4. Project/Program Description

The City of Gretna is seeking funding to continue the infrastructure improvement efforts for a closed elementary school campus within the municipal boundaries of the city. The city hopes to incorporate a portion of the school into a Law Enforcement Resource Center. The Gretna City Commission has already established that the associated building and grounds are to be used for community needs, along with serving as a training location to provide local and state law enforcement agencies physical school environment for active school shooter training. The facility is also currently being used by the Gadsden County Sheriff Office for their Guardian Training Program.
