From the funds in Specific Appropriation , $10,000 in _ funds is provided to the Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability to conduct a study of the impact of transportation network services on DUI arrests and accidents in the State. The Office shall submit its report to the Governor, before April 1, 2016. Between the effective date of this Act and April 1, 2016, a local governmental entity may not: (i) enact an ordinance that regulates transportation network services or the companies, individuals, or vehicles involved in such services; or (ii) apply a state law or local ordinance that governs for-hire passenger transportation service to transportation network services or the companies, individuals, or vehicles involved in such services. Nothing in this proviso shall prohibit a local governmental entity from amending a law regulating transportation network services that was enacted before the effective date of this act. For purposes of this proviso, "Transportation network service" means the provision of transportation to a passenger for compensation by an individual who: (i) receives connections to potential passengers through a digital network controlled by a transportation network company; and (ii) uses a personal, non-commercial vehicle to provide rides upon connection through such digital network.

FY 2015-2016 Back of the Bill reappropriation of DLA human trafficking language:

The unexpended balance of funds appropriated to the Department of Legal Affairs in Specific Appropriation 1322 of chapter 2014-51, Laws of Florida, for the human trafficking public information campaign shall revert and is reappropriated for Fiscal Year 2015-2016 for the same purpose.
