Services to celebrate the life of the First Gentleman are planned as follows:

Friday, April 26, 2024

Celebration of Life

Saturday, April 27, 2024

Funeral Mass

The President has been so comforted by the kind messages she has received during this most difficult time. She understands this is a time when many Senate employees have scheduled vacations and other activities with their families, following a rigorous work schedule over the last several months.

The President wants to be sure everyone understands that no Senate employee is expected to travel to Naples for these events. If Senate employees decide to travel to Naples in their personal capacity, they are certainly welcome to attend. Senate supervisors are asked to approve use of personal leave to accommodate travel and attendance.
