PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Senator Stargel:

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank you for this opportunity that we have to come together, Lord. We thank you for the opportunity that we have to serve in this body and to be able to make decisions for the State of Florida, Lord. I pray that each of us, as we take that position, would hold it in the highest regard, Lord. And that we would look to you for the wisdom that we need to make the decisions day to day.

Lord, as Moses led the people to the children of Israel, he did not call the equipped, Lord, but he equipped those whom he called. As it says in Jeremiah 29:11, "I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you, to not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Lord, we need to look to that future. We need to look to the opportunities that we have here. There is no authority except that which is established by God, as it says in Romans 13:11, and we have an authority to be here today, put here in a place to complete the task. Lord, I pray that you help us to do that to the best of our ability.

Lord, be with the Floridians in this state, those who are suffering and those who are having joy. Lord, I pray that you would be with all of our service people who are protecting this country abroad. Keep them safe. They are fighting an evil like no other evil we've ever seen before. I pray that you would give them the strength and the ability to move forward, and keep them and protect them. Lord, as we move forward today, I pray that you would be with us so that we would be doing things that would honor and glorify you.

In your name we pray. Amen.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON CS FOR SJR 2-C

November 5, 2015

The Honorable Steve Crisafulli
Speaker of the House of Representatives
420 The Capitol
Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Dear Mr. President and Mr. Speaker:

Your Conference Committee on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on CS for SJR 2-C, 1st Eng., same being:

A joint resolution of apportionment, having met, and after full and free conference, do recommend to their respective houses as follows:

1. That the House of Representatives recede from its Amendment 1 Barcode 328937.
2. That the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the Conference Committee Amendment (Barcode 351550) attached hereto and by reference made a part of this report.

s/ Bill Galvano, Co-Chair

Conferee on the part of the Senate

s/ Jose R. Oliva, Co-Chair

Manager on the part of the House of Representatives

The Conference Committee Amendment for CS for SJR 2-C, 1st Eng., A joint resolution of apportionment, provides for the following:

The Florida Constitution requires the Legislature, by joint resolution at its regular session in the second year after the United States Census, to apportion state legislative districts. The United States Constitution requires the reapportionment of the United States House of Representatives every ten years, which includes the distribution of the House's 435 seats between the states and the equalization of population between districts within each state.

The 2010 Census revealed an unequal distribution of population growth amongst the State's legislative and congressional districts. Therefore districts must be adjusted to correct population differences.

On February 9, 2012, the Florida Legislature passed SJR 1176, re-apportioning the 120 state House districts and 40 state Senate districts. On March 9, the Court issued a 191-page majority opinion, unanimously finding the state House map valid. By a 5-to-2 vote, the Court found the state Senate map invalid. The Legislature then met in an Extraordinary Session and on March 27, passed SJR 2B, re-apportioning the 40 state Senate districts. On April 27, by a 5-to-2 vote, the Court found the new state Senate map valid.

Shortly thereafter, the state Senate map was challenged in the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial Circuit in Leon County by the League of Women Voters of Florida and other groups as The League of Women Voters of Florida vs. Kenneth W. Detzner.

On July 28, 2015, before the case of The League of Women Voters of Florida vs. Kenneth W. Detzner was to go to trial, the Senate entered into a stipulation and consent judgment with the Plaintiffs and agreed the enacted state Senate map will be revised prior to the 2016 primary and general elections. Because the Plaintiffs and the Senate had entered into a stipulation that required the Senate Plan to be redrawn, the House did not object to the entry of the consent judgment and agreed to be bound by its terms.

Redistricting Plan H110S9079: As approved by the House Select Committee on Redistricting, map H110S9079 in CS/SJR 2-C reapportions the resident population of Florida into 40 State Senate districts, as required by state and federal law.

When compared to the existing 40 State Senate districts, this proposed committee bill will:

- Reduce the number of counties split from 24 to 16;
- Reduce the number of cities split from 47 to 13;
- Reduce the total perimeter, width and height of the districts, consistently, based on various geographical methods of measuring compactness;
- Maintain elected representation for African-American and Hispanic Floridians.

Upon approval of the Legislature, the Plan will be the subject of an evidentiary hearing in the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial Circuit in Leon County as a part of The League of Women Voters of Florida vs. Kenneth W. Detzner. The evidentiary hearing has been set for December 14th through the 18th, 2015.

Excused: Senator Grimsley

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Senior Pastor Scott George, Pine Castle United Methodist Church, Orlando:

Good morning, it's an honor to be with you today. Before I say a word of prayer, I'd like to read a verse of scripture from 1 Timothy 2: "I urge you then, first of all, that petitions and prayers and intercessions and thanksgiving be made for all the people, for kings, and all those in authority that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good and pleases God." Would you bow your heads with me as we pray:

Heavenly Father, on this joyous day of celebration and honor, our first request is for your presence to be with us today. We humbly and reverently call upon your name for wisdom and strength as we embark on a new day. We clearly recognize that without your help and direction we can do nothing apart from you.

We ask that you will give these servants standing before you today the integrity and character:

- To use wisely and well the resources given us;
- To represent all members of our communities fairly;
- To make decisions that promote unity and common good; and
- To honor you in their words and actions both publicly and privately.

I pray that you would bless:

- Their efforts with clear insight;
- Their deliberations with character;
- Their work with clarity; and
- Their decisions with impartiality.

We recognize our responsibility to the past and the future so we ask you today to:

- Give them the courage to dream new dreams and see new possibilities;
- Give them the compassion to honor the least, the forgotten, and the overlooked;
- Give them ears to hear the cries of the poor;
- Give them a heart to bring hope to the hurting;
- Give them a voice to speak with conviction;
- Give them hands that are strong to humbly serve you; and
- Give them feet that are quick to walk with those in need.

We call upon your name and ask that we might be:

- Instruments of your peace;
- Sowing love where there is hatred;
- Pardon where there is injury;
- Union where there is discord;
- Faith instead of doubt;
- Hope and not despair;
- Light to cast away darkness; and
- Where there is sadness, joy.

The Lord bless and keep you. The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. In your name we pray. Amen.

COLOR GUARD

At the direction of the President, the Sergeant at Arms opened the doors of the chamber and a Color Guard of the Florida National Guard marched into the chamber bearing flags of the United States of America and the State of Florida.

President Gardiner introduced his wife, the first lady of the Florida Senate, Camille Gardiner, and welcomed all the other Senate spouses and family members who were present in the chamber.

ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT ANDY GARDINER

Camille asked me last night, "How does it feel that this is your last opening day of session?" For me, it's 16, but I also was a legislative aide, so when I leave here, it will be 21 years that I have had the honor of being a part of this process. As I reflect on it, it's hard to imagine that first campaign in 2000. Many of you remember it. It was quite a hectic time for the state of Florida and quite an interesting history for the country. I have thought about what it was like to knock on doors that first campaign. Nobody expected us to win. Nobody thought that we would ever serve or be Majority Leader, or be honored and humbled to be Senate President.

I mention that because it is so easy to come up here and lose sight of why you ran for office in the first place. When I knocked on doors back in 1999 and 2000, I didn't campaign on the most recent vendor fight or the most recent lobbyist issue that was going to come up. I campaigned on things that I believed in, that I was passionate about. To be quite honest, I wanted to be a part of what Jeb Bush talked about when he was Governor: of being a compassionate conservative. I mention that because each of us comes up here, and we have ideas and values and goals that we want to pursue. Over the next 60 days, I want you to remember why you ran for office. What was the role of government that you campaigned on and what did you want to accomplish? You have my commitment that whatever that goal was, when you go back to your roots and what you wanted to accomplish, as your president, I will help you do that. I may not agree with you. I may vote against you, but I will help you do that. We have had some great successes. There's no doubt that last year was a very unusual year. I get that. When you look at what we were able to accomplish, President Gaetz with the adoption bill, broad-based tax cuts that were a priority of our Governor, it's something very important to me. It seems very small, but I think it will change the state. We created, under Senator Latvala's leadership and others, the SUNTrail, a bike trail program here in the state of Florida. We set aside money to build bike trails all over the state.

Now there were things that we didn't get done. We know that, but you have my commitment, and we have a commitment of working with the Florida House to accomplish a lot of good things, especially this first week. It is my hope, Governor, that we will send to you three bills on Friday: a statewide water policy, a priority of Senators Dean, Simmons, Hays, and Simpson. Senator Dean, I think it's been three years that you have dedicated your time and your life to get this bill done. Governor, it is my hope that we will send that to you on Friday. An education bill that we will pass tomorrow, the Personal Learning Scholarship Account, President Gaetz, has changed the lives of thousands of kids in Florida. When your family is told that your child will have a unique ability, whatever that ability is going to be, the state of Florida is saying through our scholarship program, "We will partner with you. We will help you get the therapies that your child needs. We will help you get the education that you need." Governor, we hope to send that to you on Friday. Finally, Senator Ring, the priorities that families need to understand that their child with unique abilities will have the opportunity to be employed. Governor, you and I have talked a lot about that and how important it is not only to have a path for a child in school for an education and then to move them into the workforce. We will send that bill to you on Friday as well, Governor. I want to thank the House, I want to thank the Speaker, and I want to thank the members for accomplishing these goals in the first week. I think it sets the tone. Last year was unusual—sixteen sessions—I don't know how many special sessions. You have my commitment that we will do everything we can. Now those are just some of my priorities.

We will work to cut taxes, a priority of our Governor as well as a priority of this Senate. We will pass a balanced budget and we will appropriate unprecedented funding for K-12. We will work with our Governor on EFI funding as well as reforms. These are priorities. It's a priority of our Governor and a priority of mine. Finally, I would ask each of you as we go into this session to join me in addressing the APD waiting list. The Governor has made a very strong statement on taking people off the APD waiting list. I want to do more. Governor, we will partner to make sure that an individual that is maybe 30 years old and just wants to work—maybe they've been on the list for 10 or 15 years—let's make a commitment to clear that list.

In 59 days, we will sine die, and I believe that. I hope when each of you leaves, regardless of what you believe, you will say, "You know what? Andy gave me every opportunity to be successful, every opportunity to debate the issues that I believe in." If you leave here and you believe that and you say that, I will go home and think this was a pretty good presidency. That's the Florida Senate, and that's what I am proud of. This is it for us. I haven't looked over here because if I look at Camille, I will start to get a little emotional because this has been a wild ride for us. My mom and dad are here. My in-laws are here. In that first campaign, no one expected us to win, but we knocked on every door we could find. This has truly been a blessing. It's humbling to be your Senate President, and I will do everything I can to make you proud. Thank you all very much.

ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR RICK SCOTT

Good morning Speaker Crisafulli, President Gardiner, and members of the Florida Legislature. Welcome Lieutenant Governor Carlos Lopez-Cantera. I would also like to welcome: Attorney General Pam Bondi, Chief Financial Officer Jeff Atwater, Commissioner of Agriculture Adam Putnam, Chief Justice Labarga, and members of the Florida Supreme Court.

I would like to recognize my amazing wife, Ann. She is the love of my life and my best friend. We are blessed with two wonderful daughters and four energetic grandsons. We will celebrate our 44th wedding anniversary this year.

Today marks my 262nd week in office as the Governor of the Great State of Florida, and I have had a lot of time to reflect over the past 5 years. Judging by earthly standards, Ann and I have had a good bit of success in our lives. But as I reflect on that, I realize that our time on earth is fleeting, and I am unable to do anything of lasting significance without the grace of God. I know our work that is eternal is the time we spend investing in other people—our families, for sure, but we also do work of lasting significance when we invest in the lives of our friends and our neighbors.

I ran for Governor to help my neighbors—all 20 million of them across our great state. There are some who believe that the very best way to help people is for government to give them money. And the truth is, for those in dire need, we need to provide a safety net. With your help, we have invested Florida taxpayer dollars to make a lasting difference in the lives of Florida families.

For the first time ever, we completely funded the critical needs waiting list so persons with unique abilities can get the help they need. We made a record high investment in our education system so every child can have the opportunity to pursue their American Dream. And just this year, we started a pilot program to better serve individuals who suffer with substance abuse and mental illness. These are two issues that have affected my family and many other families in our state. But, government assistance must be the very last resort, not the first. Government does not create prosperity, and it never has. Top down mandates from big government are artificial and not sustainable.

Real prosperity is created by the ingenuity and hard work of the American people. The people of Florida have proven that when they are unfettered by the artificial constraints of government, they are the ones who create real and genuine prosperity for their families. Prosperity that is created naturally, not from the top down, but rather from the bottom up. Floridians want the opportunity to live their dreams. Therefore, I believe that the best way to help our weakest, our poorest, and our most disadvantaged neighbors live their dreams is to help them get a job.

A job is the number one way to change any person’s life for the better, and today, I am proud to report to you that the State of Florida is, in one word, “growing!” Thanks to the hard-working people in our state, over one million jobs have been created in just five years since I took office. One million jobs. Now that is something for Floridians to brag about! One million jobs. Wow!

One of these amazing job creators growing our state from the bottom up is with us today. Please help me welcome the founder and CEO of Gladiator Lacrosse, Rachel Zietz, from Boca Raton. Rachel is just 15 years old, and she started her company when she was 13. Like any competitive athlete, Rachel said she wanted to practice lacrosse as much as possible, but she found the quality of her gear wasn’t holding up. Every few months she was purchasing more equipment, and she said it was getting expensive.

Rachel decided to do something about it, and she created her own line of lacrosse gear to meet her standards. Between school, homework, and lacrosse practice, Rachel now runs her own online company, which had over $1 million in revenue in just two years. Even more impressive, this young small business owner now has three employees that help her out while she is in class. Rachel, thank you for helping to make Florida first for jobs. We know you are just starting your success!

While I am pleased to report to you today that the State of Florida is growing, I must confess that our work has just begun. Now, we face the mighty task of keeping job creation going strong. Now, we must set our sights even higher to make sure we do not fall back. Now, we must be dedicated to making Florida not second to Texas, but first in the nation for job growth for years to come! Our goals are mighty, our challenge is clear. We have two objectives:

First, we must keep doing what’s worked the last five years to help Floridians get a job and live their dreams and keep cutting taxes! Second, we must diversify our economy and help small businesses grow by creating a new $250 million Florida Enterprise Fund, which has already been endorsed by mayors and city leaders all across our state.

With record state revenues, we have the opportunity to diversify our economy and help our small businesses grow by cutting taxes by $1 billion dollars. I've never heard of a businessperson who wanted to grow a smaller business. If we put more money in their pockets, they will spend it on research, new equipment, and hiring to create more jobs.

Ann and I started our first business in Kansas City. When I was just 22 years old, I had gotten off of active duty with the U.S. Navy, and Ann and I used $3,500—all the money we had in savings—to open up a donut shop so my mother could get a job. It is hard work to start a business. It is risky. It is scary. I still remember it like it was yesterday.

That's why I am asking for your support this legislative session for our first for jobs $1 billion tax cut package to cut costs for the manufacturers, the innovators, and the entrepreneurs in our state who take the risks that make our economy grow and create good-paying jobs. A tax cut package of $1 billion may seem like a high number, but let me put a face to this effort by introducing you to Dane Grey. Dane, please stand.

Dane is the CEO of Elite Parking Services in Jacksonville. In college, Dane began a valet parking service to make extra money. Little did he know that his dorm room business would turn into a company with 360 employees and locations all across the country before he turned 30 years old! Dane said he now plans to add around 100 new Florida employees over the next year. Our first for jobs tax cut package will cut the commercial lease tax Dane pays today and help him keep more money to reinvest in the company he worked so hard to create. Dane, thank you for helping to make Florida first for jobs.

I also want to introduce you to Isaac Lidsky, CEO of ODC Construction in Orlando. Isaac is blind, but his degenerative eye disease never stopped him from accomplishing his dreams. Isaac graduated from Harvard Law School and was the first blind U.S. Supreme Court law clerk. His entrepreneurial spirit brought him to Florida in 2011 when he took a chance and used his family's life savings to buy ODC Construction.

ODC built more than 2,000 homes in Florida last year and employs more than 300 men and women, and I am excited to announce that they have built a brand new headquarters in Orlando and will be cutting the ribbon on it very soon! For the past four years, ODC has had commercial leases on their buildings in Orlando and Tampa, which was costing over $14,000 a year in taxes. Isaac is here today in support of reducing the commercial lease tax on businesses to make it easier for entrepreneurs in Florida to start and grow a business and create more jobs.

We know that the commercial lease tax unfairly targets small and large businesses across our state. And, under the first for jobs tax cut package, we will begin the fight to do away with this unfair tax!

Now, cutting taxes alone will not be enough to diversify our economy and allow Florida to become first for jobs. That is why we are asking for your support to reform our business incentive process at Enterprise Florida to create the new Florida Enterprise Fund. The creation of this new $250 million dedicated trust fund will help us diversify Florida's economy, support small business, and become the number one place in the world for families to get a good-paying job.

Please help me welcome just a few of the mayors who have supported our proposal to create the new $250 million Florida Enterprise Fund who are here with us today:

- Jacksonville Mayor Lenny Curry
- Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer
- Tampa Mayor Bob Buckhorn
- Ft. Myers Mayor Randy Henderson
- Apalachicola Mayor Van Johnson
- Pensacola Mayor Ashton Hayward

Thank you all for your support. Enterprise Florida has helped many businesses move and expand to create jobs in Florida. I want to share just one story today.

Last year, I met with 1st Choice Aerospace on a trade mission to Kentucky. While I was there, we announced that 1st Choice Aerospace had chosen to expand in Miramar instead of in their home state of Kentucky, which resulted in 45 new Florida jobs. 1st Choice Aerospace picked Florida over Kentucky because of our talented workforce, our low taxes, and our strong presence in the aviation industry.

Because we temporarily ended the sales tax on manufacturing machinery and equipment, 1st Choice Aerospace has been able to save money and reinvest it into their business, and that is why we must permanently end the sales tax on manufacturing machinery and equipment this year. If not, it will effectively be a tax increase on small businesses like 1st Choice Aerospace.

We want 1st Choice Aerospace to keep growing and hiring more employees like David Tablada, who is here with us today. Please help me welcome him. David was the first employee 1st Choice Aerospace hired when they expanded in Miramar. David moved to Florida when he was eight years old from Nicaragua so his father could pursue a career in aviation. David worked hard to follow in his father's footsteps and attended the George T. Baker Aviation Technical College in Miami to get the skills he needed to find a good-paying job.

David said he is thankful to work at 1st Choice Aerospace because he can provide for his wife, Ania, and his son, Sebastian. David says his job at 1st Choice Aerospace is allowing him to live his American Dream in Florida and also enables him to give back to his community. As a former law enforcement officer, David is working hard to become a volunteer reserve police officer in Miami Beach. Thank you, David, for helping to make Florida first for jobs.

Many of you know that my favorite three topics are jobs, jobs, jobs. But, I want to switch gears before I conclude today. In thinking about the eternal significance of our 20 million neighbors all across our state, I have been increasingly focused on their safety over the past few months.

The hate-filled, cold-blooded events of recent months make it clear that we live in a fallen world where terror sometimes reigns and evil seems unbridled. We've seen people at a concert ruthlessly murdered in Paris, health care workers massacred in San Bernardino, and a Floridian, Steven Sotloff, beheaded by the hands of ISIS just months before.

No one can dispute that ISIS is evil. Our next president must make it their mission to immediately eliminate the threat of ISIS to the United States of America. As a proud U.S. Navy veteran, I have found it even more important over the last few months to stop and honor those who serve to keep our nation safe from harm—at home and abroad.

One of these service members is here with us today. Please help me thank Captain Brian McDowell, an Active Guard Reserve member of the Florida National Guard, who is currently serving in the 3rd Battalion of the 20th Special Forces Group out of Camp Blanding. He began his military career in 2000 and has been deployed multiple times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. While deployed to Afghanistan in 2004, Brian received the Purple Heart after sustaining significant shrapnel and burn injuries to his entire body from an IED explosion. After spending six months in the hospital overcoming life-threatening injuries, he fought hard to be able to return to work with his fellow guardsmen.

I would like to welcome Captain McDowell and his wife Ana, who is also an Active Guard Reserve Member of the Florida National Guard, here today. Please stand. As we honor Captain McDowell and his wife Ana, will every active service member, every veteran, and every first responder in the chamber today please also stand so we can thank you for your service.

In closing, let me say again what I will say all across the state on my bus tour that starts tomorrow—the State of Florida is in one word: growing! We have completely turned our economy around and more families are thriving here today than five years ago. Florida recently surpassed 20 million residents, and we are adding more than 1,000 new residents per day—growing faster than California and New York! Florida has added more than one million jobs.

But, we cannot let up. Our $1 billion tax cut package and the creation of the Florida Enterprise Fund will be key elements to make Florida first for jobs in the nation for years to come.

Let's work together to diversify our economy and help our weakest, our poorest, and our most disadvantaged get a job, even when times are tough across the nation. Let's work together to cut taxes to help families working hard to live their dream in Florida. Let's work together to help every small business owner who is risking their life savings to succeed here in Florida. Let's work together to support the next young entrepreneur—like Rachel, Dane, and Isaac—building the next great idea here in Florida. Let's work together to make sure Florida continues to have a world-class education system.

Let's keep working together to make a lasting legacy in the lives of people all across our great state. Let's make Florida first for jobs together. God bless each of you, and God bless the Great State of Florida. Thank you.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR AND OTHER EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

VETOED BILLS 2015 SPECIAL SESSION A

The Honorable Kenneth W. Detzner
Secretary of State
Florida Department of State
R.A. Gray Building
500 South Bronough Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399

June 23, 2015

Dear Secretary Detzner:

As Ann and I travel the state, families ask me to focus on three important areas. First, they want to make sure all Floridians have an opportunity for a great job. Second, they want Florida children to have access to a great education. Third, Floridians want safe communities.

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget signed into law today returns more than $427 million in taxes back to hardworking families. It also provides historic education funding and invests in areas to help Florida become the global destination for jobs. Families know how to spend their money better than government. I am pleased that the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget cuts cell phone and TV taxes, eliminates the sales tax college students pay on textbooks and implements a 10-day sales tax holiday for school supplies. These broad-based tax cuts will directly save money for most every family in our state!

The average person in Florida currently pays about $1,800 in state taxes – the lowest in the nation. The tax cuts in this budget will help us continue our incredible momentum by strengthening our growing economy and providing more opportunities for families in our state. Florida’s economy is on a roll. In four and a half years, Florida businesses have created over 879,000 jobs; our unemployment rate is 5.7 percent; our annual private-sector job growth rate has exceeded that of the nation for over three years; and Florida’s private-sector job growth month-to-month has been positive for 43 consecutive months.

I am committed to making Florida the global leader in job creation by 2020. If we are going to achieve this goal, we not only have to continue cutting taxes, but also investing in our students because parents and grandparents know the chance to live the American Dream starts with a great education. That is why this budget continues our commitment to ensure a world-class education for Florida students by investing historic levels of funding for K-12 and for our state universities, holding the line on higher education tuition - and for the first time - including performance funding for our state colleges. We want every family in our state to succeed and that is why we are committed to investing in our children’s and grandchildren’s educations.

Because Floridians have worked hard to turn our economy around, we had a more than $1 billion budget surplus that we were able to invest in our families’ future. This budget includes strategic investments, including:

- Historic funding for the Agency for Persons with Disabilities – serving another 2,000 individuals and eliminating the existing critical needs waitlist.
- Protecting Florida’s natural resources by investing $3.5 billion in Florida’s agricultural and natural resources.
- Investing $9.3 billion in transportation projects for roads, bridges, ports and airports; and
- Building stronger communities with an investment of nearly $5 billion for public safety to ensure we continue to give our law enforcement the tools they need to keep our families, visitors and businesses safe.

Tax revenue is generated by Floridians who are working hard to provide for their families and we are committed to effectively using these dollars by investing them in areas with proven results. That is why I have vetoed $461.4 million in special projects. The total “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget is $78.2 billion, which includes $1.2 billion in General Revenue reserves. Florida recently surpassed New York to become the third largest state, and this budget continues making Florida the most efficient government in the nation by driving down the cost of bureaucracy and eliminating burdensome red tape.

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget will help us on our mission of unseating Texas to become the number one destination for jobs and allow Florida to make important investments that benefit all of our communities while putting tax dollars back in the pockets of our families and job creators.

KEEP FLORIDA WORKING BUDGET HIGHLIGHTS

$427 Million in Tax Cuts for Florida Families and Businesses

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget reflects Governor Scott’s commitment to cutting taxes and allowing Florida families to keep more of their own money. While cutting taxes, Florida has been able to make record investments in education, environment, and transportation infrastructure, pay down state debt by $7.5 billion, and maintain a $1.2 billion budget surplus.

Cut the Cellphone and TV Tax - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget reduces cell phone and TV taxes by 1.73 percent, saving Floridians and businesses $226.1 million annually.

Eliminate Sales Taxes on College Textbooks - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget reduces the cost of a college education by eliminating the sales tax on the purchase of college textbooks for one year for the first time ever. The prices of college textbooks have increased significantly over the years, often exceeding $100 per book. Exempting college textbooks from the sales tax for one year is expected to save Florida’s students $43.7 million.

10-day Back to School Sales Tax Holiday - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides for a 10-day back to school sales tax holiday saving Floridians $67.8 million. The holiday will run from August 7-16, 2015, and will provide for tax-free purchases so families can provide students with the supplies they need to be successful during the school year.

Reduce Business Taxes - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget reduces business taxes by increasing the tax credits available for research and development, community contributions, and brownfield rehabilitation. The tax cut also grants an extension of the Florida Enterprise Zone program for certain businesses recently established in such zones. These changes are estimated to save Florida businesses $88.6 million over the next five years.

World-Class Education for Florida Students

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues Governor Scott’s commitment to providing Florida students with the opportunity to live their dreams. Florida’s K-12 system is focused on preparing every student for college or a career when they graduate. The current year’s $19.7 billion budget for Florida public schools is the highest level of funding in Florida history. The Governor also worked to secure pay raises for Florida teachers in Fiscal Year 2013-2014. In order to build on these achievements, the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues the Governor’s commitment to education by again making historic investments to ensure every Florida student has the tools needed to succeed in the classroom, because the opportunity to live the American Dream starts with a great education.

Historic Total and State K-12 Public School Funding - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides historic funding of $19.7 billion, of which $10.9 billion is historic state funding for K-12 public schools. Total funding results in a per-student funding of $7,097. This includes $60 million for digital classrooms.

K-12 School Capital Funds - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $50 million in funding for charter school facilities, $50 million for maintenance at traditional K-12 public schools, and $10.5 million for other education capital projects.

K-12 Rural School Districts - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $2.5 million to assist rural school districts across the state. Funding is provided to three regional educational consortiums to create greater equity between larger and smaller districts by providing small districts access to resources and expertise they could not provide individually.

K-12 Rural School District Construction and Renovation - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $80.9 million for eight rural school districts’ Special Facility Construction projects. This includes funds for new school buildings and major renovation in Glades, Washington, Madison, Levy, Calhoun, Holmes, Dixie, and Hamilton Counties.

Early Learning - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $389.3 million toward the Voluntary Pre-K program, and $560.5 million for the School Readiness program, including an increase of $5 million to target children up to age five on the wait list. The budget also includes $10.5 million for an early learning performance pilot program to award child care providers and instructors for improving quality.

Investing in Higher Education Excellence

Governor Scott has also focused on holding the line on tuition in Florida’s higher education system while providing performance funding for Florida’s colleges and universities so they can accurately measure student outcomes and provide students with a better education. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes no higher education tuition increases and provides an historic total level of funding for state universities - $4.5 billion, an increase of $178.2 million. The budget invests a total of $1.2 billion in state operating funding for the state colleges. Because of the Governor’s work to hold the line on college tuition, the price of Florida Prepaid plans was cut in half and an historic 42,000 prepaid plans were sold last year.

Florida College System - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides a total of $2 billion for Florida colleges, which includes $1.2 billion in state funding and $822 million in tuition. This includes $40 million in performance funds for the Florida College System.

State University System - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides a record total of $4.5 billion for Florida’s universities. This is an increase of $178.2 million over Fiscal Year 2014-15. The budget includes $100 million in new university performance funds, for a total of $400 million, to reward excellence or improvement in student success.

College and University Construction and Building Maintenance - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $78.6 million for Florida College System facilities and $89.9 million for State University System facilities. The budget also provides $20 million for maintenance and repair for Florida colleges and $35 million for maintenance and repair for state universities.

Industry Certifications - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues $5 million in funding for the Florida College System and provides $4.5 million for the District Workforce Education programs based on students earning industry certifications in Targeted Occupational Areas, including Health Science and Information Technology.

Colleges and school districts earn $1,000 for each industry certification that a student earns.

Making Florida a Global Destination for Jobs

In four and a half years, Florida has created more than 879,000 private-sector jobs. This means more families are able to find a great job and live their dreams right here in Florida. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget puts Florida on a path to be the number one destination for jobs in the world. Today, Texas is the state’s number one competitor for jobs – but Governor Scott has set the goal of unseating Texas by 2020 and taking this top spot. In fact, Florida has created more private-sector jobs than Texas over the year and Florida had the fastest private-sector job growth rate among the ten most populous states.

Because of Florida’s low tax environment, smart regulatory structure, and educated workforce, Florida is well positioned for growth in science, technology, engineering and math fields such as advanced manufacturing, medical research, and other high-tech research and development.

Since Fiscal Year 2010-11, Florida has increased its investment in economic development by $131.4 million, or 199 percent. This investment in job creation and economic growth has led to economic successes including:

- o More than 879,000 private sector jobs created;
- o Month-to-month positive private-sector job creation for 43 consecutive months;
- o Florida’s unemployment rate has been cut almost in half;
- o Over 1.5 million Floridians have been placed in jobs through Florida’s workforce network since 2012;
- o Florida has become the #2 state in the country for doing business, as ranked by Chief Executive Magazine;
- o Florida has become the #2 state in the country for trade infrastructure and aviation/aerospace facilities;
- o From 1992-2011, Florida inherited $100 billion in adjusted gross income from other states. This is more than 1/8 of our annual GDP.
- o Florida’s real GDP in 2014 was $769.7 billion, up 2.7 percent from 2013. This growth rate exceeded the national growth rate of 2.2 percent. Among all states, Florida had the fourth largest real GDP in the nation in 2014.

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues to build on this success by investing in transportation and economic development.

By making these investments in combination with cutting taxes and regulations, Florida has become one of the nation’s premier states for families to live, work, and play. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget for economic development continues to support the key elements of our economic growth agenda – creating jobs, maintaining and enhancing an economic climate under which Florida’s businesses can thrive, and providing the resources needed to effectively respond to job creation and economic development opportunities.

Improving Florida’s Transportation System - Since Fiscal Year 2010-11, Florida has increased its investment in transportation by $2.4 billion, or 34 percent. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes $9.3 billion to fully fund the Department of Transportation’s Work Program and to ensure that Florida’s transportation infrastructure remains among the best in the nation. Governor Scott realizes that maintaining the quality of Florida’s transportation network is vital to our efforts to enhance economic competitiveness, create and retain transportation-related jobs, provide efficient movement of goods, and improve the quality of life for Florida’s families. The budget includes:

- o $35 million for Economic Development Transportation Projects (Road Fund)
- o $3.7 billion to expand transportation system capacity, which includes adding 292 new lane miles
- o $633.6 million for resurfacing more than 2,493 lane miles
- o $369 million for aviation improvements
- o $244.8 million for scheduled repairs of 94 bridges and replacement of 16 bridges
- o $146 million in seaport infrastructure improvements

Attracting and Retaining Florida Businesses - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides approximately $203.1 million for Florida’s economic development public-partnerships. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes $8.5 million to market opportunity in Florida throughout the country and the world, spreading the message that the Sunshine State is the number one place in the world to compete and win globally.

Quick Response Training - To help maintain the level of economic competitiveness Florida has achieved under Governor Scott, the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes Quick Response Training (QRT) Program funding of $12.1 million. The QRT Program provides businesses in targeted industries with matching funds related to specific training activities for workers who will be moving into new jobs that the businesses create in Florida.

Record Breaking Tourism - In 2014, a record 98.9 million visitors came to the state, an increase of 5.1 percent over 2013, and spent $73 billion while in Florida. In comparison, California only expects 60 million tourists this year. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes a total of $74 million for VISIT Florida to build on their success in attracting more tourists to the Sunshine State. For every dollar invested in VISIT Florida, the state saw a return of $3.20. Last year, VISIT Florida also raised more than $120 million in private matching funds.

Keeping Florida Beautiful

Florida is home to the world’s most beautiful natural treasures and Governor Scott continues his focus to ensure they are protected for generations to come. Over the last four years, historic investments have been made on restoring the Everglades, protecting our Springs, improving Florida’s water quality, and investing in the state’s citrus industry. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget builds on these investments by providing more than $3 billion dollars to protect our agricultural and natural resources. The Governor’s “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget fully complies with Amendment 1 by including over $740 million for Florida’s Land Acquisition Trust Fund to support land and water programs.

Protecting Florida Springs - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $45 million in funding for Springs protection and restoration projects, more than half of which is provided as recurring funding. This record level of funding for Springs builds on the success of the last four years and clearly demonstrates Florida’s commitment to protecting these natural treasures. Since Governor Scott took office more than $85 million has been provided by the state for Springs restoration.

Protecting Florida’s Everglades - Over the last four years Governor Scott has made protecting the Everglades a top priority by investing more than $500 million for Everglades restoration. In addition, under the Governor’s leadership, an $880 million water quality plan was created to ensure, once and for all, that water flowing into the Everglades is free from harmful nutrients. This year, Everglades restoration projects received more than $106 million, and like Spring projects, more than half of that amount was provided as recurring funding, demonstrating a lasting commitment to the River of Grass.

Land Acquisition and Increase Land Management - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $71.5 million in land management and land acquisition, which includes $17.4 million in new cash for the Division of State Lands within the Department of Environmental Protection, $15 million for the Rural and Family Lands Program within the Department of Agriculture Z Consumer Services, $5.5 million for the Florida Recreation Development Assistance Program (FRDAP) and $33.6 million for additional land management.

State Park Facility Improvements - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $24 million for repairs and renovations to Florida’s nationally recognized state park facilities, including $4 million to continue to bring state park facilities into compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Florida State Parks are the nation’s only two and three-time winner of the National Gold Medal Award.

Protecting Florida’s Beaches - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $32 million toward financial assistance to local governments for beach and dune restoration, beach nourishment, regional sediment management, and other innovative projects.

Wastewater Treatment Facility Construction - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $223.3 million for low interest loans to local governments for the construction of wastewater treatment and stormwater management systems, including collection and transmission sewers, reclaimed water (reuse) systems, and a variety of other facilities and activities through the Clean Water State Revolving Fund.

Drinking Water Facility Construction - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $91 million for low interest loans to local governments and certain other utilities for construction of drinking water systems, including treatment, storage and distribution facilities.

Water Protection Projects - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $47 million for local water projects to assist communities with investing in local water resources and enhancing the quality of water that families receive.

Petroleum Storage Tank Cleanup - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $132 million for the cleanup of petroleum storage tank discharges. This includes an increase of $7 million for local government cleanup contracting.

Contaminated Site Cleanup - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $6.5 million to cleanup properties and groundwater contaminated with dry-cleaning solvent discharges. Properties are restored for commercial reuse benefiting business owners, property owners, the community and the local tax rolls.

Building Stronger Florida Communities

In order for Florida to be the best state in the nation for families to live their dreams, Florida must be home to safe communities. Florida’s crime rate is at a 44-year low thanks to the dedicated work of Florida’s law enforcement community. The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues to build on that success.

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget ensures Florida’s state and local criminal justice agencies have the resources to provide for the safety and protection of Florida families and visitors through effective investigations, prosecution, security, and targeted rehabilitation and prevention efforts.

Ensuring Safe Prisons - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes $16.5 million to fill critical vacant positions within Florida’s prisons and an additional $500,000 to contract with community colleges to train new correctional officers. The budget also provides $10 million for critical maintenance and repair of prison facilities.

Safer Communities through Reduced Recidivism - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $13.2 million in reentry programs with proven track records to reduce the number of inmates going back to prison. The budget makes the following investments to keep recidivism low in Florida:

- o An additional $1.9 million which will fund approximately 75 additional community based residential substance abuse co-occurring beds;
- o An additional investment of $1.7 million for job training and placement for current and newly released inmates through Operation New Hope, Ready4Work, the Broward County Sheriff’s Inmate Portal Reentry program, and Home Builder’s Institute vocational programs.

Continuing Reforms in Juvenile Justice - With a continued decline in residential commitments of youth resulting from effective prevention and intervention services, the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues and expands prevention and treatment programs to more at risk youth. This investment includes the following:

- o An additional $2.1 million to increase capacity in existing PACE Centers for Girls across the state;
- o An additional $3.3 million for the Associated Marine Institute to provide gender-specific programming and in-home counseling services to at-risk and delinquent youth; and

- o An additional $3 million for Boys and Girls Clubs to provide delinquency prevention programs to over 16,000 youth at risk of entering the juvenile justice system, and $1.5 million for the Big Brothers Big Sisters programs targeting 1,200 at risk youth.

Protecting Families from Abuse and Violence - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget supports $4 million for the continued funding of the 26 child advocacy centers statewide that provide services to victims of child abuse and neglect.

Keep Florida Families Healthy

Supporting People with Developmental Disabilities - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget makes record investments totaling $1.2 billion into the Agency of Persons with Disabilities and provides over $40 million to remove more than 2,000 individuals from the waiting list for the third year in a row. This is an increase of $57 million over current year funding. This funding will serve more than 2,000 individuals and eliminate the existing critical needs portion of the waitlist as well as individuals transitioning out of school.

Supported Employment - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $1 million for job placement and training for individuals with developmental disabilities on the waiting list. With this increased funding, more young adults with developmental disabilities will have firsthand opportunities to demonstrate their skills in the workplace.

Recreational Parks for Individuals with Disabilities - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $1.6 million to provide for maintenance and repairs at Billy Joe Rish Park and Hawkins Park located in Northwest Florida. These parks, open year-round, are specialized to allow people with disabilities, their family members, guardians, and caregivers, to enjoy Florida's natural beauty.

Services for Persons with Disabilities - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $217.6 million in funding to help people with disabilities find and maintain employment and enhance their independence and $52.8 million to ensure blind and visually impaired Floridians have the tools, support, and opportunity to achieve success.

Vocational Rehabilitation - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides $217.6 million to the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation to help individuals with disabilities find jobs to increase their independence.

Division of Blind Services - The Division of Blind Services is provided with $54 million in the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget to ensure blind and visually impaired Floridians have the resources they need to lead healthy, successful lives.

Florida School for the Deaf and Blind - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $55.6 million for the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind to provide individualized educational services to ensure each student can develop independence and lifelong success. Also, the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $74 million for education programs designed for students with disabilities such as Learning Through Listening, Personal Learning Accounts, and autism programs.

MACTown Fitness and Wellness - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues efforts to identify new ideas for helping individuals with developmental disabilities achieve their maximum potential in living healthy and productive lives. The budget supports $150,000 in funding to MACTown Fitness and Wellness Center in Miami-Dade for a personalized, safe, and closely monitored environment where individuals can pursue their fitness goals through education, hands-on experience, and a consistent exercise schedule consisting of professional and specialized equipment and aerobics classes.

The Arc of Florida Dental Services - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget supports dental services for individuals with developmental disabilities with an additional $2 million provided to The Arc of Florida. Funds will be used to enroll new providers and continue statewide coordinated dental services, which will improve the health and self-confidence of the people served.

Protecting Florida's Children

Healthy Families - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget increases funding for Healthy Families by $3.9 million to expand home visiting services for expectant and new parents whose children are at risk of abuse and neglect. Healthy Families is a nationally accredited, evidence-based program that has been proven to reduce incidents of child abuse and neglect.

Family Intensive Treatment Teams - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget supports $2.4 million in new funding to implement evidence-based practices for treating a parent's mental health and substance abuse disorders that put children at risk of maltreatment.

Community Action Treatment - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests an additional $1.5 million in new funding to add two new additional Community Actions Treatment teams to areas in need. These teams provide community in home services to severely mentally ill children and their families.

Human Trafficking - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget includes $2.2 million for five safe houses across the state to provide more emergency and long-term shelter to victims of human trafficking while they recover from commercial sexual exploitation and receive rehabilitative services to help integrate them back into their communities.

Maintenance Adoption Subsidies - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides an additional $18.3 million to fully fund the increased number of children with special needs adopted by Florida families.

Local Community Based Care Lead Agencies - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget supports $29.1 million in new funding to the state's primary foster care providers for direct services to children and families to improve child protection and abuse prevention services.

Supporting Florida's Seniors

Community Care for the Elderly (CCE) - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides an additional $2 million for the CCE program to help approximately 305 individuals who are at the greatest risk of nursing home placement. The CCE program provides community-based services organized in a continuum of care to help functionally impaired seniors live in the least restrictive environment suitable to their needs.

Alzheimer's Disease Initiative (ADI) - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget provides an additional $1.7 million in Alzheimer's respite services for approximately 167 individuals. The ADI provides caregiver respite services and support to meet the changing needs of individuals and families affected by Alzheimer's disease and similar memory disorders.

Cutting Costs While Investing in Priorities

Florida has the lowest number of state workers per capita in the country, and the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget continues to improve productivity while making strategic investments in state facilities.

Florida's National Guard Facilities - The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget invests $5.5 million in Florida National Guard armories. An additional $2.9 million in state funding is provided for the construction of a new armory in Flagler County.

By the authority vested in me as Governor of Florida, under the provisions of Article III, Section 8, of the Constitution of Florida, I do hereby withhold my approval of portions of Senate Bill 2500-A, enacted by the Florida Legislature during the 2015 Special Session A, and entitled:

An act making appropriations; providing monies for the annual period beginning July 1, 2015, and ending June 30, 2016, and supplemental appropriations for the period ending June 30, 2015, to pay salaries and other expenses, capital outlay - buildings, and other improvements, and for other specified purposes of the various agencies of state government; providing for contingent retroactive operation; providing an effective date.

For the reasons that follow, I do hereby withhold my approval of the following line items in the 2015-16 General Appropriations Act:

SECTION 2 - EDUCATION (ALL OTHER FUNDS)

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget continues to make historic investments in Florida's education system. With a record $19.7 billion going to K-12 public schools, the per-student funding is $7,097. Florida's colleges hit an historic level of state operating funding with $1.2 billion and state universities have a record $4.5 billion in total funding. More impressive - these historic investments have been made without raising taxes.

Florida's commitment to students is demonstrated in this budget by aligning state funds with performance funding models that reward excellence or improvement in student success. Incentivizing educational institutions to focus on metrics like graduation rates, average wages for graduates, and the cost per degree guarantee that students will leave Florida's education system with less debt and the ability to obtain high-skill, high-wage jobs. Florida's early learning providers are receiving $10.5 million for improving school readiness program outcomes. School districts are provided $4.5 million and the state colleges are provided $5 million for students earning industry certifications in key occupational areas. The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget brings performance funding to the Florida College System for the first time with a $40 million investment. The budget also builds on the success of performance funding at state universities by increasing performance-based funding to $400 million.

For the third consecutive year, Florida has held the line on tuition for state colleges and for state universities. As a result, the price of a Florida Prepaid Plan dropped in half and a record number of 42,000 prepaid plans were sold last year. Every student deserves the opportunity to better themselves through education and the state is on the way to ensuring all Floridians have access to a high quality and affordable education.

Over the last four years, Florida's economy has been rebuilt. To continue this economic growth, the state is prioritizing investments that bring jobs to Florida and will ensure students receive a quality education that builds a foundation for a promising future.

COMPREHENSIVE TRANSITION PROGRAM
FROM GENERAL REVENUE FUND..... 8,000,000

Funds provided in Specific Appropriations 146A shall be allocated to: 1) create and fund postsecondary education coordination activities and program options to increase the independence of individuals with disabilities through improved educational and employment opportunities, as referenced in 2013 reports of the Governor's Commission on Jobs for Floridians with Disabilities, created by Executive Order 11-161, and the Students with Disabilities Education Pathway Task Force, created by the Florida Legislature; 2) improve the coordination of information and availability of robust opportunities for individuals with disabilities to attain the academic, technical, and educational skills necessary to prepare them for success in the workforce and life; 3) assist in minimizing the disparity in educational and workforce opportunities through increased postsecondary academic opportunities and work experiences; 4) create a statewide coordination and program management center; and 5) establish criteria and funding incentives for Florida's postsecondary education institutions to establish and operate Florida Postsecondary Comprehensive Transition Programs (FPCTPs) to assist individuals with disabilities in attaining skills and experiences that will lead to sustainable job and life success.

From the funds in Specific Appropriation 146A, $1,500,000 is provided to the Florida Center for Students with Unique Abilities (center) at the University of Central Florida to serve as the statewide coordinating center responsible for disseminating information about postsecondary education opportunities, programs, support, and services available statewide for individuals with disabilities; manage and facilitate the statewide implementation of FPCTPs and other programs and services; and provide technical assistance to expand best practices and partnerships that facilitate access to meaningful credentials and job opportunities. At a minimum, the center must: 1) disseminate information to students with disabilities and their parents regarding education programs, services, resources, and employment opportunities for such students; 2) consult with the National Center and the Coordinating Center, as identified in 20 U.S.C. s. 1140q, regarding federal requirements and standards, quality indicators, and benchmarks; 3) provide technical assistance regarding programs and services for students with intellectual disabilities to administrators, instructors, staff, and others at eligible institutions; 4) administer FPCTP start-up and enhancement grants, including creating an application to be used by eligible institutions to seek approval of an FPCTP from the center and receive FPCTP start-up and enhancement grants and approving grant applications; 5) administer and oversee implementation of FPCTP scholarship awards to eligible students enrolled in center-approved, grant-receiving FPCTP programs; and 6) provide, by December 31, 2015, and June 15, 2016, implementation status reports and recommendations to the Governor, President of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives regarding the improvement and statewide expansion of FPCTPs.

An eligible institution means a state university; a Florida College System institution; a career center; a charter technical career center; or an independent college or university that is located and chartered in this state, is not for profit, is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and is eligible to participate in the William L. Boyd, IV, Florida Resident Access Grant Program. To receive an FPCTP start-up and enhancement grant, an eligible institution must submit to the center, by a date established by the center, an application for approval of a proposed program that must address the comprehensive transition and postsecondary program requirements under 20 U.S.C. s. 1140. Additionally, the eligible institution must attach to the application: 1) documented evidence of a federally approved comprehensive transition and postsecondary program that is determined to be an eligible program for the federal student aid programs and is currently offered at the institution, 2) documented evidence of the submission of an application for such federal approval of a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program proposed by the institution, or 3) documentation demonstrating the commitment of an institution's governing board to submit an application for federal approval of a program proposed by the institution pursuant to 20 U.S.C. s. 1140. By December 1, 2015, each eligible institution that offers an FPCTP approved by the center must report to the center the status of program implementation and student progress including, but not limited to, recruitment efforts, student enrollment and retention information, business partnerships, and student employment and job placement results. The maximum annual FPCTP start-up and enhancement grant award shall be $300,000 per institution.

From the funds in Specific Appropriation 146A, $3,500,000 is provided to the Florida Center for Students with Unique Abilities to be distributed as FPCTP scholarships for students who are enrolled in center-approved FPCTPs for which an FPCTP start-up and enhancement grant was awarded. The scholarships will be disbursed for award to each grant-receiving institution for eligible students who are enrolled in the center-approved FPCTP who are not receiving services that are funded through the Florida Education Finance Program or a scholarship under part III of chapter 1002 of the Florida Statutes. Each grant-receiving institution shall provide each eligible student enrolled in its center-approved FPCTP with a $7,000 FPCTP scholarship, prorated by term, to cover the student's cost of tuition, program fees, instructional materials, and other cost of attendance. The scholarship amount may be prorated if appropriated funds are insufficient to provide the full award to all eligible students in center-approved programs. Each institution shall report to the center demographic and other data requested by the center for students who received the scholarships. By December 31, 2015 and June 15, 2016, for each respective term of the academic year, the center must report to the Governor, President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chancellor of the State University System, and the Commissioner of Education, an FPCTP scholarship status report including: 1) the number of students receiving scholarships at each institution, 2) demographic information on scholarship recipients, 3) the amount of scholarship funds disbursed at each institution, 4) student performance indicators, such as credits completed, 5) recommendations to improve and expand FPCTPs, and 6) other applicable information requested by the center."

SECTION 3 - HUMAN SERVICES

The Health and Human Services area of the "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget continues to build on significant accomplishments for the health of Florida's families and most vulnerable individuals. This budget marks the third straight year of a balanced budget for the Agency for Persons with Disabilities—allowing for record funding to go toward bringing another 2,000 individuals off of the waiting list for waiver services to help them live, learn, and work in their communities. By removing all individuals with critical needs from the waiting list for a second straight year, a total of nearly $100 million has been invested over the past three years to bring vital services to an additional 5,000 individuals with critical needs.

Similar investments are made in other areas of the Health and Human Services budget, including $3.7 million to serve more individuals in waiver programs for Florida's seniors and an additional $29.1 million to community-based care lead agencies that oversee case management and other critical services for children in Florida's foster care system. Exciting investments are also made on behalf of Florida's future economic competitiveness with record levels of funding for graduate medical education and biomedical research at state universities and teaching facilities. Florida taxpayers deserve a return on investment for their dollars, and these programs ensure a return by tying funding to helping individuals improve their health outcomes.

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget also supports the development of a new patient-centered prospective payment system for outpatient services. This new system will complement similar major reforms that have taken place in recent years to improve quality and efficiency in the Medicaid program. Although such reforms have been opposed by hospitals, which have generated recent record profits, constant efficiencies must be made to improve the return on taxpayer investment in the Medicaid program that already makes up over 33 percent of the state budget.

This budget places a high value on investments that will improve healthcare cost, quality, and access, while other budget items were omitted that did not meet these objectives or provided duplicative services funded elsewhere in the budget.

SECTION 4 - CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND CORRECTIONS

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget for Criminal Justice and Corrections provides funding to ensure communities are safe for Florida families and visitors. Safer communities mean that more families and businesses will move to Florida and bring jobs and investment. Florida's recidivism rate has declined 6.2 percent in the past four years and crime rate is at its lowest level in 44 years. These declines can be attributed to sentencing laws that hold offenders accountable, the continued requirement that inmates serve 85 percent of their sentence, the good work of law enforcement officers, and ensuring law enforcement agencies and officers have the effective tools and technologies they need.

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget provides a $13.2 million investment in evidence-based reentry programs to assist inmates in reintegrating back into the community to help them live successful, crime-free lives. Providing comprehensive reentry services reduces further victimization and the likelihood a released inmate will return to prison.

This budget also provides $39.3 million in evidence-based community substance abuse and mental health treatment. Providing treatment to non-violent drug offenders and those with mental health issues greatly reduces the chances an offender will relapse and commit further crimes.

To prevent youth from entering the criminal justice system, this budget provides an increase of $3.7 million in evidence-based prevention services for a total of $85 million. Evidence-based prevention and transition services have been proven to reduce at-risk youth involvement in the juvenile justice system.

Programs that circumvent the agency evaluation process present challenges as to whether they provide the best return on investment for taxpayers and public safety outcomes for Florida families.

The following is vetoed because funding for planning and construction of county buildings is the responsibility of local government.

SECTION 5 - NATURAL RESOURCES/ENVIRONMENT/ GROWTH MANAGEMENT/TRANSPORTATION

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" recommended budget for FY 2015-16 outlined key investments needed to protect and restore Florida's iconic natural resources, building on the momentum gained over the last four years. For instance, the "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget recommended establishing dedicated funding for Everglades restoration, Springs protection, and land management and acquisition. By establishing dedicated funding for key ecosystem restoration projects, long-term planning would be encouraged, delays in critical projects would be minimized and Floridians could feel confident that the finish line for projects would be reached. Key investments in areas such as Florida's nationally recognized state parks system, beach restoration, hazardous waste cleanup, and Florida's citrus industry were also recommended.

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget takes significant strides in accomplishing many of these goals. Springs protection and restoration projects were provided more than $45 million in funding, more than half of which was provided as recurring funding. This record level of funding for Springs builds on the success of the last three years and clearly demonstrates Florida's commitment to protecting these natural treasures. Everglades restoration projects received more than $106 million, and like Springs projects, more than half of that amount was provided as recurring funding, demonstrating a lasting commitment to the River of Grass. In addition, similar to the recommendations of the "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget, more than $30 million was invested in increased land management to ensure we appropriately care for the natural lands that future generations are depending on us to maintain. Other critical investments in our environment include:

- $24 million for repairs and improvements to the Florida State Park System;
- $32 million for the restoration of Florida's world renowned beaches;
- $132 million for the cleanup of leaking underground petroleum tanks; and
- $8 million for citrus research to combat citrus greening.

While this budget sets the stage for continued progress in preserving Florida's natural resources, with the implementation of Amendment 1 we must continue to strive to accomplish even more. To that end, the following vetoes will help reserve funds so that resources are available in the next fiscal year to continue moving towards dedicated funding for key established environmental efforts such as Everglades restoration and reducing discharges to south Florida's estuaries, springs protection, land management, and investing in Florida Forever.

The following is vetoed because funds are limited to a specific patented technology and are not competitively bid to determine the project and vendor that will provide the highest level of nutrient reduction per dollar.

One of Florida's most important resources is water. The Department of Environmental Protection and the state's five water management districts provide funding to protect the quality and quantity of Florida's water supply. These agencies work to ensure that Floridians' tax dollars are spent in a manner that will provide a demonstrable improvement statewide through an open and public process. While some water projects may also contribute to a statewide objective, not all projects demonstrate an ability to clearly contribute to a statewide investment.

The following projects are vetoed because they did not provide a clear statewide return for the investment.

Department of Transportation

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget includes $9.3 billion to fully fund the Department of Transportation's (DOT) Five-year Work Program and to ensure that Florida's transportation infrastructure remains among the best in the nation. Maintaining the quality of Florida's transportation network is vital to enhancing economic competitiveness, creating and retaining transportation-related jobs, providing efficient movement of goods, and improving the quality of life for Florida's families.

The development of the Five-year Work Program is a locally-driven, project prioritization process where local governments, Metropolitan Planning Organizations, and residents work collaboratively with DOT to decide their local transportation needs and state priorities. Ensuring projects follow DOT's prioritization process is critical to ensuring they provide the best return on taxpayer investment for Florida families.

The following is vetoed because this program is duplicative of services provided by the Transportation Disadvantaged Commission, which is funded at $53 million.

Specific Appropriation 1868

SECTION 6 - GENERAL GOVERNMENT

The "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" recommended budget for Fiscal Year 2015-16 prioritized strategic investments in state facilities and reduced costs to taxpayers, while safeguarding the health and safety of Florida's citizens and visitors. For example, the "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget included $9.1 million to renovate three Florida National Guard armories and an additional $2.9 million to allow for the construction of the new Flagler Armory. In addition, the "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget directed the reduction of the My-FloridaMarketPlace transaction fee, cutting the cost of doing business with the state by more than $6.5 million.

The Fiscal Year 2015-16 the "KEEP FLORIDA WORKING" budget, as passed by the Legislature, shares much of this vision, and also provides funds for armory renovation and construction. These, along with past investments, have significantly improved the Florida Guard's ability to maintain units, as the armories are currently being inspected in preparation for the upcoming Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission (BRAC). In addition, the budget includes $26.5 million to correct the most pressing deficiencies within the Florida Facilities Pool and also reduced the transaction fee. The final "KEEP FLORIDA

WORKING” budget addresses other important needs, including:

- $1.5 million to develop the Florida Business and Information Portal, which will provide the information needed to start and operate a business in the state;
- $2 million to support job readiness and youth programs within the Department of Military Affairs; and
- $4.6 million for public safety communications systems that allow for interoperability between first responders.

Although the final “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget furthers a number of key efforts, it also includes several earmarked appropriations that limit the flexibility of agencies to react to the needs of Florida businesses while leading to the growth of government. The following vetoes ensure that state agencies will continue to have the flexibility to direct state funds as necessary to protect Floridians.

The following are vetoed because the specific media campaigns directed are more appropriately addressed by a private association. The appropriations would also reduce the Department of Business and Professional Regulation’s flexibility to address and respond to unlicensed activity.

Specific Appropriation 2034
Pages 282 and 283

"From the funds in Specific Appropriation 2034, up to $500,000 from the Professional Regulation Trust Fund is provided to the Department of Business and Professional Regulation to prevent, combat, and publicize the dangers of unlicensed real estate activity in Florida. The department shall develop, implement, and maintain an unlicensed activity campaign in consultation with a corporation that is registered under chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as a not-for-profit corporation and qualified under the Internal Revenue Service Code as a 501(c)(6) corporation, and that represents the largest number of licensed Florida real estate professionals. The campaign shall encompass media production, advertising, and other techniques that the department may wish to utilize after first consulting with the not-for-profit corporation. Special emphasis shall be placed on the investigation and prosecution of unlicensed real estate activities. To further the purpose of the unlicensed activity campaign, the department shall be authorized to accept in-kind contributions of services, media production, or advertising materials from the not-for-profit corporation. Any advertising, media, or materials produced as a result of contributions shall carry acknowledgements of joint production and sponsorship. The department may not allocate overhead charges to these unlicensed activity campaign funds.

From the funds in Specific Appropriation 2034, up to $100,000 from the Professional Regulation Trust Fund is provided to the Department of Business and Professional Regulation to institute an unlicensed activity campaign for the purpose of informing and educating the public: (1) that public accounting is a regulated profession with requirements of licensure pursuant to chapter 473, Florida Statutes; (2) that some services provided by unlicensed individuals, although legal, are regulated when provided by a licensed Florida Certified Public Accountant; and, (3) that certain services may only be performed by a licensed Florida Certified Public Accountant. The department shall develop the campaign in consultation with a corporation that is registered under chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as a not-for-profit corporation and qualified under the Internal Revenue Service Code as a 501(c)(6) corporation, and that represents the largest number of licensed Florida Certified Public Accountants. Any advertising, media, or materials produced as a result of contributions shall carry acknowledgements of joint production and sponsorship. The department may not allocate overhead charges to these unlicensed activity campaign funds."

"From the funds in Specific Appropriation 2034, up to $250,000 from the Professional Regulation Trust Fund is provided to the Department of Business and Professional Regulation to enhance department enforcement activities, as well as developing advertising and media campaigns to minimize unlicensed activity in the architecture and interior design professions. The department may not allocate overhead charges to these unlicensed activity functions."

Florida Incentives Toolkit

The “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget cuts taxes while making strategic investments that provide a high return on investments for families. The budget originally proposed an $85 million investment for the state’s economic development toolkit, which provides a 10-to-1 return on taxpayer investment for Florida families. While the final budget passed by the Legislature funds about half of that request, dollars that traditionally were identified to benefit this successful program were diverted into line items that too often had no proven track record or safeguards to clawback taxpayer dollars that do not result in job creation.

Because of Florida’s improved economy, this year state government experienced one of the largest budget surpluses in its history. These dollars are the product of families who are working hard to put food on the table, provide their children with a quality education, and live their dreams in the Sunshine State. Therefore, Florida has an obligation to fund core services that best benefit communities while taking every opportunity possible to safeguard taxpayer money, no matter how worthy the cause seems, so the state is never again hurt by entities like Digital Domain, which was funded through a direct appropriation that circumvented the vetting processes of Enterprise Florida, Inc., and the Department of Economic Opportunity.

Department of Economic Opportunity

The top priority for growing opportunities and providing families with high quality of living is ensuring individuals can find jobs. That’s why the “KEEP FLORIDA WORKING” budget funds over $309 million for CareerSource Florida, the 24 Regional Workforce Boards, and the nearly 100 career centers, which is a ground-up structure, throughout the state, that partners with local leaders, higher education institutions, non-profits, and area job creators to provide a variety of job training and placement services to get individuals placed into a job so they can pursue their dreams. In the most recent report, CareerSource utilized best practices to place more than 489,700 individuals into jobs in the last 12 months.

The state has also placed an emphasis on growing early-stage companies and entrepreneurship by funding entities such as the Institute for Commercialization of Public Research to help grow this important segment of the economy.

Florida utilizes the economic incentive funds provided in the budget to attract a host of top tier businesses to the state. Companies such as Hertz, Embraer, and Northrup Grumman have decided that Florida is the best place to create hundreds of new good paying jobs for families in the last four years.

To protect taxpayer funds, Enterprise Florida, Inc. and the Department of Economic Opportunity have a sophisticated vetting and due diligence process for project review that has multiple layers and reviews that must be met before a project receives an incentive offer. Therefore, if the Legislature wishes to grow more business opportunities in a manner that ensures taxpayer money is safeguarded with transparency and accountability, fully funding the state's incentive toolkit will provide the best path forward for Florida's continued economic growth.

The following is vetoed because this was the subject of legislation that did not pass during the regular session.

A business may be designated if it demonstrates commitment to the independence of individuals who have a disability through: employment, financial support, or other community support or involvement. If the designation is based on financial support or other community support or involvement, a business must document a financial or in-kind contribution as follows: for a business with 100 or fewer employees, a contribution of at least $1,000; for a business with more than 100 employees, a contribution of at least $5,000. The department must: establish a logo for a designated business to display and develop guidelines and requirements for use of such logo; and maintain a page on its website with complete program information, including a list of designated businesses by county. The department must consult with the Agency for Persons with Disabilities, the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education, and CareerSource Florida, Inc., to implement the program. SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

The following certificate was received:

No. SC15-1991

IN RE: CERTIFICATION OF NEED FOR ADDITIONAL JUDGES.

[November 19, 2015]

PER CURIAM.

This opinion fulfills our constitutional obligation to determine the State's need for additional judges in Fiscal Year 2016/2017 and to certify our "findings and recommendations concerning such need" to the Legislature.¹ Certification is "the sole mechanism established by our constitution for a systematic and uniform assessment of this need." In re Certification of Need for Additional Judges, 889 So. 2d 734, 735 (Fla. 2004). In this opinion, we are certifying a need for twenty-four trial court judges and none in the district courts of appeal as further elaborated below.

TRIAL COURTS

The Florida Supreme Court continues to use a weighted caseload system as a primary basis for assessing judicial need for the trial courts.² Using objective standards, this Court has examined case filing and disposition data, analyzed various judicial workload indicators, applied a three-year average net need, and considered judgeship requests submitted by the lower courts. Applying this methodology, this Court certifies the need for twenty-four judgeships statewide, one of which is in circuit court and twenty-three in county court as detailed in the attached appendix.

As Florida's economy gradually improves, we recognize that competing demands for state funding persist across state government. We also note that during the recession and in the post-recessionary period the judicial branch has had no increase in the number of trial court judges since 2007, despite a documented need. Nonetheless, our judges and court staff continue to work diligently to administer justice, promptly resolve disputes, and ensure that children, families, businesses, and all who come before Florida's courts receive the judicial attention their cases require. To serve these needs, our trial courts continue to be innovative in their delivery of justice by expanding problem-solving approaches to differentiated case management such as drug courts, elder courts, mental health courts, and veterans' courts.³ Recently, several trial court chief judges advised this Court of their efforts to further address juvenile issues through innovative approaches to girls' courts and early childhood courts. On the civil side, several of our trial courts have implemented business courts to expedite complex business cases.

CIRCUIT COURT WORKLOAD

Our most recent analysis of circuit court statistics from Fiscal Year 2013/2014 and preliminary data from Fiscal Year 2014/2015 indicates variability in filings by case type. For example, statewide our courts have seen a one percent increase in probate filings and a nine percent increase in dependency filings. As Florida's demographics evolve, we will continue to closely monitor any upward filing patterns and the potential impact of emerging trends on judicial workload. Conversely, circuit civil filings (excluding real property/mortgage foreclosures) declined by four percent, while domestic relations, felony, and juvenile delinquency filings were down for the same period between one and three percent.

Similar downward filing trends are occurring nationally, and we continue to closely monitor and analyze this phenomenon throughout the state as the number of filings by case type relates to judicial case weights and significantly influences workload analysis. Over the last several years, we have statistically controlled⁴ for the foreclosure crisis in our judicial workload forecasts. Our analysis indicates that, statewide, foreclosure filings appear to have stabilized and are even below pre-recession levels. Some circuits, like the Ninth Circuit, Eleventh Circuit, and Seventeenth Circuit, continue to report approximately 600 foreclosure filings each month. We will continue to closely monitor these filing trends to determine if additional resources such as senior judge days are needed to address this workload.

Notwithstanding decreased filings in most categories, our three-year average net need analysis continues to indicate that one additional judgeship is necessary in the Fifth Judicial Circuit. This three-year average net need reflects sustained workload over a multi-year period. The Fifth Circuit continues to be one of the fastest growing areas of the state with a corresponding workload increase. Consistent with this growth are a high number of court interpreting events and a significant increase in self-represented litigants, both of which lead to delays in case processing and the need for more judicial time. The circuit is also geographically large requiring circuit judges to spend time traveling between counties, which reduces their availability.

Several chief judges have also expressed concerns about the continuing accuracy of the current case weights used by this Court to evaluate judicial workload. They believe that the weights must be revisited and updated to portray a complete picture of case complexity confronting trial court judges throughout the state. Indeed, it has been eight years since the case weights were last adjusted. During that period, we experienced the recession, a reduction in force to our staff, and the mortgage foreclosure crisis. We share the chief judges' concerns that the time has come to reevaluate the current case weights and before this year's certification analysis began we directed our staff to conduct a comprehensive Judicial Workload Study, which commenced in January of 2015 and is expected to conclude in late spring 2016. We anticipate being able to use revised case weights in our 2016 certification opinion. (This workload study is discussed later in this opinion.)

Our judges continue to absorb the work previously performed by case managers, law clerks, magistrates, and other supplemental support staff lost in the budget reductions of recent years.⁵ Most of these positions provided direct case management, legal research, and adjudicatory support to the judges. The consensus among chief judges is that loss of support staff translates into slower case processing times, congested dockets, and long waits to access judicial calendars.

Other factors identified by the chief judges that increase trial court workload include increases in the number of motions and hearings, complex cases such as tobacco cases, and higher jury trial rates. Crowded dockets in many circuits translate into delays in obtaining hearing times. Complex cases require a great deal of judicial labor, and go to trial more frequently than other cases. When they do, all other cases on a judge's docket become delayed, which creates a cascading delay effect for those parties seeking justice. Frequently, lengthy jury trials must be scheduled months in advance. Judges continue to report to their chief judges that they are increasingly challenged to devote adequate time to hearings due to increased volume. Case complexity, more and lengthier hearings, and crowded dockets all contribute to court delay.

Our trial courts have made significant headway towards reducing the overall backlog of foreclosure cases associated with the mortgage foreclosure crisis. For example, from Fiscal Year 2012/2013 to May 2015, the foreclosure backlog was reduced by over seventy-three percent. Monies from the national mortgage foreclosure settlement⁶ appropriated by the Legislature for senior judges, magistrates, and case managers to address this crisis have made a significant difference in reducing the foreclosure backlog throughout the state. We continue to monitor the progress of this backlog for each circuit and regularly communicate with the chief judges to identify issues that might be increasing disposition times in their circuits.

COUNTY COURT WORKLOAD

As with circuit court work, county court workload remains high with unmet judicial need holding steady. Preliminary data for Fiscal Year 2014/2015 indicates a three percent increase in the county civil division filings when compared to Fiscal Year 2013/2014. This growth is driven by small claims filings, which experienced an increase of more than 16 percent. In some counties, chief judges report that DUI cases are increasing county court workload. In many circuits, county court judges are also assisting with circuit court workload. Their contribution in circuit court may be further evidence that the case weights for circuit court are outdated. We anticipate the Judicial Workload Study being dispositive of this issue. The loss of civil traffic infraction hearing officers in county court, coupled with added workload associated with new legislation, continues to increase county judge workload. These factors, among others, contribute to such a high county court judicial need.

SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS

Additionally, self-represented litigants who are frequently unprepared for the rigors of presenting evidence, following rules of procedure, and generally representing themselves in court also create additional work for trial judges. Increased judicial involvement in these cases where one or more parties represent themselves entails lengthier hearings, rescheduled hearings, and court delay. The impact of self-represented litigants occurs in both circuit and county court. To more fully assess this impact and address this need, along with other court access concerns, this Court has initiated the above-referenced Judicial Workload Study and appointed a Commission on Access to Civil Justice, both of which are discussed more thoroughly below.

JUDICIAL WORKLOAD STUDY

We are now eight years removed from updating the case weights used by this Court to evaluate judicial workload in the trial courts.⁷ Consistent with the original recommendations of the 1999 Workload Study, judicial case weights should ideally be updated every five years. Accordingly, in early 2015 the Office of the State Courts Administrator began updating all of the trial court case weights. This is a statewide effort involving all trial court judges.

This workload assessment is comprehensive and will be carefully validated. A significant enhancement to this study is that it will include an assessment of the contributions of all quasi-judicial officers such as senior judges, magistrates, child support enforcement hearing officers, and civil traffic infraction hearing officers. As with previous workload studies, the Legislature is fully apprised through the inclusion of its Office of Program Policy and Government Accountability in the process. Oversight of this initiative is being conducted by the Court Statistics and Workload Committee of the Commission on Trial Court Performance and Accountability. As with previous studies, we have contracted with the National Center for State Courts⁸ to conduct the study with in-kind assistance from the Office of the State Courts Administrator. The study began in February 2015 and is expected to conclude by the summer of 2016.

COMMISSION ON ACCESS TO CIVIL JUSTICE

In response to a variety of concerns, and in particular the legal needs of those with low and middle income or who are disadvantaged, as well as the concomitant increasing demands placed on the judicial branch by self-represented litigants, this Court issued In re Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice, Fla. Admin. Order No. AOSC14-65 (Nov. 14, 2014),⁹ creating a commission on access to civil justice. The commission was:

established to study the remaining unmet civil legal needs of disadvantaged, low income, and moderate income Floridians. [Among other items], the commission is charged with considering Florida’s legal assistance delivery system as a whole, including but not limited to staffed legal aid programs, resources and support for self-represented litigants, limited scope representation, pro bono services, innovative technology solutions, and other models and potential innovations.¹⁰

It is our hope that through this commission the needs of self-represented litigants will be systemically identified and can ultimately be addressed, thereby allowing judges to devote their time to providing and administering justice in a more efficient and effective manner.

DISTRICT COURTS OF APPEAL

We are not certifying a need for district court judges during this certification cycle, since our review, applying the current relative case weights methodology, indicates adequate resources. As part of our five-year review cycle of the relative case weights used by this Court to evaluate district court judicial need, district court judges provided direct feedback on the case weights. Revised case weights are currently under consideration by this Court. If approved, we will apply those revised weights during next year’s judicial certification process.

CONCLUSION

We have conducted both a quantitative and qualitative assessment of judicial workload. Using the case-weighted methodology and the application of other factors identified in Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.240, we certify the need for twenty-four additional trial court judges in Florida, consisting of one in circuit court and twenty-three in county court, as set forth in the appendix to this opinion.

We appreciate the legislative appropriation to address the backlog of foreclosure cases throughout the state. The monies provided for senior judges, magistrates, case management, and technology made a significant difference in the court system’s ability to reduce the overall backlog of pending foreclosure cases. We are pleased to note that statewide, foreclosure filings are now below their pre-recession level. We continue to closely monitor both the downward filing trends for multiple trial court divisions and the increase in filings in two case types noted previously. These factors, and others, will be carefully documented in our current Judicial Workload Study.

Although constitutionally required to certify judicial need, we remain mindful of competing funding needs both elsewhere in state government and within the judicial branch. On balance, we have determined that highest priority should go to those critical issues included in the Judicial Branch’s Fiscal Year 2016/2017 Legislative Budget Request.

It is so ordered.

1. Article V, section 9, of the Florida Constitution provides in pertinent part:

Determination of number of judges.—The supreme court shall establish by rule uniform criteria for the determination of the need for additional judges except supreme court justices, the necessity for decreasing the number of judges and for increasing, decreasing or redefining appellate districts and judicial circuits. If the supreme court finds that a need exists for increasing or decreasing the number of judges or increasing, decreasing or redefining appellate districts and judicial circuits, it shall, prior to the next regular session of the legislature, certify to the legislature its findings and recommendations concerning such need.

2. Our certification methodology relies primarily on case weights and calculations of available judge time to determine the need for additional trial court judges. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.240.

3. Other problem-solving docket types operational in select circuits include truancy court, domestic violence court, child support enforcement court, homelessness court, teen court, and community court.

4. The term statistically controlled means to purposefully not factor growth into a statistical forecast because its incorporation may inflate or distort the accuracy of the forecast.

5. When the case weights were originally developed in 1999 and updated in 2007, they incorporated the availability of supplemental resources to assist judges with case processing matters. It is reasonable to conclude that the loss of these supplemental positions (i.e., case managers, law clerks, and magistrates) may increase the case weights if not restored prior to the next case weight update.

6. This program is commonly known as the Foreclosure Backlog Reduction Initiative.

COMMUNICATION

On motion by Senator Gaetz, by two-thirds vote, the following communication was ordered spread upon the Journal:

Senator Charlie Dean, Chairman
Environmental Preservation and Conservation Committee
311 Senate Office Building
404 South Monroe Street
Tallahassee, Florida 32399

December 2, 2015

Senator Dean,

Thank you for your leadership and your significant efforts over three years to develop landmark water resources legislation for our state. I appreciate, as well, you giving me the opportunity to make several specific inquiries about the potential impact of this legislation on septic tank owners. As you know, in 2010, the Senate passed SB 550 by Senator Constantine which was misrepresented to have no or minimal impact on septic tank owners in North Florida. Consequently, the Legislature passed HB 1263 in 2012 to remove certain sections of that previous act before they could be implemented. I want to make sure that, in voting for SB 552, the Senate does not reinstitute any of the offending provisions from the 2010 bill.

As to SB 552,

1. Is there recognition that the topography, soil and geology of Florida varies dramatically within regions of the state, thereby making septic tanks more or less of an environmental issue depending upon local conditions?

2. How does the bill make allowances for septic tank regulation and enforcement given these wide variances?

3. What inspections are required to be conducted of septic tanks on private property?

4. What is the frequency and cost of any such inspections?

5. Who would conduct such inspections—private vendors or public agencies? If by vendors or contractors, would the owner's permission be required before entering private property?

6. Are private property owners responsible for the costs of such inspections?

7. Is there an estimate or projection for the number of septic tanks that may have to be replaced in North Florida?

8. What are the estimated unit costs of replacing residential or commercial septic tanks in North Florida? Who will pay these costs?

9. Are there any provisions that would require private property owners to replace or eliminate septic tanks? If so, what are the conditions that would trigger such requirements?

10. Who would determine that a septic tank must be replaced or relocated? If that determination is made by a private vendor or contractor, would it be the same entity that performs the inspection?

11. Under the appropriations called for in the bill, what funds, if any, are specifically designated to assist low income property owners with the costs of inspection, relocation or replacement of septic tanks?

12. What new or expanded authority is granted to the Department of Environmental Protection, Water Management Districts or any other entity of government over septic tank ownership, regulation, inspection or replacement?

Again, thank you for allowing me to make these inquiries and for the time and effort of you and your committee staff in responding to them.

Respectfully,
Senator Don Gaetz

SENATOR DEAN'S RESPONSE

SB 552 Septic Requirements Generally – An Overview

The provision of the bill relating to onsite sewage treatment and disposal systems ("septic systems") is limited to Outstanding Florida Springs (defined in the bill as first magnitude springs and their spring runs, as well as De Leon Springs, Peacock Springs, Poe Springs, Rock Springs, Wekiwa Springs, and Gemini Springs).

For Outstanding Florida Springs, the bill creates a timeline for implementation of basin management action plans (BMAPs) for these spring basins. If in the process of developing the BMAP, DEP determines that septic systems contribute at least 20 percent of nonpoint source nitrogen pollution or if DEP determines that septic remediation is necessary to meet the total maximum daily load of pollutants, then the BMAP must include a septic remediation plan for the spring.

The remediation plan will be developed by DEP, DOH, relevant local governments, and relevant wastewater utilities. The plan shall identify "cost-effective and financially feasible projects necessary to reduce the nutrient impacts" from septic systems. The remediation plan must be completed and adopted as part of the BMAP within the first five years of the implementation of the BMAP. The plan must include options for repair, upgrade, replacement, drainfield modification, addition of effective nitrogen reducing features, connection to a central sewerage system, or other action for a septic system or group of systems. DEP shall include in the plan a priority ranking for each system or group of systems that require remediation and shall award funds to implement the remediation projects contingent on an appropriation in the General Appropriations Act.

Additionally, the DEP has existing authority to address septic system pollution in its development of a BMAP. The Wakulla BMAP addresses septic system remediation. In the Wakulla Springs BMAP, Leon County, the City of Tallahassee, and Wakulla County took the lead in setting forth plans for reducing pollution from septic systems and providing funding for the implementation of those plans.¹ The bill provides DEP with additional authority to fund some of these projects, subject to appropriation.

Furthermore, under current law, the creation of a BMAP (including any septic remediation plan incorporated into the BMAP) involves a wide array of stakeholder participation, including citizen participation. Notice and at least one public hearing are required.²

Questions

1. Is there recognition that the topography, soil and geology of Florida varies dramatically within regions of the state, thereby making septic tanks more or less of an environmental issue depending upon local conditions?

Yes. The bill would only require that septic systems be addressed when it is shown that the septic systems contribute 20 percent or more of nonpoint source nitrogen to an Outstanding Florida Spring or if DEP determines that remediation is necessary to meet the total maximum daily load of pollutants for those springs. In those areas, a basin-specific remediation plan would be developed by DEP, DOH, the local governments, and utilities, which will then be adopted into the BMAP. The requirements of the plan would depend on what those entities determined were the best "cost-effective and financially feasible projects necessary to reduce the nutrient impacts" from septic systems for that area. The bill focuses on the level of pollution in the spring that can be directly attributable to the septic systems before it requires that the BMAP include a remediation plan. This ensures that in areas where the topography, soil or geology is prohibiting or mitigating pollution from septic tanks, a septic tank remediation plan will not be required.

2. How does the bill make allowances for septic tank regulation and enforcement given these wide variances?

See answer to 1 above. The bill itself does not create the septic system remediation requirements incorporated into the BMAP. Rather, the remediation plan would be developed on a spring-specific basis by the entities identified in the bill. Additional stakeholder input would be received during the development of the BMAP.

3. What inspections are required to be conducted of septic tanks on private property?

The bill does not address septic tank inspections. Just like current law, it does not require or prohibit a remediation plan from including inspections. The bill does not amend or alter the requirements/restrictions on inspections that already exist in s. 381.0065, F.S., which was modified by SB 1263 in 2012 to reduce the burden of inspections on private property owners.

4. What is the frequency and cost of any such inspections?

Nothing in the bill requires inspections or imposes the cost of any inspection on property owners.

5. Who would conduct such inspections—private vendors or public agencies? If by vendors or contractors, would the owner's permission be required before entering private property?

See the answers for 3 and 4.

6. Are private property owners responsible for the costs of such inspections?

See the answers for 3 and 4.

7. Is there an estimate or projection for the number of septic tanks that may have to be replaced in North Florida?

The bill does not address the replacement of septic tanks except to the extent that the repair or replacement of septic tanks may be included in a remediation plan. While DOH records indicate that there are approximately 332,000 septic tanks in Northwest Florida (the area at or west of Leon County Florida), it is not known how many of these septic tanks might be contributing significantly to pollution in an Outstanding Florida Spring. The Outstanding Florida Springs in Northwest Florida are located in Jackson, Bay, and Wakulla Counties. DEP has relayed to staff that in Northwest Florida more of the nonpoint source pollution is generally from agriculture rather than from septic systems; whereas in Central Florida the springsheds are often found to receive a higher percentage of their pollutants from septic systems.

8. What are the estimated unit costs of replacing residential or commercial septic tanks in North Florida? Who will pay these costs?

The bill does not require septic tank replacement. The locally developed remediation plan would address whether replacing septic tanks would be the most cost effective and financially feasible solution for the spring. The bill, however, does provide that DEP would include in the plan a priority ranking for systems or groups of systems that require remediation and that DEP award funds to implement the project contingent on an appropriation. The cost of replacing septic systems in Florida varies significantly based on a number of site-specific circumstances. As part of a statement of estimated regulatory costs in 2012, DEP developed the following costs for replacing septic systems: a low estimate of $5,553 per system and a high estimate of $22,288 per system.

9. Are there any provisions that would require private property owners to replace or eliminate septic tanks? If so, what are the conditions that would trigger such requirements?

The bill does not require private property owners to replace or eliminate septic tanks. If septic systems are shown to contribute 20 percent of the nonpoint source nitrogen to an Outstanding Florida Spring, the bill provides for a remediation plan developed by DEP, DOH, relevant local governments, and relevant wastewater utilities, which could involve the repair, upgrade, replacement, drainfield modification, addition of nitrogen reducing features, connection to a central sewerage system, or other action. The choice of how to address the issue will be determined by the stakeholder groups as part of the development of the remediation plan to be incorporated into the BMAP. The bill provides guidance that the plan should identify “cost-effective and financially feasible projects necessary to reduce the nutrient impacts” from septic systems.

10. Who would determine that a septic tank must be replaced or relocated? If that determination is made by a private vendor or contractor, would it be the same entity that performs the inspection?

This decision would not be made by a private vendor or contractor. The decision would be part of a BMAP developed by DEP in coordination with governmental entities and stakeholders. These plans must be adopted with the input of property owners. Once adopted by “secretarial order” a plan can be challenged in court by an adversely affected property owner.

11. Under the appropriations called for in the bill, what funds, if any, are specifically designated to assist low income property owners with the costs of inspection, relocation or replacement of septic tanks?

The bill provides that DEP will include in the plan a priority ranking for each system or group of systems that require some sort of remediation (not necessarily removal or replacement) and that DEP shall award funds to implement the remediation projects that have been identified in the plan contingent upon an appropriation in the GAA. The award can include all or part of the cost of any type of remediation and the DEP must consider the financial impact of the remediation plan on the property owner and the community in awarding the funds. If the project is in a rural area of opportunity, DEP can waive any local government matching fund requirement.

12. What new or expanded authority is granted to the Department of Environmental Protection, Water Management Districts or any other entity of government over septic tank ownership, regulation, inspection or replacement?

No new authority is granted. Currently, the DEP can and has addressed septic system remediation efforts in a BMAP.³

[Leon County] and department will identify septic systems in the PFAs that are not feasible to connect to central sewer, and develop a funding plan and schedule to assist homeowners with upgrading to advanced nitrate-reducing systems, if such technologies are available. The city of Tallahassee and Leon County have enacted ordinances to establish the PSPZ, which reduces development in the urban fringe in the PSPZ and allows development in the urban area only to the extent permitted by the future land use map. In addition, the county is proposing to sewer within the PSPZ to remove OSTDS, depending on project and funding approval through the county’s sales tax process. . .

Wakulla County has an adopted comprehensive plan policy that requires advanced nitrogen-reducing OSTDS on parcels smaller than five acres in the Wakulla Springs Special Planning Area; within 150 feet of a surface water, swallet, or other karst feature, or within 300 feet of a first- or second-magnitude spring; and on all parcels less than 0.229 acres in size. Wakulla County is pursuing funding for planned sewer in Greiner’s Addition, Magnolia Gardens, and Wakulla Gardens; this could remove the existing 1,330 septic systems and an estimated potential 2,251 additional systems in the future. The county is seeking funding to inspect and repair old, damaged, and failing OSTDS in the Wakulla Springs Basin. The county is also looking to form a tax increment financing (TIF) district for the Crawfordville area to fund improvements, including basic infrastructure. Additionally, the county continues the effort to modify the development code to require upgraded designs for new home construction.
