

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) or paragraph (d), a pregnant prisoner may not be involuntarily placed in restrictive housing.

(b) A pregnant prisoner may be involuntarily placed in restrictive housing if the corrections official of the correctional institution makes an individualized determination that restrictive housing is necessary to protect the health and safety of the pregnant prisoner or others or to preserve the security and order of the correctional institution and that there are no less restrictive means available. After placing a pregnant prisoner in restrictive housing under this paragraph, the corrections official must write a report stating:

1. The individualized reason restrictive housing is necessary.
2. The reason less restrictive means are not available.
3. Whether a qualified healthcare professional at the correctional institution objects to the placement.

The corrections official must provide a copy of such report to the pregnant prisoner within 12 hours after placing the prisoner in restrictive housing.

(c) A pregnant prisoner who is placed in restrictive housing under this section must be:

1. Seen by a qualified healthcare professional at least once every 24 hours.
2. Observed by a correctional officer at least once every hour.
3. Housed in the least restrictive setting consistent with the health and safety of the pregnant prisoner.
4. Given a medical treatment plan developed and approved by a qualified healthcare professional at the correctional institution if the pregnant prisoner does not already have such a treatment plan in place.

(d)1. If a pregnant prisoner needs medical care, a primary care nurse practitioner or obstetrician must provide an order for the pregnant prisoner to be placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary.

2. If a pregnant prisoner has passed her due date, she must be placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary until labor begins. A pregnant prisoner who has been placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary must be provided the same access to outdoor recreation, visitation, mail, telephone calls, and other privileges and classes available to the general population unless:

a. The corrections official, after consulting with a qualified healthcare professional at the correctional institution, determines that such access poses a danger to the safety and security of the correctional institution; or

b. A qualified healthcare professional at the correctional institution determines that such access poses a danger of adverse clinical consequences for the pregnant prisoner or others and documents such determination in the pregnant prisoner's medical file.

(5)(4) ENFORCEMENT.—

(a) Notwithstanding any relief or claims afforded by federal or state law, any prisoner who is restrained or placed in restrictive housing in violation of this section may file a grievance with the correctional institution, and be granted a 45-day extension if requested in writing pursuant to rules promulgated by the correctional institution.

(b) This section does not prevent a woman harmed through the use of restraints or by placement in restrictive housing under this section from filing a complaint under any other relevant provision of federal or state law.

(6)(5) NOTICE TO PRISONERS.—

(a) ~~By September 1, 2012,~~ The department and the Department of Juvenile Justice shall adopt rules pursuant to ss. 120.536(1) and 120.54 to administer this section.

(b) Each correctional institution shall inform female prisoners of the rules developed pursuant to paragraph (a) upon admission to the correctional institution, including the policies and practices in the prisoner handbook, and post the policies and practices in locations in the correctional institution where such notices are commonly posted and will be seen by female prisoners, including common housing areas and medical care facilities.

(c) Each county or municipal detention facility and each detention facility operated by a private entity shall adopt written policies and procedures relating to the use of restraints and the performance of invasive body searches on pregnant prisoners.

And the title is amended as follows:

Remove lines 214-239 of the amendment and insert: providing definitions; prohibiting the involuntary placement of pregnant prisoners in restrictive housing; providing exceptions; requiring corrections officials to write a specified report if circumstances necessitate placing a pregnant prisoner in restrictive housing; providing requirements for the report; requiring a copy of such reports to be provided to pregnant prisoners in restrictive housing; providing requirements for the treatment of pregnant prisoners placed in restrictive housing; requiring pregnant prisoners to be placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary under certain circumstances; providing certain rights for pregnant prisoners placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary; expanding enforcement provisions to provide for grievances for violations relating to restrictive housing of pregnant prisoners; requiring the Department of Corrections and the Department of Juvenile Justice to adopt rules; requiring detention facilities to develop specified written policies and procedures; providing an effective date.
