Florida Constitution standards

Article III, Section 16—The legislature...shall apportion the state:

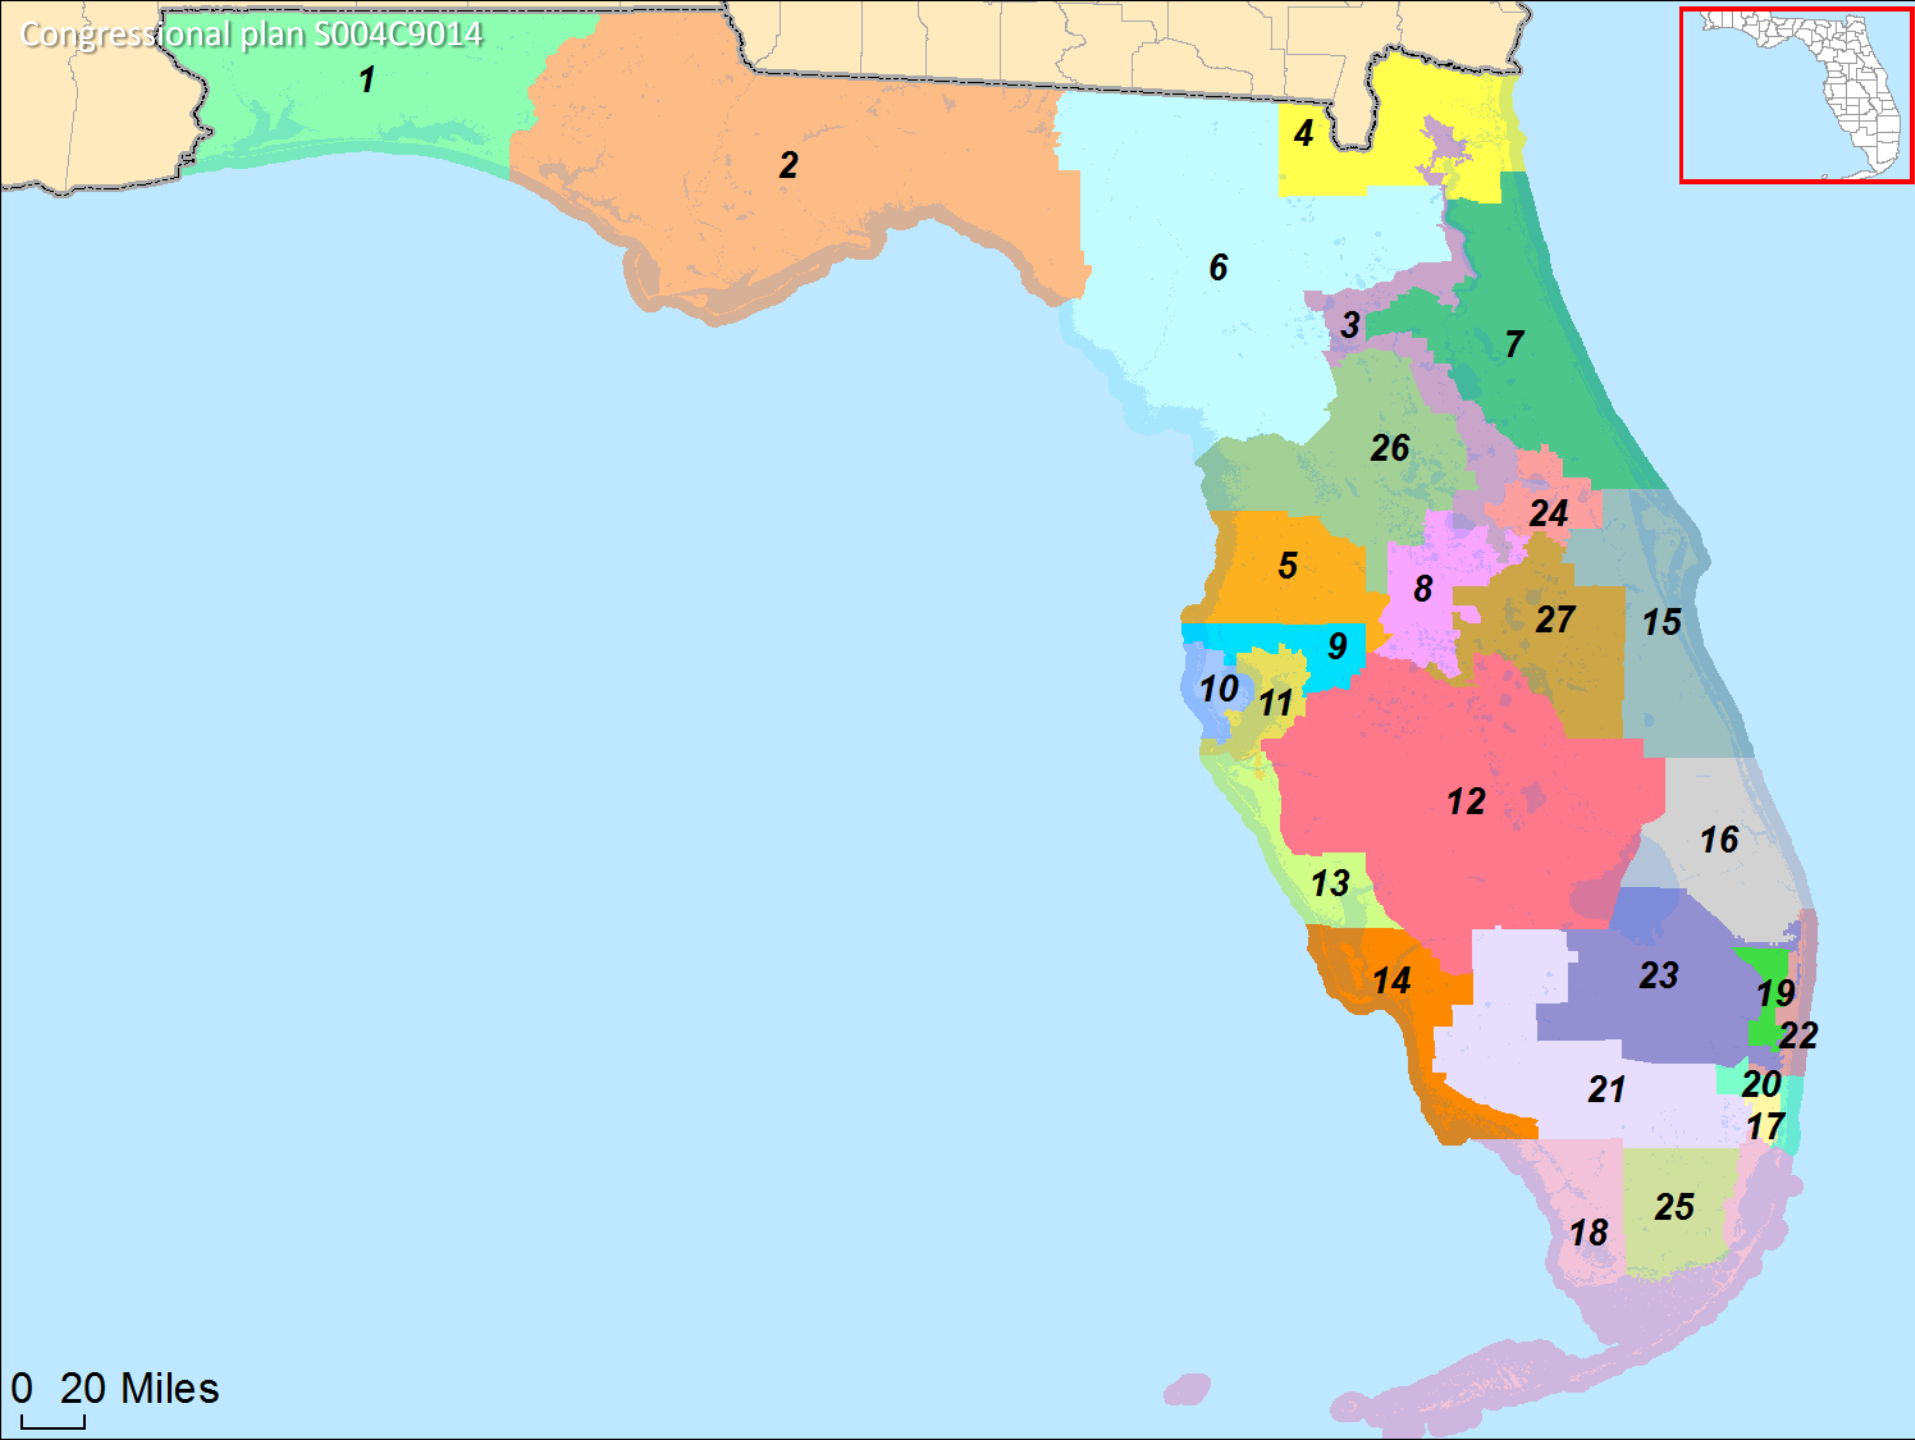

- 30 to 40 consecutively numbered senatorial districts of either contiguous, overlapping or identical territory.
- 80 to 120 consecutively numbered house districts of either contiguous, overlapping or identical territory.

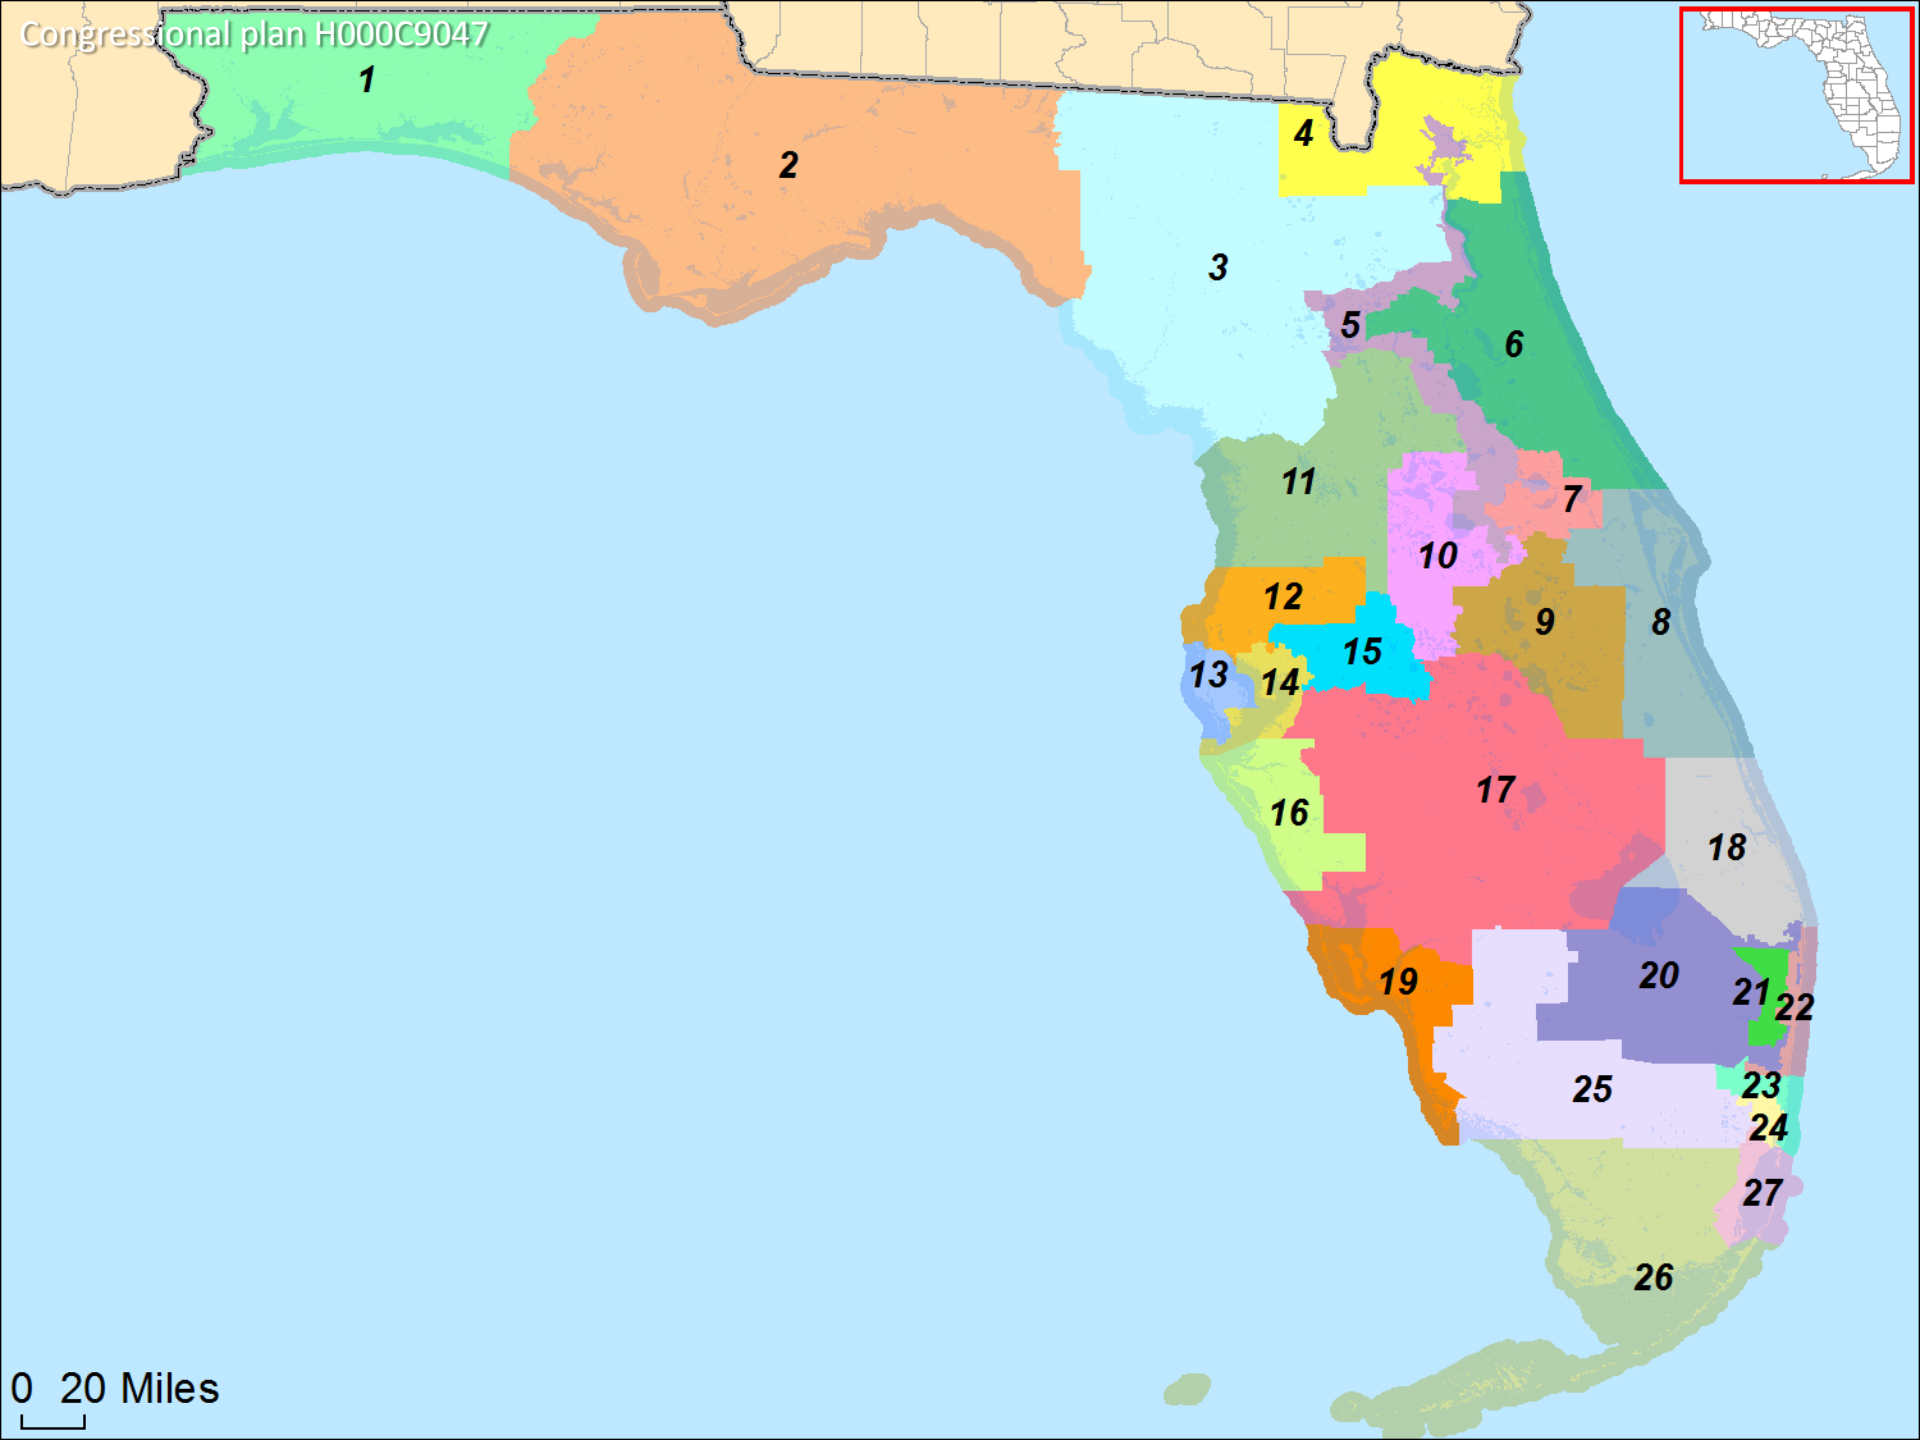

Article III, Sections 20 and 21—In establishing...district boundaries:

- a) No apportionment plan or... district shall be drawn with the intent to favor or disfavor a political party or an incumbent; and districts shall not be drawn with the intent or result of denying or abridging the equal opportunity of racial or language minorities to participate in the political process or to diminish their ability to elect representatives of their choice; and districts shall consist of contiguous territory.
- b) Unless compliance with the standards in this subsection conflicts with the standards in subsection (a) or with federal law, districts shall be as nearly equal in population as is practicable; districts shall be compact; and districts shall, where feasible, utilize existing political and geographical boundaries.
- c) The order in which the standards within subsections (a) and (b) of this section are set forth shall not be read to establish any priority of one standard over the other within that subsection.

The background of the slide features a large, semi-transparent seal of the Florida Senate. The seal is circular with a gold border. Inside the border, the words "SEATTLE" are at the top, "FLORIDA" is on the right, and "OF FLORIDA" is at the bottom. The center of the seal depicts a shield with various symbols, including a palm tree, a ship, and a sun. The text "Welcome to the Florida Senate" is overlaid on the seal in a white, elegant script font.
