By Senators Joyner and Thompson—

SR 1444—A resolution recognizing the 87th anniversary of the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on January 15, 2016.

WHEREAS, Martin Luther King, Jr., was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, and

WHEREAS, Martin Luther King, Jr., attended Morehouse College, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree, Crozer Theological Seminary, where he earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree, and Boston University, where he earned a Doctorate of Philosophy, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., was an American Baptist minister who inspired not only African Americans, but all Americans, to pursue their dreams and to engage in nonviolent protests against segregation and other social and economic injustice, and

WHEREAS, while Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s leadership of the modern American Civil Rights Movement lasted less than 13 years, from December 1955 until April 1968, African Americans achieved dramatic progress in racial equality in America during that time, and

WHEREAS, drawing inspiration from both his Christian faith and the peaceful teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., led the nonviolent movement in the late 1950s and 1960s to achieve legal equality for African Americans in the United States, and

WHEREAS, while others were advocating for freedom by any means necessary, including violence, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., used the power of words and acts of nonviolent resistance, such as protests, grassroots organizing, and civil disobedience, to achieve seemingly impossible goals, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., went on to lead similar campaigns against poverty and international conflict, always remaining faithful to his principles that men and women everywhere, regardless of color or creed, are equal members of the human family, and

WHEREAS, in 1964, at 35 years of age, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., became the youngest person to win the Nobel Peace Prize and, in his acceptance speech in Oslo, delivered rousing remarks that included the often quoted statement, “I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality. This is why right temporarily defeated is stronger than evil triumphant,” and

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s life ended abruptly and tragically on April 4, 1968, when he was assassinated at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tennessee, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s “I Have a Dream” speech, his Nobel Peace Prize lecture, and his “Letter from Birmingham Jail” are among the most revered orations and writings in the English language, his accomplishments are now taught to American children of all races, and his teachings are studied by scholars and students worldwide, and

WHEREAS, on April 8, 1968, just 4 days after Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., was assassinated, Congressman John Conyers introduced the first legislation providing for a Martin Luther King, Jr., federal holiday, and

WHEREAS, in April 1971, petitions gathered by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference bearing 3 million signatures in support of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday were presented to the United States Congress, but the holiday legislation remained stalled, and

WHEREAS, in 1979, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s widow, Coretta Scott King, launched an initiative through the King Center in Atlanta to organize a nationwide citizens' lobby for a national Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday, and the new petition was signed by more than 300,000 people before the end of the year, prompting President Jimmy Carter to call on the United States Congress to pass the national Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday, and

WHEREAS, in August 1983, the United States House of Representatives passed the King Holiday Bill, and, on October 19, 1983, the companion bill sponsored by Senator Ted Kennedy passed the United States Senate by a vote of 78-22, and

WHEREAS, on November 3, 1983, President Ronald Reagan signed the bill establishing the third Monday of each January as Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, which was first celebrated in 1986, and

WHEREAS, in 2016, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day is being celebrated on January 18, just 3 days after the 87th anniversary of his birth, and a grateful nation will remember the humble, heroic, and God-ordained leader who changed a nation and the world, and

WHEREAS, in her advocacy for creation of the King Holiday, Coretta Scott King noted, "As a nation chooses its heroes and heroines, a nation interprets its history and shapes its destiny. The commemoration of the life and work of Martin Luther King, Jr., can help America realize its true destiny as the global model for democracy, economic and social justice, and as the first nonviolent society in human history," NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Reverend Dr. Julius Harrison McAllister, Jr., Senior Minister, Bethel A.M.E. Church, Tallahassee:

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, continue to be our guard and present help in these difficult and trying times. We come again with humble hearts, as we enter into another legislative session working to improve the quality of lives for the people of this great State of Florida.

There are many challenges before us and much work to do. However, I pray, dear God, that you will walk with, talk with, guide, and bless every effort of the men and women of the Senate as they represent and provide for their various constituencies, but with the recognition that they have a charge to keep. They are here, not only because the citizens of the State of Florida voted for them, but they are here because there is a greater plan that you have placed within them to fulfill. Give each of them the wisdom, wherewithal, mindset, and confidence to do their very best.

As Mr. Barack Obama, the President of these United States, has challenged us, dear God, help the men and women here to not reject the idea of reinventing and reinvesting in ourselves as we have done in ages past. Help them to not reject the efforts to win the race to educate our children; to not reject the efforts to improve our schools and to establish good schools; to not reject the efforts to respect those men and women at the head of our classrooms who are skill builders and ultimately nation builders; to not reject the efforts to revitalize our economy and create new jobs; to not select projects based on politics, but based on what is best for the people and the economy; and to accept the principle of fixing what needs to be fixed, and ultimately, move forward with urgency and confidence.

Although we may not always understand your ways, O God, assure each of us that every good and perfect gift that you have given to us and others is crafted by you and is to be used appropriately for the benefit of the masses and not for individual gain. Dear God, in these times that try our feeble bodies and infinite souls, give the members of this legislative body a can-do spirit. When the way seems dark, show them the light. When the way seems rough, give them a level plane. When the storm arises, calm the winds that trouble them. And then, dear God, when evening falls, give them the peace of mind that surpasses all understanding.

O merciful God, continue to favor this great State of Florida with your grace and mercy. Most of all, we thank you for the many blessings of the past and for decades to come for which we give you praise. It is in your name we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Michey Tovar of Sanford; Jai Brown of Sanford; Nicolas Ortiz of Wesley Chapel; Teren Culver of Daytona Beach; and Olivia Everett of Kissimmee, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

DOCTOR OF THE DAY

The President recognized Dr. Amaryllis Sanchez Wohlever of Orlando, whom he sponsored, as the doctor of the day. Dr. Wohlever specializes in family medicine.

Almighty God, the one who orders our steps and lights our paths with your love: you have been a very present help throughout the many vicissitudes of life. You shield us from dangers seen and unseen, and for this, we are grateful.

As we assemble today, grace us with ears to hear the cries of those in need, eyes to see those standing on the margins of our communities, and hearts attuned to the suffering of those too weak to advocate for themselves. Father God, we thank you for our governor and our leaders, and we thank you for the courage that they have demonstrated to meet the challenges of this day, knowing that you have called and appointed each of them to serve for such a time as this.

Allow the wisdom of your spirit to guide our nation’s leaders and protect the armed forces who defend the sanctity of our home sweet home. God, we thank you for hearing each of our prayers today. Thank you for answering. In your name we pray. Amen.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by former United States Marine Nathan French, as part of Florida State University day. Mr. French completed two tours of duty in Iraq, provided tsunami relief in Indonesia, and received a Purple Heart Medal.

God, my God, your guidance and wisdom you have given us. I pray that you encourage these men and women to seek your guidance and wisdom through your spirit. I pray that you give them discernment, according to your character, to find answers to problems that may be beyond their understanding.

I ask that you guide each of them so they honor you and, by doing so, they are a beacon to this state so this state becomes a beacon to this great nation. We must look beyond our differences, beyond our personal preferences, so that we seek your will. God, I pray our success is not measured by dollar signs, but by what is right.

God, I thank you for each of these men and women who have chosen to place the concerns of many above the concerns of themselves. I ask that you strengthen them to stand so they are not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. God, I pray you let their love be genuine. Let each of them strive to be more honorable than the other. Give them zeal, give them joy in hope, and lead with their spirit so that they always seek you. I ask that you give them compassion that rejoices with the joyful and cries with the hurting. I ask that they seek peace as long as it is within their control. God, I pray you protect them with your strength, protect their heart, their mind, and each of them physically.

God, we ask that you protect those who protect us. We pray that the courage of our police is magnified by your presence; that our firefighters are protected by your water; that our medical responders are equipped with your knowledge; and that each of our first responders is strengthened daily by your support.

God, we pray you give knowledge and patience to our teachers as they raise the generations that will lead us through tomorrow. We pray that you give them a heart that loves even those who do not appreciate them. We ask that we are reminded to encourage our teachers daily. We thank you that out of their love for children, not money, they have stepped up to their call.

God, we pray you guard our military who guard us on native and foreign soils. We pray they hear your voice and our thanks even when they are miles from home. We ask that you encourage them to fight the good fight. No person has greater love than one willing to lay their life down for a friend. We ask that you honor their sacrifice and that we not forget that the blanket of freedom we sleep under is provided by the foxholes they sleep in. Honor, love, and encourage them, O God.

God, you have blessed us immensely. I pray we bless you. God, we ask for you because without you we will not find victory. God, we ask that you light our paths and we follow the ones you light. We thank you for what you have accomplished and for what you will accomplish.

It is with faith, love, and praise that I pray to you, O God. Amen.

WHEREAS, each year, Floridians celebrate the birth month of two great Americans, Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass, both of them leaders in the movement to abolish slavery, and join all Americans in recognizing February as the month to commemorate the contributions of African Americans to our society, and

WHEREAS, in 2016, across this great nation, we celebrate the Black History Month theme, “Hallowed Grounds: Sites of African American Memories,” and

WHEREAS, long ago, an estimated 12 million African men, women, and children were forcibly removed from their homelands, enslaved, and placed on ships that sailed to the Western Hemisphere, and

WHEREAS, approximately 2 million African men, women, and children died on the Middle Passage, but 10 million survived and arrived in America, where they and their children lived in slavery, and

WHEREAS, the Civil War erupted because the ideals upon which this country was founded are in direct conflict with slavery, a tenet recognized by the ratification of the Thirteenth Amendment, which abolished slavery in the United States of America, and

WHEREAS, the Emancipation Proclamation was signed by President Abraham Lincoln on January 1, 1863, and, in 2013, Floridians celebrated the 150th anniversary of that declaration, which made slaves in all confederate states “free forever,” and

WHEREAS, our nation has celebrated Black history during the month of February since 1926, when Carter G. Woodson established Negro History Week, and

WHEREAS, the Civil Rights Movement of the 20th century began in an effort to correct the failures of Reconstruction and erase the remnants of slavery still evident in Jim Crow laws, in continued segregation in nearly every aspect of daily life, and in the persistence of second-class citizenship for African Americans, and

WHEREAS, in August 1963, the historic March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom, led by the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who delivered his now famous “I Have a Dream” speech on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, was a catalyst for the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and

WHEREAS, as a testament to the strength of all African Americans throughout these struggles, we note the contributions to the political and social growth of American society of Sojourner Truth, Frederick Douglass, Harriet Tubman, Booker T. Washington, George Washington Carver, Carter G. Woodson, W.E.B. DuBois, Malcolm X, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Fannie Lou Hamer, Thurgood Marshall, Barbara Jordan, Shirley Chisholm, Dorothy Height, and President Barack Obama, and

WHEREAS, the culture of the United States of America has been vitally enriched through the contributions of African-American musicians, artists, and writers, including Charlie Parker, Billie Holiday, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Dizzy Gillespie, Marian Anderson, Ella Fitzgerald, James DePreist, Leontyne Price, Andre Watts, Phyllis Wheatley, Langston Hughes, Richard Wright, James Baldwin, Alex Haley, Gwendolyn Brooks, Maya Angelou, Toni Morrison, Alice Walker, Oprah Winfrey, Denzel Washington, Angela Bassett, Hill Harper, Anika Noni Rose, and Jennifer Hudson, and

WHEREAS, African-American sports figures have demonstrated their ability to be role models on and off the field and in and out of the ring as they stood up for their rights and beliefs, and these legendary athletes include Jesse Owens, Arthur Ashe, Lee Roy Selmon, Freddie Solomon, Muhammad Ali, Venus and Serena Williams, and Florida native Robert “Bullet Bob” Hayes, the first athlete to earn both an Olympic Gold Medal and an NFL Super Bowl Ring, and

WHEREAS, the fields of medicine, science, and technology have all been advanced by the contributions of African-American men and women, including Dr. Daniel Hale Williams, George Washington Carver, Dr. Charles R. Drew, Garrett Morgan, and Dr. Mae C. Jemison, and

WHEREAS, native Floridians, including Mary McLeod Bethune, Joseph E. Lee, James Weldon Johnson, Harry Tyson Moore, Harriette Vyde Simms Moore, Zora Neale Hurston, Asa Philip Randolph, Charles Kenzie Steele, Jesse K. McCrary, Jr., and Patricia Stephens Due have proudly represented our state as they contributed to the history and culture of the United States of America, and

The following prayer was offered by Reverend Robert W. Jakoby, Pastoral Care Services of Baptist Health South Florida, Miami:

Most gracious God of all creation and sustainer of life, we humbly bow in your presence as we begin this session. We acknowledge our dependence on you for life itself, for health, sustenance, and the very meaning of life. In the quietness of these moments, may we hear your still, small voice assuring us of your love and purpose for each member of this Florida Senate. Grant them wisdom to use their knowledge to uphold the values and the freedoms that we have been granted. When controversial issues arise, give them clarity of thought and courage to do the right thing for the people they represent. Loving God, help each Senator continue to stand strong on our constitution as challenges come.

God, you know our needs in this nation as we are living in critical times. Please direct these senatorial leaders as they make decisions that will affect our state and, ultimately, our nation.

I ask your blessings, God, on each Senator and on his or her family while they are apart. Keep their families safe and healthy. Keep also, I pray, Governor Scott and his family in that same manner. We commit this day and hour to you, O Lord. Thank you for hearing our prayer. In your holy name I pray. Amen.

Senator Richter moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 1 (526576) (with title amendment)—Delete lines 256-303 and insert:

o. The home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former emergency medical technicians or paramedics certified under chapter 401; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such emergency medical technicians or paramedics; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such emergency medical technicians or paramedics are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution if the emergency medical technicians or paramedics have made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2021, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

3. An agency that is the custodian of the information specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a written request for maintenance of the exemption to the custodial agency.

4. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the exemption.

5. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this paragraph, this paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2017, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity to exempt from public records requirements the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former nonsworn investigative personnel of the Department of Financial Services whose duties include the investigation of fraud, theft, workers' compensation coverage requirements and compliance, other related criminal activities, or state regulatory requirement violations; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such personnel; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such personnel. The efforts of such personnel can lead to arrests and prosecutions for crimes up to and including first degree felony violations and can also result in the loss of commerce and property, the assessment of monetary fines, or the suspension or loss of professional licenses. The department has documented numerous instances of personnel who have been threatened and who have feared repercussions as a result of carrying out their duties. These threats have included weapons being brandished, verbal threats made to harm them or their family members, harassment, and intimidation. The Legislature finds that the release of such personal identifying and location information might place these nonsworn investigative personnel of the department and their family members in danger of physical and emotional harm from disgruntled individuals who have contentious reactions to actions taken by such personnel, or whose business or professional practices have come under the scrutiny of such personnel. The Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from the release of such personal identifying and location information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former emergency medical technicians or paramedics certified under chapter 401, Florida Statutes; that the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such emergency medical technicians or paramedics; and that the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such emergency medical technicians or paramedics be exempt from public records requirements if the emergency medical technicians or paramedics have made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public. Emergency medical technicians or paramedics are public safety officers whose duties as first responders to accidents and life-threatening events often place them in traumatic circumstances in which loss of life and severe bodily injuries have occurred. They often deal with violent, angry, or mentally unstable individuals. As a result, the Legislature finds that release of identifying and location information of emergency medical technicians or paramedics certified under chapter 401, Florida Statutes, or the spouses and children of such emergency medical technicians or paramedics, could place them in danger of being physically or emotionally harmed or stalked by a person who has a hostile reaction to his or her encounter with such emergency medical technicians or paramedics. The Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from the release of such identifying and location information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

And the title is amended as follows:

Delete lines 9-10 and insert: personnel; providing an exemption from public records requirements for certain identifying and location information of current or former emergency medical technicians or paramedics certified under ch. 401, F.S., and the spouses and children of such emergency medical technicians or paramedics, under specified circumstances; providing for future review and repeal of the exemptions; providing statements of public
