including the risks of abuse and addiction, as well as physical dependence and its consequences, with the patient, persons designated by the patient, or the patient’s surrogate or guardian if the patient is incompetent. The registrant shall use a written controlled substance agreement between the registrant and the patient outlining the patient’s responsibilities, including, but not limited to:

1. Number and frequency of controlled substance prescriptions and refills.

2. Patient compliance and reasons for which drug therapy may be discontinued, such as a violation of the agreement.

3. An agreement that controlled substances for the treatment of chronic nonmalignant pain shall be prescribed by a single treating registrant unless otherwise authorized by the treating registrant and documented in the medical record.

(d) The patient shall be seen by the registrant at regular intervals, not to exceed 3 months, to assess the efficacy of treatment, ensure that controlled substance therapy remains indicated, evaluate the patient’s progress toward treatment objectives, consider adverse drug effects, and review the etiology of the pain. Continuation or modification of therapy shall depend on the registrant’s evaluation of the patient’s progress. If treatment goals are not being achieved, despite medication adjustments, the registrant shall reevaluate the appropriateness of continued treatment. The registrant shall monitor patient compliance in medication usage, related treatment plans, controlled substance agreements, and indications of substance abuse or diversion at a minimum of 3-month intervals.

(e) The registrant shall refer the patient as necessary for additional evaluation and treatment in order to achieve treatment objectives. Special attention shall be given to those patients who are at risk for misusing their medications and those whose living arrangements pose a risk for medication misuse or diversion. The management of pain in patients with a history of substance abuse or with a comorbid psychiatric disorder requires extra care, monitoring, and documentation and requires consultation with or referral to an addiction medicine specialist or a psychiatrist.

(f) A registrant must maintain accurate, current, and complete records that are accessible and readily available for review and comply with the requirements of this section, the applicable practice act, and applicable board rules. The medical records must include, but are not limited to:

1. The complete medical history and a physical examination, including history of drug abuse or dependence.

2. Diagnostic, therapeutic, and laboratory results.

3. Evaluations and consultations.

4. Treatment objectives.

5. Discussion of risks and benefits.

6. Treatments.

7. Medications, including date, type, dosage, and quantity prescribed.

8. Instructions and agreements.

9. Periodic reviews.

10. Results of any drug testing.

11. A photocopy of the patient’s government-issued photo identification.

12. If a written prescription for a controlled substance is given to the patient, a duplicate of the prescription.

13. The registrant’s full name presented in a legible manner.

(g) A registrant shall immediately refer patients with signs or symptoms of substance abuse to a board-certified pain management physician, an addiction medicine specialist, or a mental health addiction facility as it pertains to drug abuse or addiction unless the registrant is a physician who is board-certified or board-eligible in pain management. Throughout the period of time before receiving the consultant’s report, a prescribing registrant shall clearly and completely document medical justification for continued treatment with controlled substances and those steps taken to ensure medically appropriate use of controlled substances by the patient. Upon receipt of the consultant’s written report, the prescribing registrant shall incorporate the consultant’s recommendations for continuing, modifying, or discontinuing controlled substance therapy. The resulting changes in treatment shall be specifically documented in the patient's medical record. Evidence or behavioral indications of diversion shall be followed by discontinuation of controlled substance therapy, and the patient shall be discharged, and all results of testing and actions taken by the registrant shall be documented in the patient's medical record.

This subsection does not apply to a board-eligible or board-certified anesthesiologist, physiatrist, rheumatologist, or neurologist, or to a board-certified physician who has surgical privileges at a hospital or ambulatory surgery center and primarily provides surgical services. This subsection does not apply to a board-eligible or board-certified medical specialist who has also completed a fellowship in pain medicine approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education or the American Osteopathic Association, or who is board eligible or board certified in pain medicine by the American Board of Pain Medicine, the American Board of Interventional Pain Physicians, the American Association of Physician Specialists, or a board approved by the American Board of Medical Specialties or the American Osteopathic Association and performs interventional pain procedures of the type routinely billed using surgical codes. This subsection does not apply to a registrant who prescribes medically necessary controlled substances for a patient during an inpatient stay in a hospital licensed under chapter 395.

(4) STANDARDS OF PRACTICE FOR TREATMENT OF ACUTE PAIN.—The applicable boards shall adopt rules establishing guidelines for prescribing controlled substances for acute pain, including evaluation of the patient, creation and maintenance of a treatment plan, obtaining informed consent and agreement for treatment, periodic review of the treatment plan, consultation, medical record review, and compliance with controlled substance laws and regulations. Failure of a prescriber to follow such guidelines constitutes grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to s. 456.072(1)(gg), punishable as provided in s. 456.072(2).

(5) PRESCRIPTION SUPPLY.—

(a) For the treatment of acute pain, a prescription for an opioid drug listed as a Schedule II controlled substance in s. 893.03 or 21 U.S.C. s. 812 may not exceed a 3-day supply, except that up to a 7-day supply may be prescribed if:

1. The prescriber, in his or her professional judgment, believes that more than a 3-day supply of such an opioid is medically necessary to treat the patient's pain as an acute medical condition;
2. The prescriber indicates "ACUTE PAIN EXCEPTION" on the prescription; and
3. The prescriber adequately documents in the patient's medical records the acute medical condition and lack of alternative treatment options that justify deviation from the 3-day supply limit established in this subsection.

(b) For the treatment of pain other than acute pain, a prescriber must indicate "NONACUTE PAIN" on a prescription for an opioid drug listed as a Schedule II controlled substance in s. 893.03 or 21 U.S.C. s. 812.

(6) EMERGENCY OPIOID ANTAGONIST.—For the treatment of pain related to a traumatic injury with an Injury Severity Score of 9 or greater, a prescriber who prescribes a Schedule II controlled substance listed in s. 893.03 or 21 U.S.C. s. 812 must concurrently prescribe an emergency opioid antagonist, as defined in s. 381.887(1).

Section 4. (5) NONCOMPLIANCE.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an entity required to collect and transmit data under subsection (3)(a) or (3)(d) which does not comply with the requirements of this section is ineligible to receive funding from the General Appropriations Act, any state grant program administered by the Department of Law Enforcement, or any other state agency for 5 years after the date of noncompliance.

Section 3. Section 901.41, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

901.41 Prearrest diversion programs.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The Legislature encourages local communities and public or private educational institutions to implement prearrest diversion programs that afford certain adults who fulfill specified intervention and community service obligations the opportunity to avoid an arrest record. The Legislature does not mandate that a particular prearrest diversion program for adults be adopted, but finds that the adoption of the model program provided in this section would allow certain adults to avoid an arrest record while ensuring that they receive appropriate services and fulfill their community service obligations. If a prearrest diversion program is implemented, the program is encouraged to share information with other prearrest diversion programs.

(2) MODEL PREARREST DIVERSION PROGRAM.—Local communities and public or private educational institutions may adopt a prearrest diversion program in which:

(a) Law enforcement officers, at their sole discretion, may issue a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice to certain adults who commit a qualifying misdemeanor offense, as determined by the representatives that develop the program under subsection (3). A civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice may be issued if the adult who commits the offense:

1. Admits that he or she committed the offense or does not contest the offense; and

2. Has not previously been arrested and has not received an adult civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice, unless the terms of the local adult prearrest diversion program allow otherwise. The local adult prearrest diversion program shall establish a limit on the number of times an eligible adult may participate in the program.

(b) An adult who receives a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice shall report for intake as required by the local prearrest diversion program and must be provided appropriate assessment, intervention, education, and behavioral health care services by the program. While in the local prearrest diversion program, the adult shall perform community service hours as specified by the program. The adult shall pay restitution due to the victim as a program requirement. If the adult does not successfully complete the prearrest diversion program, the law enforcement officer must determine if there is good cause to arrest the adult for the original misdemeanor offense and, if so, refer the case to the state attorney to determine whether prosecution is appropriate or, in the absence of a finding of good cause, allow the adult to continue in the program.

(3) PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT; IMPLEMENTATION; OPERATION.—

(a) Representatives of participating law enforcement agencies, a representative of the program services provider, the public defender, the state attorney, and the clerk of the circuit court shall create the prearrest diversion program and develop its policies and procedures, including, but not limited to, eligibility criteria, program implementation and operation, and the determination of the fee, if any, to be paid by adults participating in the program. In developing the program's policies and procedures, which must include the designation of the misdemeanor offenses that qualify adults for participation in the program, the representatives must solicit input from other interested stakeholders. The program may be operated by an entity such as a law enforcement agency or a county or municipality, or other entity selected by the county or municipality.

(b) Upon intake of an adult participating in the prearrest diversion program, the program operator shall electronically provide the participant's personal identifying information to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which the program provides services. Such information is not a court record, and the clerk of the circuit court shall maintain the confidentiality of the participant's personal identifying information as provided in subsection (5). The clerk of the circuit court shall maintain such information in a statewide database, which must provide a single point of access for all such statewide information. If the program imposes a participation fee, the clerk of the circuit court must receive a reasonable portion, to be determined by the stakeholders creating the program, for receipt and maintenance of the required information. The fee shall be deposited by the clerk of the circuit court into the fine and forfeiture fund established under s. 142.01.

(4) APPLICABILITY.—This section does not preempt a county or municipality from enacting noncriminal sanctions for a violation of an ordinance or other violation, and it does not preempt a county, a municipality, or a public or private educational institution from creating its own model for a prearrest diversion program for adults.

(5) ELIGIBILITY.—A violent misdemeanor, a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence, as defined in s. 741.28, or a misdemeanor under s. 741.29, s. 741.31, s. 784.046, s. 784.047, s. 784.048, s. 784.0487, or s. 784.049 does not qualify for a civil citation or prearrest diversion program.

(b) "Expunction" has the same meaning ascribed in and effect as s. 943.0585, except that:

1. The provisions of s. 943.0585(4)(a) do not apply, except that the criminal history record of a person whose record is expunged pursuant to this section shall be made available only to criminal justice agencies for the purpose of:

a. Determining eligibility for ~~prearrest, postarrest, or teen court~~ diversion programs;

b. ~~when the record is sought as part of~~ A criminal investigation; or

c. ~~Making a prosecutorial decision under s. 985.15 when the subject of the record is a candidate for employment with a criminal justice agency. For all other purposes, a person whose record is expunged under this section may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrest and the charge covered by the expunged record.~~

2. Records maintained by local criminal justice agencies in the county in which the arrest occurred that are eligible for expunction pursuant to this section shall be sealed as the term is used in s. 943.059.

~~(b) As used in this section, the term "nonviolent misdemeanor" includes simple assault or battery when prearrest or postarrest diversion expunction is approved in writing by the state attorney for the county in which the arrest occurred.~~

(3) The department shall expunge the nonjudicial arrest record of a minor who has successfully completed a ~~prearrest or postarrest~~ diversion program if that minor:

(a) Submits an application for ~~prearrest or postarrest~~ diversion expunction, on a form prescribed by the department, signed by the minor's parent or legal guardian, or by the minor if he or she has reached the age of majority at the time of applying.

(b) Submits to the department, with the application, an official written statement from the state attorney for the county in which the arrest occurred certifying that he or she has successfully completed that county's ~~prearrest or postarrest~~ diversion program, that his or her participation in the program was based on an arrest for a ~~nonviolent~~ misdemeanor, and that he or she has not otherwise been charged by the state attorney with, or found to have committed, any criminal offense or comparable ordinance violation.

~~(c) Participated in a prearrest or postarrest diversion program that expressly authorizes or permits such expunction.~~

~~(d) Participated in a prearrest or postarrest diversion program based on an arrest for a nonviolent misdemeanor that would not qualify as an act of domestic violence as that term is defined in s. 741.28.~~

~~(c)(e)~~ Has never been, before filing the application for expunction, charged by the state attorney with, or found to have committed, any criminal offense or comparable ordinance violation.

~~(4) The department is authorized to charge a $75 processing fee for each request received for prearrest or postarrest diversion program expunction, for placement in the Department of Law Enforcement Operating Trust Fund, unless such fee is waived by the executive director.~~

~~(4)(5)~~ Expunction or sealing granted under this section does not prevent the minor who receives such relief from petitioning for the expunction or sealing of a later criminal history record as provided for in ss. 943.0583, 943.0585, and 943.059, if the minor is otherwise eligible under those sections.

Section 7. Section 943.687, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

943.687 Criminal justice data transparency.—In order to facilitate the availability of comparable and uniform criminal justice data, the department shall:

(1) Collect, compile, maintain, and manage the data submitted by local and state entities pursuant to s. 900.05 and coordinate related activities to collect and submit data. The department shall create a unique identifier for each criminal case received from the clerks of court which identifies the person who is the subject of the criminal case. The unique identifier must be the same for that person in any court case and used across local and state entities for all information related to that person at any time. The unique identifier shall be randomly created and may not include any portion of the person's social security number or date of birth.

(2) Promote criminal justice data sharing by making such data received under s. 900.05 comparable, transferable, and readily usable.

(3) Create and maintain an Internet-based database of criminal justice data received under s. 900.05 in a modern, open, electronic format that is machine-readable and readily accessible through an application program interface. The database shall allow the public to search, at a minimum, by each data element, county, judicial circuit, or unique identifier. The department may not require a license or charge a fee to access or receive information from the database.

(4) Develop written agreements with local, state, and federal agencies to facilitate criminal justice data sharing.

(5) Establish by rule:

(a) Requirements for the entities subject to the requirements of s. 900.05 to submit data through an application program interface.

(b) A data catalog defining data objects, describing data fields, and detailing the meaning of and options for each data element reported pursuant to s. 900.05.

(c) How data collected pursuant to s. 900.05 is compiled, processed, structured, used, or shared. The rule shall provide for tagging all information associated with each case number and unique identifier.

(d) Requirements for implementing and monitoring the Internet-based database under subsection (3).

(e) How information contained in the Internet-based database under subsection (3) is accessed by the public.

(6) Consult with local, state, and federal criminal justice agencies and other public and private users of the database under subsection (3) on the data elements collected under s. 900.05, the use of such data, and adding data elements to be collected.

(7) Monitor data collection procedures and test data quality to facilitate the dissemination of accurate, valid, reliable, and complete criminal justice data.

(8) Develop methods for archiving data, retrieving archived data, and data editing and verification.

Section 8. Section 945.041, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

945.041 Reports.—The department shall publish on its website and make available to the public the following information, updated on a quarterly basis:

(1) Inmate admissions by offense type. Burglary of dwelling offenses under s. 810.02(2), (3)(a), and (3)(b) shall be reported as a separate category from all other property crimes.

(2) The recidivism rate. As used in this subsection, the term “recidivism” means an inmate’s rearrest, reconviction, reincarceration, or probation revocation in the state within a 3-year time period following the inmate’s release from incarceration.

Section 9. Section 985.12, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

985.12 Civil citation or similar prearrest diversion programs.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT.—The Legislature finds that the creation and implementation of civil citation or similar prearrest diversion programs at the judicial circuit level promotes public safety, aids interagency cooperation, and provides the greatest chance of success for civil citation and similar prearrest diversion programs. The Legislature further finds that the widespread use of civil citation and similar prearrest diversion programs has a positive effect on the criminal justice system and contributes to an overall reduction in the crime rate and recidivism in the state. The Legislature encourages but does not mandate that counties, municipalities, and public or private educational institutions participate in a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program created by their judicial circuit under this section. ~~There is established a juvenile civil citation process for the purpose of providing an efficient and innovative alternative to custody by the Department of Juvenile Justice for children who commit nonserious delinquent acts and to ensure swift and appropriate consequences. The department shall encourage and assist in the implementation and improvement of civil citation programs or other similar diversion programs around the state.~~

(2) JUDICIAL CIRCUIT CIVIL CITATION OR SIMILAR PRE-ARREST DIVERSION PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT, IMPLEMENTATION AND OPERATION.—

(a) A ~~The~~ civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program for misdemeanor offenses shall be established in each judicial circuit in the state. ~~The at the local level with the concurrence of the chief judge of the circuit, state attorney and, public defender of each circuit, the clerk of the court for each county in the circuit, and representatives of participating law enforcement agencies in the circuit shall create a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program and develop its policies and procedures. In developing the program’s policies and procedures, input from other interested stakeholders may be solicited. The department shall annually develop and provide guidelines on best practice models for civil citation or similar prearrest diversion programs to the judicial circuits as a resource.~~

(b) Each judicial circuit’s civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program must specify:

1. The misdemeanor offenses that qualify a juvenile for participation in the program;
2. The eligibility criteria for the program;
3. The program’s implementation and operation;
4. The program’s requirements, including, but not limited to, the completion of community service hours, payment of restitution, if applicable, and intervention services indicated by a needs assessment of the juvenile, approved by the department, such as family counseling, urinalysis monitoring, and substance abuse and mental health treatment services; and
5. A program fee, if any, to be paid by a juvenile participating in the program. If the program imposes a fee, the clerk of the court of the applicable county must receive a reasonable portion of the fee.

(c) The state attorney of each circuit shall operate a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program in each circuit. A sheriff, police department, county, municipality, or public or private educational institution may continue to operate an independent civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program that is in operation as of October 1, 2018, if the independent program is reviewed by the state attorney of the applicable circuit and he or she determines that the independent program is substantially similar to the civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program developed by the circuit. If the state attorney determines that the independent program is not substantially similar to the civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program developed by the circuit, the operator of the independent diversion program may revise the program and the state attorney may conduct an additional review of the independent program.

(d) A judicial circuit may model an existing sheriff, police department, county, municipality, or public or private educational institution’s independent civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program in developing the civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program for the circuit.

(e) If a juvenile does not successfully complete the civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program, the arresting law enforcement officer shall determine if there is good cause to arrest the juvenile for the original misdemeanor offense and refer the case to the state attorney to determine if prosecution is appropriate or allow the juvenile to continue in the program ~~and the head of each local law enforcement agency involved. The program may be operated by an entity such as a law enforcement agency, the department, a juvenile assessment center, the~~ county or municipality, or another entity selected by the county or municipality. An entity operating the civil citation or similar diversion program must do so in consultation and agreement with the state attorney and local law enforcement agencies. Under such a juvenile civil citation or similar diversion program, a law enforcement officer, upon making contact with a juvenile who admits having committed a misdemeanor, may choose to issue a simple warning or inform the child's guardian or parent of the child's infraction, or may issue a civil citation or require participation in a similar diversion program, and assess up to 50 community service hours, and require participation in intervention services as indicated by an assessment of the needs of the juvenile, including family counseling, urinalysis monitoring, and substance abuse and mental health treatment services.

(f) A copy of each civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice issued under this section shall be provided to the department, and the department shall enter appropriate information into the juvenile offender information system. Use of the civil citation or similar diversion program is not limited to first-time misdemeanors and may be used in up to two subsequent misdemeanors. If an arrest is made, a law enforcement officer must provide written documentation as to why an arrest was warranted.

(g) At the conclusion of a juvenile's civil citation program or similar prearrest diversion program, the state attorney or operator of the independent program agency operating the program shall report the outcome to the department. The issuance of a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice is not considered a referral to the department.

(2) The department shall develop guidelines for the civil citation program which include intervention services that are based upon proven civil citation or similar diversion programs within the state.

(h)(3) Upon issuing such a civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice, the law enforcement officer shall send a copy of the civil citation or similar prearrest diversion program notice to county sheriff, state attorney, the appropriate intake office of the department, or the community service performance monitor designated by the department, the parent or guardian of the child, and to the victim.

(4) The child shall report to the community service performance monitor within 7 working days after the date of issuance of the citation. The work assignment shall be accomplished at a rate of not less than 5 hours per week. The monitor shall advise the intake office immediately upon reporting by the child to the monitor, that the child has in fact reported and the expected date upon which completion of the work assignment will be accomplished.

(5) If the child fails to report timely for a work assignment, complete a work assignment, or comply with assigned intervention services within the prescribed time, or if the juvenile commits a subsequent misdemeanor, the law enforcement officer shall issue a report alleging the child has committed a delinquent act, at which point a juvenile probation officer shall process the original delinquent act as a referral to the department and refer the report to the state attorney for review.

(6) At the time of issuance of the citation by the law enforcement officer, such officer shall advise the child that the child has the option to refuse the citation and to be referred to the intake office of the department. That option may be exercised at any time before completion of the work assignment.

Section 10. Subsection (3) of section 985.125, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

985.125 Prearrest or postarrest diversion programs.—

(3)(a) Beginning October 1, 2018, each diversion program shall submit data to the department which identifies for each minor participating in the diversion program:

2. Whether the minor was offered the opportunity to participate in a diversion program. If the minor was:
 - a. Not offered such opportunity, the reason such offer was not made.

(c) The data required pursuant to paragraph (a) shall be submitted to the department quarterly.

(d) The data required pursuant to paragraph (b) shall be submitted on or with the arrest affidavit or notice to appear.

(4) Beginning January 1, 2019, the department shall compile and semiannually publish the data required by subsection (3) on the department's website in a format that is, at a minimum, sortable by judicial circuit, county, law enforcement agency, race, ethnicity, gender, age, and offense committed.

(5) A minor who successfully completes a diversion program for a first-time misdemeanor offense may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge his or her participation in the program and an expunction of a non-judicial arrest record under s. 943.0582, unless the inquiry is made by a criminal justice agency, as defined in s. 943.045, for a purpose described in s. 943.0582(2)(b)1.

(6) The department shall adopt rules to implement this section.

Section 13. A pilot project is established in the Sixth Judicial Circuit for the purpose of improving criminal justice data transparency and ensuring data submitted under s. 900.05, Florida Statutes, is accurate, valid, reliable, and structured. The clerk of court, the state attorney, the public defender, or a sheriff in the circuit may enter into a memorandum of understanding with a national, nonpartisan, not-for-profit entity which provides data and measurement for county-level criminal justice systems to establish the duties and responsibilities of a data fellow, completely funded by the entity, to be embedded with the office or agency.
