- Teach summer reading camps.
- Provide instruction to a third grade student retained for failing the English Language Arts (ELA) assessment.
- Provide reading interventions to students with a substantial deficiency in reading, beginning July 1, 2021.
- Qualify as a literacy coach.¹⁹

¹⁸ Section 1001.215(3), F.S.

¹⁹ Rule 6A-6.053, F.A.C.

A teacher may earn a certification in reading by completing:

- A master's or higher degree with a graduate major in reading.
- A bachelor's or higher degree with thirty semester hours in reading.²⁰

A certified teacher may earn an endorsement to a valid Florida certificate by completing the appropriate subject area testing requirements, the requirements of an approved school district program, or the inservice components for an endorsement.²¹ There are four pathways to earn a reading endorsement:

- Completing 15 semester hours in college-level reading coursework rooted in scientifically based reading research with a focus on both preventions and remediation of reading difficulties.
- Completing the required competencies through a school district's approved reading endorsement add-on program.
- Obtaining a certificate from an approved internationally known organization with a reputation for setting reading standards.²²
- Passing the K-12 Reading Certification Subject Area Exam administered by the DOE.²³

Effect of Proposed Changes (Sections 11 and 18)

The bill modifies s. 1004.04, F.S., to require, beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, that school district personnel be certified or endorsed in reading if they supervise teacher preparation students during internships in kindergarten through grade 3 or during enrollment in a reading certificate program.

The bill also modifies s. 1012.586, F.S., to require the DOE to review the competencies for the reading endorsement for alignment with evidence-based instructional and intervention practices rooted in the science of reading and consistent with training developed by the Lastinger Center and the JRFO, and recommend improvements to the SBE, which must address identification of the characteristics of conditions such as dyslexia, implementation of evidence-based classroom instruction and interventions, and effective progress monitoring. Accordingly, each school district is required to resubmit its reading endorsement add-on program to the DOE for approval by July 1, 2023. The bill provides that, beginning July 1, 2024, instructional personnel may not earn a reading endorsement simply by passing the K-12 reading certification subject area assessment.

The bill requires the DOE to adopt at least one statewide, competency-based pathway, by which instructional personnel may earn a reading endorsement, by the beginning of the 2022-2023 school year. The pathway must be available for a participant to complete in person or remotely. The DOE is required by the bill to place a microcredential on a teacher certificate indicating each competency module the teacher successfully completes.

The additional pathway for teachers to earn a reading endorsement may assist district school boards in meeting state requirements for teachers delivering reading instruction or interventions to students enrolled in public schools in kindergarten through grade 12.

Student Literacy Supports

Present Situation

Student Progress Monitoring

State board rule provides criteria for determining whether a student has a substantial deficiency in reading. A student is identified as having a substantial deficiency in reading if the student:

- Scores the lowest level or benchmark on any assessment identified in the school district’s reading plan;
- Scores the lowest achievement level during a progress monitoring assessment identified in the school district’s K-12 comprehensive reading plan (reading plan); or
- Demonstrates, through consecutive formative assessments or teacher observation, skills that are below grade-level expectations in one or more areas of phonological awareness; phonics; vocabulary, including oral language skills; reading fluency; and reading comprehension.²⁴

Students in kindergarten through grade 3 who are determined to have a substantial deficiency in reading based on any of these criteria must be given intensive reading interventions immediately following the identification of the deficiency.²⁵ Students who do not achieve a Level 3 or above on the statewide, standardized ELA assessment must be evaluated to determine the nature of the student’s difficulty, the areas of academic need, and strategies for providing academic supports to improve the student’s performance.²⁶ District school boards are required to prioritize remedial and supplemental instructional resources first to students in kindergarten through grade 3 who have a substantial reading deficiency and then to students who fail to meet performance levels required for promotion under the district’s student progression plan.²⁷

School districts have a variety of intervention and progress monitoring options available to help students improve their academic performance. The law requires districts to develop and implement a multi-tiered system of supports, which utilizes a problem-solving process to identify and support student needs based upon available data, including attendance, behavior and discipline, statewide assessment, and progress monitoring data.²⁸ Retention is mandatory for 3rd grade students who score at Level 1 on the statewide, standardized ELA assessment.²⁹ Any student retained in 3rd grade because of his or her statewide, standardized ELA assessment score must receive intensive interventions and be taught by a “highly-effective” teacher with a reading endorsement or certification.³⁰ This intervention process must include parent involvement, student observation, review of data, vision and hearing screening to rule out sensory deficits, and evidence-based interventions implemented in the general education environment.³¹

Research-Based Reading Instruction Allocation

The state allocates funding to school districts for research-based reading instruction to students in kindergarten through grade 12. Funds must be used to provide a system of comprehensive reading instruction to students enrolled in kindergarten through grade 12, including:³²

- An additional hour of intensive reading instruction beyond the normal school day for students in the 300 lowest-performing elementary schools.
- Reading intervention teachers and reading coaches.
- Professional development for teachers to earn a certification or an endorsement in reading.
- Summer reading camps for students in kindergarten through grade 5 who exhibit certain reading deficiencies, depending on grade level.³³
- Supplemental instructional materials that are grounded in scientifically based reading research as identified by the JRFO.
- Intensive interventions for students in kindergarten through grade 12 who have been identified as having a reading deficiency or who are reading below grade level as determined by the statewide, standardized ELA assessment.

District school boards must develop reading plans that detail the specific uses of the research-based reading instruction allocation. The plans must be annually submitted to the DOE for approval and provide for intensive reading interventions through integrated curricula that incorporate strategies identified by the JRFO and are delivered by a teacher who is certified or endorsed in reading. The DOE monitors and tracks the implementation of each district plan and collects specific data on expenditures and reading improvement results. By February 1 of each year, the DOE reports its findings to the Legislature.³⁴

Parental Notification and Supports

The parent of any student who exhibits a substantial deficiency in reading must be notified in writing of the deficiency and of all available services and proposed interventions, and be provided with a “read at home plan,” which outlines strategies that parents can use to help their children improve in reading.³⁵

Students enrolled in public school in grades 3 through 5 and score below grade level on the statewide, standardized ELA assessment in the prior school year may also be eligible for a reading scholarship account of $500. A total of 6,763 students received reading scholarship accounts in the 2019-2020 school year. The state appropriated $7.6 million for reading scholarship accounts for the 2020-2021 school year.

³⁵ Section 1008.25(5)(c), F.S.

In the 2020-2021 school year, 112,295 students enrolled in public schools in kindergarten through grade 5 were identified as having substantial deficiencies in reading and receiving Tier III supports.³⁶

Federally funded Department of Education Literacy Initiatives

As part of its plan for federal funding provided under the CARES Act,³⁷ the DOE has launched a statewide system of regional reading supports.³⁸ The program allocates $5 million from the CARES Act funds for the establishment of 20 regions in the state, each with a designated regional reading consultant that will lead a regional literacy support team. The reading consultants and their teams will be trained to monitor district-level, school-level and classroom-level data in order to identify and provide needed professional development and interventions.³⁹ The first year of the program will support implementation of reading plans in the early grades while overall the program focus will be on building capacity of the teams with an emphasis on updated standards, evidence-based⁴⁰ practices, and data-based decision making.⁴¹ Implementation has been set to begin in 2021, during the second half of the 2020-2021 school year.

The DOE allocated $20 million from the CARES Act funds for progress monitoring and data informed supports.⁴² From October 1, 2020, through February 19, 2021, the DOE made available to all public schools on a voluntary basis a new progress monitoring tool developed by Cambium Assessment, Inc., to serve as a connective support between the foundational skills that students seek to acquire and their progress through early education years and drive informed teaching practices and curriculum decisions. The progress monitoring tool was available for multiple administrations and was aligned to the state standards for grades 3 through 10 ELA Reading and grades 3 through 8 Mathematics.⁴³

The DOE also used funds from the CARES Act to develop several other programs related to improving student literacy. Specifically, the DOE allocated:

- $5 million to upskill highly effective reading coaches.

- $20 million, in addition to $4 million of the funds reserved under the CARES Act to the Governor, for strengthening K-3 reading instructional materials.
- $5 million for deploying professional development for teachers to attain a reading endorsement; training on how to use progress monitoring data to inform instruction; improving existing reading endorsement options; and improved resources for teachers and families.⁴⁴

In addition, the DOE secured a Comprehensive Literacy State Development Grant (CLSD) of $21 million.⁴⁵ A CLSD is a discretionary federal grant to create a comprehensive literacy program to advance literacy skills, including pre-literacy skills, reading, and writing, for children from birth through grade 12, with an emphasis on disadvantaged children, including children living in poverty, English learners, and children with disabilities.⁴⁶

Effect of Proposed Changes (Sections 2, 12, 14, 15)

Coordinated Screening and Progress Monitoring

The bill modifies s. 1008.25, F.S., to require the DOE, in collaboration with the OEL, to procure and require, and provide training and support for implementing, a statewide, standardized coordinated screening and progress monitoring (CSPM) for VPK program providers and for public schools serving kindergarten through grade 8 students, whom the bill requires to participate in the CSPM. The bill outlines requirements for the CSPM. Specifically, the CSPM must:

- Measure student progress in early literacy, ELA, and mathematics standards.
- Measure student performance in oral language, development, phonemic and phonological awareness, knowledge of print and letters, decoding, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension.
- Be a valid, reliable and developmentally appropriate computer-adaptive direct instrument that provides screening and diagnostic capabilities for monitoring student progress; identifies students with a substantial deficiency in reading, including students with characteristics of dyslexia; and informs instruction.
- Provide data sufficient for VPK program accountability.
- Provide data and resources to enhance differentiated instruction.
- Provide information to the DOE to aid in the development of educational programs, policies, and supports for providers, districts, and schools.
- Beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, be administered at least three times within a program year or school year, as applicable, with the first administration occurring no later than the first 30 instructional days after the start of the program year or school year.

Results of the CSPM, including the number of students who demonstrate characteristics of dyslexia, must:

- Be reported to the DOE and maintained in the DOE's Educational Data Warehouse.

⁴⁶ 20 U.S.C. s. 6642.

- Be timely provided to a student’s teachers and parents.
- Inform parents annually of their child’s educational progress based on the CSPM.

Evidence-based Reading Instruction Allocation

The bill modifies s. 1011.62, F.S., to rename the “research-based reading instruction allocation” as the “evidence-based reading instruction allocation” to conform the reading instruction allocation to the other evidence-based initiatives. The bill aligns the definition of evidence-based with federal law, to provide that evidence-based means demonstrating a statistically significant effect on improving student outcomes or other relevant outcomes.

The bill also modifies the requirements and the authorized uses by school districts of the allocation. Specifically, the bill:

- Provides that funds may be used for supports to assist students identified with a substantial deficiency in early literacy transition from the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program (VPK) to kindergarten.
- Replaces the requirement to integrate social studies with the requirement for the coordinated integration of civic literacy in the curriculum for the extra hour of reading instruction for the 300 lowest performing elementary schools.
- Provides that a school district’s reading plan will no longer be deemed approved if it is not approved by June 1 or if 100 percent of the funds are spent.
- Makes mandatory the withholding of funds by the DOE upon a determination that reading instruction allocation funds are not being used to implement the approved plan.
- Requires school district reading plans to include a root-cause analysis of student performance data and reflection tool developed by the DOE to evaluate the effectiveness of interventions implemented in the prior year.

The bill requires the annual report of the DOE to the Legislature on the evidence-based reading instruction allocation to also be submitted to the SBE and include recommendations for improving implementation of evidence-based reading and intervention strategies in classrooms.

Reading Achievement Initiative for Scholastic Excellence Program

The bill creates s. 1008.365, F.S., to establish within the DOE the Reading Achievement Initiative for Scholastic Excellence Program (RAISE Program) to provide instructional supports to school districts and their staff in implementing evidence-based reading instruction and interventions in order to improve student reading achievement. Under the RAISE Program, and similar to current federally funded initiatives of the DOE, the DOE must establish at least 20 literacy support regions and regional support teams, each at the direction of a regional literacy support director appointed by the commissioner, to assist school districts in improving low reading scores. Each regional literacy support director must be an employee of a school district and manage a regional support team. Directors and teams are required by the bill to consist of personnel who have completed the competency-based reading endorsement pathway and meet other specified requirements related to reading instruction and progress monitoring.

The bill requires the DOE to provide progress monitoring data to the regional literacy support teams to assist with providing designated schools with supports, which must include all of the following:

- Professional development aligned with evidence based strategies for reading instruction.
- Evaluating a school's improvement plan for alignment with the school district's reading plan.
- Assistance with implementing:
 - Data-informed instructional decision making.
 - The selection and consistent, coordinated use of high-quality instructional materials.
 - Reading instruction in other core subject area curricula, with an emphasis on civic literacy.
 - A multitiered system of supports in order to provide students effective interventions and identify students who may require an evaluation for special educational services, including identifying characteristics of conditions that affect phonological processing, such as dyslexia.

The bill authorizes the DOE to establish criteria to identify a school that must receive supports from a regional support team. The bill also modifies s. 1001.42, F.S., to require each school district to include in its school improvement plan schools identified for supports under the RAISE Program, but specifies that regardless of a school's grade, a school must receive supports if at least 50 percent of the school's students who take the statewide, standardized ELA assessment score below a Level 3 for any grade level, or, for students in kindergarten through grade 3, if results from the CSPM demonstrate that at least 50 percent of the students are not on track to pass the statewide, standardized grade 3 ELA assessment. If the regional support team determines that the school district's reading plan does not address the school's need to improve student outcomes, the regional literacy support director, the district school superintendent, or his or her designee, and the director of the JRFO are required by the bill to convene a meeting to rectify the deficiencies of the reading plan.

A school identified for supports is not required by the bill to implement a turnaround option or take other corrective action under the state's school improvement program. The bill authorizes a school to stop receiving supports and implementing a school improvement plan when the school's data reflects that it no longer meets the requirements to receive supports and implement a school improvement plan. The school may nevertheless continue to receive supports based on the availability of resources.

RAISE Program Tutors

The RAISE Program also requires the DOE to establish a tutoring program and develop training in effective reading tutoring practices and content, based on evidence-based practices, and aligned to the state ELA standards, to prepare eligible high school students to tutor students with a substantial deficiency in reading in kindergarten through grade 3. The bill requires the SBE to adopt rules to administer the program.

The bill requires school districts that wish to participate to recruit, train, and deploy eligible high school students. Tutoring must occur during the school day on school district property in the presence and under the supervision of instructional personnel who are school district employees. Under the bill, a student must obtain written permission from his or her parent before receiving tutoring services.

The bill prescribes eligibility requirements for tutors. Specifically, a tutor must:

- Be a rising junior or senior.
- Have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher.
- Have no history of out-of-school suspensions or expulsions.
- Be on track to complete all course requirements for graduation.
- Have written recommendations from at least two of his or her present or former high school teachers of record or extracurricular activity sponsors.

The bill authorizes a district school board to adopt a service-learning⁴⁷ course that includes a tutoring program and authorizes students to:

- Earn up to 3 elective credits for high school graduation based on the verified number of hours the student spends tutoring.
- Count hours devoted to tutoring toward meeting community service requirements for high school graduation⁴⁸ and participation in the Florida Bright Futures Scholarship Program.⁴⁹
- Earn a New Worlds Scholar award from the DOE by providing at least 500 verified hours of tutoring.

The option for a high school student to tutor a K-3 student may support both students in their academic development.

Parental Notification and Supports

The bill requires a school to apprise in writing, at least monthly, the parent of a student who has a substantial deficiency in reading of the student's progress in response to intensive reading interventions and supports. The written appraisal must inform the parent of any additional interventions or supports to be provided to the student if the initial supports do not lead to improvement.

To further encourage parental participation in a student's reading progress, the bill requires the DOE to develop a handbook that schools must provide to the parent of a student who is identified as having a substantial reading deficiency. The handbook must be made available in an electronic format that is accessible online and must include:

- An overview of the types and frequency of assessments used to identify reading deficiencies and the requirements for interventions and supports that districts must provide to students who do not make adequate academic progress.

⁴⁷ The hours that high school students devote to course-based service-learning activities may be counted toward meeting community service requirements for high school graduation and community service requirements for participation in the Florida Bright Futures Scholarship Program. School districts are encouraged to include service learning as part of any course or activity required for high school graduation and to include and accept service-learning activities and hours in requirements for academic awards, especially those awards that currently include community service as a criterion or selection factor. Section 1003.497(3)(b), F.S.

- An overview of the process for initiating and conducting evaluations for exceptional education eligibility. The overview must include an explanation that a diagnosis of a medical condition alone is not sufficient to establish exceptional education eligibility but may be used to document how that condition relates to the student's eligibility determination and may be disclosed in an eligible student's individual education plan when necessary to inform school personnel responsible for implementing the plan.
- Characteristics of conditions associated with learning disorders, including dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, and developmental aphasia.
- A list of resources that support informed parent involvement in decision making processes for students who have difficulty in learning.

The handbook may support parental awareness and involvement in the progress of a student's education.

Instructional Material Review Process

Present Situation

The DOE is authorized to allocate and distribute to each district an amount as prescribed annually by the Legislature for instructional materials for students in grades K-12.⁵⁰ Each district school superintendent is required to certify to the commissioner that the district school board has approved a comprehensive staff development plan that supports fidelity of implementation of instructional materials programs, including verification that training was provided; that the materials are being implemented as designed; and, beginning July 1, 2021, for core reading materials and reading intervention materials used in kindergarten through grade 5, that the materials have been identified by JRFO in collaboration with the Florida Center for Reading Research as scientifically researched and evidence-based reading instructional and intervention programs that incorporate explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to teaching phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and text comprehension and incorporate decodable or phonetic text instructional strategies.⁵¹

The term of adoption of any instructional materials must be a five-year period, beginning on April 1 following the adoption, except that the commissioner may approve terms of adoption of less than five years for materials in content areas that require more frequent revision.⁵²

Prior to the purchase of any instructional material, whether from the state-adopted list or through a district-established instructional materials review process, the district school board must:

- Establish a process to allow student editions of recommended instructional materials to be accessed and viewed online by the public at least 20 calendar days before the required school board hearing and public meeting. This process must include reasonable safeguards against the unauthorized use, reproduction, and distribution of instructional materials considered for adoption.

⁵⁰ Section 1011.67(1), F.S. The state appropriated $236.6 million to school districts for instructional materials for the 2020-2021 fiscal year. Specific Appropriations 8 and 92, ch. 2020-111, s. 2, Laws of Fla.

⁵¹ Sections 1011.67(2) and 1001.215(8), F.S.

- Conduct an open, noticed school board hearing to receive public comment on the recommended instructional materials.
- Conduct an open, noticed public meeting to approve an annual instructional materials plan to identify any instructional materials that will be purchased. This public meeting must be held on a different date than the school board hearing.
- Provide notice for the school board hearing and the public meeting that specifically states the instructional materials being reviewed and how the instructional materials can be accessed for public review.⁵³

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill modifies s. 1001.215, F.S., to require the JRFO, as part of the adoption cycle for ELA instructional materials, to:

- Assist in evaluating elementary grades instructional materials submitted for adoption consideration.
- Identify those materials that are closely aligned to the content and evidence-based strategies for reading instructional and intervention programs that have been identified in collaboration with the Florida Center for Reading Research.
- Incorporate professional development to implement such strategies.

The bill modifies s. 1011.67, F.S., to authorize instructional materials identified by JRFO to be purchased by a school district without undergoing the comprehensive process for adopting instructional materials at the local level.

The Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program

Present Situation

The Florida Constitution requires the State of Florida to provide every four-year old child a high quality, pre-kindergarten learning opportunity, in the form of an early childhood development and education program, which must be voluntary, high quality, free, and delivered according to professionally accepted standards.⁵⁴ In 2004, the State established a free VPK program offered to eligible four-year-old children.⁵⁵ Parents may choose either a school-year or summer program offered by either a public or private school.⁵⁶

VPK Administration

Early Learning Coalitions (ELCs) and district school boards administer the VPK program at the county or regional level. Each ELC is the single point of entry for VPK program registration and enrollment in the coalition's county or multi-county service area.⁵⁷ A local ELC must coordinate with the local school district in the ELC's service area to develop procedures for enrolling children in public school VPK programs.⁵⁸

The Office of Early Learning (OEL) adopts procedures governing the administration of the VPK program for ELCs and school districts, including procedures for:

- Child enrollment.
- Attendance reporting.
- Eligibility of VPK program providers.
- Regulating the compliance of VPK program providers.
- Reimbursing VPK program providers for the costs of the VPK program.⁵⁹

VPK Instructor Requirements

A VPK provider offering a school-year VPK program must have, for each class, at least one instructor with the following credentials:

- A Child Development Associate (CDA) issued by the National Credentialing Program of the Council for Professional Recognition.
- A credential approved by the Department of Children and Families as being equivalent to or greater than the CDA.
- Five clock hours of training in emergent literacy and successful completion of a student performance standards training course.⁶⁰

In lieu of the minimum credentials listed above, a private VPK program instructor may hold:

- An associate's or higher degree in child development;
- An associate's or higher degree in an unrelated field, at least six credit hours in early childhood education or child development, and at least 480 hours of teaching or providing child care services for children any age from birth through eight years of age;
- A bachelor's or higher degree in early childhood education, prekindergarten or primary education, preschool education, or family and consumer science;
- A bachelor's or higher degree in elementary education, if the instructor has been certified to teach children any age from birth through grade 6, regardless of whether the educator certificate is current; or
- An educational credential approved by the OEL as being equivalent to or greater than any of these educational credentials.⁶¹

VPK Instructor Training

The OEL sets minimum standards for emergent literacy training courses for VPK instructors. Each course must be at least five clock hours long and provide strategies and techniques regarding the age-appropriate progress of prekindergarten students in developing emergent literacy skills, including:

- Oral communication;
- Knowledge of print and letters;
- Phonemic and phonological awareness; and
- Vocabulary and comprehension.⁶²

Each emergent literacy training course must also provide strategies for helping students with disabilities and other special needs maximize their benefit from the VPK program.⁶³ In addition, the OEL must adopt minimum standards for training courses on the VPK performance standards for students. Each course on performance standards must be at least three clock hours, provide instruction in strategies and techniques to address age-appropriate progress of each child in attaining the standards, and be available online.⁶⁴

OEL outlines a 5-Tier career pathway with certifications that require different levels of foundational training up to a bachelor's degree or higher.⁶⁵

Early Learning Florida, developed in partnership between the OEL and the Lastinger Center, is a statewide professional learning system designed to support the development of early childhood professionals' knowledge and skills in effectively educating and caring for young children.⁶⁶ Since 2015, Early Learning Florida has delivered over 400,000 hours of online and blended training to more than 30,000 early childhood practitioners in Florida, at no cost to educators. All Early Learning Florida courses and trainings provide teachers with Continuing Education Units that articulate to national and state credentials.⁶⁷

The OEL has also developed early learning professional development and career pathways.⁶⁸ Professional development and teacher resources are available online, including courses developed by the OEL in collaboration with the Lastinger Center, to provide opportunities to earn educator credentials.⁶⁹

VPK Accountability

The DOE developed a statewide kindergarten readiness screening⁷⁰ and requires each school district to administer the statewide kindergarten readiness screening within the first 30 days of each school year.⁷¹ The screening must measure a child’s readiness for kindergarten in the following eight domains: physical development; approaches to learning; social and emotional development; language and literacy; mathematical thinking; scientific inquiry; social studies; and creative expression through the arts.⁷²

The OEL annually calculates a kindergarten readiness rate for each VPK provider based on results of the annual screening.⁷³ The readiness rates are expressed as the percentage of children whose scores demonstrate readiness for kindergarten.⁷⁴ The methodology for calculating the readiness rate must include student learning gains, when available, based on a VPK preassessment and postassessment, known as the “Florida VPK Assessment.”⁷⁵ The OEL must determine learning gains using a value-added measure based on growth demonstrated by the results of the Florida VPK Assessment from at least two successive years of administration.⁷⁶

At least 60 percent of a VPK provider’s students must meet the “ready for kindergarten” score on the screening in order for the provider to avoid probationary status.⁷⁷ Providers that do not meet the minimum readiness rate are placed on probation. An ELC or school district must require a VPK provider that falls below the minimum kindergarten readiness rate to:

- Submit for approval and implement an improvement plan;
- Place the provider or school on probation; and
- Take certain corrective actions, including the use of an OEL-approved curriculum or an OEL approved staff development plan to strengthen instruction in language development and phonological awareness.⁷⁸

Out of 126,238 students who completed the VPK program, 63 percent were “ready for kindergarten” in the fall of 2019. Of 6,611 rated VPK providers, 2,175 failed to meet the minimum rate.⁷⁹ Of these 2,175 providers, 2,203 remained on probation.⁸⁰

⁷⁰ The DOE selected the Star Early Literacy Assessment, developed by Renaissance Learning, Inc., as the Florida Kindergarten Readiness Screener (FLKRS). A VPK provider on probation and failing to meet the minimum readiness rate for two consecutive years must be removed from eligibility to provide the VPK program for 5 years, unless the provider receives from the OEL a good cause exemption.⁸¹

The DOE launched a VPK progress monitoring pilot program by permitting, beginning in January 2021 and continuing through the 2021-2022 school year, up to 1900 VPK providers to access the assessment used for the statewide kindergarten screening. The DOE allocated $2.9 million from the CARES Act funds for the program.⁸²

The DOE allocated $18 million of the Child Care Development and Block Grant Fund from the CARES Act to implement summer programs for rising kindergarten students identified with limited language and emergent literacy skills as determined by the VPK assessments and teacher recommendations.⁸³

VPK Instructor Requirements

The bill modifies s. 1002.59, to add requirements to the emergent literacy training courses, developed by the OEL, for prekindergarten instructors. The bill requires the JRFO to work with the OEL in the development of the emergent literacy training courses and specifies that the courses must be consistent with the evidence-based reading instructional and intervention programs developed by the JRFO and the Florida Center for Reading Research.

The bill also modifies s. 1002.55, F.S., to revise emergent literacy training to require that the training course be available online and that private prekindergarten instructors complete at least one qualifying emergent literacy training course every 5 years. The additional requirements for VPK instructors may provide instructors with more skills to teach VPK students.

VPK Accountability

The bill modifies s. 1008.25, F.S., to require a VPK student who demonstrates a substantial deficiency in early literacy skills based upon the results of the CSPM to be referred to the school district following completion of the VPK term and prior to the beginning of the next school year. The bill makes the student eligible for intensive reading interventions from the school district, which may be funded from the evidence-based reading instruction allocation. The additional reading interventions may provide additional opportunities for students to improve reading skills.

⁸¹ Section 1002.67(4)(c)3., F.S. A VPK provider must submit a request for a good cause exemption to the OEL for review and approval and include specified data. Section 1002.69(7)(b)-(c), F.S. A VPK provider that receives a good cause exemption must continue to implement its improvement plan and take corrective actions until the provider meets the minimum kindergarten readiness rate. Sections 1002.69(7)(e) and 1002.67(3)(c)2., F.S.

The CSPM replaces current VPK program progress monitoring and accountability requirements in ss. 1002.67 and 1002.69, F.S. With the implementation of the CSPM beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, the bill:

- Phases out the pre- and post-assessment and the statewide kindergarten readiness screening.
- Requires learning gains and kindergarten readiness rates to be calculated using data from the CSPM.

The VPK accountability metrics provided in the bill may measure student performance more contemporaneously with the instruction provided and support the timely provision of information to parents, school districts, and VPK providers.

Kindergarten Readiness

To assist all parents with the transition from prekindergarten to kindergarten, the bill modifies s. 1002.83, F.S. to require the OEL to provide guidance for successful kindergarten transitions to ELCs, school districts, charter schools, and parents. The bill requires each ELC to develop a best-practices plan for transitioning students into kindergarten, which must include all of the following:

- Opportunities for prekindergarten students and their parents to visit schools in which they may be enrolled in kindergarten.
- Written information for parents on school registration and academic and social expectations for kindergarten.
- Meetings at least annually with school districts and charter schools in the coalition's service area to identify and address areas for improvement in transitioning prekindergarten students into kindergarten.
- Transferring prekindergarten student information for continuity in progress monitoring and the provision of supports.

The additional supports for transitioning students to kindergarten may help prepare students for kindergarten. ELCs may require coordination from school districts regarding kindergarten enrollment, visits, and student data.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

Providers may incur costs associated with having private VPK instructors to complete at least one qualifying emergent literacy training course every five years and having to participate in the new coordinated screening and progress monitoring system, beginning in the 2022-2023 school year.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The coordinated screening and progress monitoring required by the bill for students enrolled in the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program through grade 8 will require the expenditure of state funds.

The Department of Education estimates that it will cost $15 million annually to implement the new coordinated screening and progress monitoring program. These costs could be offset, in part, by the elimination of the current VPK assessment and kindergarten screening in fiscal year 2022-2023. To assist with the procurement of the new system and its ongoing management, the department anticipates needing one additional Program Specialist IV position, at a cost of $87,075 annually. School districts may also incur costs associated with computer equipment needed to administer the new assessments.

The department estimates that it will cost $5 million annually to contract with an external entity to implement the new Reading Achievement Initiative for Scholastic Excellence (RAISE) within the department. In addition, the department also anticipates needing two additional Program Specialist IVs and one additional administrative assistant at a cost of $240,014 annually to establish and maintain the literacy support teams and tutoring program. School districts may also incur costs associated with recruiting, training and deploying eligible high school students as part of the tutoring program.

The department anticipates that the addition of microcredentials to teacher certificates will require programming changes to the educator certification system at an indeterminate cost.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

Section 15 of the bill includes an incorrect cross-reference to federal law. A provision of the bill that defines “evidence-based” to mean demonstrating a statistically significant effect on improving student outcomes or other relevant outcomes as provided in 20 U.S.C. s. 8101(21)(A)(i). The definition of the term “evidence-based” is included in the United States Code at 20 U.S.C. s. 7801(21)(A)(i).

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 1001.215, 1001.42, 1002.33, 1002.55, 1002.59, 1002.67, 1002.69, 1002.83, 1002.995, 1003.621, 1004.04, 1008.25, 1008.345, 1011.62, 1011.67, 1012.585, 1012.586, 1012.98, and 1012.986.

This bill creates section 1008.365 of the Florida Statutes.

 267 operating discretionary millage levy; divided by total funded
 268 weighted full-time equivalent students in the school district;
 269 multiplied by the weighted full-time equivalent students for the 270 charter school. Charter schools whose students or programs meet 271 the eligibility criteria in law are entitled to their 272 proportionate share of categorical program funds included in the 273 total funds available in the Florida Education Finance Program
 274 by the Legislature, including transportation, the evidence-based

 276 classrooms allocation. Total funding for each charter school
 277 shall be recalculated during the year to reflect the revised 278 calculations under the Florida Education Finance Program by the 279 state and the actual weighted full-time equivalent students
 280 reported by the charter school during the full-time equivalent
 281 student survey periods designated by the Commissioner of 282 Education. For charter schools operated by a not-for-profit or

349 (1) The office, in collaboration with the Just Read,
 350 Florida! Office, shall adopt minimum standards for one or more
 351 training courses in emergent literacy for prekindergarten
 352 instructors. Each course must comprise 5 clock hours and provide 353 instruction in strategies and techniques to address the age-
 354 appropriate progress of prekindergarten students in developing 355 emergent literacy skills, including oral communication,
 356 knowledge of print and letters, phonemic and phonological
 357 awareness, and vocabulary and comprehension development,
 358 consistent with the evidence-based content and strategies
 359 identified pursuant to s. 1001.215(8). Each course must also 360 provide resources containing strategies that allow students with 361 disabilities and other special needs to derive maximum benefit
 362 from the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program. Successful
 363 completion of an emergent literacy training course approved
 364 under this section satisfies requirements for approved training
 365 in early literacy and language development under ss.
 366 402.305(2)(e)5., 402.313(6), and 402.3131(5).

367 Section 6. Paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section
 368 1002.67, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

369 1002.67 Performance standards; curricula and 370 accountability.—

371 (3) (a) Contingent upon legislative appropriation, each
 372 private prekindergarten provider and public school in the 373 Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program must implement an 374 evidence-based pre- and post-assessment that has been approved
 375 by rule of the State Board of Education. However, beginning with 376 the 2022-2023 school year, such providers and public schools
 377 shall use a coordinated screening and progress monitoring system

378 pursuant to s. 1008.25(8) to meet the requirements of this 379 subsection.

380 Section 7. Subsections (1) and (5) of section 1002.69,
 381 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

382 1002.69 Statewide kindergarten screening; kindergarten
 383 readiness rates; state-approved prekindergarten enrollment
 384 screening; good cause exemption.—

385 (1) The department shall adopt a statewide kindergarten
 386 screening that assesses the readiness of each student for 387 kindergarten based upon the performance standards adopted by the 388 department under s. 1002.67(1) for the Voluntary Prekindergarten
 389 Education Program. However, beginning with the 2022-2023 school
 390 year, the department, in consultation with the Office of Early
 391 Learning, shall implement a coordinated screening and progress
 392 monitoring system for the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education
 393 Program through grade 8 pursuant to s. 1008.25(8), which must be 394 used to assess kindergarten readiness consistent with this 395 subsection. The department shall require that each school
 396 district administer the statewide kindergarten screening to each
 397 kindergarten student in the school district within the first 30
 398 school days of each school year. Nonpublic schools may 399 administer the statewide kindergarten screening to each
 400 kindergarten student in a nonpublic school who was enrolled in 401 the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program.

402 (5) The office shall adopt procedures to annually calculate 403 each private prekindergarten provider's and public school's 404 kindergarten readiness rate, which must be expressed as the 405 percentage of the provider's or school's students who are 406 assessed as ready for kindergarten. The methodology for

39-01370-21 20211898__
 407 calculating each provider's kindergarten readiness rate must 408 include student learning gains when available and the percentage
 409 of students who meet all state readiness measures. The rates
 410 must not include students who are not administered the statewide
 411 kindergarten screening. The office shall determine learning
 412 gains using a value-added measure based on growth demonstrated 413 by the results of the preassessment and postassessment from at 414 least 2 successive years of administration of the preassessment
 415 and postassessment. However, beginning with the 2022-2023 school
 416 year, a coordinated screening and progress monitoring system
 417 implemented pursuant to s. 1008.25(8) must be used to determine
 418 such learning gains consistent with this subsection.

Section 8. Present subsection (14) of section 1002.83, Florida Statutes, is redesignated as subsection (15), and a new subsection (14) is added to that section, to read:

1002.83 Early learning coalitions.—

(14) Each early learning coalition shall adopt a best-practices plan for transitioning prekindergarten students into kindergarten. The plan must provide for:

(a) Opportunities for prekindergarten students and their parents to visit schools in which they may be enrolled in kindergarten.

(b) Written information for parents on school registration and academic and social expectations for kindergarten.

(c) Meetings at least annually with school districts and charter schools in the coalition's service area to identify and address areas for improvement in transitioning prekindergarten students into kindergarten.

(d) Transferring prekindergarten student information for

 436 continuity in progress monitoring and the provision of supports.

437
 438 The office shall provide guidelines for successful kindergarten
 439 transitions to early learning coalitions, school districts,
 440 charter schools, and parents to assist with the implementation
 441 of this subsection.

Section 9. Subsection (2) of section 1002.995, Florida
 Statutes, is amended to read:

1002.995 Early learning professional development standards and career pathways.—

(2) To the greatest extent possible, the credentials and certifications established pursuant to this section shall align with the training for K-12 teachers, reading coaches, and school

Section 10. Paragraph (g) of subsection (2) of section
 1003.621, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

1003.621 Academically high-performing school districts.—It is the intent of the Legislature to recognize and reward school

467 exempt from submitting this plan shall be deemed approved to 468 receive the evidence-based ~~research-based~~ reading instruction
469 allocation.

470 Section 11. Paragraph (b) of subsection (3) and paragraph 471 (b) of subsection (5) of section 1004.04, Florida Statutes, are 472 amended to read:

473 1004.04 Public accountability and state approval for 474 teacher preparation programs.—

475 (3) INITIAL STATE PROGRAM APPROVAL.—

476 (b) Each teacher preparation program approved by the 477 Department of Education, as provided for by this section, shall 478 require students, at a minimum, to ~~meet, at a minimum, the~~ 479 ~~following as prerequisites for admission into the program:~~

494 of the State Board of Education.

496 ~~Each teacher preparation program may waive these admissions~~
497 ~~requirements for up to 10 percent of the students admitted.~~
498 ~~Programs shall implement strategies to ensure that students~~

506 through preservice field experience courses and internships
507 shall meet special requirements. District school boards may pay
508 student teachers during their internships.

509 (b)1. All school district personnel and instructional

 527 identified pursuant to s. 1012.585(3)(f), evidence of being 528 certified or endorsed in reading.

 530 The State Board of Education shall approve the training
 531 requirements.

532 2. All instructional personnel who supervise or direct

39-01370-21 20211898__

552 1008.25, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (9)
 553 and (10), respectively, and paragraph (d) of subsection (5) and 554 a new subsection (8) are added to that section, and paragraph 555 (a) of subsection (4), paragraph (c) of subsection (5),
 556 paragraph (a) of subsection (7), and present subsection (8) are 557 amended, to read:

558 1008.25 Public school student progression; student support;
 559 screening and progress monitoring; reporting requirements.—

560 (4) ASSESSMENT AND SUPPORT.—

561 (a) Each student must participate in the statewide,
 562 standardized assessment program required under ~~by~~ s. 1008.22 and 563 the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program through grade 8
 564 coordinated screening and progress monitoring system required
 565 under subsection (8). Each student who does not achieve a Level
 566 3 or above on the statewide, standardized English Language Arts
 567 assessment, the statewide, standardized Mathematics assessment,
 568 or the Algebra I EOC assessment must be evaluated to determine 569 the nature of the student's difficulty, the areas of academic 570 need, and strategies for providing academic supports to improve 571 the student's performance.

572 (5) READING DEFICIENCY AND PARENTAL NOTIFICATION.—

573 (c) The parent of any student who exhibits a substantial 574 deficiency in reading, as described in paragraph (a), must be 575 notified in writing of the following:

576 1. That his or her child has been identified as having a 577 substantial deficiency in reading, including a description and 578 explanation, in terms understandable to the parent, of the exact
 579 nature of the student's difficulty in learning and lack of 580 achievement in reading.

39-01370-21

20211898__

581 2. A description of the current services that are provided
582 to the child.

583 3. A description of the proposed intensive interventions
584 and supports that will be provided to the child that are 585 designed to remediate the identified area of reading deficiency.

586 4. That if the child's reading deficiency is not remediated
587 by the end of grade 3, the child must be retained unless he or 588 she is exempt from mandatory retention for good cause.

589 5. Strategies, including multisensory strategies, through a
590 read-at-home plan the parent can use in helping his or her child
591 succeed in reading.

592 6. That the statewide, standardized English Language Arts
593 assessment is not the sole determiner of promotion and that 594 additional evaluations, portfolio reviews, and assessments are 595 available to the child to assist parents and the school district
596 in knowing when a child is reading at or above grade level and 597 ready for grade promotion.

598 7. The district's specific criteria and policies for a
599 portfolio as provided in subparagraph (6)(b)4. and the evidence
600 required for a student to demonstrate mastery of Florida's
601 academic standards for English Language Arts. A parent of a 602 student in grade 3 who is identified anytime during the year as 603 being at risk of retention may request that the school
604 immediately begin collecting evidence for a portfolio.

605 8. The district's specific criteria and policies for 606 midyear promotion. Midyear promotion means promotion of a
607 retained student at any time during the year of retention once
608 the student has demonstrated ability to read at grade level.

609

610 After initial notification, the school shall apprise the parent
611 at least monthly of the student's progress in response to the 612 intensive interventions and supports. Such communications must 613 be in writing and must explain any additional interventions or 614 supports that will be implemented to accelerate the student's 615 progress if the interventions and supports already being 616 implemented have not resulted in improvement.

617 (d) The Department of Education shall develop a handbook
618 that schools must provide to the parent of a student who is 619 identified as having a substantial reading deficiency. The 620 handbook must be made available in an electronic format that is 621 accessible online and must include the following information:

622 1. An overview of the types of assessments used to identify 623 reading deficiencies and what those assessments measure or do
624 not measure, the frequency with which the assessments are 625 administered, and the requirements for interventions and 626 supports that districts must provide to students who do not make 627 adequate academic progress.

628 2. An overview of the process for initiating and conducting
629 evaluations for exceptional education eligibility. The overview
630 must include an explanation that a diagnosis of a medical 631 condition alone is not sufficient to establish exceptional
632 education eligibility but may be used to document how that 633 condition relates to the student's eligibility determination and 634 may be disclosed in an eligible student's individual education
635 plan when necessary to inform school personnel responsible for 636 implementing the plan.

637 3. Characteristics of conditions associated with learning
638 disorders, including dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, and

639 developmental aphasia.

640 4. A list of resources that support informed parent
 641 involvement in decisionmaking processes for students who have
 642 difficulty in learning.

643 (7) SUCCESSFUL PROGRESSION FOR RETAINED THIRD GRADE
 644 STUDENTS.—

645 (a) Students retained under paragraph (5) (b) must be 646 provided intensive interventions in reading to ameliorate the 647 student's specific reading deficiency and prepare the student
 648 for promotion to the next grade. These interventions must 649 include:

650 1. Evidence-based, explicit, systematic, and multisensory
 651 reading instruction in phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency,
 652 vocabulary, and comprehension and other strategies prescribed by 653 the school district.

654 2. Participation in the school district's summer reading
 655 camp, which must incorporate the instructional and intervention
 656 strategies under subparagraph 1.

657 3. A minimum of 90 minutes of daily, uninterrupted reading
 658 instruction incorporating the instructional and intervention
 659 strategies under subparagraph 1. This instruction may include:

- 660 a. Coordinated integration of content-rich texts in science
 661 and civic literacy ~~social studies~~ within the 90-minute block.
 662 b. Small group instruction.
 663 c. Reduced teacher-student ratios.
 664 d. More frequent progress monitoring.
 665 e. Tutoring or mentoring.
 666 f. Transition classes containing 3rd and 4th grade

669 (8) COORDINATED SCREENING AND PROGRESS MONITORING SYSTEM.—

670 (a) The Department of Education, in collaboration with the 671 Office of Early Learning, shall procure and require the use of a
 672 statewide, standardized coordinated screening and progress
 673 monitoring system for the Voluntary Prekindergarten Education
 674 Program and public schools serving kindergarten through grade 8
 675 students. The system must:

676 1. Measure student progress in the Voluntary
 677 Prekindergarten Education Program through grade 8 in meeting the 678 appropriate expectations in early literacy and mathematics
 679 skills and in English Language Arts and mathematics standards as 680 required by ss. 1002.67(1) (a) and 1003.41.

681 2. Measure student performance in oral language
 682 development, phonemic and phonological awareness, knowledge of 683 print and letters, decoding, fluency, vocabulary, and 684 comprehension, as applicable by grade level.

685 3. Be a valid, reliable, and developmentally appropriate
 686 computer-adaptive direct instrument that provides screening and 687 diagnostic capabilities for monitoring student progress and 688 identifies students who have a substantial deficiency in 689 reading, including identifying students with characteristics of 690 dyslexia.

691 4. Provide data for Voluntary Prekindergarten Education
 692 Program accountability as required under s. 1002.67.

693 5. Provide Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program
 694 providers, school districts, schools, and teachers with data and 695 resources that enhance differentiated instruction and parent
 696 communication.

20211898__

697 6. Provide information to the department to aid in the 698 development of educational programs, policies, and supports for 699 providers, districts, and schools.

700 (b) Beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, private 701 Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program providers and public
 702 schools must participate in the screening and progress
 703 monitoring system. The screening and progress monitoring system
 704 must be administered at least three times within a program year
 705 or school year, as applicable, with the first administration
 706 occurring no later than the first 30 instructional days after
 707 the start of the program year or school year pursuant to state
 708 board rule.

709 (c) A Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program student
 710 who exhibits a substantial deficiency in early literacy skills
 711 based upon results under this subsection must be referred to the 712 school district in which he or she resides and may be eligible
 713 to receive intensive reading interventions after program
 714 completion and before participating in kindergarten. Such 715 interventions may be paid for using funds from the school
 716 district's evidence-based reading instruction allocation in 717 accordance with s. 1011.62(9).

718 (d) Screening and progress monitoring system results shall 719 be reported to the department pursuant to state board rule and 720 maintained in the department's K-20 data warehouse. Results must 721 be provided to a student's teacher and parent in a timely manner
 722 as required in paragraph (2) (a).

723 (e) The department, in collaboration with the Office of 724 Early Learning, shall provide training and support for effective
 725 implementation of the screening and progress monitoring system.

760 1008.345 Implementation of state system of school
761 improvement and education accountability.—

762 (5) The commissioner shall annually report to the State
763 Board of Education and the Legislature and recommend changes in 764 state policy necessary to foster school improvement and

779 Section 14. Section 1008.365, Florida Statutes, is created
780 to read:

781 1008.365 Reading Achievement Initiative for Scholastic
782 Excellence Act.—

783 (1) This section may be cited as the "Reading Achievement

784 Initiative for Scholastic Excellence Act."

785 (2) The Reading Achievement Initiative for Scholastic
786 Excellence (RAISE) Program is established within the Department
787 of Education to provide instructional supports to school
788 districts, school administrators, and instructional personnel in 789 implementing evidence-based reading instruction and 790 interventions in order to improve student reading achievement.

791 (3) The department shall establish at least 20 literacy
792 support regions and regional support teams, at the direction of 793 a regional literacy support director appointed by the 794 Commissioner of Education, to assist schools with improving low
795 reading scores as provided in this section.

796 (a) A regional literacy support director must be an 797 employee of a school district, successfully demonstrate 798 competence on the evidence-based strategies identified pursuant 799 to s. 1001.215(8) through a statewide, competency-based reading 800 endorsement pathway under s. 1012.586(2), and have the 801 experience and credentials necessary, as determined by the 802 department, to:

803 1. Effectively monitor student reading growth and 804 achievement data;

805 2. Oversee districtwide and schoolwide professional
806 development and planning to establish evidence-based practices
807 among school administrators and instructional personnel;

808 3. Evaluate implementation of evidence-based practices; and 809 4. Manage a regional support team.

810 (b) A regional support team shall report to its regional 811 literacy support director and must consist of individuals who:

812 1. Successfully demonstrate competence on the evidence-

39-01370-21 20211898__

813 based strategies identified pursuant to s. 1001.215(8) through a
 814 statewide, competency-based reading endorsement pathway under s.
 815 1012.586(2);

816 2. Have substantial experience in teaching and monitoring
 817 student progress data in reading; and

818 3. Have received training necessary to assist with the 819 delivery of professional development and site-based supports,
 820 including modeling evidence-based practices and providing 821 feedback to instructional personnel.

822 (4) The department may establish criteria to identify 823 schools that must receive supports from a regional support team.
 824 However, regardless of its school grade designated pursuant to 825 s. 1008.34, a school must be identified for supports if 50
 826 percent of its students who take the statewide, standardized
 827 English Language Arts assessment score below a Level 3 for any 828 grade level, or, for students in kindergarten through grade 3,
 829 if progress monitoring data collected pursuant to s. 1008.25(8)
 830 shows that 50 percent or more of the students are not on track
 831 to pass the statewide, standardized grade 3 English Language
 832 Arts assessment. A school identified for supports under this 833 section must implement a school improvement plan pursuant to s.
 834 1001.42(18).

835 (5) The department shall provide progress monitoring data
 836 to regional support teams regarding the implementation of 837 supports. Such supports must include:

838 (a) Professional development, aligned to evidence-based 839 strategies identified pursuant to s. 1001.215(8), for 840 appropriate instructional personnel and school administrators
 841 identified by the regional support team.

842 (b) Assistance with implementing:

843 1. Data-informed instructional decisionmaking using 844 progress monitoring and other appropriate data.

845 2. Selection and consistent, coordinated use of high-
 846 quality instructional materials and supplemental materials.

847 3. Reading instruction in other core subject area
 848 curricula, with an emphasis on civic literacy.

849 4. A multitiered system of supports in order to provide 850 students effective interventions and identify students who may 851 require an evaluation for special educational services,
 852 including identifying characteristics of conditions that affect 853 phonological processing, such as dyslexia.

854 (c) Evaluating a school's improvement plan for alignment
 855 with the school district's K-12 comprehensive reading plan under 856 s. 1011.62(9)(d). If the regional support team determines that 857 the school district's reading plan does not address the school's 858 need to improve student outcomes, the regional literacy support
 859 director, the district school superintendent, or his or her
 860 designee, and the director of the Just Read, Florida! Office 861 shall convene a meeting to rectify the deficiencies of the 862 reading plan.

863 (6) Identification of a school for supports under this
 864 section does not require a school to implement a turnaround
 865 option or take other corrective actions under s. 1008.33.
 866 However, a regional support team may be used to assist with
 867 providing the differentiated matrix of intervention and support
 868 strategies under s. 1008.33, as appropriate. The department may 869 direct a regional support team to make other forms of assistance
 870 available to school districts and schools.

39-01370-21

871 (7) Once a school's data shows that it no longer meets the 872 criteria under subsection (4), the school may discontinue
 873 receiving supports and implementing a school improvement plan.
 874 Such supports may continue subject to available resources.

875 (8) As part of the RAISE Program, the department shall 876 establish a tutoring program and develop training in effective
 877 reading tutoring practices and content, based on evidence-based 878 practices and aligned to the English Language Arts standards
 879 under s. 1003.41, which prepares eligible high school students
 880 to tutor students in kindergarten through grade 3 in schools
 881 identified under this section, instilling in those students a
 882 love of reading and improving their literacy skills.

883 (a) To be eligible to participate in the tutoring program,
 884 a high school student must be a rising junior or senior who has 885 a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher, has no
 886 history of out-of-school suspensions or expulsions, is on track
 887 to complete all core course requirements to graduate, and has 888 written recommendations from at least two of his or her present
 889 or former high school teachers of record or extracurricular 890 activity sponsors.

891 (b) School districts that wish to participate in the 892 tutoring program must recruit, train, and deploy eligible high
 893 school students using the materials developed under this 894 section. Tutoring must occur during the school day on school
 895 district property in the presence and under the supervision of 896 instructional personnel who are school district employees. A
 897 parent must give written permission for his or her child to 898 receive tutoring through the program.

899 (c) Tutoring may be part of a service-learning course

 901 elective credits for high school graduation based on the 902 verified number of hours the student spends tutoring under the 903 program. The hours of volunteer service must be documented in 904 writing, and the document must be signed by the student, the 905 student's parent or guardian, and an administrator or designee
 906 of the school in which the tutoring occurred. The hours that a 907 high school student devotes to tutoring may be counted toward 908 meeting community service requirements for high school
 909 graduation and community service requirements for participation
 910 in the Florida Bright Futures Scholarship Program as provided in 911 s. 1003.497(3)(b). The department shall designate a high school
 912 student who provides at least 500 verified hours of tutoring
 913 under the program as a New Worlds Scholar and award the student
 914 with a pin indicating such designation.

915 (9) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules to 916 administer this section.

917 Section 15. Paragraphs (b) and (d) of subsection (6) and 918 subsections (9) and (11) of section 1011.62, Florida Statutes,
 919 are amended to read:

920 1011.62 Funds for operation of schools.—If the annual 921 allocation from the Florida Education Finance Program to each
 922 district for operation of schools is not determined in the 923 annual appropriations act or the substantive bill implementing 924 the annual appropriations act, it shall be determined as 925 follows:

926 (6) CATEGORICAL FUNDS.—

927 (b) If a district school board finds and declares in a
 928 resolution adopted at a regular meeting of the school board that

 930 appropriations are urgently needed to maintain school board
 931 specified academic classroom instruction or improve school
 932 safety, the school board may consider and approve an amendment
 933 to the school district operating budget transferring the 934 identified amount of the categorical funds to the appropriate
 935 account for expenditure:

- 936 1. Funds for student transportation.
- 937 2. Funds for evidence-based ~~research-based~~ reading
 938 instruction if the required additional hour of instruction
 939 beyond the normal school day for each day of the entire school
 940 year has been provided for the students in each low-performing 941 elementary school in the district pursuant to paragraph (9) (a).
- 942 3. Funds for instructional materials if all instructional
 943 material purchases necessary to provide updated materials that 944 are aligned with applicable state standards and course
 945 descriptions and that meet statutory requirements of content and 946 learning have been completed for that fiscal year, but no sooner
 947 than March 1. Funds available after March 1 may be used to

959 (d) If a district school board transfers funds from its 960 ~~evidence-based research-based~~ reading instruction allocation,
 961 the board must also submit to the Department of Education an 962 amendment describing the changes that the district is making to 963 its reading plan approved pursuant to paragraph (9) (d).

964 (9) EVIDENCE-BASED ~~RESEARCH-BASED~~ READING INSTRUCTION
 965 ALLOCATION.—

966 (a) The ~~evidence-based research-based~~ reading instruction
 967 allocation is created to provide comprehensive reading
 968 instruction to students in kindergarten through grade 12,
 969 including certain students who have completed the Voluntary
 970 Prekindergarten Education Program and who exhibit a substantial
 971 deficiency in early literacy skills under s. 1008.25(8)(c). Each
 972 school district that has one or more of the 300 lowest-
 973 performing elementary schools based on a 3-year average of the 974 state reading assessment data must use the school's portion of 975 the allocation to provide an additional hour per day of 976 intensive reading instruction for the students in each school.
 977 The additional hour may be provided within the school day.
 978 Students enrolled in these schools who earned a level 4 or level
 979 5 score on the statewide, standardized English Language Arts 980 assessment for the previous school year may participate in the 981 additional hour of instruction. Exceptional student education
 982 centers may not be included in the 300 schools. The intensive 983 reading instruction delivered in this additional hour shall 984 include: ~~evidence-based research-based~~ reading instruction that 985 has been proven to accelerate progress of students exhibiting a 986 reading deficiency; differentiated instruction based on

39-01370-21 20211898__

987 screening, diagnostic, progress monitoring, or student
 988 assessment data to meet students' specific reading needs;
 989 explicit and systematic reading strategies to develop phonemic
 990 awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension, with 991 more extensive opportunities for guided practice, error
 992 correction, and feedback; and the coordinated integration of 993 civic literacy ~~social studies~~, science, and mathematics-text
 994 reading, text discussion, and writing in response to reading.

995 (b) Funds for comprehensive, evidence-based ~~research-based~~ 996 reading instruction shall be allocated annually to each school
 997 district in the amount provided in the General Appropriations
 998 Act. Each eligible school district shall receive the same
 999 minimum amount as specified in the General Appropriations Act,
 1000 and any remaining funds shall be distributed to eligible school
 1001 districts based on each school district's proportionate share of 1002 K-12 base funding.

1003 (c) Funds allocated under this subsection must be used to 1004 provide a system of comprehensive reading instruction to 1005 students enrolled in the K-12 programs, which may include the 1006 following:

1007 1. An additional hour per day of evidence-based intensive 1008 reading instruction to students in the 300 lowest-performing 1009 elementary schools by teachers and reading specialists who have 1010 demonstrated effectiveness in teaching reading as required in 1011 paragraph (a).

1012 2. Kindergarten through grade 5 evidence-based reading
 1013 ~~intervention~~ teachers to provide intensive reading interventions 1014 provided by reading intervention teachers ~~intervention~~ during 1015 the school day and in the required extra hour for students

1016 identified as having a substantial reading deficiency.

1017 3. Highly qualified reading coaches to specifically support
 1018 teachers in making instructional decisions based on student
 1019 data, and improve teacher delivery of effective reading
 1020 instruction, intervention, and reading in the content areas
 1021 based on student need.

1022 4. Professional development for school district teachers in 1023 scientifically researched and evidence-based ~~based~~ reading
 1024 instruction, including strategies to teach reading in content
 1025 areas and with an emphasis on technical and informational text, 1026 to help school district teachers earn a certification or an 1027 endorsement in reading.

1028 5. Summer reading camps, using only teachers or other
 1029 district personnel who are certified or endorsed in reading
 1030 consistent with s. 1008.25(7)(b)3., for all students in 1031 kindergarten through grade 2 who demonstrate a reading
 1032 deficiency as determined by district and state assessments, and 1033 students in grades 3 through 5 who score at Level 1 on the 1034 statewide, standardized English Language Arts assessment.

1035 6. Scientifically researched and evidence-based 1036 supplemental instructional materials ~~that are grounded in~~ 1037 ~~scientifically based reading research~~ as identified by the Just 1038 Read, Florida! Office pursuant to s. 1001.215(8).

1039 7. Evidence-based intensive reading interventions for 1040 students in kindergarten through grade 12 who have been 1041 identified as having a substantial reading deficiency or who are 1042 reading below grade level as determined by the statewide,
 1043 standardized English Language Arts assessment.

1044 (d)1. Annually, by a date determined by the Department of

39-01370-21 20211898__
 1045 Education but before May 1, school districts shall submit a K-12
 1046 comprehensive reading plan for the specific use of the evidence-1047 ~~based research-based~~ reading instruction allocation in the 1048 format prescribed by the department for review and approval by 1049 the Just Read, Florida! Office created pursuant to s. 1001.215.
 1050 The plan format shall be developed with input from school
 1051 district personnel, including teachers and principals, and shall 1052 provide for intensive reading interventions identified through a
 1053 root-cause analysis of student performance data and reflection
 1054 tool developed by the department to evaluate the effectiveness
 1055 of interventions implemented in the prior year. Intensive 1056 reading interventions must be delivered by instructional
 1057 personnel who are certified or endorsed in reading and must 1058 incorporate evidence-based strategies identified by the Just 1059 Read, Florida! Office pursuant to s. 1001.215(8).

1060 2. By July 1 of each year, the department shall release to 1061 each school district with an approved plan its allocation of 1062 appropriated funds. The plan annually submitted by school
 1063 ~~districts shall be deemed approved unless the department rejects~~ 1064 ~~the plan on or before June 1.~~ If a school district and the Just 1065 Read, Florida! Office cannot reach agreement on the contents of 1066 the plan, the school district may appeal to the State Board of 1067 Education for resolution. School districts shall be allowed 1068 reasonable flexibility in designing their plans and shall be 1069 encouraged to offer reading intervention through innovative 1070 methods, including career academies. ~~The plan format shall be~~ 1071 ~~developed with input from school district personnel, including~~
 1072 ~~teachers and principals, and shall provide for intensive reading~~
 1073 ~~interventions through integrated curricula, provided that,~~

39-01370-21 20211898__
 1074 ~~beginning with the 2020-2021 school year, the interventions are~~
 1075 ~~delivered by a teacher who is certified or endorsed in reading.~~
 1076 ~~Such interventions must incorporate strategies identified by the~~ 1077 ~~Just Read, Florida! Office pursuant to s. 1001.215(8). No later~~
 1078 ~~than July 1 annually, the department shall release the school~~
 1079 ~~district's allocation of appropriated funds to those districts~~
 1080 ~~having approved plans. A school district that spends 100 percent~~
 1081 ~~of this allocation on its approved plan shall be deemed to have~~ 1082 ~~been in compliance with the plan. The department shall may~~ 1083 withhold funds upon a determination that reading instruction
 1084 allocation funds are not being used to implement the approved
 1085 plan. The department shall evaluate monitor and track the 1086 implementation of each district plan, including conducting site
 1087 visits and collecting specific data on expenditures and reading
 1088 improvement results. By February 1 of each year, the department
 1089 shall report its findings to the Legislature and the State Board
 1090 of Education, including any recommendations for improving
 1091 implementation of evidence-based reading and intervention
 1092 strategies in classrooms.

1093 3.2- Each school district that has a school designated as 1094 one of the 300 lowest-performing elementary schools as specified 1095 in paragraph (a) shall specifically delineate in the 1096 comprehensive reading plan, or in an addendum to the 1097 comprehensive reading plan, the implementation design and 1098 reading intervention strategies that will be used for the 1099 required additional hour of reading instruction. The term
 1100 "reading intervention" includes evidence-based strategies
 1101 frequently used to remediate reading deficiencies and also 1102 includes individual instruction, tutoring, mentoring, or the use

39-01370-21 20211898__

1103 of technology that targets specific reading skills and 1104 abilities.

1106 For purposes of this subsection, the term "evidence-based" means
1107 demonstrating a statistically significant effect on improving
1108 student outcomes or other relevant outcomes as provided in 20
1109 U.S.C. s. 8101(21)(A)(i).

1110 (11) VIRTUAL EDUCATION CONTRIBUTION.—The Legislature may
1111 annually provide in the Florida Education Finance Program a 1112 virtual education contribution. The amount of the virtual 1113 education contribution shall be the difference between the 1114 amount per FTE established in the General Appropriations Act for 1115 virtual education and the amount per FTE for each district and 1116 the Florida Virtual School, which may be calculated by taking 1117 the sum of the base FEEP allocation, the discretionary local 1118 effort, the state-funded discretionary contribution, the 1119 discretionary millage compression supplement, the evidence-based 1120 ~~research-based~~ reading instruction allocation, the teacher
1121 salary increase allocation, and the instructional materials
1122 allocation, and then dividing by the total unweighted FTE. This 1123 difference shall be multiplied by the virtual education
1124 unweighted FTE for programs and options identified in s.
1125 1002.455 and the Florida Virtual School and its franchises to 1126 equal the virtual education contribution and shall be included
1127 as a separate allocation in the funding formula.

1129 Statutes, is amended to read:

1130 1011.67 Funds for instructional materials.—

1131 (2) Annually by July 1 and before the release of

1132 instructional materials funds, each district school
1133 superintendent shall certify to the Commissioner of Education
1134 that the district school board has approved a comprehensive 1135 staff development plan that supports fidelity of implementation
1136 of instructional materials programs, including verification that 1137 training was provided; that the materials are being implemented
1138 as designed; and, beginning July 1, 2021, for core reading
1139 materials and reading intervention materials used in 1140 kindergarten through grade 5, that the materials meet the 1141 requirements of s. 1001.215(8). Such instructional materials, as 1142 evaluated and identified pursuant to s. 1001.215(4), may be 1143 purchased by the school district with funds under this section
1144 without undergoing the adoption procedures under s.
1145 1006.40(4)(b). This subsection does not preclude school
1146 districts from purchasing or using other materials to supplement
1147 reading instruction and provide additional skills practice.

1148 Section 17. Paragraph (g) is added to subsection (3) of 1149 section 1012.585, Florida Statutes, to read:

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 1906 changes the state's reemployment assistance weekly benefit amount from a range of $32 to $275 per week to $100 to $375 per week. The bill also allows the application of an alternative base period, consisting of the four most recent calendar quarters, if an individual cannot qualify under the current base period. The bill increases the number of available weeks by two weeks, for a range of a maximum of 14 weeks at an unemployment rate of 5 percent up to 25 weeks at an unemployment rate of 10.5 percent. Under the bill, the number of available weeks is calculated monthly instead of annually.

The bill removes the requirement that a claimant must include the telephone number of each prospective employer contacted for each week of unemployment claimed; clarifies that "address" means a website address, a physical address, or an e-mail address for purposes of reporting the address of each prospective employer contacted; reduces the number of prospective employers that each reemployment assistance claimants must contact each week from five to three, or from three to two for individuals in small counties; and allows submittal of a resume to an employer through an online job search service to count as a contact. The bill clarifies that pregnancy cannot be the basis of a denial of a claim.

The Revenue Estimating Conference has not yet estimated the impact of the bill.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

II. Present Situation:

Unemployment Compensation Overview

According to the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL), the Federal-State Unemployment Insurance Program provides unemployment benefits to eligible workers who are unemployed through no-fault of their own (as determined under state law) and who meet the requirements of state law.¹ The program is administered as a partnership of the federal government and the states.² The individual states collect unemployment compensation payroll taxes on a quarterly basis, which are used to pay benefits, while the Internal Revenue Service collects an annual federal payroll tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).³ FUTA collections go to the states for costs of administering state unemployment compensation and job service programs. In addition, FUTA pays one-half of the cost of extended unemployment benefits (during periods of high unemployment) and provides for a fund from which states may borrow, if necessary, to pay benefits.⁴

States are permitted to set benefit eligibility requirements, the amount and duration of benefits, and the state tax structure, as long as state law does not conflict with FUTA or Social Security Act requirements. Florida's program was created by the Legislature in 1937.⁵ The Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO) is the current agency responsible for administering Florida's laws, primarily through its Division of Workforce Services. DEO contracts with the Florida Department of Revenue (DOR) to provide unemployment tax collections services.⁶

State Reemployment Assistance Benefits

In Florida, which rebranded the unemployment compensation program as the reemployment assistance program in 2012,⁷ a qualified claimant may receive benefits equal to 25 percent of wages, not to exceed $6,325 in a benefit year.⁸ Benefits range from a minimum of $32 per week to a maximum weekly benefit amount⁹ of $275, for a maximum of between 12 weeks and 23

⁸ Section 443.111(5), F.S. The maximum amount of benefits available is calculated by multiplying an individual's weekly benefit amount by the number of available benefit weeks.

⁹ Pursuant to s. 443.111(3), F.S., the "weekly benefit amount," is an amount equal to one twenty-sixth of the total wages for insured work paid during the quarter of the base period where the wages paid were highest.

weeks,¹⁰ depending on the claimant's length of prior employment and wages earned and the unemployment rate.¹¹

The maximum available weeks is set at the beginning of the year and applies for the entire calendar year. The maximum available weeks is based upon the average seasonally adjusted statewide unemployment rate for the months of July, August, and September.¹² If the average rate for that most recent third calendar year quarter is at or below 5 percent, then the maximum weeks of benefits available is 12 weeks. For each 0.5 percent step about 5 percent, an additional week of benefits is added to the maximum duration, up to 23 weeks of benefits if that average third quarter unemployment rate is 10.5 percent. On January 1, 2021, the maximum weeks of benefits increased from 12 weeks to 19 weeks based on the three month average of July, August, and September of 2020, which was 8.6 percent.¹³

To receive benefits, a claimant must meet certain monetary and non-monetary eligibility requirements. Key eligibility requirements involve a claimant's earnings during a certain period of time, the manner in which the claimant became unemployed, and the claimant's efforts to find new employment.¹⁴

Earnings Requirements

The "base period" is the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year.¹⁵ A claimant must have earned wages in at least two quarters of the claimant's base period. The minimum total base period wages must be at least 1.5 times the wages earned in the individual's highest quarter, but at least $3,400 in the base period.¹⁶ For example, the minimum amount a person could earn could be $850 in all four quarters or $1,700 in two of the base period quarters. A claimant's weekly benefit amount is calculated taking the quarter in the base period with the highest amount of wages and multiplying that amount by one twenty-sixth. The minimum weekly benefit amount is $32 and the maximum is $275. For example, a person whose highest quarter earnings were $850, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $32; a person whose highest quarter earnings were $7,150, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $275; a person whose ¹⁰ Section 443.111(5)(c), F.S. If the average unemployment rate for the 3 months in the most recent third calendar year quarter is at or below 5 percent, then the maximum weeks of benefits available is 12; for each 0.5 percent that the unemployment rate is above 5 percent, an additional week of benefits becomes available up to 23 weeks at an unemployment rate of 10.5 percent. On January 1, 2021, the maximum weeks of benefits increased from 12 weeks to 19 weeks based on the three month average of July, August, and September of 2020, which was 8.7 percent.

¹¹ The average weekly benefit amount for each quarter in 2020 was: first quarter – $254; second quarter – $236; third quarter – $227; and fourth quarter – $228. highest quarter earnings were $9,750, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $275; and a person whose highest quarter earnings were $12,936,¹⁷ would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $275.

Able and Available for Work

A claimant must meet certain requirements in order to be eligible for benefits for each week of unemployment. Generally, these include efforts related to finding new employment, such as:¹⁸

- Registering with Employ Florida;¹⁹
- Reporting to the One-Stop Career Center when directed to do so by the local CareerSource board;
- Being able to and available for work;²⁰
- Contacting at least 5 prospective employers each week or going to the One-Stop Career Center for reemployment services; and
- Participating in reemployment services.

For each week of benefits claimed, a claimant must submit to the DEO the name, address, and telephone number of each prospective employer contacted.²¹ A claimant must be actively seeking work to be considered available for work. “This means engaging in systematic and sustained efforts to find work, including contacting at least five prospective employers for each week of unemployment claimed” or three prospective employers for individuals who live in small counties.²² Proof of work search efforts cannot include the same prospective employer at the same location in three consecutive weeks, unless in the meantime the employer has indicated that it is hiring. The DEO conducts random audits of the submitted information to verify that claimants are meeting these requirements.

The requirement to be available for work and able to work applies to an individual during the major portion of the individual’s customary work week. Consequently, individuals whose benefits are not based on full-time work are not required to seek or be available to accept full-time work.²³

An individual must make a thorough and continued effort to obtain work and take positive actions to become reemployed. To aid unemployed individuals, free reemployment services and assistance are available.²⁴

¹⁷ The statewide average annual wage is $51,744 (2019).

²⁰ “Able to work” means physically and mentally capable of performing the duties of the occupation in which work is being sought. “Available for work” means actively seeking and being ready and willing to accept suitable work. See s. 443.036(1) and (6), F.S. See also Rule 73B-11.021(2), F.A.C.

²³ Rule 73B-11.021(2), F.A.C.

The DEO’s website provides links to local, state, and national employment databases and to resources for job training or further educational opportunities. The One-Stop Career Centers provide job search counseling and workshops, occupational and labor market information, referral to potential employers, and job training assistance. Claimants may also receive an e-mail from the Employ Florida Marketplace with information about employment services or available jobs. Additionally, a claimant may be selected to participate in reemployment assistance services, such as the Reemployment Services and Eligibility Assessment (RESEA) program, designed to address the reemployment needs of claimants.²⁵

Disqualification for Unemployment Compensation

Section 443.101, F.S., specifies the circumstances under which an individual would be disqualified from receiving benefits. These circumstances include:

- Voluntarily leaving work without good cause, or being discharged by his or her employing unit for misconduct connected with the work;²⁶
- Failing to apply for available suitable work when directed by the DEO or the One-Stop Career Center, to accept suitable work when offered, or to return to suitable self-employment when directed to do so;²⁷
- Making false or fraudulent representations in filing for benefits;
- Being discharged from employment due to drug use or rejection from a job offer for failing a drug test; and
- Becoming unavailable for work due to incarceration or imprisonment.

The statute specifies the duration of the disqualification and the requirements for requalification for an individual’s next benefit claim, depending on the reason for the disqualification.

Financing Unemployment Compensation

State Unemployment Compensation Contributions

Florida sets its own taxable wage base and rate. The funds collected are paid into the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, which is maintained at the U.S. Treasury.²⁸ The trust fund is primarily financed through the contributory method—by employers who pay taxes on employee wages.²⁹ Employers’ state taxes are used solely to pay benefits to unemployed Floridians.

²⁵ RESEA services may include an orientation, initial assessment, labor market information, employability development plan, and work search services. DEO, Program Description, available at: <https://floridajobs.org/office-directory/division-of-workforce-services/workforce-programs/reemployment-services-and-eligibility-assessment-program> (last visited Apr. 8, 2021). Rule 73B-3.028, F.A.C., provides more information on reemployment services and requirements for participation.

²⁶ An individual is not disqualified for voluntarily leaving temporary work to return to full time work, or to relocate with his or her military spouse due to relocation orders, or due to circumstances related to domestic violence.

²⁷ Section 443.101(2), F.S., sets forth the requirements to determine “suitable work.”

²⁹ Nonprofit employers may choose to finance compensation through either the contributory method or the reimbursement method. A reimbursing employer is one who must pay the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund on a dollar-for-dollar basis for the benefits paid to its former employees. The employer is otherwise not required to make payments to the trust

Currently, an employer pays taxes on the first $7,000 of an employee's wages.³⁰ An employer's initial state tax rate is 2.7 percent.³¹ After an employer is subject to benefit charges for 8-calendar quarters, the standard tax rate is 5.4 percent, but it may be adjusted down to a low of 0.1 percent.³² The adjustment in the tax rate is determined by calculating several factors, including benefit charges associated with the employer, socialized costs,³³ and the balance of the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund.

Employer contributions are due in the month following the end of the quarter (April 30, July 31, October 31, and January 31). Most employers will have paid the $7,000 wage base to their employees in the first or second quarter of the year, making their total payments due early in the year.

Florida's tax calculation method, especially due to the benefit ratio, is closer to a "pay as you go" approach, in which taxes increase rapidly after a surge in benefit costs. Economic conditions resulting in abnormally high unemployment accompanied by high benefit charges can cause a severe drain on the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund.

Other Unemployment Compensation Programs³⁴

The maximum weekly benefit amount (WBA) and maximum weeks of assistance for unemployment compensation vary by program. The average maximum WBA of all 53 programs is $473. Sixteen programs offer a maximum WBA under $400; seven programs offer a maximum WBA amount of $275 or less. The average minimum WBA of all 53 programs is $63. Sixteen programs offer a minimum WBA of $32 or less; 44 programs offer a minimum WBA amount of $100 or less.

A majority of states have variable weeks of assistance. Some are based on the base period wages, while others are based on the base period wages and the state's unemployment rate. There are 10 programs that offer a uniform number of weeks (generally 26). Most states offer up to a maximum of 26 based on a person's base period wages. Seven states offer up to a maximum of between 20 and 30 weeks, based on the claimant's base period wages and the state's unemployment rate.

Some examples of other states include:

³² Section 443.131(2)(b) and (3)(d), F.S.

³³ Socialized costs include the noncharge ratio (benefits not attributable to any employer over the last 3 years, also called "overpayments"), the excess payments ratio (that portion of benefit charges which exceed the maximum rate of 5.4 percent), and the fund size factor (requires the trust fund maintain a certain balance). See also DOR, Reemployment Tax rate Information: How Rates are Calculated, available at: https://floridarevenue.com/taxes/taxesfees/Pages/rt_rate.aspx (last visited Apr. 8, 2021).

- New York offers a maximum WBA of $504 for a total of 26 weeks;
- Texas offers a maximum WBA of $521 for up to 26 weeks;
- Georgia offers a maximum WBA of $365 for up to 14-20 weeks, depending on the state's unemployment rate;

- Alabama offers a maximum WBA of $275 for up to 20 weeks, depending on the state's unemployment rate.

Federal Unemployment Assistance Related to COVID-19

In March 2020, Congress enacted several programs to assist workers who were impacted by the effects of COVID-19 on the economy. Programs took time to implement, as states waited on guidance from USDOL and worked to change the systems to enact the changes. The programs have been extended several times.³⁵

The programs provide additional weekly payments to eligible individuals. Payments to workers not typically eligible for benefits or those who had previously exhausted their states' programs; and payments for additional weeks of benefits beyond states' programs. While program durations and amounts have started and expired or been changed in each extension, the currently available programs are:³⁶

- State reemployment assistance – up to 19 weeks, for claims filed after January 1, 2021
 - Maximum weekly benefit amount up to $275
 - Additional $300 per week up to the week ending September 4, 2021 (Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC))
 - Additional $100 per week up to the week ending September 4, 2021, for claimants eligible for state benefits who were also self-employed and earned at least $5,000 in net earnings from their self-employment (Mixed Earners Unemployment Compensation (MEUC))
- Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) – up to 53 weeks, for those who exhaust their state reemployment assistance benefits (through September 4, 2021)
 - Maximum weekly benefit amount up to $275
 - Additional $300 per week up to the week ending September 4, 2021 (FPUC)
 - Additional $100 per week up to the week ending September 4, 2021 (MEUC)

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Alternative Base Period

The bill allows the application of an alternative base period, which is defined by the bill in s. 443.036(3), F.S., (Section 1) as the four most recently completed calendar quarters before an individual's benefit year. If an individual is not eligible for benefits based on the individual's base period wages, then the alternative base period can be used to qualify an individual for benefits, provided none of the quarters have been used to establish a previous reemployment assistance claim. The alternative base period eliminates the "gap" of the most recently completed quarter in the current base period.

The bill amends ss. 443.091(g) and 443.111(2), F.S., (Sections 2 and 3) to allow a claimant to establish a claim using wages calculated under the alternative base period. If the quarterly wage report is not available, the DEO must contact the claimant's employers to obtain wage information. The DEO is authorized to adopt rules necessary to administer the alternative wage base.

The bill makes corresponding changes and corrects cross references in ss. 443.036(24), 443.1216, and 443.131, F.S., (Sections 1, 6, and 7) related to these changes.

Weekly Benefit Amount

The bill amends s. 443.111, F.S., (Section 3) to change the state's reemployment assistance weekly benefit amount from a range of $32 to $275 per week to $100 to $375 per week. The weekly benefit amount is based on either the claimant's eligible base period wages or alternative base period wages, as applicable.

For example, a person whose highest quarter earnings were $850, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $100; a person whose highest quarter earnings were $7,150, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $275; a person whose highest quarter earnings were $9,750, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $375; and a person whose highest quarter earnings were $12,936, would be eligible for a weekly benefit amount of about $375.

Available Weeks

The bill amends s. 443.111(5)(c), F.S., (Section 3) to increase the scale for the maximum number of available weeks by two weeks. The bill also amends s. 443.111(5), F.S., to set the maximum duration of benefits based upon the most recently available seasonally adjusted monthly unemployment rate. When a seasonally adjusted monthly unemployment rate is adopted, then the following month the maximum number of available weeks for initial claims submitted during the month will be set based on that rate. Thus under the bill, at a seasonally adjusted monthly unemployment rate of 5 percent, the maximum number of available weeks is 14 weeks, up to a maximum number of available weeks of 25 weeks at a seasonally adjusted monthly unemployment rate of 10.5 percent. As the unemployment rate rises or falls, the scale for the number of available weeks will be more reactive to changing economic conditions.

Maximum Benefits

In accordance with the changes to the number of available weeks and the maximum weekly benefit amount, the bill amends s. 443.111(5)(b), F.S., (Section 3) to increase the maximum amount of state benefits that an individual may receive in the individual's benefit year from $6,325 to $9,375 to correspond to the changes.

Able and Available for Work

The bill amends s. 443.091(1)(c), F.S., (Section 2) to remove the requirement that a claimant must provide the telephone number of each prospective employer contacted for each week of unemployment claimed. The bill also clarifies that "address" means a website address, a physical address, or an e-mail address for purposes of reporting the address of each prospective employer contacted.

The bill amends s. 443.091(1)(d), F.S., (Section 2) to reduce the number of prospective employers that reemployment assistance claimants must contact each week from five to three, or from three to two for claimants in small counties.

The bill also allows a claimant to meet the requirement to contact an employer by submitting a resume to an employer through an online job search service.

Pregnancy

The bill creates s. 443.092, F.S., to specifically prohibit the DEO from denying a claimant for reemployment assistance solely on the basis of pregnancy.

Miscellaneous

The bill reenacts related provisions in ss. 443.041 and 443.1116, F.S., (Sections 8 and 9) to incorporate the amendments made by the bill.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None identified.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

To the extent that the increase in the weekly benefit amount increases the amount of funds paid out to claimants from the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, the bill may indirectly cause increases in employer contributions. Employer contributions are based upon employer experience with the system and other factors, including the balance of the trust fund.

The Revenue Estimating Conference has not yet estimated the impact of the bill.

B. Private Sector Impact:

Eligible reemployment assistance claimants could receive higher benefits.

Reimbursable employers, such as charities, could experience an increase in costs consistent with the amount of increased reemployment assistance claims paid.

C. Government Sector Impact:

Governmental employers could experience an increase in costs consistent with the amount of increased reemployment assistance claims paid.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

The revised seasonally adjusted unemployment rate for February 2021 is 4.7 percent and the initial unemployment rate for March 2021 is 4.7 percent.³⁷

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 215.425, 443.036, 443.091, 443.111, 443.1116, 443.1216, and 443.131.

The bill creates section 443.092 of the Florida Statutes.

This bill reenacts the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 443.041 and 443.1116.

IX. Additional Information:A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)CS/CS by Appropriations on April 15, 2021:

The committee substitute:

- Creates an alternative base period for the qualification and calculation of reemployment assistance benefits.
- Reduces the number of employers that a claimant in a small county must contact from three to two.
- Increases the number of available weeks by two weeks (as applied to the scaled weeks, at an unemployment rate of 5 percent, the number of available weeks would be 14 weeks and at an unemployment rate of 10.5 percent, the number of available weeks would be 25 weeks). The committee substitute also changes when the number of available weeks is calculated based on the unemployment rate from annually to monthly.
- Increases the maximum benefit year amount to correspond to the increase in the maximum number of available weeks.
- Clarifies that a claimant who is pregnant cannot be denied benefits solely on the basis of the pregnancy.
- Corrects cross-references and reenacts additional provisions.

CS by Commerce and Tourism on March 29, 2021:

The committee substitute removes the requirement that a claimant must include the telephone number of each prospective employer contacted for each week of unemployment claimed, and clarifies that “address” means a website address, a physical address, or an e-mail address for purposes of reporting the address of each prospective employer contacted.

³⁷ DEO, Florida’s March Employment Figures Released, (Apr. 16, 2021) available at: <https://www.floridajobs.org/workforce-statistics/workforce-statistics-data-releases/latest-statistics> (last visited Apr. 16, 2021).

The committee substitute reduces the number of prospective employers that reemployment assistance claimants must contact each week from five to three, and provides that a claimant may meet this work search requirement by submitting a resume through an online job search service.

The Committee on Appropriations (Farmer) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete lines 17 - 172

and insert:

Section 1. Present subsections (3) through (46) of section 443.036, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (4) through (47), respectively, a new subsection (3) is added to that section, and present subsection (24) of that section is amended, to read:

443.036 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:

11 (3) "Alternative base period" means the four most recently
12 completed calendar quarters before an individual's benefit year, 13 if such quarters qualify the individual for benefits and were 14 not previously used to establish a prior valid benefit year.

15 ~~(25)-(24)~~ "High quarter" means the quarter in an 16 individual's base period, or in the individual's alternative
17 base period if an alternative base period is used for 18 determining benefits eligibility, in which the individual has 19 the greatest amount of wages paid, regardless of the number of 20 employers paying wages in that quarter.

21 Section 2. Paragraphs (c), (d), and (g) of subsection (1)
22 of section 443.091, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

23 443.091 Benefit eligibility conditions.—

24 (1) An unemployed individual is eligible to receive
25 benefits for any week only if the Department of Economic
26 Opportunity finds that:

27 (c) To make continued claims for benefits, she or he is
28 reporting to the department in accordance with this paragraph
29 and department rules. Department rules may not conflict with s.
30 443.111(1)(b), which requires that each claimant continue to 31 report regardless of any pending appeal relating to her or his
32 eligibility or disqualification for benefits.

33 1. For each week of unemployment claimed, each report must,
34 at a minimum, include the name and, ~~address, and telephone~~
35 ~~number~~ of each prospective employer contacted, or the date the 36 claimant reported to a one-stop career center, pursuant to
37 paragraph (d). For the purposes of this subparagraph, the term
38 "address" means a website address, a physical address, or an e-
39 mail address.

636278

40 2. The department shall offer an online assessment aimed at
41 identifying an individual's skills, abilities, and career
42 aptitude. The skills assessment must be voluntary, and the 43 department shall allow a claimant to choose whether to take the 44 skills assessment. The online assessment shall be made available
45 to any person seeking services from a local workforce
46 development board or a one-stop career center.

47 a. If the claimant chooses to take the online assessment,
48 the outcome of the assessment shall be made available to the
49 claimant, local workforce development board, and one-stop career
50 center. The department, local workforce development board, or
51 one-stop career center shall use the assessment to develop a
52 plan for referring individuals to training and employment
53 opportunities. Aggregate data on assessment outcomes may be made
54 available to CareerSource Florida, Inc., and Enterprise Florida,
55 Inc., for use in the development of policies related to
56 education and training programs that will ensure that businesses
57 in this state have access to a skilled and competent workforce.

58 b. Individuals shall be informed of and offered services
59 through the one-stop delivery system, including career
60 counseling, the provision of skill match and job market
61 information, and skills upgrade and other training
62 opportunities, and shall be encouraged to participate in such
63 services at no cost to the individuals. The department shall
64 coordinate with CareerSource Florida, Inc., the local workforce
65 development boards, and the one-stop career centers to identify,
66 develop, and use best practices for improving the skills of 67 individuals who choose to participate in skills upgrade and 68 other training opportunities. The department may contract with

636278

69 an entity to create the online assessment in accordance with the 70 competitive bidding requirements in s. 287.057. The online
71 assessment must work seamlessly with the Reemployment Assistance
72 Claims and Benefits Information System.

73 (d) She or he is able to work and is available for work. In
74 order to assess eligibility for a claimed week of unemployment,
75 the department shall develop criteria to determine a claimant's
76 ability to work and availability for work. A claimant must be
77 actively seeking work in order to be considered available for 78 work. This means engaging in systematic and sustained efforts to 79 find work, including contacting at least three ~~five~~ prospective
80 employers for each week of unemployment claimed. For the
81 purposes of meeting the requirements of this paragraph, a
82 claimant may contact a prospective employer by submitting a
83 resume to an employer through an online job search service. A
84 claimant who submits a resume to at least three employers
85 through an online job search service satisfies the work search
86 requirements of this paragraph. The department may require the
87 claimant to provide proof of such efforts to the one-stop career
88 center as part of reemployment services. A claimant's proof of
89 work search efforts may not include the same prospective
90 employer at the same location in 3 consecutive weeks, unless the 91 employer has indicated since the time of the initial contact
92 that the employer is hiring. The department shall conduct random
93 reviews of work search information provided by claimants. As an
94 alternative to contacting at least three ~~five~~ prospective
95 employers for any week of unemployment claimed, a claimant may,
96 for that same week, report in person to a one-stop career center
97 to meet with a representative of the center and access

636278

98 reemployment services of the center. The center shall keep a
99 record of the services or information provided to the claimant
100 and shall provide the records to the department upon request by 101 the department. However:

102 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph or 103 paragraphs (b) and (e), an otherwise eligible individual may not
104 be denied benefits for any week because she or he is in training
105 with the approval of the department, or by reason of s.
106 443.101(2) relating to failure to apply for, or refusal to 107 accept, suitable work. Training may be approved by the 108 department in accordance with criteria prescribed by rule. A
109 claimant's eligibility during approved training is contingent
110 upon satisfying eligibility conditions prescribed by rule.

111 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an 112 otherwise eligible individual who is in training approved under 113 s. 236(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, may not be 114 determined ineligible or disqualified for benefits due to 115 enrollment in such training or because of leaving work that is 116 not suitable employment to enter such training. As used in this
117 subparagraph, the term "suitable employment" means work of a
118 substantially equal or higher skill level than the worker's past
119 adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the 120 Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the wages for which are at least 121 80 percent of the worker's average weekly wage as determined for
122 purposes of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

123 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an 124 otherwise eligible individual may not be denied benefits for any 125 week because she or he is before any state or federal court
126 pursuant to a lawfully issued summons to appear for jury duty.

127 4. Union members who customarily obtain employment through 128 a union hiring hall may satisfy the work search requirements of 129 this paragraph by reporting daily to their union hall.

130 5. The work search requirements of this paragraph do not
131 apply to persons who are unemployed as a result of a temporary
132 layoff or who are claiming benefits under an approved short-time
133 compensation plan as provided in s. 443.1116.

134 6. In small counties as defined in s. 120.52(19), a
135 claimant engaging in systematic and sustained efforts to find
136 work must contact at least three prospective employers for each
137 week of unemployment claimed.

138 7. The work search requirements of this paragraph do not
139 apply to persons required to participate in reemployment
140 services under paragraph (e).

141 (g) She or he has been paid wages for insured work equal to 142 1.5 times her or his high quarter wages during her or his base
143 period, except that an unemployed individual is not eligible to 144 receive benefits if the base period wages are less than $3,400.
145 If an unemployed individual is ineligible for benefits based on 146 base period wages, his or her wages shall be calculated using 147 the alternative base period, and his or her claim shall be 148 established using such wages.

149 Section 3. Subsections (2) and (3) and paragraph (b) of 150 subsection (5) of section 443.111, Florida Statutes, are 151 amended, and paragraph (b) of subsection (1) is republished, to 152 read:

153 443.111 Payment of benefits.—

154 (1) MANNER OF PAYMENT.—Benefits are payable from the fund
155 in accordance with rules adopted by the Department of Economic 636278

156 Opportunity, subject to the following requirements:

157 (b) As required under s. 443.091(1), each claimant must
158 report at least biweekly to receive reemployment assistance
159 benefits and to attest to the fact that she or he is able and 160 available for work, has not refused suitable work, is seeking 161 work and has met the requirements of s. 443.091(1)(d), and, if
162 she or he has worked, to report earnings from that work. Each
163 claimant must continue to report regardless of any appeal or 164 pending appeal relating to her or his eligibility or 165 disqualification for benefits.

166 (2) QUALIFYING REQUIREMENTS.—

167 (a) To establish a benefit year for reemployment assistance
168 benefits, an individual must have:

169 1. ~~(a)~~ Wage credits in two or more calendar quarters of the 170 individual's base period or alternative base period.

171 2. ~~(b)~~ Minimum total base period wage credits equal to the 172 high quarter wages multiplied by 1.5, but at least $3,400 in the 173 base period, or in the alternative base period if the 174 alternative base period is used for benefits eligibility.

175 (b)1. If a worker is ineligible for benefits based on base
176 period wages, wages for that worker must be calculated using an 177 alternative base period and the claim shall be established using 178 such wages.

179 2. If the wage information for an individual's most 180 recently completed calendar quarter is unavailable to the 181 department from regular quarterly reports of systematically
182 accessible wage information, the department must promptly
183 contact the individual's employer to obtain the wage
184 information.

636278

185 3. Wages that fall within the alternative base period of 186 claims established under this paragraph are not available for 187 reuse in qualifying for any subsequent benefit years.

188 4. The department shall adopt rules to administer this 189 paragraph.

190 (3) WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT.—

191 (a) An individual's "weekly benefit amount" is an amount
192 equal to one twenty-sixth of the total wages for insured work
193 paid during that quarter of the base period in which the total
194 wages paid were the highest, but not less than $100 ~~$32~~ or more 195 than $375 ~~$275~~. The weekly benefit amount, if not a multiple of 196 $1, is rounded downward to the nearest full dollar amount. The 197 maximum weekly benefit amount in effect at the time the claimant
198 establishes an individual weekly benefit amount is the maximum 199 benefit amount applicable throughout the claimant's benefit
200 year.

201 (b) The weekly benefit amount shall be based on either the 202 claimant's base period wages or alternative base period wages,
203 whichever period results in the greater benefit amount.

204 (5) DURATION OF BENEFITS.—

205 (b) Each otherwise eligible individual is entitled during
206 any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to 25
207 percent of the total wages in his or her base period, not to
208 exceed $8,625 ~~$6,325~~ or the product arrived at by multiplying
209 the weekly benefit amount with the number of weeks determined in 210 paragraph (c), whichever is less. However, the total amount of 211 benefits, if not a multiple of $1, is rounded downward to the
212 nearest full dollar amount. These benefits are payable at a
213 weekly rate no greater than the weekly benefit amount.

636278

214 Section 4. Paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of section
215 215.425, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

216 215.425 Extra compensation claims prohibited; bonuses;
217 severance pay.—

218 (4) (a) On or after July 1, 2011, a unit of government that 219 enters into a contract or employment agreement, or renewal or 220 renegotiation of an existing contract or employment agreement,
221 that contains a provision for severance pay with an officer,
222 agent, employee, or contractor must include the following
223 provisions in the contract:

224 1. A requirement that severance pay provided may not exceed 225 an amount greater than 20 weeks of compensation.

226 2. A prohibition of provision of severance pay when the 227 officer, agent, employee, or contractor has been fired for 228 misconduct, as defined in s. 443.036(30) ~~s. 443.036(29)~~, by the 229 unit of government.

230 Section 5. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) and paragraph
231 (f) of subsection (13) of section 443.1216, Florida Statutes,
232 are amended to read:

233 443.1216 Employment.—Employment, as defined in s. 443.036,
234 is subject to this chapter under the following conditions:

235 (1) (a) The employment subject to this chapter includes a
236 service performed, including a service performed in interstate 237 commerce, by:

238 1. An officer of a corporation.

239 2. An individual who, under the usual common-law rules
240 applicable in determining the employer-employee relationship, is 241 an employee. However, whenever a client, as defined in s.
242 443.036(19) ~~s. 443.036(18)~~, which would otherwise be designated

243 as an employing unit has contracted with an employee leasing
244 company to supply it with workers, those workers are considered
245 employees of the employee leasing company. An employee leasing
246 company may lease corporate officers of the client to the client
247 and other workers to the client, except as prohibited by 248 regulations of the Internal Revenue Service. Employees of an 249 employee leasing company must be reported under the employee
250 leasing company's tax identification number and contribution
251 rate for work performed for the employee leasing company.

252 a. However, except for the internal employees of an 253 employee leasing company, each employee leasing company may make 254 a separate one-time election to report and pay contributions
255 under the tax identification number and contribution rate for 256 each client of the employee leasing company. Under the client
257 method, an employee leasing company choosing this option must 258 assign leased employees to the client company that is leasing
259 the employees. The client method is solely a method to report
260 and pay unemployment contributions, and, whichever method is 261 chosen, such election may not impact any other aspect of state
262 law. An employee leasing company that elects the client method
263 must pay contributions at the rates assigned to each client
264 company.

265 (I) The election applies to all of the employee leasing
266 company's current and future clients.

267 (II) The employee leasing company must notify the 268 Department of Revenue of its election by July 1, 2012, and such 269 election applies to reports and contributions for the first 270 quarter of the following calendar year. The notification must 271 include:

636278

272 (A) A list of each client company and the unemployment
273 account number or, if one has not yet been issued, the federal 274 employment identification number, as established by the employee
275 leasing company upon the election to file by client method;

276 (B) A list of each client company's current and previous 277 employees and their respective social security numbers for the 278 prior 3 state fiscal years or, if the client company has not 279 been a client for the prior 3 state fiscal years, such portion 280 of the prior 3 state fiscal years that the client company has 281 been a client must be supplied;

282 (C) The wage data and benefit charges associated with each
283 client company for the prior 3 state fiscal years or, if the 284 client company has not been a client for the prior 3 state
285 fiscal years, such portion of the prior 3 state fiscal years
286 that the client company has been a client must be supplied. If 287 the client company's employment record is chargeable with 288 benefits for less than 8 calendar quarters while being a client
289 of the employee leasing company, the client company must pay
290 contributions at the initial rate of 2.7 percent; and

291 (D) The wage data and benefit charges for the prior 3 state
292 fiscal years that cannot be associated with a client company
293 must be reported and charged to the employee leasing company.

294 (III) Subsequent to choosing the client method, the 295 employee leasing company may not change its reporting method.

296 (IV) The employee leasing company shall file a Florida
297 Department of Revenue Employer's Quarterly Report for each
298 client company by approved electronic means, and pay all
299 contributions by approved electronic means.

300 (V) For the purposes of calculating experience rates when

301 the client method is chosen, each client's own benefit charges
302 and wage data experience while with the employee leasing company
303 determines each client's tax rate where the client has been a
304 client of the employee leasing company for at least 8 calendar
305 quarters before the election. The client company shall continue
306 to report the nonleased employees under its tax rate.

307 (VI) The election is binding on each client of the employee
308 leasing company for as long as a written agreement is in effect
309 between the client and the employee leasing company pursuant to 310 s. 468.525(3)(a). If the relationship between the employee
311 leasing company and the client terminates, the client retains 312 the wage and benefit history experienced under the employee
313 leasing company.

314 (VII) Notwithstanding which election method the employee
315 leasing company chooses, the applicable client company is an 316 employing unit for purposes of s. 443.071. The employee leasing 317 company or any of its officers or agents are liable for any 318 violation of s. 443.071 engaged in by such persons or entities.
319 The applicable client company or any of its officers or agents
320 are liable for any violation of s. 443.071 engaged in by such 321 persons or entities. The employee leasing company or its 322 applicable client company is not liable for any violation of s.
323 443.071 engaged in by the other party or by the other party's
324 officers or agents.

325 (VIII) If an employee leasing company fails to select the 326 client method of reporting not later than July 1, 2012, the 327 entity is required to report under the employee leasing
328 company's tax identification number and contribution rate.

329 (IX) After an employee leasing company is licensed pursuant 636278

330 to part XI of chapter 468, each newly licensed entity has 30
331 days after the date the license is granted to notify the tax
332 collection service provider in writing of their selection of the 333 client method. A newly licensed employee leasing company that 334 fails to timely select reporting pursuant to the client method
335 of reporting must report under the employee leasing company's 336 tax identification number and contribution rate.

337 (X) Irrespective of the election, each transfer of trade or 338 business, including workforce, or a portion thereof, between 339 employee leasing companies is subject to the provisions of s.
340 443.131(3)(g) if, at the time of the transfer, there is common
341 ownership, management, or control between the entities.

342 b. In addition to any other report required to be filed by 343 law, an employee leasing company shall submit a report to the 344 Labor Market Statistics Center within the Department of Economic 345 Opportunity which includes each client establishment and each
346 establishment of the leasing company, or as otherwise directed
347 by the department. The report must include the following
348 information for each establishment:

349 (I) The trade or establishment name;

350 (II) The former reemployment assistance account number, if 351 available;

352 (III) The former federal employer's identification number,
353 if available;

354 (IV) The industry code recognized and published by the 355 United States Office of Management and Budget, if available;

356 (V) A description of the client's primary business activity
357 in order to verify or assign an industry code;

358 (VI) The address of the physical location;

636278

359 (VII) The number of full-time and part-time employees who 360 worked during, or received pay that was subject to reemployment 361 assistance taxes for, the pay period including the 12th of the 362 month for each month of the quarter;

363 (VIII) The total wages subject to reemployment assistance
364 taxes paid during the calendar quarter;

365 (IX) An internal identification code to uniquely identify 366 each establishment of each client;

367 (X) The month and year that the client entered into the 368 contract for services; and

369 (XI) The month and year that the client terminated the 370 contract for services.

371 c. The report must be submitted electronically or in a
372 manner otherwise prescribed by the Department of Economic 373 Opportunity in the format specified by the Bureau of Labor
374 Statistics of the United States Department of Labor for its 375 Multiple Worksite Report for Professional Employer
376 Organizations. The report must be provided quarterly to the 377 Labor Market Statistics Center within the department, or as 378 otherwise directed by the department, and must be filed by the 379 last day of the month immediately after the end of the calendar
380 quarter. The information required in sub-sub-paragraphs b.(X)
381 and (XI) need be provided only in the quarter in which the 382 contract to which it relates was entered into or terminated. The 383 sum of the employment data and the sum of the wage data in this 384 report must match the employment and wages reported in the 385 reemployment assistance quarterly tax and wage report.

386 d. The department shall adopt rules as necessary to 387 administer this subparagraph, and may administer, collect,

636278

388 enforce, and waive the penalty imposed by s. 443.141(1)(b) for 389 the report required by this subparagraph.

390 e. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the term
391 "establishment" means any location where business is conducted
392 or where services or industrial operations are performed.

393 3. An individual other than an individual who is an 394 employee under subparagraph 1. or subparagraph 2., who performs
395 services for remuneration for any person:

396 a. As an agent-driver or commission-driver engaged in 397 distributing meat products, vegetable products, fruit products,
398 bakery products, beverages other than milk, or laundry or 399 drycleaning services for his or her principal.

400 b. As a traveling or city salesperson engaged on a full-
401 time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the 402 transmission to, his or her principal of orders from 403 wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels,
404 restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for 405 resale or supplies for use in the business operations. This sub-
406 subparagraph does not apply to an agent-driver or a commission-
407 driver and does not apply to sideline sales activities performed
408 on behalf of a person other than the salesperson's principal.

409 4. The services described in subparagraph 3. are employment
410 subject to this chapter only if:

411 a. The contract of service contemplates that substantially
412 all of the services are to be performed personally by the 413 individual;

414 b. The individual does not have a substantial investment in 415 facilities used in connection with the services, other than 416 facilities used for transportation; and 636278

417 c. The services are not in the nature of a single 418 transaction that is not part of a continuing relationship with 419 the person for whom the services are performed.

420 (13) The following are exempt from coverage under this 421 chapter:

422 (f) Service performed in the employ of a public employer as 423 defined in s. 443.036, except as provided in subsection (2), and 424 service performed in the employ of an instrumentality of a
425 public employer as described in s. 443.036(36)(b) or (c) ~~or~~ 426 ~~443.036(35)(b) or (c)~~, to the extent that the instrumentality is 427 immune under the United States Constitution from the tax imposed
428 by s. 3301 of the Internal Revenue Code for that service.

429 Section 6. Paragraph (f) of subsection (3) of section
430 443.131, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

431 443.131 Contributions.—

432 (3) VARIATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES BASED ON BENEFIT
433 EXPERIENCE.—

434 (f) Transfer of employment records.—

435 1. For the purposes of this subsection, two or more
436 employers who are parties to a transfer of business or the 437 subject of a merger, consolidation, or other form of 438 reorganization, effecting a change in legal identity or form,
439 are deemed a single employer and are considered to be one
440 employer with a continuous employment record if the tax
441 collection service provider finds that the successor employer
442 continues to carry on the employing enterprises of all of the 443 predecessor employers and that the successor employer has paid
444 all contributions required of and due from all of the 445 predecessor employers and has assumed liability for all

636278

446 contributions that may become due from all of the predecessor
447 employers. In addition, an employer may not be considered a
448 successor under this subparagraph if the employer purchases a
449 company with a lower rate into which employees with job
450 functions unrelated to the business endeavors of the predecessor
451 are transferred for the purpose of acquiring the low rate and 452 avoiding payment of contributions. As used in this paragraph,
453 notwithstanding s. 443.036(15) ~~s. 443.036(14)~~, the term
454 "contributions" means all indebtedness to the tax collection
455 service provider, including, but not limited to, interest,
456 penalty, collection fee, and service fee. A successor employer
457 must accept the transfer of all of the predecessor employers'
458 employment records within 30 days after the date of the official
459 notification of liability by succession. If a predecessor
460 employer has unpaid contributions or outstanding quarterly
461 reports, the successor employer must pay the total amount with 462 certified funds within 30 days after the date of the notice
463 listing the total amount due. After the total indebtedness is 464 paid, the tax collection service provider shall transfer the 465 employment records of all of the predecessor employers to the 466 successor employer's employment record. The tax collection
467 service provider shall determine the contribution rate of the 468 combined successor and predecessor employers upon the transfer 469 of the employment records, as prescribed by rule, in order to 470 calculate any change in the contribution rate resulting from the 471 transfer of the employment records.

472 2. Regardless of whether a predecessor employer's 473 employment record is transferred to a successor employer under 474 this paragraph, the tax collection service provider shall treat

636278

475 the predecessor employer, if he or she subsequently employs
476 individuals, as an employer without a previous employment record
477 or, if his or her coverage is terminated under s. 443.121, as a
478 new employing unit.

479 3. The state agency providing reemployment assistance tax
480 collection services may adopt rules governing the partial 481 transfer of experience rating when an employer transfers an 482 identifiable and segregable portion of his or her payrolls and 483 business to a successor employing unit. As a condition of each 484 partial transfer, these rules must require the following to be 485 filed with the tax collection service provider: an application
486 by the successor employing unit, an agreement by the predecessor
487 employer, and the evidence required by the tax collection
488 service provider to show the benefit experience and payrolls
489 attributable to the transferred portion through the date of the 490 transfer. These rules must provide that the successor employing 491 unit, if not an employer subject to this chapter, becomes an 492 employer as of the date of the transfer and that the transferred 493 portion of the predecessor employer's employment record is 494 removed from the employment record of the predecessor employer.
495 For each calendar year after the date of the transfer of the 496 employment record in the records of the tax collection service
497 provider, the service provider shall compute the contribution
498 rate payable by the successor employer or employing unit based 499 on his or her employment record, combined with the transferred 500 portion of the predecessor employer's employment record. These 501 rules may also prescribe what contribution rates are payable by 502 the predecessor and successor employers for the period between 503 the date of the transfer of the transferred portion of the 636278

504 predecessor employer's employment record in the records of the 505 tax collection service provider and the first day of the next
506 calendar year.

507 4. This paragraph does not apply to an employee leasing
508 company and client contractual agreement as defined in s.
509 443.036, except as provided in s. 443.1216(1)(a)2.a. The tax
510 collection service provider shall, if the contractual agreement
511 is terminated or the employee leasing company fails to submit
512 reports or pay contributions as required by the service
513 provider, treat the client as a new employer without previous 514 employment record unless the client is otherwise eligible for a 515 variation from the standard rate.

 9 443.041(2)(b) and 443.1116(6) and (8)(a), F.S., 10 relating to fees and short-time compensation,
 11 respectively, to incorporate the amendments made to s.
 12 443.111, F.S., in references thereto; providing an 13 effective date.
 14
 15 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
 16
 17 Section 1. Paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of 18 section 443.091, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
 19 443.091 Benefit eligibility conditions.-
 20 (1) An unemployed individual is eligible to receive
 21 benefits for any week only if the Department of Economic
 22 Opportunity finds that:
 23 (c) To make continued claims for benefits, she or he is
 24 reporting to the department in accordance with this paragraph
 25 and department rules. Department rules may not conflict with s.
 26 443.111(1)(b), which requires that each claimant continue to
 27 report regardless of any pending appeal relating to her or his
 28 eligibility or disqualification for benefits.
 29 1. For each week of unemployment claimed, each report must,

30 at a minimum, include the name and, address, ~~and telephone~~
 31 ~~number~~ of each prospective employer contacted, or the date the 32 claimant reported to a one-stop career center, pursuant to
 33 paragraph (d). For the purposes of this subparagraph, the term
 34 "address" means a website address, a physical address, or an e-
 35 mail address.
 36 2. The department shall offer an online assessment aimed at
 37 identifying an individual's skills, abilities, and career
 38 aptitude. The skills assessment must be voluntary, and the
 39 department shall allow a claimant to choose whether to take the 40 skills assessment. The online assessment shall be made available
 41 to any person seeking services from a local workforce
 42 development board or a one-stop career center.
 43 a. If the claimant chooses to take the online assessment,
 44 the outcome of the assessment shall be made available to the
 45 claimant, local workforce development board, and one-stop career
 46 center. The department, local workforce development board, or
 47 one-stop career center shall use the assessment to develop a
 48 plan for referring individuals to training and employment
 49 opportunities. Aggregate data on assessment outcomes may be made
 50 available to CareerSource Florida, Inc., and Enterprise Florida,
 51 Inc., for use in the development of policies related to
 52 education and training programs that will ensure that businesses
 53 in this state have access to a skilled and competent workforce.
 54 b. Individuals shall be informed of and offered services
 55 through the one-stop delivery system, including career
 56 counseling, the provision of skill match and job market
 57 information, and skills upgrade and other training
 58 opportunities, and shall be encouraged to participate in such

59 services at no cost to the individuals. The department shall
 60 coordinate with CareerSource Florida, Inc., the local workforce
 61 development boards, and the one-stop career centers to identify,
 62 develop, and use best practices for improving the skills of
 63 individuals who choose to participate in skills upgrade and
 64 other training opportunities. The department may contract with
 65 an entity to create the online assessment in accordance with the
 66 competitive bidding requirements in s. 287.057. The online
 67 assessment must work seamlessly with the Reemployment Assistance
 68 Claims and Benefits Information System.

69 (d) She or he is able to work and is available for work. In
 70 order to assess eligibility for a claimed week of unemployment,
 71 the department shall develop criteria to determine a claimant's
 72 ability to work and availability for work. A claimant must be
 73 actively seeking work in order to be considered available for
 74 work. This means engaging in systematic and sustained efforts to
 75 find work, including contacting at least three five prospective
 76 employers for each week of unemployment claimed. For the
 77 purposes of meeting the requirements of this paragraph, a
 78 claimant may contact a prospective employer by submitting a
 79 resume to an employer through an online job search service. A
 80 claimant who submits a resume to at least three employers
 81 through an online job search service satisfies the work search
 82 requirements of this paragraph. The department may require the
 83 claimant to provide proof of such efforts to the one-stop career
 84 center as part of reemployment services. A claimant's proof of 85 work search efforts may not include the same prospective
 86 employer at the same location in 3 consecutive weeks, unless the
 87 employer has indicated since the time of the initial contact

88 that the employer is hiring. The department shall conduct random
 89 reviews of work search information provided by claimants. As an
 90 alternative to contacting at least ~~three~~ five prospective
 91 employers for any week of unemployment claimed, a claimant may,
 92 for that same week, report in person to a one-stop career center
 93 to meet with a representative of the center and access
 94 reemployment services of the center. The center shall keep a
 95 record of the services or information provided to the claimant
 96 and shall provide the records to the department upon request by
 97 the department. However:

98 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph or
 99 paragraphs (b) and (e), an otherwise eligible individual may not
 100 be denied benefits for any week because she or he is in training
 101 with the approval of the department, or by reason of s.
 102 443.101(2) relating to failure to apply for, or refusal to 103 accept, suitable work. Training may be approved by the 104 department in accordance with criteria prescribed by rule. A
 105 claimant's eligibility during approved training is contingent
 106 upon satisfying eligibility conditions prescribed by rule.

107 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an 108 otherwise eligible individual who is in training approved under 109 s. 236(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, may not be
 110 determined ineligible or disqualified for benefits due to
 111 enrollment in such training or because of leaving work that is 112 not suitable employment to enter such training. As used in this
 113 subparagraph, the term "suitable employment" means work of a
 114 substantially equal or higher skill level than the worker's past
 115 adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the 116 Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the wages for which are at least

577-03547-21 20211906c1

117 80 percent of the worker's average weekly wage as determined for 118 purposes of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

119 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an 120 otherwise eligible individual may not be denied benefits for any 121 week because she or he is before any state or federal court
122 pursuant to a lawfully issued summons to appear for jury duty.

123 4. Union members who customarily obtain employment through
124 a union hiring hall may satisfy the work search requirements of 125 this paragraph by reporting daily to their union hall.

126 5. The work search requirements of this paragraph do not
127 apply to persons who are unemployed as a result of a temporary
128 layoff or who are claiming benefits under an approved short-time
129 compensation plan as provided in s. 443.1116.

130 6. In small counties as defined in s. 120.52(19), a
131 claimant engaging in systematic and sustained efforts to find
132 work must contact at least three prospective employers for each
133 week of unemployment claimed.

134 7. The work search requirements of this paragraph do not
135 apply to persons required to participate in reemployment
136 services under paragraph (e).

137 Section 2. Subsection (3) and paragraph (b) of subsection
138 (5) of section 443.111, Florida Statutes, are amended, and 139 paragraph (b) of subsection (1) is republished, to read:

140 443.111 Payment of benefits.—

141 (1) MANNER OF PAYMENT.—Benefits are payable from the fund
142 in accordance with rules adopted by the Department of Economic
143 Opportunity, subject to the following requirements:

144 (b) As required under s. 443.091(1), each claimant must
145 report at least biweekly to receive reemployment assistance

577-03547-21 20211906c1

146 benefits and to attest to the fact that she or he is able and 147 available for work, has not refused suitable work, is seeking
148 work and has met the requirements of s. 443.091(1)(d), and, if 149 she or he has worked, to report earnings from that work. Each
150 claimant must continue to report regardless of any appeal or
151 pending appeal relating to her or his eligibility or
152 disqualification for benefits.

153 (3) WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT.—An individual's "weekly benefit
154 amount" is an amount equal to one twenty-sixth of the total
155 wages for insured work paid during that quarter of the base
156 period in which the total wages paid were the highest, but not 157 less than $100 ~~$32~~ or more than $375 ~~$275~~. The weekly benefit 158 amount, if not a multiple of $1, is rounded downward to the 159 nearest full dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount in 160 effect at the time the claimant establishes an individual weekly
161 benefit amount is the maximum benefit amount applicable
162 throughout the claimant's benefit year.

163 (5) DURATION OF BENEFITS.—

164 (b) Each otherwise eligible individual is entitled during
165 any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to 25
166 percent of the total wages in his or her base period, not to
167 exceed $8,625 ~~$6,325~~ or the product arrived at by multiplying
168 the weekly benefit amount with the number of weeks determined in 169 paragraph (c), whichever is less. However, the total amount of 170 benefits, if not a multiple of $1, is rounded downward to the 171 nearest full dollar amount. These benefits are payable at a
172 weekly rate no greater than the weekly benefit amount.

173 Section 3. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment
174 made by this act to section 443.111, Florida Statutes, in a

577-03547-21 20211906c1

175 reference thereto, paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section
176 443.041, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

177 443.041 Waiver of rights; fees; privileged communications.-

178 (2) FEES.-

179 (b) An attorney at law representing a claimant for benefits
180 in any district court of appeal of this state or in the Supreme 181 Court of Florida is entitled to counsel fees payable by the 182 department as set by the court if the petition for review or 183 appeal is initiated by the claimant and results in a decision
184 awarding more benefits than provided in the decision from which 185 appeal was taken. The amount of the fee may not exceed 50
186 percent of the total amount of regular benefits permitted under 187 s. 443.111(5) (b) during the benefit year.

188 Section 4. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment
189 made by this act to section 443.111, Florida Statutes, in a
190 reference thereto, subsection (6) and paragraph (a) of 191 subsection (8) of section 443.1116, Florida Statutes, are 192 reenacted to read:

193 443.1116 Short-time compensation.-

194 (6) WEEKLY SHORT-TIME COMPENSATION BENEFIT AMOUNT.-The 195 weekly short-time compensation benefit amount payable to an 196 individual is equal to the product of her or his weekly benefit
197 amount as provided in s. 443.111(3) and the ratio of the number
198 of normal weekly hours of work for which the employer would not 199 compensate the individual to the individual's normal weekly
200 hours of work. The benefit amount, if not a multiple of $1, is 201 rounded downward to the next lower multiple of $1.

202 (8) EFFECT OF SHORT-TIME COMPENSATION BENEFITS RELATING TO 203 THE PAYMENT OF REGULAR AND EXTENDED BENEFITS.-

The bill takes effect upon becoming a law.

II. Present Situation:

The Department of Economic Opportunity

The DEO was created in 2011 by combining the Agency for Workforce Innovation, the Department of Community Affairs, and the Governor’s Office of Tourism, Trade, and Economic Development.¹ The head of the DEO is the executive director, who is appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate.² The purpose of the DEO is to formulate and implement policies designed to promote economic opportunities for Floridians.³ Formally in the statute, the DEO has five divisions: Strategic Business Development; Community Development; Workforce Services; Finance and Administration; and Information Technology.⁴

The Community Development Block Grant Program

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program was created by Title I of the federal Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The CDBG program works to ensure the availability of decent affordable housing, to provide services to the most vulnerable in Florida communities, and to create jobs through the expansion and retention of businesses.⁵

Florida Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program

The DEO administers the Small Cities CDBG program and distributes funds to eligible non-entitlement communities. To be eligible, a city must have a population under 50,000 or a county must have a population under 200,000. The program awards subgrants to communities in four funding categories: economic development, neighborhood revitalization, housing rehabilitation, and commercial revitalization.⁶ Currently, the DEO may annually set aside 5 percent of CDBG funds for use in local government jurisdictions for which an emergency or natural disaster has been declared by executive order.⁷

Except for applications for economic development, an eligible local government may only submit one application for a grant during each application cycle.⁸ Additionally, if economic development funds remain available after the application cycle closes, the remaining funds must be awarded to eligible projects on a first-come, first served basis.⁹

Disaster Recovery

The Community Development Block Grant – Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) program is a federally funded program administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development that is designed to address housing, infrastructure, economic development, and mitigation needs that remain after other assistance, such as federal assistance or private insurance, has been exhausted.¹⁰

The DEO administers the CDBG-DR program through its Division of Community Development's Office of Long-Term Resiliency. Currently, single-family residential housing repair and replacement projects are underway for Florida residents whose homes still have unrepaired damage from Hurricanes Hermine, Matthew, Irma, and Michael.¹¹ These projects must comply with the Florida Building Code Act by applying for and receiving Florida building permits. A building permit for a single-family residential home must be issued within 30 days of application.¹²

Enterprise Florida, Inc.

Enterprise Florida, Inc., (EFI) serves as the principle economic development organization for the state. Among its numerous duties, EFI markets the state for business creation, expansion, and retention.¹³ EFI's is governed by a board of directors, of which the Governor is the chairperson, made up of 19 appointed members, a number of at-large members, and ex officio members of the Legislature. Appointed members include the agency heads from the Department of Education, Department of Financial Services, Department of Legal Affairs, Department of Agriculture,

Department of State, and CareerSource and 12 members from the private sector appointed by the Governor and the Legislature.¹⁴

Space Florida

Space Florida is an independent special district, created to foster the growth and development of the aerospace industry in Florida. The entity promotes aerospace business development by facilitating financing, research and development, spaceport operations, workforce development, and other programs.¹⁵ Space Florida's 13-member board of directors is the same 12 private sector members appointed by the Governor and the Legislature and the Governor, who serves ex officio as the chair and a voting member of the board.¹⁶

CareerSource Florida, Inc.

CareerSource is the state's principal organization to set the workforce policy for the state. The state board works to design and implement strategies to help Floridians enter the workforce, stay employed, and advance in their employment. Members of the board are appointed by the Governor pursuant to federal law; however, there are several members of state agencies appointed to the board by state law. These include the vice chair of EFI, the director of DEO, and the Commissioner of Education.¹⁷

Workforce Development Boards

Twenty-four local workforce development boards (local boards) deliver Florida's workforce development services through over 100 one-stop service providers.¹⁸ The one-stop service providers give Floridians access to available workforce services, including job placement, career counseling, and skills training.¹⁹ Each local board formulates a local budget and oversees the one-stop delivery system within its local area.²⁰

Background Screening

An employer²¹ may not hire, select, or otherwise allow an employee to have contact with a vulnerable person²² that would place the employee in a role that requires a background screening until the screening process is completed and demonstrates the absence of any grounds for the

²² A vulnerable person is a minor or a vulnerable adult. Section 435.02(6), F.S., Section 415.102(28), F.S., defines "vulnerable adult" as a person 18 years of age or older whose ability to perform the normal activities of daily living or to provide for his or her own care or protection is impaired due to a mental, emotional, sensory, long-term physical, or developmental disability or dysfunction, or brain damage, or the infirmities of aging.

denial or termination of employment.²³ If any grounds for the denial or termination of employment arise during the screening process, then the employer may not hire, select, or otherwise allow the employee to have contact with any vulnerable person that would place the employee in a role that requires background screening unless the employee is granted an exemption for disqualification by the agency.^{24, 25}

Sections 435.03 and 435.04, F.S., outline the screening requirements. There are two levels of background screening.

- Level 1 screening includes, at a minimum, employment history checks and statewide criminal correspondence checks through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) and a check of the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website²⁶ and may include criminal records checks through local law enforcement agencies.²⁷
- Level 2 screening includes, but is not limited to, fingerprinting for statewide criminal history records checks through the FDLE and national criminal history checks through the Federal Bureau of Investigation and may include local criminal records checks through local law enforcement agencies.²⁸

Reemployment Assistance

Florida's unemployment insurance program was created by the Legislature in 1937.²⁹ The program was rebranded as the "reemployment assistance program" in 2012.³⁰ The DEO is responsible for administering the program, and the DEO contracts with the Florida Department of Revenue, as the tax collection service provider, for the collection of unemployment taxes.³¹

Work Search Requirement

To receive RA benefits, a claimant must meet certain monetary and non-monetary eligibility requirements. Key eligibility requirements involve a claimant's earnings during a certain period of time, the manner in which the claimant became unemployed, and the claimant's efforts to find new employment.³²

A claimant must meet certain requirements in order to be eligible for benefits for each week of unemployment. For example, each week an individual is required to contact at least five ²³ Section 435.06(2)(a), F.S.

²⁴ Section 435.02(1), F.S., defines "agency" as any state, county, or municipal agency that grants licenses or registration permitting the operation of an employer, or is itself an employer, or that otherwise facilitates the screening of employees pursuant to ch. 435, F.S. If there is no state agency or the municipal or county agency chooses not to conduct employment screening, "agency" means the Department of Children and Families.

prospective employers (three prospective employers if the individual resides in a small county) or report to a one-stop career center for reemployment services.³³

Domestic Violence³⁴ Victims

Sometimes victims of domestic violence must leave their jobs due to the impact that the violence has had on their lives. Employers are required to permit an employee to request and take up to 3 working days of leave from work in any 12-month period if the employee or a family or household member of an employee is the victim of domestic violence or sexual violence.³⁵

Except in cases of imminent danger to the health or safety of the employee, or a family or household member, an employee seeking leave from work must provide his or her employer with appropriate advance notice of the leave as required by the employer's policy along with sufficient documentation of the act of domestic violence or sexual violence as required by the employer.³⁶ An employer must keep all information relating to an employee's leave confidential.³⁷ Additionally, an employer may not fire, demote, suspend, retaliate, or otherwise discriminate against an individual for taking leave.³⁸

Employees who voluntarily leave their job are not typically qualified to receive reemployment assistance benefits.³⁹ However, an individual will not be disqualified for voluntarily leaving work due to circumstances directly related to domestic violence.⁴⁰

An individual who voluntarily leaves work due to domestic violence must:

- Make reasonable efforts to preserve employment, unless the individual establishes that such efforts are likely to be futile or increase the risk of future incidents of domestic violence;⁴¹
- Provide evidence such as an injunction, a protective order, or other documentation authorized by state law, which reasonably proves that domestic violence has occurred; and
- Reasonably believe that he or she is likely to be the victim of a future act of domestic violence at, in transit to, or departing from his or her place of employment.

An individual who is otherwise eligible for benefits is ineligible for each week that he or she no longer meets the qualifying criteria or refuses a reasonable accommodation offered in good faith by his or her employing unit.

³³ Id. A "small county" is defined in s. 120.52(19), F.S., as any county that has an unincarcerated population of 75,000 or less according to the most recent decennial census. The most recent is Emergency Order 21-005 (March 2, 2021), which waives the requirement through April 24, 2021.

⁴¹ Efforts to preserve employment may include seeking a protective injunction, relocating to a secure place, or seeking reasonable accommodation from the employing unit, such as a transfer or change of assignment. See id.

Temporary Layoff

Individuals who have temporarily separated from their employment due to a lack of work are exempt from certain requirements of the reemployment assistance system. The job separation must be due to a lack of work and cannot last longer than 8 consecutive weeks, and the individual must have a fixed or approximate date to return to work.⁴²

An individual on a temporary layoff is not required to:

- Complete the DEO's online work registration (Employ Florida Marketplace);
- Report to the local one-stop career center for reemployment services if directed by the local workforce development board; or
- Complete the work search requirements, such as contacting at least five prospective employers each week.⁴³

The CONNECT System

Florida's unemployment system is administered by the DEO using the CONNECT system, which was deployed in 2013 to replace a mainframe system with a modernized, Internet-based system.⁴⁴ According to ISF, an information technology and strategy firm that completed an assessment of the CONNECT system between November 2020 and February 2021, the CONNECT system was not designed to process the volume of claims received during the COVID-19 pandemic. ISF analyzed ways to improve the delivery of benefits, including a phased approach to ensure the DEO can meet current and future demands. ISF's assessment provides an overview of the current state of the CONNECT system, and recommends the modernization of the current system, which includes cloud migration.⁴⁵

On May 4, 2020, at the request of Governor DeSantis, the Office of the Chief Inspector General initiated a review of the CONNECT system. The scope of the inspector general's review considered available documentation and testimony about the CONNECT system from the period of 2007 to 2020.⁴⁶ The draft report offered recommendations for agencies considering information technology (IT) projects, which include:

- Documenting future IT system capacity requirements and expected utilization in system testing plans and test results;
- Assessing the proposed level of maturity of any state transfer or commercial off-the-shelf system relied upon for risk and properly documenting the risk;
- Monitoring what is being provided by the vendor and building in an escape plan and financial penalties for noncompliance;

- Ensuring that independent verification and validation services are truly independent from the project management team and rigorous;
- Requiring project management to be flat and agile, which may include considering more modular IT projects to accommodate future and rapid technological changes; and
- Strengthening administrative and physical infrastructure needs, which may include tracking, reviewing, and resolving audit related findings and moving the future CONNECT system to the cloud to allow for greater scalability.⁴⁷

In 2020, the Florida Digital Service was established to better leverage technology and support a data-driven government with a customer focus. The service's objectives include cyber-security, cloud-ready architecture, data interoperability, and agile methodologies that would help ensure successful outcomes of large-scale IT projects.⁴⁸

Appeals Process

The DEO issues determinations and redeterminations on the monetary and non-monetary eligibility requirements of reemployment assistance benefits.⁴⁹ Determinations and redeterminations are statements by the DEO regarding the application of law to an individual's eligibility for benefits or the effect of the benefits on an employer's tax account. A party who believes a determination is inaccurate may request reconsideration within 20 days of mailing or delivery of the notice and the DEO must review the information on which the request is based and issue a redetermination.⁵⁰

If a party disagrees with either the determination or redetermination, the applicant or employer may request an administrative hearing before an appeals referee within 20 days of mailing or delivery of the notice. An appeals referee must be an attorney in good standing with the Florida Bar.⁵¹ Appeals referees in the DEO's Office of Appeals hold hearings and issue decisions to resolve disputes related to eligibility for RA benefits and the payment and collection of RA taxes.⁵²

A decision by an appeals referee can be appealed to the RA Appeals Commission if done within 20 days of mailing or delivery of the notice of the referee's decision. The commission may affirm, modify, remand with instructions, or reverse the determination made by the appeals referee based on evidence previously submitted in the case or additional evidence taken at the direction of the commission. However, the commission may also assume jurisdiction of a case prior to completion of proceedings by an appeals referee.⁵³

A party to an appeal who disagrees with the commission's order may seek review of the decision in the Florida district courts of appeal. The notice of appeal should be filed either in the district

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The Department of Economic Opportunity

Section 1 amends s. 20.60, F.S., to change the title for the head of the DEO from “Executive Director” to the “Secretary of Economic Opportunity.”

The bill authorizes the secretary to appoint deputy and assistant secretaries as necessary. The bill establishes the Office of the Secretary and authorizes the secretary to create offices within the Office of the Secretary and within the DEO’s divisions to promote efficient and effective operation of the DEO. The secretary is required to appoint directors for each division.

The bill also creates the Office of Economic Accountability and Transparency and require assigns it the following duties:

- Oversee the DEO’s critical objectives and make sure the DEO’s key objectives are clearly communicated to the public;
- Organize the DEO’s resources, expertise, data, and research to focus on and solve the complex economic challenges facing the state;
- Provide leadership for the DEO’s priority issues that require integration of policy, management, and critical objectives from multiple programs and organizations internal and external to the DEO;
- Promote and facilitate key DEO initiatives to address priority economic issues and explore data and identify opportunities for innovative approaches to address such economic issues; and
- Promote strategic planning for the DEO.

Sections 17, 18, and 20 through 55 amend ss. 14.20195, 16.615, 213.053, 220.194, 288.005, 288.061, 288.0656, 288.106, 288.1089, 288.1251, 288.8014, 288.955, 288.9604, 288.987, 290.0065, 311.09, 311.105, 334.065, 373.4149, 380.045, 403.0752, 420.0005, 420.0006, 420.101, 420.503, 420.504, 420.506, 420.507, 420.511, 420.602, 420.609, 420.622, 427.012, 443.1116, 446.53, 450.261, 624.5105, and 1004.015, F.S., respectively, to make conforming changes to references to the executive director.

Section 19 amends s. 20.04, F.S., to exempt the DEO from the requirements for all departments under the executive branch related to internal structure and standard terms and to limit the creation of additional divisions or offices in the DEO to only as allowed by statute.

⁵⁴ See s. 443.151(4)(e), F.S.

Enterprise Florida

Section 2 amends s. 288.901, F.S., to add the secretary or his or her designee to the EFI board of directors.

Section 6 amends s. 331.3081, F.S., to update a cross reference.

Florida Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program

Section 3 amends s. 290.042, F.S., to provide that the definition of “administrative costs” has the same meaning as defined in the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 and applicable federal regulations.⁵⁵

Section 4 amends s. 290.044, F.S., to broaden the grant categories that applicants may compete for funding under. Currently grants are limited to housing rehabilitation, economic development, neighborhood revitalization, and commercial revitalization. The bill allows categories for any other activity authorized by federal law.

The bill increases the percentage of CDBG funds that the DEO may set aside annually for use in local government jurisdictions for which an emergency or natural disaster has been declared by executive order from 5 percent to 15 percent.

Currently, in the last quarter of the state fiscal year, the DEO must distribute any funds not allocated under the emergency-related set-aside to unfunded applications from the most recent funding cycle. The bill removes this limitation, allowing distribution to any unfunded application regardless of when the application was made.

Section 5 amends s. 290.046, F.S., to repeal provisions that limit the number of grant applications a local government may submit during each CDBG application or funding cycle. The bill also repeals the requirement that unused economic development grant funds be awarded on a first come, first serve basis.

The bill authorizes the DEO to prohibit an applicant from receiving a grant or to penalize an applicant in the rating of a current application if the DEO determines that the applicant has failed to substantially accomplish the results it proposed in previously funded applications. Currently the prohibition or penalty is only allowed if the applicant failed to accomplish its proposed results from its last funded application.

Section 16 amends s. 553.79, F.S., to require local governments to issue a building permit for a single-family residential home within 15 working days after receipt of the application when the permit is applied for by a contractor licensed in Florida on behalf of a property owner who participates in a CDBG-DR program. However, if the permit application fails to meet the requirements of the Florida Building Code or the enforcing agency's laws or ordinances, then this timeframe does not apply.

Rule 73C-23.0030, F.A.C., incorporates the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 and the relevant chapters of the Code of Federal Regulations by reference. See also s. 290.047, F.S., which provides that the maximum percentage of block grant funds that can be spent on administrative costs by an eligible local government is 15 percent for the housing rehabilitation program, 8 percent for both the neighborhood and the commercial revitalization program categories, and 8 percent for the economic development program category.

Workforce Development Boards and CareerSource

Section 7 amends s. 435.02, F.S., to change the definition of "specified agency" to include regional workforce boards providing services defined in s. 445.002(3), F.S.,⁵⁶ which will allow regional workforce development boards to conduct level 2 background screenings.

Section 15 amends s. 445.004, F.S., to specifically add the secretary of the DEO or his or her designee to the CareerSource Florida, Inc., board of directors.

Reemployment Assistance

Section 8 amends s. 443.036, F.S., to expand the definition of temporary layoff to include an individual's employer-initiated furlough that causes a mandatory complete stoppage of work. The furlough must be temporary, and the individual must still be considered to be "job attached" and be expected to return to work with the employer. There is no time limit on the length of the furlough like there is for a job separation due to lack of work as provided in current law.

Section 9 amends s. 443.091, F.S., to repeal the requirement that a claimant must provide the telephone number of each prospective employer contacted for each week of unemployment claimed. The bill also clarifies that "address" means a website address, a physical address, or an e-mail address for purposes of reporting the address of each prospective employer contacted.

Section 10 amends s. 443.101, F.S., to repeal the provision that provides that a domestic violence claimant is ineligible to receive benefits for each week that the claimant no longer meets the criteria under s.443.101(1)(a)2.c., F.S., discussed above in the Present Situation, or if the claimant refuses an employer's reasonable accommodation.

Section 11 amends s. 443.1113, F.S., to update the statutory requirements for the state's reemployment assistance computer system. The DEO is required to implement a system for the "efficient distribution of benefits and the effective operation and management of the reemployment assistance program." The system must be "an integrated, modular system hosted in a cloud computing service...that provides for rapid provisioning of additional data processing when necessary."⁵⁷

⁵⁶ Section 445.002(3), F.S., defines "services and one-time payments" or "services," when used in reference to individuals who are not receiving temporary cash assistance, as meaning nonrecurrent, short-term benefits designed to deal with a specific crisis situation or episode of need and other services; work subsidies; supportive services such as child care information referral; transitional services, job retention, job advancement, and other employment-related services; nonmedical treatment for substance abuse or mental health problems; teen pregnancy prevention; two-parent family support, including noncustodial parent employment; court-ordered supervised visitation, and responsible fatherhood services; and any other services that are reasonably calculated to further the purposes of the welfare transition program.

⁵⁷ The National Institute of Standard and Technology's (NIST) Special Publication 800-145 sets forth the definition of cloud computing service. See NIST, The NIST Definition of Cloud Computing, SP 800-145 (September 2011), available at <https://csrc.nist.gov/publications/detail/sp/800-145/final> (last visited April 15, 2021). See also s. 282.0041(5), F.S.

The bill requires the system to:

- Be accessible through the Internet and on mobile devices and personal computers;
- Process reemployment assistance claims and benefit payments;
- Process and manage overpayments;
- Perform adjudication functions;
- Process appeals and manage appeal hearings; and
- Manage and process employer charging.

The bill retains current system objects, whenever cost effective and operational feasible, and requires the system to enable and enhance online, self-service capabilities. The system must also maintain interoperability with other DEO workforce systems and allow for employer-assisted claims (see section 13, discussed below). The bill also repeals obsolete language related to previous requirements for system development.

Annually, the DEO is required to review the system and identify enhancements or modernization efforts to improve the delivery of services to both claimants and employers and the reporting of information to state and federal entities. These improvements are required to include infrastructure upgrades through cloud services, software improvements, enhanced data analytics and reporting, and increased cybersecurity.⁵⁸ The DEO must seek input from the following entities:

- The Florida Digital Service with the Department of Management Services;
- The General Tax Administration Program Office with the Department of Revenue; and
- The Division of Accounting and Auditing within the Department of Financial Services.

The bill requires that by October 1, 2023, the DEO must submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, which must include a summary of maintenance, enhancement, and modernization efforts over the last fiscal year and a 3-year outlook of recommended enhancements or modernization efforts that includes projected costs and timeframes for completion.

Section 12 requires the DEO, for Fiscal Year 2021-2022, to modernize the system as provided in the General Appropriations Act.

In April 2020, the DEO adopted Emergency Rule 73BER20-1, Florida Administrative Code, to create a process for employer assisted claims. The purpose of the rule was to “provide a process for employers to notify the DEO of a mass separation...and make a group filing on behalf of the employer’s similarly situated employees.” Section 13 creates s. 443.1118, F.S., to allow for a process for employer-assisted claims. An employer-assisted claim is an initial claim filed by an employer on behalf of its employees who are part of a mass separation from the employer. A mass separation is a full, partial, permanent or temporary separation, including a temporary layoff, of full-time employees. For all employees affected, the separations must occur around the same time, be for the same reason, and must be due to no fault of the employees. At a minimum, a mass separation involves 1,000 employees.

⁵⁸ The Information Technology Security Act under s. 282.318, F.S., sets forth requirements for security of data and information technology. The Department of Management Services is required to establish standards and processes consistent with generally accepted best practices for information technology security, including cybersecurity, and adopt rules that safeguard an agency’s data, information, and information technology resources. The act also state agencies to take certain actions to meet security standards and mitigate risks.

To initiate an employer-assisted claim, the employer that commences a mass separation must submit employee information to the DEO within 10 days after the date of the separation and through a secure means approved by the DEO. The employer must give notice and instructions to each employee that the employer submits a claim on behalf of and direct the employee to complete further steps to complete the claim as required by the DEO. The employer must submit an affidavit to the DEO attesting to meeting the requirements of such process.

The effective date of the initial claims submitted by the employer is the Sunday immediately following the date that the employer-assisted claim was received by the DEO. Claimants must continue to meet other requirements to receive benefits, including biweekly reporting, and are subject to the same rights to request redeterminations and appeals.

The DEO is authorized to adopt rules, as necessary, to implement this claims process and must adopt rules setting forth:

- The claim initiation process;
- The form of submission;
- The form and format of the required attestation; and
- Additional procedures for filing of the employer-assisted claim.

The provisions of the statute created by the bill are similar to the provisions of the emergency rule adopted by the DEO in April 2020.

Section 14 amends s. 443.151, F.S., to require an employer⁵⁹ to respond to a notice of claim within 14 days after the mailing date of the notice, or in lieu of mailing, within 14 days after the delivery of the notice. Currently, employers are given 20 days to respond to a notice of claim.

The bill rewords the current provision related to the finality of monetary determination to provide clarification.

Under the bill, a claimant may file a request for the DEO to reconsider a monetary determination within 20 days after the DEO mails the notice to the claimant's last known address, or in lieu of mailing, within 20 days after delivery of the notice. A monetary determination is final for a claimant if the claimant does not file a timely request for redetermination. The bill provides that a monetary redetermination is final for a claimant unless within 20 days after the mailing of the notice of monetary redetermination to the claimant's last known address, or in lieu of mailing, within 20 days after delivery of the notice, the claimant files an appeal.

The monetary determination or monetary redetermination is final for an employer or other party entitled to notice unless within 20 days after the mailing or, in lieu of mailing, within 20 days after delivery of the notice, an appeal is filed by an employer or other party.

⁵⁹ "Employer" is referring to the claimant's most recent employing unit and all employers whose employment records are liable for benefits under the monetary determination.

The bill repeals the requirement that an appeals referee be an attorney in good standing with the Florida Bar.

The bill establishes a five-year statute of limitations on appeals from the date the mailing or the delivery of the notice of determination.⁶⁰

IX. Additional Information:A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:

(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS/CS by Appropriations on April 15, 2021:

The committee substitute expands the definition of “temporary layoff” to include when an individual’s employer mandates a furlough, if the furlough is temporary, the person is still “job attached,” and the person expects to return to work with the employer.

The committee substitute creates a process for employers that commence a mass separation to initiate submittal of reemployment assistance claims on behalf of their employees.

The committee substitute requires the DEO to implement an integrated, modular system hosted in the cloud for reemployment assistance. The amendment requires the system to maintain interoperability with other department workforce system and allow for employer-assisted claims. The amendment also sets forth a non-exhaustive list of required annual review of improvements and makes other minor changes to this section of the bill.

CS by Commerce and Tourism on March 15, 2021:

The committee substitute requires the DEO, for Fiscal Year 2021-2022, to modernize the reemployment assistance (RA) system as provided in the General Appropriations Act. It clarifies that the RA system must efficiently distribute benefits and effectively manage and operate the RA program, which includes monitoring and managing the collection of overpayments.

The committee substitute clarifies that the DEO must perform an annual review of the RA system and identify ways to improve the delivery of services, and requires a summary of maintenance, enhancement, and modernization efforts over the last fiscal year and a 3-year outlook of recommended changes to be included in the RA Claims and Benefits Information System report. The committee substitute provides that the DEO must seek input and recommendations on RA system enhancements from specified entities.

445 443.111(1)(b), which requires that each claimant continue to
446 report regardless of any pending appeal relating to her or his 447 eligibility or disqualification for benefits.

448 1. For each week of unemployment claimed, each report must,

 468 opportunities. Aggregate data on assessment outcomes may be made
 469 available to CareerSource Florida, Inc., and Enterprise Florida,

 472 in this state have access to a skilled and competent workforce.

473 b. Individuals shall be informed of and offered services

494 unit or for the week in which he or she has been discharged by 495 the employing unit for misconduct connected with his or her
 496 work, based on a finding by the Department of Economic 497 Opportunity. As used in this paragraph, the term "work" means 498 any work, whether full-time, part-time, or temporary.

499 1. Disqualification for voluntarily quitting continues for 500 the full period of unemployment next ensuing after the 501 individual has left his or her full-time, part-time, or 502 temporary work voluntarily without good cause and until the 503 individual has earned income equal to or greater than 17 times
 504 his or her weekly benefit amount. As used in this subsection, 505 the term "good cause" includes only that cause attributable to 506 the employing unit which would compel a reasonable employee to 507 cease working or attributable to the individual's illness or 508 disability requiring separation from his or her work. Any other 509 disqualification may not be imposed.

510 2. An individual is not disqualified under this subsection
 511 for:

 514 temporarily terminated his or her work within the previous 6
 515 calendar months;

 520 her discontinued employment is a direct result of circumstances
 521 related to domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28. An 522 individual who voluntarily leaves work under this sub-

576-04228-21

523 subparagraph must:

524 (I) Make reasonable efforts to preserve employment, unless 525 the individual establishes that such remedies are likely to be 526 futile or to increase the risk of future incidents of domestic 527 violence. Such efforts may include seeking a protective
528 injunction, relocating to a secure place, or seeking reasonable 529 accommodation from the employing unit, such as a transfer or 530 change of assignment;

531 (II) Provide evidence such as an injunction, a protective 532 order, or other documentation authorized by state law which 533 reasonably proves that domestic violence has occurred; and

534 (III) Reasonably believe that he or she is likely to be the 535 victim of a future act of domestic violence at, in transit to,
536 or departing from his or her place of employment. An individual
537 ~~who is otherwise eligible for benefits under this sub-~~
538 ~~subparagraph is ineligible for each week that he or she no~~
539 ~~longer meets such criteria or refuses a reasonable accommodation~~
540 ~~offered in good faith by his or her employing unit.~~

541 3. The employment record of an employing unit may not be 542 charged for the payment of benefits to an individual who has 543 voluntarily left work under sub-subparagraph 2.c.

544 4. Disqualification for being discharged for misconduct
545 connected with his or her work continues for the full period of 546 unemployment next ensuing after having been discharged and until 547 the individual is reemployed and has earned income of at least 548 17 times his or her weekly benefit amount and for not more than 549 52 weeks immediately following that week, as determined by the 550 department in each case according to the circumstances or the 551 seriousness of the misconduct, under the department's rules for

576-04228-21

552 determining disqualification for benefits for misconduct.

553 5. If an individual has provided notification to the 554 employing unit of his or her intent to voluntarily leave work
555 and the employing unit discharges the individual for reasons
556 other than misconduct before the date the voluntary quit was to 557 take effect, the individual, if otherwise entitled, shall 558 receive benefits from the date of the employer's discharge until 559 the effective date of his or her voluntary quit.

560 6. If an individual is notified by the employing unit of 561 the employer's intent to discharge the individual for reasons
562 other than misconduct and the individual quits without good
563 cause before the date the discharge was to take effect, the 564 claimant is ineligible for benefits pursuant to s. 443.091(1)(d)
565 for failing to be available for work for the week or weeks of 566 unemployment occurring before the effective date of the 567 discharge.

568 (6) For making any false or fraudulent representation for 569 the purpose of obtaining benefits contrary to this chapter,
570 constituting a violation under s. 443.071. The disqualification
571 imposed under this subsection shall begin with the week for ~~in~~ 572 which the false or fraudulent representation was ~~is~~ made and 573 shall continue for a period not to exceed 1 year after the date
574 the Department of Economic Opportunity discovers the false or 575 fraudulent representation and until any overpayment of benefits
576 resulting from such representation has been repaid in full. This 577 disqualification may be appealed in the same manner as any other 578 disqualification imposed under this section. A conviction by any 579 court of competent jurisdiction in this state of the offense
580 prohibited or punished by s. 443.071 is conclusive upon the

576-04228-21 20211948c2

581 appeals referee and the commission of the making of the false or 582 fraudulent representation for which disqualification is imposed 583 under this section.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 1966 revises provisions relating to the licensing and regulation of cosmetics manufacturers, construction contractors, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, pugilistic events, condominium associations, and public food and lodging establishments by the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR).

Relating to reporting requirements for tobacco product wholesalers, the bill:

- Requires tax and sales reports to be filed with the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco through the agency's electronic system; and
- Revises the reporting requirements.

Relating to construction contracting, the bill allows registered contractors to apply for a statewide certified contractors' license without having to take the state licensure examination.

Relating to construction and electrical contractors, the bill repeals the $4 fee all certificate holders and registrants must pay to the DBPR at the time of application or renewal, to fund projects relating to the building construction industry or continuing education programs offered to building construction industry workers in Florida.

Relating to cosmetic manufacturers, the bill:

- Creates an exemption from the cosmetic manufacturing permit requirements for a person who manufactures limited cosmetic products, such as soaps, and has annual gross sales of $25,000 or less;
- Authorizes a temporary permit for 90 calendar days to allow continued operation of a cosmetics establishment when there is a change of ownership, controlling interest, or location; and
- Authorizes the DBPR to issue remedial, nondisciplinary citations for violations that do not pose a substantial threat to the public health, safety, or welfare.

Relating to regulation of pugilistic events, the bill:

- Changes the name of the Florida State Boxing Commission to the Florida Athletic Commission (commission);
- Authorizes the commission to establish the weight of any gloves used in pugilistic matches by rule; and
- Deletes the requirement for all participants in pugilistic matches to wear gloves.

Relating to alcoholic beverage regulations, the bill:

- Requires applicants for an alcoholic beverage license to submit fingerprints to the DBPR electronically, provide proof of the applicant's right of occupancy for the entire premises they are seeking to license, and maintain a current electronic mailing address with the DBPR;
- Requires licensees to submit alcohol sales reports through the DBPR's electronic system;
- Requires notices related to a vendor's delinquent payment to a distributor be provided by the DBPR through electronic mail;
- Revises the compliance audit timeframes for special restaurant licensees; and
- Removes "grains of paradise" from the list of prohibited ingredients in liquor under the crime of "adulterating liquor."

Relating to condominium and cooperative associations, the bill:

- Requires a proposed annual budget to be provided to members of the association and adopted by its board of directors no later than 14 days before the beginning of the fiscal year;
- Provides the board's failure to timely adopt the annual budget a second time is a minor violation and the prior year's budget will continue in effect until a new budget is adopted.

Relating to condominium associations, the bill:

- Defines the circumstances when a person is delinquent in a payment due to an association;
- Deletes the requirement that the condominium ombudsman keep his or her principal office in Leon County; and
- Authorizes the DBPR to adopt rules for submitting complaints against condominium associations.

The bill has a negative fiscal impact on state revenues. According to the DBPR, state government revenues deposited in the Professional Regulation Trust Fund will be reduced by $162,266 in Fiscal Year 2021-2022 and $281,937 in Fiscal Year 2022-2023 resulting from the elimination of the $4 fee for construction licensure applications and renewals. As a result, revenues transferred to the General Revenue Fund as the general revenue service charge will be reduced by $35,536 over the next two fiscal years.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

II. Present Situation:

For ease of reference, the Present Situation for each section of SB 1966 is addressed in the Effect of Proposed Changes portion of this bill analysis. Background information about the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) is provided below.

Organization of the DBPR

Section 20.165, F.S., establishes the organizational structure of the DBPR, which has the following 12 divisions:

- Administration.
- Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco.
- Certified Public Accounting.
- Drugs, Devices, and Cosmetics.
- Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes.
- Hotels and Restaurants.
- Pari-mutuel Wagering.
- Professions.
- Real Estate.
- Regulation.
- Service Operations.
- Technology.

The Florida State Boxing Commission is assigned to the DBPR for administrative and fiscal accountability purposes only.¹ The DBPR also administers the Child Labor Law and Farm Labor Contractor Registration Law.²

Powers and Duties of the DBPR

Chapter 455, F.S., applies to the regulation of professions constituting “any activity, occupation, profession, or vocation regulated by the [DBPR] in the Divisions of Certified Public Accounting, Professions, Real Estate, and Regulation.”³ The chapter also provides the procedural and administrative framework for those divisions and the professional boards within the DBPR.⁴

The DBPR’s regulation of professions is to be undertaken “only for the preservation of the health, safety, and welfare of the public under the police powers of the state.”⁵ Regulation is required when:

² See parts I and III of ch. 450, F.S.

³ Section 455.01(6), F.S.

⁴ See s. 455.203, F.S. The DBPR must also provide legal counsel for boards within the DBPR by contracting with the Department of Legal Affairs, by retaining private counsel, or by staff counsel of the DBPR. See s. 455.221(1), F.S.

⁵ Section 455.201(2), F.S.

- The potential for harming or endangering public health, safety, and welfare is recognizable and outweighs any anticompetitive impact that may result;
- The public is not effectively protected by other state statutes, local ordinances, federal legislation, or other means; and
- Less restrictive means of regulation are not available.⁶

However, “neither the [DBPR] nor any board may create a regulation that has an unreasonable effect on job creation or job retention,” or a regulation that unreasonably restricts the ability of those desiring to engage in a profession or occupation from finding employment.⁷

Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes

The Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes (FCTMH) provides consumer protection for Florida residents living in regulated communities through education, complaint resolution, mediation and arbitration, and developer disclosure.⁸ The FCTMH has limited regulatory authority over the following entities and individuals:⁹

- Condominium Associations;
- Cooperative Associations;
- Florida Mobile Home Parks;
- Vacation Units and Timeshares;
- Yacht and Ship Brokers and related business entities; and
- Homeowners’ Associations (jurisdiction is limited to arbitration of election and recall disputes).

Division of Hotels and Restaurants

The Division of Hotels and Restaurants (DHR) licenses, inspects, and regulates public lodging and food service establishments in Florida. The DHR also licenses and regulates elevators, escalators, and other vertical conveyance devices.¹⁰

Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco

The Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco regulates the manufacturing, distribution, sale, and service of alcoholic beverages and tobacco products in Florida, including:

- Receipt and processing of license applications;
- Collection and auditing of taxes, surcharges, and fees paid by licensees; and
- Enforcement of the laws and regulations governing the sale of alcoholic beverages and tobacco products.¹¹

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Tobacco Products Regulation and Taxation

Present Situation

The Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco (DABT) is responsible for the regulation of tobacco products under ch. 210, F.S., which sets out tax requirements for cigarettes and other tobacco products, and ch. 569, F.S., which sets out requirements for the retail sale of tobacco products.¹²

“Cigarettes” are defined in s. 210.01(1), F.S., for the purpose of taxation, as:

...any roll for smoking, except one of which the tobacco is fully naturally fermented, without regard to the kind of tobacco or other substances used in the inner roll or the nature or composition of the material in which the roll is wrapped, which is made wholly or in part of tobacco irrespective of size or shape and whether such tobacco is flavored, adulterated or mixed with any other ingredient.

“Tobacco products” are defined in s. 210.25(12), F.S., in the context of state taxes on tobacco products other than cigarettes or cigars, as:

...loose tobacco suitable for smoking; snuff; snuff flour; cavendish; plug and twist tobacco; fine cuts and other chewing tobaccos; shorts; refuse scraps; clippings, cuttings, and sweepings of tobacco, and other kinds and forms of tobacco prepared in such manner as to be suitable for chewing.

Cigars, nicotine products, and nicotine dispensing devices are not included in the above definitions and therefore are not taxed as a cigarette or tobacco product in Florida.¹³

A person, firm, association, or corporation must obtain a permit from the DABT to function as any of the following in Florida:

- Retail tobacco products dealer.¹⁴
- Cigarette manufacturer.¹⁵
- Cigarette wholesale dealer.¹⁶
- Cigarette distributing agent.¹⁷
- Cigarette importer.¹⁸

¹² Section 561.02, F.S.

¹³ Sections 210.01(1) and 210.25(12), F.S. “Nicotine dispensing device” means any product that employs an electronic, chemical, or mechanical means to produce vapor from a nicotine product. “Nicotine products” do not include tobacco products, certain smoking cessation products, and products with incidental nicotine. Sections 877.112(1)(a) and (b), F.S.

¹⁴ Section 569.003, F.S.

¹⁶ Sections 210.01(6) and 210.15(1), F.S.

¹⁷ Sections 210.01(14) and 210.15(1), F.S.

¹⁸ Sections 210.01(20) and 210.15(1), F.S.

- Cigarette exporter.¹⁹
- Cigar wholesale dealer.²⁰
- Tobacco wholesale dealer/distributor.²¹

The DABT collects monthly business records related to cigarettes, which are used to accurately collect and distribute cigarette taxes. Such records must be submitted to the DABT by any manufacturer, importer, distributing agent, wholesale dealer, retail dealer, common carrier, or any other person handling, transporting, or possessing cigarettes for sale or distribution in Florida. The DABT prescribes the manner in which these records are submitted.²²

The DABT also collects monthly returns showing the taxable price of each tobacco product (other than cigarettes or cigars) brought or caused to be brought into Florida for sale, or made, manufactured, or fabricated in this state for sale in this state. Such returns must be submitted by every place of business that sells or manufactures such tobacco products in Florida. The DABT prescribes the form and content for submitting such returns to the DABT. Each return must be accompanied by a remittance for the full tax liability shown.²³

The bill amends ss. 210.09(2) and 210.55(1), F.S., related to monthly reports and records for cigarettes and other tobacco products, to require that all reports filed with the DABT must be made through the DABT's electronic data submission system. Under the bill, manufacturers, importers, distributing agents, wholesale dealers, agents, and retail dealers may keep records in an electronic or paper format.

The bill also amends s. 210.55(1), F.S., to require a tobacco wholesaler (the taxpayer) to submit a full and complete report with the DABT showing the tobacco products (other than cigars or cigarettes) brought or caused to be brought into Florida for sale, or made, manufactured, or fabricated in this state for sale in this state. The bill replaces the term "return" with the term "report." It requires the tax report to be submitted to the DABT electronically, and permits any records that are required to be kept to be in an electronic or paper format.

¹⁹ Sections 210.01(17) and 210.15(1), F.S.

²⁰ The term "cigar wholesale dealer" is not defined or referenced in ch. 210, F.S. However, the DABT issues a permit for "cigar wholesale dealer." Construction Industry Licensing Board

Present Situation

Construction Contractor Divisions

The Construction Industry Licensing Board (CILB) within the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) is responsible for licensing and regulating the construction industry in this state under part I of ch. 489, F.S.²⁴ The CILB is divided into two divisions with separate jurisdictions:

- Division I comprises the general contractor, building contractor, and residential contractor members of the CILB. Division I has jurisdiction over the regulation of general contractors, building contractors, and residential contractors.
- Division II comprises the roofing contractor, sheet metal contractor, air-conditioning contractor, mechanical contractor, pool contractor, plumbing contractor, and underground utility and excavation contractor members of the CILB. Division II has jurisdiction over the regulation of roofing contractors, sheet metal contractors, class A, B, and C air-conditioning contractors, mechanical contractors, commercial pool/spa contractors, residential pool/spa contractors, swimming pool/spa servicing contractors, plumbing contractors, underground utility and excavation contractors, solar contractors, and pollutant storage systems contractors.²⁵

Under current law, a “certified contractor” has met competency requirements for a particular trade category and holds a geographically unlimited certificate of competency from the DBPR, which allows the contractor to contract in any jurisdiction in the state without being required to fulfill the competency requirements of other jurisdictions.²⁶

The term “registered contractor” means a contractor who has registered with the DBPR as part of meeting competency requirements for a trade category in a particular jurisdiction, which limits the contractor to contracting only in the jurisdiction for which the registration is issued.²⁷

Section 489.118, F.S., permits registered contractors to obtain statewide certification without taking the state licensure examination if they meet certain criteria. To qualify for this examination exception, a registered contractor must have applied to the DBPR before November 1, 2015. Because the “grandfathering” date of the November 1, 2015, has passed, registered contractors must sit for and satisfactorily pass the state certified license examination to receive a state certified contractor’s license.

License Fees

As provided in s. 489.109, F.S., an applicant for certification as a contractor is required to pay an initial application fee not to exceed $150, and, if an examination cost is included in the application fee, the combined amount may not exceed $350. For an applicant for registration as a contractor, the initial application fee may not exceed $100, and the initial registration fee and the renewal fee may not exceed $200.²⁸ The initial application fee and the renewal fee is $50 for an application to certify or register a business.²⁹

Fees must be adequate to ensure the continued operation of the CILB, and must be based on the DBPR's estimates of revenue required to implement part I of ch. 489, F.S., and statutory provisions regulating the construction industry.³⁰

All certificate holders and registrants must pay a fee of $4 to the DBPR at the time of application or renewal, to fund projects relating to the building construction industry or continuing education programs offered to building construction industry workers in Florida, to be selected by the Florida Building Commission.³¹ The Florida Building Commission's advice is not binding on the DBPR, but the DBPR must ensure the distribution of research reports and the availability of continuing education programs to all segments of the building construction industry.³²

Electrical contractors licensed by the Electrical Contractors' Licensing Board (ECLB) are also required to pay a fee of $4 to the DBPR at the time of application or renewal, to fund projects relating to the building construction industry or continuing education programs offered to building construction industry workers in Florida, to be selected by the Florida Building Commission.³³

Each biennium, upon receipt of funds from the CILB and the ECLB collected under ss. 489.109(3) and 489.509(3), F.S., the DBPR must determine the amount of funds available for the Florida Building Code Compliance and Mitigation Program.³⁴

The bill amends ss. 489.109(3) and 489.509(3), F.S., to repeal the $4 fee all construction contracting and electrical contracting, respectively, certificate holders and registrants must pay to the DBPR at the time of application or renewal to fund projects relating to the building construction industry or continuing education programs offered to building construction industry workers in Florida.

The bill repeals s. 553.841(5), F.S., to delete the requirement that the CILB and ECLB each biennium determine the amount of funds available for the Florida Building Code Compliance and Mitigation Program from the $4 fee collected under ss. 489.109(3) and 489.509(3), F.S.

The bill amends s. 489.118, F. S., to delete the November 1, 2015, application deadline for registered contractors to apply for a statewide certified contractors' license without having to take the state licensure examination.

²⁸ Section 489.109, F.S. Any applicant who seeks certification as a contractor under part I of ch. 489, F.S., by taking a practical examination must pay as an examination fee the actual cost incurred by the DBPR in developing, preparing, administering, scoring, score reporting, and evaluating the examination, if the examination is conducted by the DBPR.

Cosmetic Manufacturers

Present Situation

The Division of Drugs, Devices and Cosmetics within the DBPR administers the “Florida Drug and Cosmetic Act,” in part I of ch. 499, F.S., which is intended to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state of Florida from injury due to the use of adulterated, contaminated, misbranded drugs, drug ingredients and cosmetics.

Section 499.01(2)(p), F.S., requires a person manufacturing or repackaging cosmetics in the state to obtain a cosmetic manufacturing permit. Current law provides an exemption from the permit requirement if a person only labels or changes the labeling of a cosmetic, but does not open the container sealed by the manufacturer of the product.

According to the DBPR, there are numerous home businesses without the cosmetic manufacturing permit who manufacture “pour soaps,” creams, and lotions.³⁵ These cosmetic products are typically offered for sale at flea markets, online, and at open markets.

A cosmetic manufacturer’s permit holder must comply with current good manufacturing practices that apply to all cosmetic manufacturers whether the cosmetic manufacturer is manufacturing a “pour soap,” bath wash, eye liner, lip gloss, or liquid foundation. According to the DBPR, many initial applicants for a cosmetic manufacturing permit cannot meet the criteria for the permit and are currently manufacturing cosmetics as unlicensed cosmetic manufacturers.³⁶

A cosmetics manufacturer permit is nontransferable, and is valid only for the person or governmental unit for which the permit is issued.³⁷ A permit is also only valid for the establishment, i.e., the physical location,³⁸ for which the permit is issued.³⁹ A cosmetics manufacturer must submit an application for a new permit when a change of ownership, change of controlling interest, or a change of location occurs. According to the DBPR, cosmetics manufacturers are often unable to present the documentation to establish the change of ownership or controlling interest when submitting the application for the new permit because the legal change of ownership, controlling interest, or location has not occurred.⁴⁰ Consequently, there may be a period between such change and an application during which the permit holder is not legally compliant. For example, when an establishment changes location a lapse may occur because the business rarely is able to shut down one location and move equipment to the new location simultaneously with the issuance of the new permit thus requiring the business to maintain two permitted locations to continue to operate.⁴¹

If a person violates any criminal provision in ch. 499, F.S., the DBPR may provide relevant information to the appropriate state attorney or prosecuting agency having jurisdiction. The DBPR may seek a cease and desist order in circuit court to permanently or temporarily enjoin any person violating any provision of ch. 499, F.S., or any rule adopted under that chapter. The DBPR may also impose an administrative fine not to exceed $5,000 per day, for a violation relating to ch. 499, F.S., or any rule adopted under that chapter.

The DBPR or the Florida Department of Health (DOH) may issue such citations as a remedial or nondisciplinary tool for resolution of violations for which there is no substantial threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, but for which the licensee or permit holder has been provided prior opportunity to correct.⁴² Current law does not authorize the DBPR to issue a remedial, nondisciplinary citation for violations of ch. 499, F.S., or any rule adopted thereunder.

Effect of Proposed Changes

Permit Exemption

The bill amends s. 499.01(2)(p), F.S., to exempt from the requirement for a cosmetic manufacturing permit a person who manufactures cosmetics with annual gross sales of $25,000 or less. Under the bill, an exempt cosmetics manufacturer may only:

- Sell prepackaged cosmetics affixed with a label containing information required by the United States Food and Drug Administration.
- Manufacture and sell cosmetics that are soaps, not otherwise exempt from the definition of cosmetics, lotions, moisturizers, and creams.
- Sell cosmetic products that are not adulterated or misbranded, in accordance with 21 U.S.C. ss. 361 and 362.

Each unit of cosmetic product must contain, in a contrasting color, a statement in the form provided by the bill, indicating that the product is “made by a manufacturer exempt from Florida’s cosmetic manufacturing permit requirements.”

The bill authorizes the DBPR to investigate complaints. It provides that any officer or employee of the DBPR may enter and inspect the premises of an exempt cosmetic manufacturer to determine compliance with ch. 499, F.S., and rules of the DBPR. A refusal to permit entry to the premises or to permit an inspection is a violation of the prohibition in s. 499.005(6), F.S.,⁴³ which prohibits refusing to allow an authorized officer or employee of the DBPR to enter the premises to conduct an inspection. Under the bill, refusal to allow an inspection is grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to s. 499.066, F.S., which provides remedies and penalties for violations of ch. 499, F.S., including administrative fines of up to $5,000 per violation.

⁴² See ss. 455.224 and 456.077, F.S., authorizing the DBPR and the Department of Health (DOH) to issue citations, respectively.

The bill clarifies that s. 499.01(2)(p), F.S., does not exempt any person from any state or federal tax law, rule, regulation, or county or municipal law or ordinance that applies to cosmetic manufacturing.

Temporary Permits

The bill creates s. 499.012(6)(d), F.S., to authorize a 90 day temporary permit for issuance upon an application for change of ownership, controlling interest, or location. The existing permit expires when the DBPR authorizes the temporary permit. The temporary permit would allow the new owner to continue to operate for 90 days until the new owner's permit is issued, and would allow an establishment to continue to operate at the old location without renewing the permit if necessary until the new location is inspected and appropriately permitted, thus avoiding two separate permitting fees.

Citations

The bill creates s. 499.066(8), F.S., to authorize the DBPR to adopt rules to issue remedial, nondisciplinary citations to a permit holder alleged to have committed a violation. The bill specifies the information that must be included in the citation, including a brief factual statement, the sections of law allegedly violated, and the monetary assessment or other remedial measures imposed. The person receiving the citation will have 30 days after the citation is served to contest the citation by providing supplemental and clarifying information to the DBPR.

The citation must clearly state that the person may choose, in lieu of accepting the citation, to have the DBPR rescind the citation and conduct an investigation of violations alleged in the citation. The DBPR may rescind the citation if the person remedies or corrects the violations or deficiencies contained in the citation within 30 days after the citation is served. However, if the person does not successfully contest the citation to the satisfaction of the department, or complete the remedial action, the citation becomes a final order but does not constitute discipline.

Although the bill provides that a citation may become a final order and that such order does not constitute discipline, the bill requires the citation to include any monetary assessment imposed for the violation. The bill also provides that the DBPR is entitled to recover the costs of investigation, in addition to any penalty provided according to DBPR rule, as part of the penalty levied pursuant to a citation.

The DBPR must issue a citation within six months after the filing of a complaint against the manufacturer, e.g., a consumer or other person notifies the DBPR alleging a violation, which is the basis for the citation.

The citation may be served by personal service or certified mail, restricted delivery, to the person at their last known address of record with the DBPR, or to the person's Florida registered agent.

The bill authorizes the DBPR to adopt rules to designate the violations for which a person may be subject to issuance of a citation and the monetary assessments or other remedial measures that must be taken for those violations. Violations designated as subject to issuance of a citation must be limited to violations for which there is no substantial threat to the public health, safety, or welfare. The DBPR may amend such rules.

State Boxing Commission

Present Situation

Chapter 548, F.S., provides for the regulation of professional and amateur boxing, kickboxing,⁴⁴ and mixed martial arts⁴⁵ by the Florida State Boxing Commission (commission), which is assigned to the DBPR for administrative and fiscal purposes.⁴⁶

The commission has exclusive jurisdiction over every boxing, kickboxing, and mixed martial arts match held in Florida,⁴⁷ which involves a professional.⁴⁸ Professional matches held in Florida must meet the requirements set forth in ch. 548, F.S., and the rules adopted by the commission.⁴⁹ Chapter 548, F.S., does not apply to certain professional or amateur “martial arts,” such as karate, aikido, judo, and kung fu; the term “martial arts” is distinct from and does not include “mixed martial arts.”⁵⁰

However, as to amateur matches, the commission’s jurisdiction is limited to the approval, disapproval, suspension of approval, and revocation of approval of all amateur sanctioning organizations for amateur boxing, kickboxing, and mixed martial arts matches held in Florida.⁵¹ Amateur sanctioning organizations are business entities organized for sanctioning and supervising matches involving amateurs.⁵² During Fiscal Year 2018-2019, there were 59 sanctioned professional events and 137 amateur events.⁵³

Under current law, certain persons providing certain services for a match involving a professional competing in a boxing, kickboxing, or mixed martial arts match must be licensed by the commission before directly or indirectly performing those services. Licensing is mandated for a participant,⁵⁴ manager, second, judge, physician, matchmaker, promoter,⁵⁵ trainer, timekeeper, referee, or announcer.⁵⁶

⁴⁴ The term “kickboxing” means the unarmed combat sport of fighting by striking with the fists, hands, feet, legs, or any combination, but does not include ground fighting techniques. See s. 548.002(12), F.S.

⁴⁵ The term “mixed martial arts” means the unarmed combat sport involving the use of a combination of techniques, including, but not limited to, grappling, kicking, striking, and using techniques from martial arts disciplines, including, but not limited to, boxing, kickboxing, Muay Thai, jujitsu, and wrestling. See s. 548.002(16), F.S.

⁴⁶ Section 548.003(1), F.S.

⁴⁸ The term “professional” means a person who has received or competed for a purse or other article of a value greater than $50, either for the expenses of training or for participating in a match. See s. 548.002(19), F.S.

⁵⁴ Section 548.002(17), F.S., defines “participant” as a professional competing in a boxing, kickboxing, or mixed martial arts match.

⁵⁵ See s. 548.002, F.S., for the definitions of “manager,” “second,” “judge,” “physician,” “matchmaker,” and “promoter.”

⁵⁶ The terms “trainer,” “timekeeper,” “referee,” and “announcer” are not defined in ch. 548, F.S.

The commission must establish, by rule, the appropriate weight of gloves used in each boxing match. All participants in boxing matches must wear gloves weighing not less than eight ounces each, and participants in mixed martial arts matches must wear gloves weighing between four to eight ounces each. Participants must also wear any protective devices the commission deems necessary.⁵⁷

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill amends s. 548.003, F.S., to change the name of the commission to the Florida Athletic Commission.

The bill amends s. 548.043(3), F.S., to authorize the commission to establish by rule the need for gloves, if any, in each pugilistic match. The bill also authorizes the commission to establish by rule the weight of any gloves used in pugilistic matches, and deletes the requirement that the gloves weigh between four to eight ounces each. The bill also deletes the requirement for all participants in pugilistic matches to wear gloves.

The bill amends ss. 455.219, 548.002, 548.05, 548.071, and 548.077, F.S., to conform references to the name of the commission, as revised by the bill.

Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco

Present Situation

The Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco (DABT) is responsible for enforcing the beverage law and supervising the conduct, management, and operation of the manufacturing, packaging, distribution, and sale of all alcoholic beverages in Florida.⁵⁸

Permit Carriers

Section 561.57(1), F.S., permits an alcoholic beverage vendor to make deliveries. Deliveries made by a manufacturer, distributor, or vendor away from its place of business may only be made in vehicles owned or leased by the licensee. By acceptance of an alcoholic beverage license and the use of vehicles owned by or leased by the vendor, the vendor agrees the vehicle is subject to be inspected and searched without a search warrant by employees of the DABT or law enforcement officers to ascertain compliance with all provisions of the alcoholic beverage laws.⁵⁹

The term “permit carrier” is defined as a licensee authorized to make deliveries as provided in s. 561.57, F.S.⁶⁰ A separate permit is not required for licensees making a delivery of alcoholic beverages under this section.

In 2015, the Legislature amended s. 561.57, F.S., to delete a requirement that each vehicle used to deliver alcoholic beverages from a distributor’s place of business to the vendor’s licensed premises or to an off-premises storage have a permit. The 2015 amendment to s. 561.57, F.S., also removed a requirement for vendors to possess an invoice or sales ticket during the transportation of alcoholic beverages.⁶¹

License Application Process

Before engaging in the business of manufacturing, bottling, distributing, selling, or in any way dealing in alcoholic beverages, a person must file a sworn application in the format prescribed by the DABT. The applicant must be a legal or business entity, person, or persons and must include all persons, officers, shareholders, and directors of such legal or business entity that have a direct or indirect interest in the business seeking to be licensed under this part. The format and content of the application is determined by the DABT.⁶²

Before any application is approved, the DABT may require an applicant, and any person or persons interested directly or indirectly with the applicant in the business for which the license is being sought, to file a set of fingerprints with the DABT on regular United States Department of Justice forms.⁶³

All applications for alcoholic beverage licenses for consumption on the premises must be accompanied by a certificate from the DHR, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, the DOH, the Agency for Health Care Administration, or the county health department stating that the place of business where the business is to be conducted meets all of the sanitary requirements of the state.⁶⁴

The application for an alcoholic beverage license must include a sketch of the licensed premises over which the applicant must have some dominion and control.⁶⁵ Current law does not require an applicant for an alcoholic beverage license to submit proof of the applicant's right of occupancy for the entire premises sought to be licensed.

Current law does not require an alcoholic beverage licensee or an applicant for a license to provide and maintain an electronic mail address for communications with the DABT.

Quota Licenses

Section 561.20(1), F.S., limits, by county, the number of alcoholic beverage licenses that may be issued for the sale of distilled spirits, to one license per 7,500 residents within the county. These limited alcoholic beverage licenses are known as "quota" licenses. The quota license is the only alcoholic beverage license that is limited in number; all other types of alcoholic beverage licenses are available without limitation, if certain conditions are met.

Section 561.19(2)(a), F.S., authorizes the DABT to hold a public drawing by double random selection to determine which applicants may be considered for a quota license when one or more additional licenses become available due to an increase in county population or if a quota license is revoked. Current law does not reference the availability of a quota license due to the cancellation of a license.

Special Restaurant Licenses

A “special license” is an exception to the quota licensing scheme that allows the sale of beer, wine, and distilled spirits without a quota license and subject to conditions. One such special license is a “special restaurant license,” which applies to a food service establishment that has 2,500 square feet, is equipped to serve 150 persons at one time, and derives at least 51 percent of its gross food and beverage revenue from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages. The DABT must perform an audit to confirm compliance with the food and nonalcoholic beverage sales percentage requirements during the first 60-day operating period and each 12-month operating period thereafter.⁶⁶

If a special restaurant licensee fails to satisfy the percentage requirements of food and nonalcoholic beverage sales, the license must be revoked or a pending license application must be denied. A licensee whose license is revoked is ineligible to have an interest in a subsequent application for a license for 120 days after the revocation or denial of a license application.⁶⁷

Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements

Each manufacturer, distributor, broker, sales agent, importer, and exporter must keep a complete and accurate record and make reports to the DABT showing the amount of alcoholic beverages:⁶⁸

- Manufactured or sold within the state and to whom sold;
- Imported from beyond the limits of the state and to whom sold; and
- Exported beyond the limits of the state, to whom sold, the place where sold, and the address of the person to whom sold.

Each manufacturer, distributor, broker, sales agent, and importer must send this full and complete report to the DABT by the 10th day of each month for the previous calendar month. The report must be made out in triplicate with two copies sent to the DABT and a third copy to be retained for the licensee’s record. Reports must be made on forms prepared and furnished by the DABT.⁶⁹

Credit for the Sale of Liquor

A retail vendor must make a timely payment to a distributor of alcoholic beverages within 10 days after the calendar week in which the alcoholic beverages were purchased. When a vendor does not make a timely payment, the distributor who made the sale must, within three days, notify the DABT in writing that payment has not been made.⁷⁰

The DABT must then give notice to the vendor that it has received a notice of payment delinquency from a distributor. The vendor has five days after receipt of the notice to show cause

why further sales to the vendor should not be prohibited. The vendor may demand a hearing before the DABT. The demand for a hearing must be delivered to the DABT in person or by mail within those five days.⁷¹

If a vendor does not demand a hearing, the DABT must declare in writing to the vendor and to all manufacturers and distributors in Florida that all further sales to such vendor are prohibited until the DABT certifies in writing that such vendor has fully paid for all liquors previously purchased.⁷²

Adulterated Liquor

Section 562.455, F.S., provides that a person who adulterates, for the purpose of sale, any liquor, used or intended for drink with cocculus indicus, vitriol, grains of paradise, opium, alum, capsicum, copperas, laurel water, logwood, brazil wood, cochineal, sugar of lead, or any other substance which is poisonous or injurious to health, and whoever knowingly sells any liquor so adulterated, is guilty of a third degree felony.⁷³ This law was enacted in 1868.

Grains of paradise is a spice related to ginger and native to West Africa.⁷⁴ It is commonly used in alcoholic beverages, food, and medicine.⁷⁵ Grains of paradise has been found to be generally regarded as safe by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA).⁷⁶

On January 28, 2020, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida held that s. 562.455, F.S., as it relates to prohibiting the use of grains of paradise in liquor, is preempted by federal law.⁷⁷ The court found that the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FFDCA) and FDA regulations conflict with s. 562.455, F.S., because it frustrates the purposes and objectives of the FFDCA and implementing FDA regulations. Under FFDCA, the FDA has broad regulatory authority to monitor and control the introduction of “food additives” in interstate commerce. The FFDCA seeks to advance food technology by allowing the use of safe food additives, and the Florida law prohibits the use of an additive that is generally regarded as safe by the FDA.⁷⁸

The bill deletes the definition for the term “permit carrier” in s. 561.01(20), F.S. The bill also corrects cross-references in s. 561.20(2)(a), F.S., affected by the deletion of the definition of the term “permit carrier.”

The bill amends the alcoholic beverage license application process in s. 561.17(1), F.S., to require applicants to file fingerprints electronically through an approved electronic fingerprinting vendor, or to use a form prescribed by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. The bill deletes the requirement that the fingerprints be submitted on regular United States Department of Justice forms.

The bill amends s. 561.17(2), F.S., to require an applicant for any alcoholic beverage license to provide proof of the applicant's right of occupancy for the entire premises sought to be licensed.

The bill creates s. 561.17(5), F.S., to require any person or entity licensed or permitted by the DABT to provide an electronic mail address to the DABT to function as the primary contact for all communication by the DABT to the licensee or permittee. Under the bill, licensees and permittees are responsible for maintaining accurate contact information with the DABT.

The bill amends s. 561.19(2)(a), F.S., to authorize the DABT to hold a public drawing by double random selection to determine which applicants may be considered for a quota license when one or more additional licenses become available due to the cancellation of a license.

The bill amends s. 561.20(2)(a)4., F.S., to revise the auditing timeframes for special restaurant licensees. Under the bill, the DABT must perform the initial compliance audit within the first 120 days of operation, instead of within the first 60 days.

In addition, the bill revises the frequency of subsequent audits. Under the bill, the frequency of compliance audits is determined by the percentage of the licensee's gross revenue from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages, as established by the licensee's most recent audit. The bill provides the following audit levels:

- Level 1 licensees, 51 to 60 percent, will be audited every year;
- Level 2 licensees, 61 to 75 percent, will be audited every two years;
- Level 3 licensees, 76 to 90 percent, will be audited every three years; and
- Level 4 licensees, 91 to 100 percent, will be audited every four years.

The bill amends s. 561.42(4), F.S., to require the DABT to give a retail vendor notice of a payment delinquency via electronic mail. The bill deletes the requirement that the delinquency notice be a written notice. The bill also allows a vendor to send a demand for a hearing to the DABT by electronic mail.

The bill amends s. 561.55(2), F.S., to delete the requirement that reports by a manufacturer, distributor, broker, sales agent, and importer be made out in triplicate. Under the bill, the reports must be submitted to the DABT through the DABT's electronic data submission system.

The bill amends s. 562.455, F.S., to remove "grains of paradise" as an ingredient that if added to liquor, would cause the liquor to be adulterated. Anyone who sells adulterated liquor commits a third degree felony.

Condominiums and Cooperative Associations

Present Situation

A condominium is a form of ownership of real property created pursuant to ch. 718, F.S., the Condominium Act, comprised of units which may be owned by one or more persons along with an undivided right of access to common elements.⁷⁹ A condominium is created by recording a declaration of condominium in the public records of the county where the condominium is located.⁸⁰ All unit owners are members of the condominium association, an entity responsible for the operation and maintenance of the common elements owned by the unit owners. The condominium association is overseen by an elected board of directors, which enacts bylaws governing the administration of the association.⁸¹

Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes

The Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes (FCTMH) within the DBPR administers the provisions of chs. 718 and 719, F.S., for condominium and cooperative associations, respectively. The FCTMH may investigate complaints and enforce compliance with chs. 718 and 719, F.S., with respect to associations that are still under developer control.⁸² The FCTMH also has the authority to investigate complaints against developers involving improper turnover or failure to transfer control to the association.⁸³ After control of the condominium is transferred from the developer to the unit owners, the FCTMH's jurisdiction is limited to investigating complaints related to financial issues, elections, and unit owner access to association records.⁸⁴ For cooperatives, the FCTMH's jurisdiction extends to the development, construction, sale, lease, ownership, operation, and management of residential cooperative units.⁸⁵

As part of the FCTMH's authority to investigate complaints, the FCTMH may subpoena witnesses, take sworn statements from witnesses, issue cease and desist orders, and impose civil penalties against developers and associations.⁸⁶

If the FCTMH has reasonable cause to believe that a violation of any provision of ch. 718, F.S., ch. 719, F.S., or a related rule has occurred, the FCTMH may institute enforcement proceedings in its own name against any developer, bulk assignee, bulk buyer, association, officer, or member of the board of administration, or its assignees or agents. The FCTMH may conduct an investigation and issue an order to cease and desist from unlawful practices and take affirmative action to carry out the purpose of the applicable chapter. In addition, the FCTMH is authorized to petition a court to appoint a receiver or conservator to implement a court order, or to enforce an injunction or temporary restraining order. The FCTMH may also impose civil penalties.⁸⁷

Annual Budget - Condominium and Cooperative Associations

Every condominium and cooperative association must have an annual financial budget that sets forth the proposed expenditure of funds for the maintenance, management, and operation of the condominium association. The annual budget must include operating expenses for the coming year and reserve accounts for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance.⁸⁸

A condominium and cooperative association must hold a meeting to adopt a proposed budget. These associations must provide notice of the meeting and a copy of the proposed budget to the members of the association at least 14 days before the meeting.⁸⁹ The proposed budget must be detailed, and, at a minimum, include the condominium's estimated revenues and expenses.⁹⁰

Current law does not define the timing for adoption of the budget for a condominium or cooperative association.

Board of Directors – Eligibility based on Payment of Monetary Obligations

A condominium association is overseen by an elected board of directors, termed a Board of Administration. The board is responsible for managing the affairs of the association, has a fiduciary relationship with the unit owners, has the responsibility to act with the highest degree of good faith, and must place the interests of the unit owners above the personal interests of the directors.⁹¹

To become a board member, a person may be:

- Elected to the board by the members of the association;⁹²
- Appointed to the board by the developer if the developer is still entitled to representation; or
- Appointed by the board of directors if a vacancy on the board occurs between meetings.⁹³

A condominium association's bylaws establish the eligibility requirements to serve on the association's board of directors.⁹⁴ However, current law also establishes minimum qualifications to serve on an association's board of directors.⁹⁵ To serve as a director, a person may not:⁹⁶

- Be a co-owner of a unit with another director unless they own more than one unit or the condominium association is made up of less than ten units;
- Be delinquent in the payment of any monetary obligation to the condominium association;
- Have been previously suspended or removed from a condominium association's board of directors or by the FCTMH; or
- Have been convicted of a felony, under certain circumstances.⁹⁷

⁸⁸ Sections 718.112(2)(f) and 719.106(1)(j), F.S., relating to condominium and cooperative associations, respectively.

⁸⁹ Sections 718.112(2)(e)1 and 718.106(1)(e), F.S., relating to condominium and cooperative associations, respectively.

⁹⁰ Sections 718.112(2)(f) and 719.106(1)(j), F.S., relating to condominium and cooperative associations, respectively.

⁹¹ Sections 718.103(4), 718.111, and 718.112, F.S.

⁹² Section 718.112(2)(d)4., F.S.

⁹³ Sections 617.0809 and 718.112(2)(d)9., F.S.

⁹⁵ Section 718.112(2)(d), F.S.

⁹⁷ Section 718.111(1)(d), F.S.

Chapter 718, F.S., does not define the terms “monetary obligation” or “delinquent.” According to the DBPR, defining the term “delinquent” would assist in the FCTMH’s investigation of cases in which the unit owner alleges they were left off of an election ballot because of a delinquent payment to the association.⁹⁸ The DBPR also maintains that it is the practice of a “controlling board of directors to issue fines to unit owners in an effort to limit the pool of eligible candidates who can compete in an election.”⁹⁹

Condominium Ombudsman

The Office of the Ombudsman within the FCTMH is an attorney appointed by the Governor to be a neutral resource for unit owners and condominium associations. The ombudsman is authorized to prepare and issue reports and recommendations to the Governor, the FCTMH, and the Legislature on any matter or subject within the jurisdiction of the FCTMH. In addition, the ombudsman may make recommendations to the FCTMH for changes in rules and procedures for the filing, investigation, and resolution of complaints.¹⁰⁰

The ombudsman also acts as a liaison among the FCTMH, unit owners, and condominium associations and is responsible for developing policies and procedures to help affected parties understand their rights and responsibilities.¹⁰¹

The ombudsman is required to maintain his or her principal office in Leon County.¹⁰²

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill amends s. 718.112(2)(d)2., F.S., to replace the term “monetary obligation” with the term “assessment.” The bill also provides that a person is delinquent if a payment is not made by the due date identified in the association’s governing documents, which include the declaration, articles of incorporation, and bylaws. If no due date is specifically identified in the governing documents, the due date is the first day of the assessment period.

The bill amends ss. 718.112(2)(f) and 719.106(1)(j), F.S., to require the annual budget for condominium and cooperative associations to be proposed to unit owners and adopted by the board of directors no later than 14 days before the beginning of the fiscal year. Under the bill, the failure by an association’s board to timely adopt the annual budget a second time is a minor violation¹⁰³ and the prior year’s budget shall continue in effect until a new budget is adopted.

¹⁰² Section 718.5014, F.S.

The bill amends s. 718.501, F.S., to authorize the FCTMH to adopt rules regarding the submission of a complaint against a condominium association.

The bill amends s. 718.5014, F.S., to delete the requirement that the condominium ombudsman maintain his or her principal office in Leon County.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

The Division of Professions of the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) estimates that the bill will result in a reduction of application and license renewal fees paid by the private sector of approximately $162,266 in Fiscal Year 2021-2022 and $281,937 in Fiscal Year 2022-2023.¹⁰⁴

B. Private Sector Impact:

The bill has an indeterminate positive fiscal impact for the private sector. Under the bill, construction and electrical contractors would not have to pay the $4 fee to the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) at the time of application or renewal to fund projects relating to the building construction industry or continuing education programs.

The bill may provide an opportunity for small cosmetic manufacturing businesses to generate revenues up to $25,000 in annual gross sales without the cost of a cosmetic manufacturing permit.

Relating to cosmetic manufacturers, the bill may save license expenses needed to continue operation of the business during permitting transfers due to change of ownership, change of controlling interest, or change of location. According to the DBPR, the bill will eliminate the dual permit fee many firms currently pay to continue operating pending approval of the new permit.¹⁰⁵

C. Government Sector Impact:

The DBPR expects the following fiscal impact on revenues:¹⁰⁶

Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco: Tax revenue may be maximized by the required electronic submission of tax reports.

Division of Professions: The bill repeals the $4 fee for Construction Industry Licensing Board (CILB) and the Electrical Contractors' Licensing Board (ECLB) license applications and license renewals. According to the DBPR, based on historical data, the repeal of the fee may result in a revenue reduction of $162,266 in Fiscal Year 2021-2022 and $281,937 in Fiscal Year 2022-2023 deposited into the Professional Regulation Trust Fund for the CILB and ECLB.¹⁰⁷

The $4.00 fee collected in the Professional Regulation Trust fund is also subject to the GR service charge. The elimination of the fee would reduce transfers to GR by $12,981 in Fiscal Year 2021-2022, and $22,555 in Fiscal Year 2022-2023. The total loss of revenue over the two fiscal years would be an estimated $479,739, of which $35,536 would be a reduction in transfers to GR. The net loss to the Professional Regulations Trust Fund would be an estimated $444,203 over the next two fiscal years.

The bill amends s. 489.118, F.S., to delete the November 1, 2015, application deadline for registered contractors to apply for a statewide certified contractors' license without having to take the state licensure examination. According to the DBPR, by allowing registered contractors to be certified without sitting for the certification examination, there may be an indeterminate reduction in local registered license, renewal, and reciprocity fees.¹⁰⁸

 155 into this state for sale, or made, manufactured, or fabricated
 156 in this state for sale in this state, during the preceding 157 month. Every taxpayer outside this state shall file a full and 158 complete report with the division through the division's
 159 electronic data submission system ~~return~~ showing the quantity
 160 and taxable price of each tobacco product shipped or transported
 161 to retailers in this state, to be sold by those retailers,
 162 during the preceding month. Reports must ~~Returns shall~~ be made

 165 Each report must ~~return shall~~ be accompanied by a remittance for 166 the full tax liability shown and be filed with the division
 167 through the division's electronic data submission system.

168 (2) As soon as practicable after any report ~~return~~ is 169 filed, the division shall examine each report ~~return~~ and correct 170 it, if necessary, according to its best judgment and 171 information. If the division finds that any amount of tax is due 172 from the taxpayer and unpaid, it shall notify the taxpayer of 173 the deficiency, stating that it proposes to assess the amount
 174 due together with interest and penalties. If a deficiency

576-04220-21 20211966c2

175 disclosed by the division's examination cannot be allocated to 176 one or more particular months, the division shall notify the 177 taxpayer of the deficiency, stating its intention to assess the 178 amount due for a given period without allocating it to any 179 particular months.

180 (3) If, within 60 days after the mailing of notice of the 181 proposed assessment, the taxpayer files a protest to the 182 proposed assessment and requests a hearing on it, the division
 183 shall give notice to the taxpayer of the time and place fixed 184 for the hearing, shall hold a hearing on the protest, and shall 185 issue a final assessment to the taxpayer for the amount found to 186 be due as a result of the hearing. If a protest is not filed
 187 within 60 days, the division shall issue a final assessment to 188 the taxpayer. In any action or proceeding in respect to the 189 proposed assessment, the taxpayer shall have the burden of 190 establishing the incorrectness or invalidity of any final
 191 assessment made by the division.

192 (4) If any taxpayer required to file any report ~~return~~
 193 fails to do so within the time prescribed, the taxpayer shall,
 194 on the written demand of the division, file the report ~~return~~
 195 within 20 days after mailing of the demand and at the same time

 197 time to file the report ~~return~~, the division shall prepare the 198 report ~~return~~ from its own knowledge and from the information
 199 that it obtains and on that basis shall assess a tax, which 200 shall be paid within 10 days after the division has mailed to 201 the taxpayer a written notice of the amount and a demand for its 202 payment. In any action or proceeding in respect to the 203 assessment, the taxpayer shall have the burden of establishing

204 the incorrectness or invalidity of any report ~~return~~ or 205 assessment made by the division because of the failure of the 206 taxpayer to make a report ~~return~~.

207 (5) All taxes are due not later than the 10th day of the 208 month following the calendar month in which they were incurred,
 209 and thereafter shall bear interest at the annual rate of 12
 210 percent. If the amount of tax due for a given period is assessed
 211 without allocating it to any particular month, the interest
 212 shall begin with the date of the assessment.

213 (6) In issuing its final assessment, the division shall add
 214 to the amount of tax found due and unpaid a penalty of 10
 215 percent, but if it finds that the taxpayer has made a false
 216 report ~~return~~ with intent to evade the tax, the penalty shall be 217 50 percent of the entire tax as shown by the corrected report
 218 ~~return~~. In assessing a tax on the basis of a report ~~return~~ made 219 under subsection (4), the division shall add to the amount of 220 tax found due and unpaid a penalty of 25 percent.

 222 keeping of prescribed records and the proper accounting and 223 remitting of taxes imposed under this part, the distributor
 224 shall be allowed 1 percent of the amount of the tax due and 225 accounted for and remitted to the division in the form of a
 226 deduction in submitting his or her report and paying the amount 227 due; and the division shall allow such deduction of 1 percent of 228 the amount of the tax to the person paying the same for 229 remitting the tax in the manner herein provided, for paying the 230 amount due to be paid by him or her, and as further compensation
 231 to the distributor for the keeping of prescribed records and for 232 collection of taxes and remitting the same.

233 (a) The collection allowance may not be granted, nor may 234 any deduction be permitted, if the tax is delinquent at the time
 235 of payment.

236 (b) The division may reduce the collection allowance by 10
 237 percent or $50, whichever is less, if a taxpayer files an 238 incomplete report ~~return~~.

239 1. An "incomplete report ~~return~~" means is, for purposes of 240 this section ~~part~~, a report ~~return~~ which is lacking such 241 uniformity, completeness, and arrangement that the physical 242 handling, verification, or review of the report ~~return~~ may not

244 2. The division shall adopt rules requiring such 245 information as it may deem necessary to ensure that the tax
 246 levied hereunder is properly collected, reviewed, compiled, and 247 enforced, including, but not limited to: the amount of taxable
 248 sales; the amount of tax collected or due; the amount claimed as 249 the collection allowance; the amount of penalty and interest;

 255 preserved; inspection by agents of division.—Every distributor
 256 shall keep in each licensed place of business complete and

262 consumer. Such records shall show the names and addresses of 263 purchasers and other pertinent papers and documents relating to 264 the purchase, sale, or disposition of tobacco products. When a 265 licensed distributor sells tobacco products exclusively to 266 ultimate consumers at the addresses given in the license, no
 267 invoice of those sales shall be required, but itemized invoices
 268 shall be made of all tobacco products transferred to other
 269 retail outlets owned or controlled by that licensed distributor.
 270 All books, records and other papers, and other documents
 271 required by this section to be kept shall be preserved for a
 272 period of at least 3 years after the date of the documents, as 273 aforesaid, or the date of the entries thereof appearing in the 274 records, unless the division, in writing, authorizes their 275 destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during 276 usual business hours, duly authorized agents or employees of the 277 division may enter any place of business of a distributor and 278 inspect the premises, the records required to be kept under this 279 part, and the tobacco products contained therein to determine
 280 whether all the provisions of this part are being fully complied
 281 with. Refusal to permit such inspection by a duly authorized 282 agent or employee of the division shall be grounds for 283 revocation of the license. Every person who sells tobacco
 284 products to persons other than an ultimate consumer shall render 285 with each sale an itemized invoice showing the seller's name and 286 address, the purchaser's name and address, the date of sale, and 287 all prices and discounts. The seller shall preserve legible
 288 copies of all such invoices for 3 years from the date of sale.
 289 Every retailer shall produce itemized invoices of all tobacco
 290 products purchased. The invoices shall show the name and address

576-04220-21

291 of the seller and the date of purchase. The retailer shall 292 preserve a legible copy of each such invoice for 3 years from 293 the date of purchase. Invoices shall be available for inspection
 294 by authorized agents or employees of the division at the 295 retailer's place of business. Any records required by this 296 section may be kept in an electronic or paper format.

297 Section 4. Subsection (3) of section 489.109, Florida
 298 Statutes, is amended to read:

 304 ~~be transferred at the end of each licensing period to the~~
 305 ~~department to fund projects relating to the building~~
 306 ~~construction industry or continuing education programs offered~~
 307 ~~to persons engaged in the building construction industry in~~ 308 ~~Florida, to be selected by the Florida Building Commission. The~~ 309 ~~board shall, at the time the funds are transferred, advise the~~ 310 ~~department on the most needed areas of research or continuing~~
 311 ~~education based on significant changes in the industry's~~
 312 ~~practices or on changes in the state building code or on the~~ 313 ~~most common types of consumer complaints or on problems costing~~ 314 ~~the state or local governmental entities substantial waste. The~~ 315 ~~board's advice is not binding on the department. The department~~
 316 ~~shall ensure the distribution of research reports and the~~ 317 ~~availability of continuing education programs to all segments of~~ 318 ~~the building construction industry to which they relate. The~~
 319 ~~department shall report to the board in October of each year,~~

409 Section 7. Paragraph (p) of subsection (2) of section
 410 499.01, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

411 499.01 Permits.—

412 (2) The following permits are established:

413 (p) Cosmetic manufacturer permit.—A cosmetic manufacturer
 414 permit is required for any person that manufactures or 415 repackages cosmetics in this state. A person that only labels or 416 changes the labeling of a cosmetic but does not open the 417 container sealed by the manufacturer of the product is exempt
 418 from obtaining a permit under this paragraph. A person who 419 manufactures cosmetics and has annual gross sales of $25,000 or 420 less is exempt from the permit requirements of this paragraph.
 421 Upon request, an exempt cosmetics manufacturer must provide to 422 the department written documentation to verify his or her annual 423 gross sales, including all sales of cosmetic products at any 424 location, regardless of the types of products sold or the number
 425 of persons involved in the operation.

426 1. An exempt cosmetics manufacturer may only:

427 a. Sell prepackaged cosmetics affixed with a label
 428 containing information required by the United States Food and 429 Drug Administration.

430 b. Manufacture and sell cosmetics that are soaps, not 431 otherwise exempt from the definition of cosmetics, lotions,
 432 moisturizers, and creams.

436 of the cosmetic manufacturing operation.

437 2. Each unit of cosmetics manufactured under this paragraph
 438 must contain, in contrasting color and not less than 10-point
 439 type, the following statement: "Made by a manufacturer exempt
 440 from Florida's cosmetic manufacturing permit requirements."

441 3. The department may investigate any complaint which 442 alleges that an exempt cosmetics manufacturer has violated an 443 applicable provision of this chapter or a rule adopted under 444 this chapter. The department's authorized officer or employee
 445 may enter and inspect the premises of an exempt cosmetic
 446 manufacturer to determine compliance with this chapter and 447 department rules, as applicable. A refusal to permit an 448 authorized officer or employee of the department to enter the 449 premises or to conduct an inspection is a violation of s.
 450 499.005(6) and is grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to s.
 451 499.066.

452 4. This paragraph does not exempt any person from any state

 454 county or municipal law or ordinance that applies to cosmetic
 455 manufacturing.

456 Section 8. Paragraph (d) is added to subsection (6) of 457 section 499.012, Florida Statutes, to read:

458 499.012 Permit application requirements.—

459 (6) A permit issued by the department is nontransferable.
 460 Each permit is valid only for the person or governmental unit to

 462 other transfer, voluntarily or involuntarily; nor is a permit
 463 valid for any establishment other than the establishment for 464 which it was originally issued.

465 (d) When an establishment that requires a permit pursuant 466 to this part submits an application to the department for a
 467 change of ownership or controlling interest or a change of 468 location with the required fees under this subsection, the 469 establishment may also submit a request for a temporary permit
 470 granting the establishment authority to operate for no more than 471 90 calendar days. The establishment must submit the request for 472 a temporary permit to the department on a form provided by the 473 department and obtain authorization to operate with the 474 temporary permit before operating under the change of ownership
 475 or operating at the new location. Upon authorization of a 476 temporary permit, the existing permit at the location for which 477 the temporary permit is submitted is immediately null and void.
 478 A temporary permit may not be extended and shall expire and 479 become null and void by operation of law without further action
 480 by the department at 12:01 a.m. on the 91st day after the 481 department authorizes such permit. Upon expiration of the 482 temporary permit, the establishment may not continue to operate 483 under such permit.

 485 The department may revoke the permit of any person that fails to 486 comply with the requirements of this subsection.

487 Section 9. Subsection (8) is added to section 499.066,
 488 Florida Statutes, to read:

489 499.066 Penalties; remedies.—In addition to other penalties
 490 and other enforcement provisions:

491 (8) (a) The department shall adopt rules to authorize the 492 issuance of a remedial, nondisciplinary citation. A citation
 493 shall be issued to the person alleged to have committed a

576-04220-21

494 violation and contain the person's name, address, and license
 495 number, if applicable; a brief factual statement; the sections
 496 of the law allegedly violated; and the monetary assessment and 497 or other remedial measures imposed. The person shall have 30
 498 days after the citation is served to contest the citation by 499 providing supplemental and clarifying information to the 500 department. The citation must clearly state that the person may 501 choose, in lieu of accepting the citation, to have the 502 department rescind the citation and conduct an investigation
 503 pursuant to s. 499.051 of only those alleged violations
 504 contained in the citation. The citation shall be rescinded by 505 the department if the person remedies or corrects the violations
 506 or deficiencies contained in the citation within 30 days after 507 the citation is served. If the person does not successfully 508 contest the citation to the satisfaction of the department, or 509 complete remedial action pursuant to this paragraph, the 510 citation becomes a final order and does not constitute 511 discipline.

512 (b) The department is entitled to recover the costs of 513 investigation, in addition to any penalty provided according to 514 department rule, as part of the penalty levied pursuant to a 515 citation.

516 (c) A citation must be issued within 6 months after the 517 filing of the complaint that is the basis for the citation.

518 (d) Service of a citation may be made by personal service
 519 or certified mail, restricted delivery, to the person at the 520 person's last known address of record with the department, or to 521 the person's Florida registered agent.

522 (e) The department may adopt rules to designate those

576-04220-21

523 violations for which a person is subject to the issuance of a
 524 citation and the monetary assessments or other remedial measures
 525 that must be taken for those violations. Violations designated 526 as subject to issuance of a citation shall include violations
 527 for which there is no substantial threat to the public health,
 528 safety, or welfare. The department has continuous authority to 529 amend its rules adopted pursuant to this section.

530 Section 10. Section 548.003, Florida Statutes, is amended
 531 to read:

532 548.003 Florida Athletic State ~~Boxing~~ Commission.—

533 (1) The Florida Athletic State ~~Boxing~~ Commission is created
 534 and is assigned to the Department of Business and Professional
 535 Regulation for administrative and fiscal accountability purposes
 536 only. The ~~Florida State Boxing~~ commission shall consist of five 537 members appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by 538 the Senate. One member must be a physician licensed under 539 ~~pursuant to~~ chapter 458 or chapter 459, who must maintain an 540 unencumbered license in good standing, and who must, at the time
 541 of her or his appointment, have practiced medicine for at least 542 5 years. Upon the expiration of the term of a commissioner, the 543 Governor shall appoint a successor to serve for a 4-year term. A 544 commissioner whose term has expired shall continue to serve on 545 the commission until such time as a replacement is appointed. If 546 a vacancy on the commission occurs before ~~prior to~~ the 547 expiration of the term, it shall be filled for the unexpired
 548 portion of the term in the same manner as the original
 549 appointment.

 702 positions or interests. A shopping center with five or more
 703 stores, one or more of which has an alcoholic beverage license
 704 and is required under a lease common to all shopping center
 705 tenants to pay no more than 10 percent of the gross proceeds of

 731 561.19, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

732 561.19 License issuance upon approval of division.—

733 (2) (a) When beverage licenses become available by reason of 734 an increase in the population of a county, by reason of a county
 735 permitting the sale of intoxicating beverages when such sale had 736 been prohibited, or by reason of the cancellation or revocation
 737 of a quota beverage license, the division, if there are more
 738 applicants than the number of available licenses, shall provide 739 a method of double random selection by public drawing to 740 determine which applicants shall be considered for issuance of 741 licenses. The double random selection drawing method shall allow 742 each applicant whose application is complete and does not
 743 disclose on its face any matter rendering the applicant
 744 ineligible an equal opportunity of obtaining an available
 745 license. After all applications are filed with the director, the 746 director shall then determine by random selection drawing the 747 order in which each applicant's name shall be matched with a 748 number selected by random drawing, and that number shall 749 determine the order in which the applicant will be considered
 750 for a license. This paragraph does not prohibit a person holding 751 a perfected lien or security interest in a quota alcoholic 752 beverage license, in accordance with s. 561.65, from enforcing
 753 the lien or security interest against the license within 180
 754 days after a final order of revocation or suspension. A revoked

 824 license or denial of the pending license application. A licensee
 825 whose license is revoked or an applicant whose pending

902 b. If the culinary education program provides catering

 906 culinary education program that provides catering services is 907 not required to derive at least 51 percent of its gross revenue
 908 from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages.

909 Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a licensee that 910 provides catering services under this sub-subparagraph shall 911 prominently display its beverage license at any catered event at 912 which the caterer is selling or serving alcoholic beverages.

 922 this subparagraph does not authorize the holder to conduct
 923 activities on the premises to which the other license or 924 licenses apply that would otherwise be prohibited by the terms
 925 of that license or the Beverage Law. Nothing in this 926 subparagraph shall permit the licensee to conduct activities
 927 that are otherwise prohibited by the Beverage Law or local law.
 928 Any culinary education program that holds a license to sell

576-04220-21 20211966c2

929 alcoholic beverages shall comply with the age requirements set
930 forth in ss. 562.11(4), 562.111(2), and 562.13.

931 d. The Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco may 932 adopt rules to administer the license created in this
933 subparagraph, to include rules governing licensure,

951 event the hotel, motel, or motor court is leased, to the lessee
952 of the hotel, motel, or motor court; and the license shall
953 remain in the name of the owner or lessee so long as the license
954 is in existence. Any special license now in existence heretofore 955 issued under this law cannot be renewed except in the name of 956 the owner of the hotel, motel, motor court, or restaurant or, in 957 the event the hotel, motel, motor court, or restaurant is

960 remain in the name of the owner or lessee so long as the license
961 is in existence. Any license issued under this section shall be 962 marked "Special," and nothing herein provided shall limit,
963 restrict, or prevent the issuance of a special license for any 964 restaurant or motel which shall hereafter meet the requirements
965 of the law existing immediately prior to the effective date of 966 this act, if construction of such restaurant has commenced prior 967 to the effective date of this act and is completed within 30
968 days thereafter, or if an application is on file for such 969 special license at the time this act takes effect; and any such 970 licenses issued under this proviso may be annually renewed as 971 now provided by law. Nothing herein prevents an application for 972 transfer of a license to a bona fide purchaser of any hotel,
973 motel, motor court, or restaurant by the purchaser of such 974 facility or the transfer of such license pursuant to law.

975 Section 17. Subsection (4) of section 561.42, Florida
976 Statutes, is amended to read:

977 561.42 Tied house evil; financial aid and assistance to 978 vendor by manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American 979 source of supply, brand owner or registrant, or any broker,
980 sales agent, or sales person thereof, prohibited; procedure for 981 enforcement; exception.—

982 (4) Before the division shall so declare and prohibit such 983 sales to such vendor, ~~it shall~~, within 2 days after receipt of 984 such notice, the division shall give ~~written~~ notice to such 985 vendor by electronic mail of the receipt by the division of such 986 notification of delinquency and such vendor shall be directed to

987 forthwith make payment thereof or, upon failure to do so, to 988 show cause before the division why further sales to such vendor
 989 ~~may shall~~ not be prohibited. Good and sufficient cause to 990 prevent such action by the division may be made by showing
 991 payment, failure of consideration, or any other defense which 992 would be considered sufficient in a common-law action. The 993 vendor shall have 5 days after service receipt of such notice
 994 via electronic mail within which to show such cause, and he or 995 she may demand a hearing thereon, provided he or she does so in 996 writing within said 5 days, such written demand to be delivered
 997 to the division either in person, by electronic mail, or by due
 998 course of mail within such 5 days. If no such demand for hearing
 999 is made, the division shall thereupon declare in writing to such 1000 vendor and to all manufacturers and distributors within the 1001 state that all further sales to such vendor are prohibited until 1002 such time as the division certifies in writing that such vendor
 1003 has fully paid for all liquors previously purchased. In the 1004 event such prohibition of sales and declaration thereof to the 1005 vendor, manufacturers, and distributors is ordered by the 1006 division, the vendor may seek review of such decision by the
 1007 Department of Business and Professional Regulation within 5
 1008 days. In the event application for such review is filed within 1009 such time, such prohibition of sales ~~may shall~~ not be made,
 1010 published, or declared until final disposition of such review by 1011 the department.

1012 Section 18. Subsection (2) of section 561.55, Florida
 1013 Statutes, is amended to read:

1014 561.55 Manufacturers', distributors', brokers', sales
 1015 agents', importers', vendors', and exporters' records and

1016 reports.-
 1017 (2) Each manufacturer, distributor, broker, sales agent,
 1018 and importer shall make a full and complete report by the 10th
 1019 day of each month for the previous calendar month. The report
 1020 ~~must be shall be made out in triplicate, two copies shall be~~
 1021 ~~sent to the division, and the third copy shall be retained for~~ 1022 ~~the manufacturer's, distributor's, broker's, sales agent's, or~~
 1023 ~~importer's record. Reports shall be made on forms prepared and~~ 1024 ~~furnished by the division and filed with the division through~~
 1025 ~~the division's electronic data submission system.~~

1026 Section 19. Section 562.455, Florida Statutes, is amended
 1027 to read:

1028 562.455 Adulterating liquor; penalty.—Whoever adulterates,
 1029 for the purpose of sale, any liquor, used or intended for drink,
 1030 with cocculus indicus, vitriol, ~~grains of paradise~~, opium, alum,
 1031 capsicum, copperas, laurel water, logwood, brazil wood,
 1032 cochineal, sugar of lead, or any other substance which is 1033 poisonous or injurious to health, and whoever knowingly sells
 1034 any liquor so adulterated, commits shall be guilty of a felony
 1035 of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s.
 1036 775.083, or s. 775.084.

1037 Section 20. Paragraphs (d) and (f) of subsection (2) of 1038 section 718.112, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

1039 718.112 Bylaws.—

1040 (2) REQUIRED PROVISIONS.—The bylaws shall provide for the 1041 following and, if they do not do so, shall be deemed to include
 1042 the following:

1043 (d) Unit owner meetings.—

1044 1. An annual meeting of the unit owners must be held at the

Page 36 of 55

CODING: Words ~~stricken~~ are deletions; words underlined are additions.

576-04220-21 20211966c2

1045 location provided in the association bylaws and, if the bylaws
 1046 are silent as to the location, the meeting must be held within 1047 45 miles of the condominium property. However, such distance
 1048 requirement does not apply to an association governing a
 1049 timeshare condominium.

1050 2. Unless the bylaws provide otherwise, a vacancy on the 1051 board caused by the expiration of a director's term must be 1052 filled by electing a new board member, and the election must be 1053 by secret ballot. An election is not required if the number of 1054 vacancies equals or exceeds the number of candidates. For 1055 purposes of this paragraph, the term "candidate" means an 1056 eligible person who has timely submitted the written notice, as 1057 described in sub-subparagraph 4.a., of his or her intention to 1058 become a candidate. Except in a timeshare or nonresidential
 1059 condominium, or if the staggered term of a board member does not 1060 expire until a later annual meeting, or if all members' terms
 1061 would otherwise expire but there are no candidates, the terms of 1062 all board members expire at the annual meeting, and such members
 1063 may stand for reelection unless prohibited by the bylaws. Board 1064 members may serve terms longer than 1 year if permitted by the 1065 bylaws or articles of incorporation. A board member may not 1066 serve more than 8 consecutive years unless approved by an 1067 affirmative vote of unit owners representing two-thirds of all
 1068 votes cast in the election or unless there are not enough
 1069 eligible candidates to fill the vacancies on the board at the 1070 time of the vacancy. If the number of board members whose terms
 1071 expire at the annual meeting equals or exceeds the number of 1072 candidates, the candidates become members of the board effective
 1073 upon the adjournment of the annual meeting. Unless the bylaws

576-04220-21 20211966c2

1074 provide otherwise, any remaining vacancies shall be filled by 1075 the affirmative vote of the majority of the directors making up
 1076 the newly constituted board even if the directors constitute 1077 less than a quorum or there is only one director. In a 1078 residential condominium association of more than 10 units or in 1079 a residential condominium association that does not include
 1080 timeshare units or timeshare interests, co-owners of a unit may 1081 not serve as members of the board of directors at the same time
 1082 unless they own more than one unit or unless there are not 1083 enough eligible candidates to fill the vacancies on the board at 1084 the time of the vacancy. A unit owner in a residential 1085 condominium desiring to be a candidate for board membership must 1086 comply with sub-subparagraph 4.a. and must be eligible to be a 1087 candidate to serve on the board of directors at the time of the 1088 deadline for submitting a notice of intent to run in order to 1089 have his or her name listed as a proper candidate on the ballot
 1090 or to serve on the board. A person who has been suspended or 1091 removed by the division under this chapter, or who is delinquent 1092 in the payment of any ~~assessment monetary obligation~~ due to the 1093 association, is not eligible to be a candidate for board
 1094 membership and may not be listed on the ballot. For purposes of 1095 this paragraph, a person is delinquent if a payment is not made 1096 by the due date as specifically identified in the declaration of 1097 condominium, bylaws, or articles of incorporation. If a due date
 1098 is not specifically identified in the declaration of 1099 condominium, bylaws, or articles of incorporation, the due date
 1100 is the first day of the assessment period. A person who has been 1101 convicted of any felony in this state or in a United States
 1102 District or Territorial Court, or who has been convicted of any

20211966c2

1103 offense in another jurisdiction which would be considered a
 1104 felony if committed in this state, is not eligible for board
 1105 membership unless such felon's civil rights have been restored
 1106 for at least 5 years as of the date such person seeks election
 1107 to the board. The validity of an action by the board is not 1108 affected if it is later determined that a board member is 1109 ineligible for board membership due to having been convicted of 1110 a felony. This subparagraph does not limit the term of a member
 1111 of the board of a nonresidential or timeshare condominium.

1112 3. The bylaws must provide the method of calling meetings
 1113 of unit owners, including annual meetings. Written notice must 1114 include an agenda, must be mailed, hand delivered, or 1115 electronically transmitted to each unit owner at least 14 days
 1116 before the annual meeting, and must be posted in a conspicuous
 1117 place on the condominium property at least 14 continuous days
 1118 before the annual meeting. Upon notice to the unit owners, the 1119 board shall, by duly adopted rule, designate a specific location
 1120 on the condominium property where all notices of unit owner
 1121 meetings must be posted. This requirement does not apply if 1122 there is no condominium property for posting notices. In lieu 1123 of, or in addition to, the physical posting of meeting notices, 1124 the association may, by reasonable rule, adopt a procedure for 1125 conspicuously posting and repeatedly broadcasting the notice and 1126 the agenda on a closed-circuit cable television system serving 1127 the condominium association. However, if broadcast notice is 1128 used in lieu of a notice posted physically on the condominium
 1129 property, the notice and agenda must be broadcast at least four 1130 times every broadcast hour of each day that a posted notice is 1131 otherwise required under this section. If broadcast notice is

576-04220-21

1132 provided, the notice and agenda must be broadcast in a manner
 1133 and for a sufficient continuous length of time so as to allow an 1134 average reader to observe the notice and read and comprehend the 1135 entire content of the notice and the agenda. In addition to any 1136 of the authorized means of providing notice of a meeting of the 1137 board, the association may, by rule, adopt a procedure for 1138 conspicuously posting the meeting notice and the agenda on a
 1139 website serving the condominium association for at least the 1140 minimum period of time for which a notice of a meeting is also 1141 required to be physically posted on the condominium property.
 1142 Any rule adopted shall, in addition to other matters, include a 1143 requirement that the association send an electronic notice in 1144 the same manner as a notice for a meeting of the members, which 1145 must include a hyperlink to the website where the notice is 1146 posted, to unit owners whose e-mail addresses are included in 1147 the association's official records. Unless a unit owner waives
 1148 in writing the right to receive notice of the annual meeting,
 1149 such notice must be hand delivered, mailed, or electronically
 1150 transmitted to each unit owner. Notice for meetings and notice 1151 for all other purposes must be mailed to each unit owner at the 1152 address last furnished to the association by the unit owner, or 1153 hand delivered to each unit owner. However, if a unit is owned 1154 by more than one person, the association must provide notice to 1155 the address that the developer identifies for that purpose and 1156 thereafter as one or more of the owners of the unit advise the 1157 association in writing, or if no address is given or the owners 1158 of the unit do not agree, to the address provided on the deed of 1159 record. An officer of the association, or the manager or other 1160 person providing notice of the association meeting, must provide

576-04220-21

1161 an affidavit or United States Postal Service certificate of 1162 mailing, to be included in the official records of the 1163 association affirming that the notice was mailed or hand
 1164 delivered in accordance with this provision.

1165 4. The members of the board of a residential condominium
 1166 shall be elected by written ballot or voting machine. Proxies
 1167 may not be used in electing the board in general elections or 1168 elections to fill vacancies caused by recall, resignation, or 1169 otherwise, unless otherwise provided in this chapter. This 1170 subparagraph does not apply to an association governing a
 1171 timeshare condominium.

1172 a. At least 60 days before a scheduled election, the 1173 association shall mail, deliver, or electronically transmit, by 1174 separate association mailing or included in another association
 1175 mailing, delivery, or transmission, including regularly
 1176 published newsletters, to each unit owner entitled to a vote, a
 1177 first notice of the date of the election. A unit owner or other 1178 eligible person desiring to be a candidate for the board must 1179 give written notice of his or her intent to be a candidate to 1180 the association at least 40 days before a scheduled election.
 1181 Together with the written notice and agenda as set forth in 1182 subparagraph 3., the association shall mail, deliver, or 1183 electronically transmit a second notice of the election to all
 1184 unit owners entitled to vote, together with a ballot that lists
 1185 all candidates. Upon request of a candidate, an information
 1186 sheet, no larger than 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches, which must be 1187 furnished by the candidate at least 35 days before the election, 1188 must be included with the mailing, delivery, or transmission of 1189 the ballot, with the costs of mailing, delivery, or electronic

576-04220-21

1190 transmission and copying to be borne by the association. The 1191 association is not liable for the contents of the information
 1192 sheets prepared by the candidates. In order to reduce costs, the 1193 association may print or duplicate the information sheets on 1194 both sides of the paper. The division shall by rule establish 1195 voting procedures consistent with this sub-subparagraph, 1196 including rules establishing procedures for giving notice by 1197 electronic transmission and rules providing for the secrecy of 1198 ballots. Elections shall be decided by a plurality of ballots
 1199 cast. There is no quorum requirement; however, at least 20
 1200 percent of the eligible voters must cast a ballot in order to 1201 have a valid election. A unit owner may not authorize any other
 1202 person to vote his or her ballot, and any ballots improperly
 1203 cast are invalid. A unit owner who violates this provision may 1204 be fined by the association in accordance with s. 718.303. A 1205 unit owner who needs assistance in casting the ballot for the 1206 reasons stated in s. 101.051 may obtain such assistance. The 1207 regular election must occur on the date of the annual meeting.
 1208 Notwithstanding this sub-subparagraph, an election is not 1209 required unless more candidates file notices of intent to run or 1210 are nominated than board vacancies exist.

1211 b. Within 90 days after being elected or appointed to the 1212 board of an association of a residential condominium, each newly 1213 elected or appointed director shall certify in writing to the 1214 secretary of the association that he or she has read the 1215 association's declaration of condominium, articles of 1216 incorporation, bylaws, and current written policies; that he or 1217 she will work to uphold such documents and policies to the best
 1218 of his or her ability; and that he or she will faithfully

1219 discharge his or her fiduciary responsibility to the 1220 association's members. In lieu of this written certification,
 1221 within 90 days after being elected or appointed to the board,
 1222 the newly elected or appointed director may submit a certificate
 1223 of having satisfactorily completed the educational curriculum
 1224 administered by a division-approved condominium education
 1225 provider within 1 year before or 90 days after the date of 1226 election or appointment. The written certification or 1227 educational certificate is valid and does not have to be 1228 resubmitted as long as the director serves on the board without 1229 interruption. A director of an association of a residential
 1230 condominium who fails to timely file the written certification
 1231 or educational certificate is suspended from service on the 1232 board until he or she complies with this sub-subparagraph. The 1233 board may temporarily fill the vacancy during the period of 1234 suspension. The secretary shall cause the association to retain 1235 a director's written certification or educational certificate
 1236 for inspection by the members for 5 years after a director's
 1237 election or the duration of the director's uninterrupted tenure,
 1238 whichever is longer. Failure to have such written certification
 1239 or educational certificate on file does not affect the validity
 1240 of any board action.

1241 c. Any challenge to the election process must be commenced
 1242 within 60 days after the election results are announced.

1243 5. Any approval by unit owners called for by this chapter
 1244 or the applicable declaration or bylaws, including, but not 1245 limited to, the approval requirement in s. 718.111(8), must be 1246 made at a duly noticed meeting of unit owners and is subject to 1247 all requirements of this chapter or the applicable condominium

1248 documents relating to unit owner decisionmaking, except that 1249 unit owners may take action by written agreement, without 1250 meetings, on matters for which action by written agreement
 1251 without meetings is expressly allowed by the applicable bylaws
 1252 or declaration or any law that provides for such action.

1253 6. Unit owners may waive notice of specific meetings if 1254 allowed by the applicable bylaws or declaration or any law.
 1255 Notice of meetings of the board of administration, unit owner
 1256 meetings, except unit owner meetings called to recall board
 1257 members under paragraph (j), and committee meetings may be given 1258 by electronic transmission to unit owners who consent to receive 1259 notice by electronic transmission. A unit owner who consents to 1260 receiving notices by electronic transmission is solely 1261 responsible for removing or bypassing filters that block receipt 1262 of mass emails sent to members on behalf of the association in 1263 the course of giving electronic notices.

1264 7. Unit owners have the right to participate in meetings of 1265 unit owners with reference to all designated agenda items.
 1266 However, the association may adopt reasonable rules governing
 1267 the frequency, duration, and manner of unit owner participation.

1268 8. A unit owner may tape record or videotape a meeting of 1269 the unit owners subject to reasonable rules adopted by the 1270 division.

1271 9. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, any vacancy
 1272 occurring on the board before the expiration of a term may be 1273 filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining 1274 directors, even if the remaining directors constitute less than 1275 a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. In the alternative,
 1276 a board may hold an election to fill the vacancy, in which case

1277 the election procedures must conform to sub-subparagraph 4.a.
 1278 unless the association governs 10 units or fewer and has opted
 1279 out of the statutory election process, in which case the bylaws
 1280 of the association control. Unless otherwise provided in the 1281 bylaws, a board member appointed or elected under this section
 1282 shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of the seat being 1283 filled. Filling vacancies created by recall is governed by 1284 paragraph (j) and rules adopted by the division.

1285 10. This chapter does not limit the use of general or 1286 limited proxies, require the use of general or limited proxies, 1287 or require the use of a written ballot or voting machine for any 1288 agenda item or election at any meeting of a timeshare
 1289 condominium association or nonresidential condominium
 1290 association.

 1292 Notwithstanding subparagraph (b)2. and sub-subparagraph 4.a., an 1293 association of 10 or fewer units may, by affirmative vote of a
 1294 majority of the total voting interests, provide for different
 1295 voting and election procedures in its bylaws, which may be by a
 1296 proxy specifically delineating the different voting and election
 1297 procedures. The different voting and election procedures may 1298 provide for elections to be conducted by limited or general
 1299 proxy.

1300 (f) Annual budget.—

1301 1. The proposed annual budget of estimated revenues and 1302 expenses must be detailed and must show the amounts budgeted by 1303 accounts and expense classifications, including, at a minimum,
 1304 any applicable expenses listed in s. 718.504(21). The board 1305 shall adopt the annual budget at least 14 days prior to the

576-04220-21 20211966c2

1306 start of the association's fiscal year. In the event that the 1307 board fails to timely adopt the annual budget a second time, it
 1308 shall be deemed a minor violation and the prior year's budget
 1309 shall continue in effect until a new budget is adopted. A
 1310 multicondominium association shall adopt a separate budget of 1311 common expenses for each condominium the association operates 1312 and shall adopt a separate budget of common expenses for the 1313 association. In addition, if the association maintains limited 1314 common elements with the cost to be shared only by those 1315 entitled to use the limited common elements as provided for in 1316 s. 718.113(1), the budget or a schedule attached to it must show
 1317 the amount budgeted for this maintenance. If, after turnover of 1318 control of the association to the unit owners, any of the 1319 expenses listed in s. 718.504(21) are not applicable, they need 1320 not be listed.

1321 2.a. In addition to annual operating expenses, the budget
 1322 must include reserve accounts for capital expenditures and 1323 deferred maintenance. These accounts must include, but are not
 1324 limited to, roof replacement, building painting, and pavement
 1325 resurfacing, regardless of the amount of deferred maintenance
 1326 expense or replacement cost, and any other item that has a
 1327 deferred maintenance expense or replacement cost that exceeds 1328 $10,000. The amount to be reserved must be computed using a
 1329 formula based upon estimated remaining useful life and estimated
 1330 replacement cost or deferred maintenance expense of each reserve
 1331 item. The association may adjust replacement reserve assessments
 1332 annually to take into account any changes in estimates or 1333 extension of the useful life of a reserve item caused by 1334 deferred maintenance. This subsection does not apply to an

1335 adopted budget in which the members of an association have 1336 determined, by a majority vote at a duly called meeting of the 1337 association, to provide no reserves or less reserves than 1338 required by this subsection.

1339 b. Before turnover of control of an association by a
 1340 developer to unit owners other than a developer pursuant to s.
 1341 718.301, the developer may vote the voting interests allocated 1342 to its units to waive the reserves or reduce the funding of 1343 reserves through the period expiring at the end of the second
 1344 fiscal year after the fiscal year in which the certificate of a 1345 surveyor and mapper is recorded pursuant to s. 718.104(4)(e) or 1346 an instrument that transfers title to a unit in the condominium
 1347 which is not accompanied by a recorded assignment of developer
 1348 rights in favor of the grantee of such unit is recorded,
 1349 whichever occurs first, after which time reserves may be waived
 1350 or reduced only upon the vote of a majority of all nondeveloper
 1351 voting interests voting in person or by limited proxy at a duly
 1352 called meeting of the association. If a meeting of the unit
 1353 owners has been called to determine whether to waive or reduce 1354 the funding of reserves and no such result is achieved or a
 1355 quorum is not attained, the reserves included in the budget
 1356 shall go into effect. After the turnover, the developer may vote
 1357 its voting interest to waive or reduce the funding of reserves.

1358 3. Reserve funds and any interest accruing thereon shall 1359 remain in the reserve account or accounts, and may be used only
 1360 for authorized reserve expenditures unless their use for other 1361 purposes is approved in advance by a majority vote at a duly 1362 called meeting of the association. Before turnover of control of 1363 an association by a developer to unit owners other than the

1364 developer pursuant to s. 718.301, the developer-controlled
 1365 association may not vote to use reserves for purposes other than 1366 those for which they were intended without the approval of a
 1367 majority of all nondeveloper voting interests, voting in person
 1368 or by limited proxy at a duly called meeting of the association.

1369 4. The only voting interests that are eligible to vote on 1370 questions that involve waiving or reducing the funding of 1371 reserves, or using existing reserve funds for purposes other 1372 than purposes for which the reserves were intended, are the 1373 voting interests of the units subject to assessment to fund the 1374 reserves in question. Proxy questions relating to waiving or 1375 reducing the funding of reserves or using existing reserve funds
 1376 for purposes other than purposes for which the reserves were 1377 intended must contain the following statement in capitalized, 1378 bold letters in a font size larger than any other used on the 1379 face of the proxy ballot: WAIVING OF RESERVES, IN WHOLE OR IN 1380 PART, OR ALLOWING ALTERNATIVE USES OF EXISTING RESERVES MAY 1381 RESULT IN UNIT OWNER LIABILITY FOR PAYMENT OF UNANTICIPATED
 1382 SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS REGARDING THOSE ITEMS.

1383 Section 21. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) of section
 1384 718.501, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

1385 718.501 Authority, responsibility, and duties of Division
 1386 of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes.—

1387 (1) The division may enforce and ensure compliance with the 1388 provisions of this chapter and rules relating to the 1389 development, construction, sale, lease, ownership, operation,
 1390 and management of residential condominium units. In performing 1391 its duties, the division has complete jurisdiction to 1392 investigate complaints and enforce compliance with respect to

1393 associations that are still under developer control or the 1394 control of a bulk assignee or bulk buyer pursuant to part VII of 1395 this chapter and complaints against developers, bulk assignees, 1396 or bulk buyers involving improper turnover or failure to 1397 turnover, pursuant to s. 718.301. However, after turnover has 1398 occurred, the division has jurisdiction to investigate
 1399 complaints related only to financial issues, elections, and unit
 1400 owner access to association records pursuant to s. 718.111(12).

(m) If a complaint is made, the division must conduct its 1402 inquiry with due regard for the interests of the affected
 1403 parties. Within 30 days after receipt of a complaint, the 1404 division shall acknowledge the complaint in writing and notify 1405 the complainant whether the complaint is within the jurisdiction
 1406 of the division and whether additional information is needed by 1407 the division from the complainant. The division shall conduct 1408 its investigation and, within 90 days after receipt of the 1409 original complaint or of timely requested additional 1410 information, take action upon the complaint. However, the 1411 failure to complete the investigation within 90 days does not 1412 prevent the division from continuing the investigation,
 1413 accepting or considering evidence obtained or received after 90
 1414 days, or taking administrative action if reasonable cause exists
 1415 to believe that a violation of this chapter or a rule has 1416 occurred. If an investigation is not completed within the time
 1417 limits established in this paragraph, the division shall, on a
 1418 monthly basis, notify the complainant in writing of the status
 1419 of the investigation. When reporting its action to the 1420 complainant, the division shall inform the complainant of any 1421 right to a hearing pursuant to ss. 120.569 and 120.57. The

1422 division may adopt rules regarding the submission of a complaint
 1423 against an association.

1424 Section 22. Section 718.5014, Florida Statutes, is amended
 1425 to read:

1426 718.5014 Ombudsman location.—The ombudsman shall maintain
 1427 his or her principal office at a in Leon County on the premises
 1428 of the division or, if suitable space cannot be provided there, 1429 at another place convenient to the offices of the division which 1430 will enable the ombudsman to expeditiously carry out the duties
 1431 and functions of his or her office. The ombudsman may establish 1432 branch offices elsewhere in the state upon the concurrence of 1433 the Governor.

1434 Section 23. Paragraph (j) of subsection (1) of section
 1435 719.106, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

1436 719.106 Bylaws; cooperative ownership.—

1437 (1) MANDATORY PROVISIONS.—The bylaws or other cooperative
 1438 documents shall provide for the following, and if they do not,
 1439 they shall be deemed to include the following:

1440 (j) Annual budget.—

1441 1. The proposed annual budget of common expenses shall be 1442 detailed and shall show the amounts budgeted by accounts and 1443 expense classifications, including, if applicable, but not 1444 limited to, those expenses listed in s. 719.504(20). The board
 1445 of administration shall adopt the annual budget at least 14 days
 1446 prior to the start of the association's fiscal year. In the 1447 event that the board fails to timely adopt the annual budget a 1448 second time, it shall be deemed a minor violation and the prior 1449 year's budget shall continue in effect until a new budget is 1450 adopted.

1451 2. In addition to annual operating expenses, the budget
 1452 shall include reserve accounts for capital expenditures and 1453 deferred maintenance. These accounts shall include, but not be 1454 limited to, roof replacement, building painting, and pavement
 1455 resurfacing, regardless of the amount of deferred maintenance
 1456 expense or replacement cost, and for any other items for which 1457 the deferred maintenance expense or replacement cost exceeds 1458 $10,000. The amount to be reserved shall be computed by means of 1459 a formula which is based upon estimated remaining useful life
 1460 and estimated replacement cost or deferred maintenance expense
 1461 of each reserve item. The association may adjust replacement
 1462 reserve assessments annually to take into account any changes in 1463 estimates or extension of the useful life of a reserve item
 1464 caused by deferred maintenance. This paragraph shall not apply
 1465 to any budget in which the members of an association have, at a 1466 duly called meeting of the association, determined for a fiscal 1467 year to provide no reserves or reserves less adequate than 1468 required by this subsection. However, prior to turnover of 1469 control of an association by a developer to unit owners other
 1470 than a developer pursuant to s. 719.301, the developer may vote
 1471 to waive the reserves or reduce the funding of reserves for the 1472 first 2 years of the operation of the association after which 1473 time reserves may only be waived or reduced upon the vote of a
 1474 majority of all nondeveloper voting interests voting in person
 1475 or by limited proxy at a duly called meeting of the association.
 1476 If a meeting of the unit owners has been called to determine to 1477 provide no reserves, or reserves less adequate than required, 1478 and such result is not attained or a quorum is not attained, the 1479 reserves as included in the budget shall go into effect.

1480 3. Reserve funds and any interest accruing thereon shall 1481 remain in the reserve account or accounts, and shall be used
 1482 only for authorized reserve expenditures unless their use for 1483 other purposes is approved in advance by a vote of the majority 1484 of the voting interests, voting in person or by limited proxy at 1485 a duly called meeting of the association. Prior to turnover of 1486 control of an association by a developer to unit owners other
 1487 than the developer under s. 719.301, the developer may not vote
 1488 to use reserves for purposes other than that for which they were
 1489 intended without the approval of a majority of all nondeveloper
 1490 voting interests, voting in person or by limited proxy at a duly
 1491 called meeting of the association.

1492 Section 24. Subsection (1) of section 455.219, Florida
 1493 Statutes, is amended to read:

1494 455.219 Fees; receipts; disposition; periodic management
 1495 reports.—

1496 (1) Each board within the department shall determine by 1497 rule the amount of license fees for its profession, based upon
 1498 department-prepared long-range estimates of the revenue required
 1499 to implement all provisions of law relating to the regulation of 1500 professions by the department and any board; however, when the 1501 department has determined, based on the long-range estimates of 1502 such revenue, that a profession's trust fund moneys are in 1503 excess of the amount required to cover the necessary functions
 1504 of the board, or the department when there is no board, the 1505 department may adopt rules to implement a waiver of license
 1506 renewal fees for that profession for a period not to exceed 2
 1507 years, as determined by the department. Each board, or the 1508 department when there is no board, shall ensure license fees are

1509 adequate to cover all anticipated costs and to maintain a 1510 reasonable cash balance, as determined by rule of the 1511 department, with advice of the applicable board. If sufficient 1512 action is not taken by a board within 1 year of notification by 1513 the department that license fees are projected to be inadequate, 1514 the department shall set license fees on behalf of the 1515 applicable board to cover anticipated costs and to maintain the 1516 required cash balance. The department shall include recommended
 1517 fee cap increases in its annual report to the Legislature.
 1518 Further, it is legislative intent that no regulated profession
 1519 operate with a negative cash balance. The department may provide 1520 by rule for the advancement of sufficient funds to any 1521 profession or the Florida Athletic State Boxing Commission
 1522 operating with a negative cash balance. Such advancement may be 1523 for a period not to exceed 2 consecutive years and shall require 1524 interest to be paid by the regulated profession. Interest shall 1525 be calculated at the current rate earned on Professional 1526 Regulation Trust Fund investments. Interest earned shall be
 1527 allocated to the various funds in accordance with the allocation
 1528 of investment earnings during the period of the advance.

1529 Section 25. Subsection (4) of section 548.002, Florida
 1530 Statutes, is amended to read:

1531 548.002 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:

1532 (4) "Commission" means the Florida Athletic State Boxing
 1533 Commission.

1534 Section 26. Subsections (3) and (4) of section 548.05,
 1535 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

 1539 withhold any or all of any manager's share of a purse in the 1540 event of a contractual dispute as to entitlement to any portion 1541 of a purse. The commission may establish rules governing the 1542 manner of resolution of such dispute. In addition, if the 1543 commission deems it appropriate, the commission is hereby 1544 authorized to implead interested parties over any disputed funds
 1545 into the appropriate circuit court for resolution of the dispute
 1546 before ~~prior to~~ release of all or any part of the funds.

1547 (4) Each contract subject to this section shall contain the 1548 following clause: "This agreement is subject to the provisions
 1549 of chapter 548, Florida Statutes, and to the rules of the 1550 Florida Athletic State Boxing Commission and to any future
 1551 amendments of either."

1552 Section 27. Subsection (12) of section 548.071, Florida
 1553 Statutes, is amended to read:

1554 548.071 Suspension or revocation of license or permit by 1558 commission or similar agency or body of any jurisdiction.

1559 Section 28. Section 548.077, Florida Statutes, is amended
 1560 to read:

1561 548.077 Florida Athletic State Boxing Commission;
 1562 collection and disposition of moneys.—All fees, fines,
 1563 forfeitures, and other moneys collected under the provisions of 1564 this chapter shall be paid by the commission to the Chief
 1565 Financial Officer who, after the expenses of the commission are 1566 paid, shall deposit them in the Professional Regulation Trust

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 2004 requires the Office of Broadband (Office) within the Department of Economic Opportunity to address additional areas in its strategic plan. Specifically, the Office must develop short-term and long-term goals and strategies to increase the availability of and access to broadband Internet service in Florida; incorporate federal broadband activities that may improve Florida's broadband Internet service; and identify available federal funding for the expansion or improvement of broadband Internet service. The bill requires the Office to complete and submit its strategic plan by June 30, 2022.

Additionally, the bill requires the Office to provide technical and planning assistance to Florida's rural communities' broadband Internet infrastructure projects.

The bill provides an appropriation of $1.4 million in nonrecurring funds for Fiscal Year 2021-2022.

II. Present Situation:

Broadband Internet Deployment

Fixed and mobile broadband Internet services provide access to numerous employment, education, entertainment, and health care opportunities.¹ Access to a sufficient internet connection has only grown more important during the COVID-19 pandemic, which requires many Americans to connect to their family and friends, schooling, work, and even medical appointments over the internet.²

While Florida's urban areas are served at a fixed broadband coverage rate of 98 percent, its rural areas are served at a rate of 78.6 percent.³ This disparity is caused primarily by high per-unit construction costs required to build broadband infrastructure across larger swaths of rural geographic areas.⁴ Communities that lack broadband access can have difficulty attracting new capital investment.⁵ Additionally, data indicates that low-income households disproportionately lack access to broadband Internet service, which puts children in those households at risk of falling behind.⁶

Broadband internet is a high speed internet that is faster than dial-up access and is always on; in 2015, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) defined broadband as 25/3 megabits per second (Mbps), i.e., 25 Mbps (download rate) and 3 Mbps (upload rate).⁷ Consumers can receive Broadband internet through several different technologies, including a digital subscriber line (DSL), a cable modem, fiber, wireless, satellite, and broadband over power lines.⁸

Other State Action

All 50 states have created either a task force, commission, or authority to coordinate broadband expansion.⁹ One organization has studied the work of several state broadband offices authorities and determined that effective practices include stakeholder outreach and engagement at both the state and local levels; thorough development of a policy framework with well-defined goals; adoption of a state broadband plan; and helping communities identify their broadband goals and needs to better connect them with satisfactory resources.¹⁰

Florida's Office of Broadband

In 2020 the Legislature created the Florida Office of Broadband (Office) within the Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO).¹¹ The Office is tasked with developing, marketing, and promoting broadband Internet service in the state.

Specifically, the Office must:

- Create a strategic plan for increasing the use of broadband Internet service in Florida which must include a process to review and verify public input regarding transmission speeds and availability of broadband Internet service throughout the state;
- Build local technology planning teams representing, among others, libraries, schools, colleges and universities, local health care providers, private businesses, community organizations, economic development organizations, local governments, tourism, parks and recreation, and agriculture;
- Encourage the use of broadband Internet service, especially in rural, unserved, and underserved¹² areas of the state through grant programs; and
- Monitor, participate in, and provide input in proceedings of the FCC and other federal agencies related to the geographic availability and deployment of broadband Internet service as necessary to ensure that Florida's rural, unserved, and underserved areas are best positioned to benefit from federal and state broadband deployment programs.¹³

The DEO may apply for and accept federal grant funds, enter into necessary or useful contracts, and establish any committee or workgroup to further the above goals.¹⁴

Federal Broadband Initiatives

FCC Digital Opportunity Data Collection Program

The FCC collects and monitors data on broadband deployment in order to identify underserved and unserved localities in the United States.¹⁵ In August 2019, the FCC adopted the Digital Opportunity Data Collection Program, which modernized the collection of broadband deployment data by creating granular coverage maps, as opposed to census tract maps, and by implementing a process to accept public data to confirm the maps' accuracy.¹⁶ In March 2020, Congress ratified the FCC's Data Collection Program with passage of the Broadband Data Act, which requires the FCC to establish a semiannual collection of geographically granular broadband coverage data to use to create coverage maps.¹⁷ Congress allocated $65 million to the FCC to achieve this mapping project in December 2020.¹⁸

To create these geographic service maps, the FCC collects information from service providers according to specific reporting standards. The service providers must report their service coverage areas, including where their services were available to residences or businesses, and the speed and latency at which their services are delivered.¹⁹ The FCC also set up a website to allow for public input regarding consumers' experiences with broadband.²⁰ The FCC anticipates completing initial, targeted mapping by July 2021.²¹

FCC's Rural Digital Opportunity Fund

In January 2020, the FCC established the Rural Digital Opportunity Fund to fund the deployment of broadband networks in rural America over the next decade. The first phase of the fund began in 2020 and made available up to $16 billion to target census blocks that are wholly unserved by fixed broadband speeds of at least 25 Mbps downstream and 3 Mbps upstream (25/3 Mbps).²² Florida entities received over $190 million (to be distributed over the next 10 years) in this first round of funding.²³

Phase II of the Fund will target underserved localities, as identified by the FCC's Digital Opportunity Data Collection Program.²⁴ Using this more precise data, the second phase of FCC grants will make available at least $4.4 billion to target geographic areas where some locations lack access to 25/3 Mbps broadband.²⁵

FCC's Emergency Broadband Benefit Program

Congress appropriated $3.2 billion in December 2020 to expand broadband access via subsidies for broadband service to students, families, and unemployed workers.²⁶ Eligible households can receive a discount of up to $50 per month off their broadband service bill for service and associated equipment. A household is eligible to receive a subsidy if any member of the

U.S. Department of Agriculture Programs

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has several rural utilities programs to provide a variety of loans and grants to build and expand broadband networks.²⁹ The ReConnect Program offers federal loans, grants, and loan/grant combinations to facilitate broadband deployment to rural areas without access to sufficient broadband service. Eligible entities include cooperatives and nonprofits, for-profit companies, and state and local governments and their agencies and political subdivisions. Applicants for a grant or a loan/grant combination under the ReConnect Program must submit a scoring sheet by which USDA may analyze nine separate evaluation criteria to score the application. One of the evaluation criteria is whether the proposed project is in a state with a broadband plan that has been updated within the previous 5 years.³⁰

Miscellaneous Federal Broadband Initiatives

Federal assets to assist with the expansion and promotion of broadband comes from a variety of sources, for example:³¹

- The FCC's E-Rate Universal Service Fund subsidizes telephone service (including broadband Internet access) to low-income households, high-cost areas, rural healthcare providers, and eligible schools and libraries;³²
- The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development³³ and Department of Education³⁴ offer block grants that can support broadband infrastructure;
- The Department of the Interior launched a mapping tool to allow service providers to locate federal property available for infrastructure development;³⁵ and 182 deployed service to an unserved area.

183 (5) An eligible applicant shall submit a grant application

547780

184 to the office on a form prescribed by the office. A grant
185 application must include the following information:

188 Internet service infrastructure that is proposed.

189 (c) Evidence demonstrating the unserved nature of the 190 project area.

191 (d) The number of households and businesses that would have
192 access to broadband Internet service as a result of the grant.

193 (e) A list of significant community institutions that would 194 benefit from the grant.

195 (f) The total cost of the project and the timeframe in 196 which it would be completed.

197 (g) A list identifying sources of funding or in-kind
198 contributions that would supplement any awarded grant.

199 (h) Any other information required by the office.

200 (6) (a) At least 30 days before the first day grant
201 applications may be submitted each fiscal year, the office shall 202 publish on its website the specific criteria and quantitative
203 scoring system it will use to evaluate or rank grant
204 applications. Such criteria and quantitative scoring system must 205 include the criteria set forth in subsection (8).

206 (7) (a) Within 3 business days after the close of the grant
207 application process, the office shall publish on its website,
208 from each grant application submitted, the proposed unserved
209 areas to be served and the proposed broadband Internet speeds of 210 the areas to be served.

211 (b) A broadband Internet service provider that provides
212 existing service in or adjacent to a proposed project area or a

547780

213 broadband Internet service provider that has been designated to 214 receive a federal broadband award in this state may submit to 215 the office, within 45 days after publication of the information
216 under paragraph (a), a written challenge to an application. The 217 challenge must contain information demonstrating that:

218 1. The provider currently has deployed broadband Internet
219 service to retail customers within the project area;

220 2. The provider has begun construction to provide broadband
221 Internet service to retail customers within the proposed project
222 area within the timeframe proposed by the applicant;

223 3. The provider commits to providing broadband Internet
224 service to retail customers within the proposed project area
225 within the timeframe proposed by the applicant; or

229 networks within the proposed project area.

230 (c) Within 3 business days after the submission of a 231 written challenge, the office shall notify the applicant, in 232 writing, of the challenge.

233 (d) The office shall evaluate each challenge submitted
234 under this subsection. If the office determines that the 235 provider currently has deployed, has begun construction to 236 provide, or commits to provide broadband Internet service in the 237 proposed project area, the office may not fund the challenged
238 project.

239 (e) If the office denies funding to an applicant as a
240 result of a broadband Internet service provider's challenge and 241 the provider does not fulfill its commitment to provide

547780

242 broadband Internet service in the unserved area, the office may 243 not consider another challenge from the provider for the next
244 two grant application cycles, unless the office determines that 245 the failure to fulfill the commitment was due to circumstances
246 beyond the provider's control.

247 (8) (a) Notwithstanding s. 288.9961(2) (d), in evaluating 248 grant applications and awarding grants, the office must give 249 priority to applications that:

250 1. Offer broadband Internet service to important community

260 least 100 megabits per second download and 10 megabits per 261 second upload;

262 5. Include a component to actively promote the adoption of 263 the newly available broadband Internet service in the community;

264 6. Provide evidence of strong support for the project from 265 residents, government, businesses, and institutions in the 266 community;

267 7. Provide access to broadband Internet service to the 268 greatest number of unserved households and businesses;

269 8. Leverage greater amounts of funding for a project from 270 private sources; or

547780

271 9. Demonstrate consistency with the strategic plan adopted
272 under s. 288.9961.

273 (b) The office must endeavor to award grants to qualified
274 applications serving all regions of this state.

275 (9) (a) The office may not award any grant to an otherwise
276 eligible grant applicant to provide broadband Internet service
277 in a project area for which any other federal funding has been 278 awarded for a broadband project.

279 (b) A grant awarded under this section may not be used to 280 serve any retail end user that already has access to broadband
281 Internet service.

282 (c) A grant awarded under this section, when combined with 283 any state or local funds, may not fund more than 50 percent of 284 the total cost of a project.

285 (d) A single project may not be awarded a grant in excess
286 of $5 million.

287 (10) For each grant awarded, the office shall enter into an 288 agreement with the applicant. The agreement must specify the 289 total amount of the grant, performance conditions that must be 290 met to obtain the grant, the schedule of payment, and sanctions
291 that would apply for failure to meet performance conditions,
292 including, but not limited to, requiring the return of grant
293 funds.

294 (11) By October 15, 2022, and each year thereafter, the 295 office shall publish on its website and include in the 296 department's annual report required under s. 20.60 all of the 297 following information:

298 (a) A list of all grant applications received during the 299 previous fiscal year and for each application:

547780

300 1. The results of any quantitative weighting or scoring
301 system the office used to award grants or rank the applications.

302 2. The grant amounts requested.

303 3. The grant amounts awarded, if any.

304 4. A report on the progress of each grant recipient in 305 acquiring and installing infrastructure that supports the 306 provision of broadband Internet service in the project areas for 307 which that grant was awarded and in securing adoption of such 308 service in each project area.

309 (b) All written challenges filed during the previous fiscal 310 year and the results of those challenges.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 2010 provides safeguards against foreign influence through establishing processes that govern screening and disclosure of foreign gifts, contracts, employment, travel, and research arrangements, as well as cultural agreements, with countries of concern. Specifically, the bill:

- Requires specified entities that apply for or receive any gift or grant with a value of $50,000 or more from any foreign source to disclose such gift or grant to the appropriate agency, along with additional specified information.
- Requires the Department of Financial Services (DFS) to manage a website to publish required disclosures and maintain an active and current list of ineligible entities on the website, and requires DFS to investigate an allegation of a disclosure violation.
- Requires the Department of Management Services to, at least once every five years, screen specified vendors participating in the online procurement system.
- Subjects an institution of higher education that knowingly, willfully, or negligently fails to disclose to a civil penalty of 105 percent of the amount of the undisclosed gift.
- Provides protections for a whistle-blower who reports an undisclosed foreign gift to the appropriate inspector general, Attorney General, or Chief Financial Officer.
- Requires each state university or specified entity that receives state appropriations or state tax revenue and has a research budget of $10 million or more to screen applicants for research or research-related support positions who are citizens of a foreign country and who are not permanent residents of the United States, or who are citizens or permanent residents of the United States who have any affiliation with an institution or program, or at least one year of prior employment or training, in a specified foreign country of concern.

- Requires the state university or entity to maintain records of applications, expenses, and payments or honoraria related to approved international travel. Such records must be retained for at least three years.
- Prohibits specified participation in cultural agreements with or acceptance of any grant from a foreign country of concern, or any entity controlled by such a country, for specified activities and requires sharing, prior to the execution of any cultural exchange agreement with a foreign country of concern, the substance of such agreement with appropriate federal agencies.

The bill has an indeterminate fiscal impact. See Section V.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

II. Present Situation:

In March 2021, Governor Ron DeSantis and members of the Florida House and Senate highlighted proposed legislation to combat foreign influence, in response to the Communist Party of China's deliberate attempts to economically infiltrate the United States. Among the purposes of the proposed legislation were to place strategic safeguards against foreign influence through strengthening institutional vetting and applying protections for Florida's institutions of higher education, public entities, and recipients of public grants or contracts.¹

Legislative Background – Select Committee on Integrity of Research Institutions

In 2020, the Florida House of Representatives Select Committee on the Integrity of Research Institutions (Select Committee) undertook an extensive review of Florida's university-based research programs. This investigation arose out of revelations that the CEO of H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center and Research Institute and three other officers or research scientists had failed to disclose support from relationships with Chinese talent and research programs. Following that disclosure, the University of Florida (UF) disclosed to the Select Committee that three of its research staff were under similar investigations. The Select Committee learned of additional investigations, some of which remain confidential due to active law enforcement investigations.

The Select Committee learned that Florida-based research institutions had a combined annual budget of $2.7 billion with Florida's public universities accounting for $2.3 billion of that research spending. Eight of Florida's State University System universities had research budgets of $10 million or more. Four private institutions had budgets exceeding $10 million. Research grants from public sources fund the vast majority of this research and universities receive generous shares of research grants for administration. Consequently, research activity generates significant profits for many institutions.²

The open and collaborative research environment in the free world depends on the honesty and integrity of individual scientists, technicians, and administrators. The Select Committee in 2020 learned that federal officials were investigating about 200 cases across the U.S. involving federal grant recipients of research funds who had failed to disclose professional, academic, and business relationships in violation of various grant requirements. The Select Committee also ascertained that Florida state research grants often lacked similar requirements deemed reasonably necessary to ensure research integrity.³

In 2020, Florida law⁴ required that any person engaged in the design, conduct, or reporting of research and employed by a state university or specified entity engaging in research, is required by the policies of such university or entity to disclose and receive a determination that the outside activity⁵ or financial interest⁶ does not affect the integrity of the state university or entity. An employee who does not disclose any outside activity or financial interest as required must be suspended without pay pending the outcome of an investigation, which must not exceed 60 days. Additionally, upon conclusion of the investigation, the university or entity may terminate the contract of the employee.⁷

The Select Committee also learned that a U.S. visa to study or teach in the U.S. does not adequately screen foreign scientists' and students' security risk or trustworthiness. As with many employment or enrollment decisions, verifying representations made by an applicant regarding experience and credentials is a significant tool to protect an institution's integrity.⁸

In addition, the Select Committee learned that many undisclosed activities relate to foreign travel of U.S.-based faculty. International travel by faculty and graduate students creates opportunities for recruitment to engage in unethical conduct and for misappropriation of property and theft of university research. If an institution does not scrutinize and monitor foreign travel, it can expect compromising activities to take place.⁹

As part of its investigation, the Select Committee reviewed studies indicating that sister cities programs, academic language and culture centers, foreign funding of domestic institutions and foreign-influenced employment of domestic scientists and engineers are all means to influence domestic policy, advance hostile foreign interests, and limit academic freedom. Such activities project foreign interests into domestic affairs.¹⁰

Federal Law and Recommended Practices

Threats to the U.S. Research Enterprise

Although state law currently imposes few limitations on relationships between foreign governments and state agencies, political subdivisions, or public contractors, federal law imposes many layers of scrutiny on certain dealings with foreigners, mostly related to science and technology having military implications, sales of arms and certain financial transactions related to terrorism, human trafficking, international drug dealing and other important national interests. Various agencies publish many lists related to various sanctions, restrictions and scrutiny imposed by federal law. In addition, many programs scrutinize transactions involving America's biggest global competitors, China and Russia. On January 19, 2021, the U.S. Department of Commerce published an interim final rule entitled: "Securing the Information and Communications Technology and Services Supply Chain." That interim rule¹¹ defined "foreign adversaries" to include Russia, China, the Nicolás Maduro government of Venezuela, Cuba, Iran, and North Korea. Along with Syria, a state sponsor of terrorism, these reflect the foreign governments most hostile to U.S. interests.¹²

As of March 2018, more than 1.4 million international students and professors were participating in America's open and collaborative academic environment. The inclusion of these international scholars at U.S. colleges and universities entails both substantial benefit—and notable risk. Some foreign actors, particularly foreign state adversaries, seek to illicitly or illegitimately acquire U.S. academic research and information to advance their scientific, economic, and military development goals. Through their exploitative efforts, they reduce U.S. competitiveness and deprive victimized parties of revenue and credit for their work.¹³

The Chinese government's strategic goals include becoming a comprehensive national power, creating innovation-driven economic growth, and modernizing its military. It aspires to equal or surpass the U.S. as a global superpower and influence the world with a value system shaped by undemocratic, totalitarian ideals. The Chinese government has historically sponsored economic espionage, and China is the world's principal infringer of intellectual property. The annual cost to the U.S. economy of counterfeit goods, pirated software, and theft of trade secrets is between $225 billion and $600 billion.¹⁴

A 2019 U.S. Senate report found that China prioritizes a strategy of military-civilian fusion that seeks to pool talent and financial resources to jointly develop technologies, conduct research, and attract talent that mutually reinforces both the military and civilian sectors. As of 2017, China has reportedly recruited 7,000 researchers and scientists, with U.S.-based researchers and scientists targeted specifically if they focus on or have access to cutting-edge research and technology. In response to U.S. government scrutiny, China has attempted to delete online references to its talent recruitment plans and reportedly instructed Chinese institutions on how to avoid additional U.S. scrutiny. Employment contracts used by China's most prominent talent recruitment plan, the Thousand Talents Plan, contain provisions that violate U.S. research values, including non-disclosure provision related to their research and employment with Chinese institutions. In some cases, members of China's Thousand Talents Plan received both U.S. grants and Chinese grants for similar research, established "shadow labs" in China to conduct parallel research being conducted in the U.S., and stole intellectual capital and property.¹⁵

In response to these findings, recommendations from the U.S. Senate report include all of the following:

- Federal agencies should declassify and disseminate more information on foreign talent recruitment plans.
- U.S. grant-making agencies should harmonize the grant proposal process and standardize reporting requirements for disclosing all foreign conflicts of interest, conflicts of commitment, and all outside and foreign support.
- U.S. research institutions should establish best practices in monitoring scientific and research collaboration with foreign nationals.¹⁶

Presidential Memorandum on National Security

On January 14, 2021, President Donald Trump signed National Security Presidential Memorandum 33 (the Memorandum) to direct a national response to safeguard the security and integrity of federally funded research and development in the United States. Among other directives, the Memorandum:

- Prohibited federal personnel from participating in foreign government-sponsored talent recruitment programs.
- Directed specified entities to ensure that vetting processes for foreign students and researchers reflect the changing nature of the risks to the U.S. research enterprise.
- Directed departments and agencies to standardize disclosure processes, definitions, and forms related to research security across funding agencies to the maximum extent practicable.¹⁷

Strengthening the Security and Integrity of America's Research Enterprise

Also in January 2021, the National Science and Technology Council released recommended practices for strengthening the security of America's research in science and technology. Recommended practices include:¹⁸

- Establishing and operating a comprehensive research security program.¹⁹
- Requiring disclosure to the organization of all information necessary to identify and assess potential conflicts of interest and commitment, including filing of relevant disclosures.
- Ensuring compliance with requirements for reporting foreign gifts and contracts.
- Establishing and operate a risk-based security process for foreign travel review and guidance.

Disclosure and Screening of Foreign Gifts and Contracts

Federal law restricts the receipt and disposition of foreign gifts. Any federal employee, member of the Armed Forces and their spouses may not request or accept a gift from any unit or agent of a foreign government. The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any employee who knowingly solicits or accepts an unauthorized gift from a foreign government or who fails to deposit or report such gift. The court may assess a penalty against such employee in any amount not to exceed the retail value of the gift improperly solicited or received plus $5,000.²⁰

The most critical list of foreign nations identifies “state sponsors of terrorism” as Cuba, North Korea, Iran, and Syria.²¹ Further, foreign adversaries to the United States have been defined to include Russia, China, the Nicolás Maduro government of Venezuela, Cuba, Iran, and North Korea.²²

Reporting, Inspection, and Penalties for Foreign Gifts

Current Disclosure Requirements – Institutions of Higher Education

Divisions of sponsored research at state universities must disclose the amount and source of research funding, even when the research itself involves records that are confidential and exempt from public inspection. However, university and Florida College System institutions direct support organizations (DSOs) enjoy a broad confidentiality exemption for records related to donors who wish to be anonymous and expenditures of donated funds other than travel expenditures.²³

The Higher Education Act of 1965 requires education institutions to report foreign gifts and grants valued at $250,000 or more. Between 2018 and 2021, the U.S. Department of Education

¹⁹ According to the recommendation, research security programs should include, at a minimum, elements of cyber security, foreign travel security, insider threat awareness and education, and export control training. Depending on the organization’s individual risk profile and resources, cyber security elements can include robust access and device registration protocols, hardware encryption, and incorporating use of commercial threat management and commercial compliance solutions into internal due diligence programs. Economies of scale often can be realized by coordinating with other organizations to leverage physical and intellectual assets and avoid unnecessary duplication.

carefully scrutinized the reporting program and discovered billions of dollars of unreported foreign gifts from many of the best-funded institutions. At the same time, it became evident that the federal mandate does not extend to foreign donations to foundations and other non-profit entities controlled by, or formed or operated for the exclusive benefit of, the reporting institutions.²⁴

From 1984 to 1994, Florida law required universities and community colleges to report foreign receipts valued $100,000 or more to the Commissioner of Education and legislative leaders.²⁵ As with the federal law, the statute did not extend to university foundations and DSOs, and the requirement appears to have generated few such reports.²⁶

The Whistle-blower's Act

Florida law prevents agencies²⁷ or independent contractors from taking retaliatory action against an employee who reports to an appropriate agency violations of law on the part of a public employer or independent contractor that create a substantial and specific danger to the public's health, safety, or welfare. The information disclosed must be disclosed to any agency or federal government entity having the authority to investigate, police, manage, or otherwise remedy the violation or act.²⁸ The name or identity of any individual who discloses in good faith to the appropriate official information that alleges that an employee or agent has violated or is suspected of having violated any law, rule, or regulation, thereby creating and presenting a substantial and specific danger to the public's health, safety, or welfare, may not be disclosed to anyone other than a member of the Chief Inspector General's, agency inspector general's, internal auditor's, local chief executive officer's, or other appropriate local official's staff without the written consent of the individual, except as specified in law.²⁹

Applicant Screening and Research Integrity of Foreign Researchers

At present, state law imposes no responsibility on research institutions to screen foreign applicants. Universities conduct background screening on faculty hires in general, not only on foreign researchers.³⁰

Approval Processes for International Travel

UF has implemented an active registration and screening program for international travel, including specific prohibitions and limitations on activities with Iran and Cuba. The program provides faculty and travelers clear guidance on legal and ethical restrictions. It also ensures protection of UF property including intellectual property.³¹ Other institutions may also have international travel screening and monitoring in place.

State Law and Regulations

Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees

The Florida constitution requires a code of ethics for all state employees and non-judicial officers prohibiting conflict between public duty and private interests.³² The Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees (the Code) is outlined in Florida law,³³ and includes standards of conduct for public officers, employees of agencies, and local government attorneys;³⁴ full and public disclosure of financial interests;³⁵ and investigative procedures in response to prohibited personnel actions.³⁶

Ethics laws generally consist of two types of provisions, either prohibiting certain actions or conduct or requiring that certain disclosures be made to the public. Prohibited actions or conduct include solicitation and acceptance of gifts, unauthorized compensation, misuse or abuse of public position, disclosure or use of specified information, and solicitation or acceptance of honoraria. Prohibited employment and business relationships include doing business with one's agency, and conflicting contractual relationship, among others. Public officers and employees are required to publicly disclose their financial interests to prevent conflicts of interests.³⁷

International Cultural Agreements

Florida law provides for coordination of certain international relationships, including those between sister states and sister cities. Florida's economic development programs emphasize commerce with foreign jurisdictions.³⁸ However, such agreements may impose the public policy of foreign competitors upon local U.S. governments; it has been reported that China requires sister city agreements to enforce its "One China" policy.³⁹ According to the Tampa Bay Protocol and Trade Council, there are a number of sister city agreements with jurisdictions in nations described above as “foreign adversaries”: eleven with political subdivisions of China, six with Russian jurisdictions and three with Venezuelan cities.⁴⁰

In the past decade, the University of North Florida, the University of West Florida, the University of South Florida, and Miami-Dade College each were home to a Confucius Institute under a program of the Communist Party of China promoting Chinese language and culture, funded by significant Chinese grants. By 2014, there were at least 90 Confucius Institutes in the U.S. and more than 400 worldwide.⁴¹ By September 2019, each of the four above-named Florida institutions had closed its Confucius Institute following significant criticism by U.S. Senator Marco Rubio and others. A U.S. Senate Subcommittee found that the limitations on Confucius Institutes “export China’s censorship of political debate to the United States and prevent the academic community from discussing topics” sensitive to the Communist Party of China,⁴² and some Confucius Institute agreements apply law of the Communist Party of China to activities on U.S. campuses.⁴³

Linkage Institutes

Beginning in 1987, Florida law established linkage institutions between Florida postsecondary institutions and foreign countries to assist in the development of stronger economic, cultural, educational, and social ties between this state and strategic foreign countries, through the promotion of the following specified activities between the postsecondary institutions in this state and those of selected foreign countries:⁴⁴

- Expanded public and private dialogue on cooperative research and technical assistance activities;
- Increased bilateral commerce;
- Student and faculty exchange;
- Cultural exchange; and
- The enhancement of language training skills.⁴⁵

A Florida-China Institute is currently authorized by law for three postsecondary institutions in Florida,⁴⁶ and ten other institutes are established by law.⁴⁷

As of March 4, 2021, the U.S. Senate passed a bill restricting federal departmental funding from institutions of higher education or other postsecondary educational institutions that maintain any contract or agreement with a Confucius Institute, unless such agreement includes clear provisions that protect academic freedom, prohibit the application of any foreign law on any campus of such institution, and grant full managerial authority, including full control over what is being taught, to such institution.⁴⁸

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill provides safeguards against foreign influence through establishing processes that govern screening and disclosure of foreign gifts, contracts, employment, travel, and research arrangements, as well as cultural agreements, with countries of concern.

Disclosure and Screening of Foreign Gifts and Contracts

The bill creates s. 286.101, F.S., to require any state agency or political subdivision⁴⁹ that receives directly or indirectly any gift or grant with a value of $50,000 or more from any foreign source to disclose such gift or grant to the Department of Financial Services (DFS) within 30 days after its receipt.⁵⁰ Such disclosure must include the date of the gift or grant, the amount of the gift or grant, and the name and country of residence or domicile of the foreign source.

The bill requires any entity that applies to a state agency or political subdivision for a grant or proposes a contract⁵¹ of $100,000 or more to disclose to the state agency or political subdivision any current, or for the past five years, any prior interest of, any contract with, or any grant or gift received from a foreign country of concern⁵² of $50,000 or more. The bill also specifies requirements for updates to the disclosure during the gift, grant, or contract. Such disclosure must include the name and mailing address of the disclosing entity, the amount of the contract, grant or gift or the value of the interest disclosed, the applicable foreign country of concern and, if applicable, the date of termination of the contract or interest, the date of receipt of the grant or gift, and the name of the agent or controlled entity that is the source or interest holder. Within one year before applying for any grant or proposing any contract, such entity must provide a copy of such disclosure to DFS.⁵³

⁴⁹ The bill defines “political subdivision” as having the same meaning as s. 1.01(8), F.S., to include counties, cities, towns, village, special tax school districts, special road and bridge districts, bridge districts, and all other districts in this state, including any entity under the control of or established for the benefit of a political subdivision.

⁵⁰ Disclosure is not required if such gift or grant is disclosed under s. 1010.25, F.S., established in the bill.

⁵² “Foreign country of concern” is defined in the bill to mean the People’s Republic of China, the Russian Federation, the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, the Republic of Cuba, the Venezuelan regime of Nicolas Maduro, or the Syrian Arab Republic, including any agency of or any other entity under significant control of such foreign country of concern.

⁵³ It is unclear if the language requires such disclosure a year before an application, or if the bill requires only that a disclosure not be more than a year old. Additionally, the BOG identified the need for clarification in language requiring entities to disclose specified items to DFS “within 1 year before applying for any grant or proposing any contract,” since universities

Disclosure is not required with respect to:

- A proposal to sell commodities through the online procurement program;
- A proposal to sell commodities to a university pursuant to Board of Governors (BOG) Regulation 18.001;
- An application or proposal from an entity that discloses foreign gifts or grants under provisions for institutions of higher education and affiliated organizations;
- An application or proposal from a foreign source that, if granted or accepted, would be disclosed under provisions for institutions of higher education and affiliated organizations; or
- An application or proposal from a public or not-for-profit research institution with respect to research funded by any federal agency.

The bill deems a disclosure published online to a DFS online site as a disclosure to every state agency and political subdivision. From the time a disclosure is made through the term of any awarded state grant or contract, the entity must revise its disclosure within 30 days after entering into a contract with or receiving a grant or gift from a foreign country of concern or within 30 days after the acquisition of any interest in the entity by a foreign country of concern. In addition, the bill requires, at least once every five years, the Department of Management Services (DMS) to screen each vendor of commodities participating in the online procurement system if the vendor has the capacity to fill an order of $100,000 or more. Screening must be conducted through federal agencies responsible for identifying persons and organizations subject to trade sanctions, embargoes, or other restrictions under federal law.⁵⁴

If a vendor is identified as being subject to sanctions, embargoes, or other restrictions, the vendor must make the required disclosures until such restriction expires. A notification regarding the applicability of the disclosure requirement to the vendor must be included on the online procurement system when applicable. DMS must ensure that purchasers made by vendors using the online procurement system are easily accessible by the system's participants.

The bill requires DFS to establish and maintain a website to publish the disclosures. Upon receiving a referral from an inspector general or other compliance officer of a state agency or political subdivision or any sworn complaint based upon substantive information and reasonable belief, DFS must investigate an allegation of a violation of disclosure requirements.

The bill also:

- Authorizes DFS, an inspector general, or any other agent or compliance officer authorized by a state agency or political subdivision to request records relevant to any reasonable suspicion of a violation. Records must be provided within 30 days or at a later agreed upon time.
- Specifies that failures to disclose or provide records constitutes a civil violation and fine of $5,000 for a first violation or $10,000 for any subsequent violation.

might not be aware of grant or contractual opportunities a year before they take place, BOG, Senate Bill 2010 Agency Bill Analysis (March 9, 2021), at 11.

⁵⁴ DMS has pointed out that the bill does not provide authority for DMS to specify in rule "other restrictions under federal law" that DMS would be required to screen for, which could be more specifically defined. DMS, Senate Bill 2010 Agency Bill Analysis (March 22, 2021), at 6.

The bill specifies, in addition to any fine assessed, a final order determining a third or subsequent violation:

- By a state agency or political subdivision, must include a determination of the identity of the officer responsible for acceptance of the undisclosed grant or gift. DFS must send the order to the Governor or other authorized officer able to suspend or remove a public officer. The referral must also be provided to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives for oversight of such suspension and removal authority.
- By an entity other than a state agency or political subdivision, must automatically disqualify the entity from eligibility for any grant or contract funded by a state agency or any political subdivision until such ineligibility is lifted by the Administration Commission for good cause.

The bill specifies that information disclosed according to specified foreign gift reporting requirements for institutions of higher education, and specified gift, grant, and contract disclosure requirements for a grant or contract except for information protected by any statute that is a trade secret as defined in s. 688.002(4) or s. 812.081(1)(c), F.S, is not confidential or exempt.

The bill authorizes DMS and DFS to adopt rules necessary to carry out their responsibilities as specified. Specifically:

- DMS may identify the federal agencies to be consulted as specified and the procedure for notifying a vendor of the disclosure requirements when applicable.
- DMS may adopt rules to apply requirements as specified to the online procurement system.
- Any rules necessary for implementation must be published by December 1, 2021,⁵⁵ subject to certain exceptions.

Reporting, Inspection, and Penalties for Foreign Gifts

The bill creates s. 1010.25, F.S., to require each institution of higher education (IHE)⁵⁶ to semiannually report, each January 31 and July 31, any gift received directly or indirectly from a foreign source with a value of $50,000 or more during the fiscal year.⁵⁷ If a foreign source provides more than one gift directly or indirectly to an IHE in a single fiscal year and the total value of those gifts is $50,000 or more, all gifts received from that foreign source must be reported. A gift received from a foreign source through an intermediary is considered an indirect gift to the IHE. An IHE is authorized to consolidate its report with that of all its affiliate organizations.

⁵⁵ According to DMS, the term used in the bill does not specify if the publication by this deadline refers to the publication of the Notice of Rule Development, Notice of Proposed Rule, or adoption of the rule. DMS, Senate Bill 2010 Agency Bill Analysis (March 22, 2021), at 6. Currently, ss. 120.74(4)-(5), F.S., require publication of a Notice of Rule Development by November 1 and a notice of Proposed Rule by the following April 1.

⁵⁶ The bill defines “Institution of higher education” as a state university; an entity listed in law that has its own governing board; a Florida College System institution; an independent nonprofit college or university that is located in and chartered by the state and grants baccalaureate or higher degrees; any other institution that has a physical presence in the state and is required to report foreign gifts or contracts pursuant to 20 U.S.C. s. 1011(f); or an affiliate organization of an institution of higher education.

⁵⁷ Pursuant to 20 U.S.C. s. 1101(f), universities report gifts of $250,000 or more from foreign sources to the U.S. Department of Education within a calendar year, on January 31 or July 31, whichever is sooner.

A report is required to be made to the following entities:

- The Board of Governors (BOG), if the recipient is a state university, a branch campus, center, institute, or special program as specified in law,⁵⁸ that has its own governing board or DSO.
- Unless already reported to the BOG, the State Board of Education (SBE), if the recipient is any other IHE or an affiliated DSO.

For each gift subject to the reporting requirement, the IHE is required to provide to the BOG or SBE, as applicable, all of the following information, unless otherwise prohibited or deemed confidential under federal or state law:

- The amount of the gift and the date it was received.
- The contract start and end dates if the gift is a contract.
- The name of the foreign source and, if not a foreign government, the country of citizenship, if known, and the principal residence or domicile of the foreign source.
- A copy of a gift agreement between the foreign source and the IHE, signed by the foreign source and the chief administrative officer of the IHE, which must include the purpose, terms, and conditions of the gift. With respect to an agreement containing information from a division of sponsored research protected from disclosure by specified law, an abstract and redacted copy providing all required information that is not so protected may be submitted in lieu of a copy of the agreement.

Beginning July 1, 2022, the Inspector General of the BOG or the Inspector General of the Department of Education (DOE), as applicable, is required to randomly inspect or audit at least five percent of the total number of gifts or gift agreements received from IHEs during the previous year. However, upon the request of the Governor, the President of the Senate, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Inspector General of the BOG or the Inspector General of the DOE, as applicable, must inspect or audit a gift or gift agreement.

The BOG or SBE, as applicable, is required to exercise the oversight and enforcement authority provided in law⁵⁹ to sanction an IHE that fails to report a reportable gift within 60 days after the reporting deadlines established as specified.

The bill subjects an IHE that knowingly, willfully, or negligently fails to disclose the information to a civil penalty of 105 percent of the amount of the undisclosed gift, payable only from nonstate funds of the IHE or the affiliate organization that received such gift. The BOG and SBE, as applicable, is authorized to administratively enforce and impose the civil penalty.

In the absence of enforcement by the BOG or SBE, as applicable, the bill authorizes the Attorney General or Chief Financial Officer (CFO) to bring a civil action to enforce as specified.

⁵⁸ See ss. 1004.33-1004.64991, F.S. The Board of Governors has identified entities with governing boards listed in subpart B of part II of chapter 1004, F.S., as including the Florida Industrial and Phosphate Research Institute, Shands Teaching Hospital and Clinics, H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center and Research Institute, Medical Marijuana Research Board, and the Florida Institute for Human and Machine Cognition. BOG, Senate Bill 2010 Agency Bill Analysis (March 9, 2021), at 1.

⁵⁹ Section 1008.322 or 1008.32, F.S., respectively,

The bill provides whistle-blower protection⁶⁰ for a whistle-blower who reports an undisclosed foreign gift to the appropriate inspector general, Attorney General, or CFO. The bill states that such a whistle-blower is entitled to receive a reward in the amount of 25 percent of any penalty recovered by the BOG, the SBE, the Attorney General, or the CFO, who is authorized to incur expenditures to provide such reward from the penalty recovery. The reward may be paid through an intermediary attorney or trustee which the whistle-blower designates.

The bill specifies that information reported relating to a gift from a foreign source is not confidential or exempt,⁶¹ except as provided in specified law regarding divisions of sponsored research, or unless protected by any statute as a trade secret as defined in law.

The bill authorizes the BOG to adopt regulations and the SBE to adopt appropriate rules.

Applicant Screening and Research Integrity of Foreign Researchers

The bill creates s. 1010.35, F.S., to require, beginning July 1, 2021, each state university or entity listed as specified in law⁶² which receives state appropriations or state tax revenue and has a research budget of $10 million or more to screen applicants for research or research-related support positions, and applicants for positions of visiting researcher, who are citizens of a foreign country and who are not permanent residents of the United States, or who are citizens or permanent residents of the United States who have any affiliation with an institution or program, or at least one year of prior employment or training, excepting employment or training by an agency of the United States government, in a specified foreign country of concern. Such screening is required prior to interviewing such applicant or offering a position of employment or of visiting researcher. At the discretion of the university or entity, other applicants for such positions may be screened.

In addition to satisfying all federal employment and enrollment qualifications, the BOG or the governing board of the applicable entity must require a foreign applicant to submit:

- A complete copy of his or her most recently submitted Nonimmigrant Visa Application, DS-160. After extraction of all information relevant to these requirements a university or entity may destroy or return the copy of the DS-160 submitted by an applicant.
- A complete resume and curriculum vitae, including every institution of higher education attended; all previous employment since the applicant's 18th birthday; and a list of all published material for which the applicant received credit as an author, a researcher, or otherwise, or to which the applicant contributed significant research, writing, or editorial support; a list of the applicant's current and pending research funding from any source, including funder, amount, applicant's role on the project, and brief description of the research; and a full disclosure of non-university professional activities including any affiliation with an institution or program in a foreign country of concern. For applicants who have been continually employed or enrolled in a postsecondary education institution in the United States for 20 years or more, the resume may include employment history before the most recent 20 years.

⁶⁰ Under s. 112.3188, F.S.

⁶¹ As defined in s. 119.07(1), F.S., and Art. 1, s. 24(a), Fla. Const.

⁶² See ss. 1004.22-1004.64991, F.S.

The president or chief administrative officer of the state university or applicable entity is required to designate a research integrity office to review all required materials and take reasonable steps to verify all attendance, employment, publications, and contributions listed in the application required prior to any interview of or offer of a position to the applicant.

The bill specifies “reasonable steps” that must be taken by a research integrity office to include:

- Searching public databases for research publications and presentations and public conflict of interest records to identify any research publication or presentation that may have been omitted from the application;
- Contacting all employers of the most recent 10 years to verify employment;
- Contacting all institutions of higher education attended to verify enrollment and educational progress;
- Searching public listings of persons subject to sanctions or restrictions under federal law;
- Submitting the applicant's name and other identifying information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) or any federal agency reasonably willing to scrutinize such applicant for national security or counterespionage purposes; and
- Any other steps deemed appropriate to the office.

The university or applicable entity may also direct the office to approve applicants for hire based on a risk-based determination considering the nature of the research and the background and ongoing affiliations of the applicant. These requirements must be completed before interviewing or offering any position to an individual described in any research or research-related support position and before granting such applicant any access to research data or activities or other sensitive data.

An applicant who must be screened may not be employed in any research or research-related support position if he or she fails to disclose a substantial educational, employment, or research-related activity or publication or presentation at the time of submitting the application required, unless the department head, or his or designee, certifies in writing the substance of the nondisclosure and the reasons for disregarding such failure to disclose. A copy of such certification must be kept in the investigative file of the research integrity office and must be submitted to the nearest FBI field office.

The research integrity office is required to report to the nearest FBI office, and to any law enforcement agency designated by the Governor or the BOG and the governing board of the applicable entity described, the identity of any applicant who was rejected for employment based on the scrutiny required or other security-related screening.

By July 1, 2025, the Inspector General of the BOG, the inspector general of an entity described, or the Auditor General is required to perform an operational audit regarding such implementation of screening requirements.

Approval Processes for International Travel

The bill creates s. 1010.36, F.S., to require, by January 1, 2022, each state university or associated entity listed in specified law⁶³ that receives state appropriations or state tax revenue and has a research budget of $10 million or more to establish an international travel approval and monitoring program. The program must require preapproval and screening by the research integrity office designated by the president or chief administrative officer of the state university or entity for any employment-related foreign travel and employment-related foreign activities engaged in by all faculty, researchers, and research department staff.

Preapproval by the research integrity office must be based on the applicant's review and acknowledgement of guidance published by the employing state university or entity that relates to countries under sanctions or other restrictions of the state or the U.S. government. In addition, the preapproval must be based on the binding commitment of the individual traveler not to violate the state university's or entity's limitations on travel and activities abroad and to obey all applicable federal laws.

The state university or entity is required to maintain records of all applications for foreign travel and activities; expenses reimbursed by the university incurred during such travel and activities; and payments and honoraria received during such travel and activities. The state university or entity must also keep records of all teaching, presentations, and other activities related to the individual traveler's professional, research, and academic activities undertaken during foreign travel. Such records must be retained for at least three years or any longer period of time required by any other applicable state or federal law.

The state university or entity is required to provide an annual report of foreign travel to countries of concern listing individual travelers, foreign locations visited, and foreign institutions visited to the BOG or the governing board of the applicable entity.

In addition, by July 1, 2025, the Inspector General of the BOG, the inspector general of a described entity, or the Auditor General is required to perform an operation audit regarding implementation of foreign travel reporting.

International Cultural Agreements

The bill creates s. 288.860, F.S., to specify that a state agency, political subdivision, public school, state college, or state university, which includes any direct support organizations, authorized to expend state-appropriated funds or levy ad valorem taxes may not participate in any agreement with or accept any grant from a foreign country of concern, or any entity controlled by a foreign country of concern, which establishes a program or other endeavor to promote the language or culture of a foreign country of concern, which:

- Constrains the freedom of contract of such public entity;

⁶³ See ss. 1004.22-1004.64991, F.S. BOG has identified entities with governing boards listed in subpart B of part II of chapter 1004, F.S., which receive state funds and have a research budget of $10 million or more as encompassing all state universities besides Florida Gulf Coast University, Florida Polytechnic University, and New College of Florida. BOG, Senate Bill 2010 Agency Bill Analysis (March 9, 2021), at 2.

- Allows the curriculum or values of a program in Florida to be directed or controlled by the foreign country of concern; or
- Promotes an agenda detrimental to the safety or security of the United States or its residents.

The bill specifies that, prior to the execution of any cultural exchange agreement with a foreign country of concern, the substance of the agreement must be shared with federal agencies concerned with protecting national security or enforcing trade sanctions, embargoes, or other restrictions under federal law. If such federal agency provides information suggesting such agreement promotes an agenda detrimental to the safety or security of the U.S. or its residents, the public entity may not enter the agreement.

The bill specifies that a state agency, political subdivision, public school, state college, or state university may not or accept anything of value conditioned upon participation in a program or other endeavor to promote the language or culture of a foreign country of concern.⁶⁴

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

The Board of Governors (BOG) has identified that its constitutional duties under Art. IX, s. 7 of the Florida Constitution extend to establishing personnel programs for the universities. BOG Regulation 1.001(5) delegates constitutional authority from the BOG to its university boards of trustees to establish university personnel programs, which includes establishing policies regarding recruitment and selection of employees and employee travel.⁶⁵

⁶⁴ The BOG cites several institutes or agreements that address Cuban or Russian language or culture, including at the University of South Florida, the University of North Florida, and Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University. V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

Compliance with gift reporting, applicant screening, and travel approval as specified may result in indeterminate costs to institutions required to arrange or conduct these activities. Implementing travel review and approval processes and eliminating existing cultural agreements with countries of concern may reduce business and academic exchange between Florida and such countries. Given that the annual cost to the U.S. economy of counterfeit goods, pirated software, and theft of trade secrets is between $225 billion and $600 billion; however, enhanced integrity and security of Florida's research environment should offset any reduction in foreign donations or contracts the bill may cause.

The Board of Governors (BOG) has identified incremental costs to state universities in order to comply with foreign gift tracking and reporting, application screening, and travel approval provisions as specified. In addition, the BOG has identified the need for one auditor position to begin initial work to implement the requirements of this bill, at the estimated cost of $129,900 to cover salary, benefits, and expenses.⁶⁶

Requiring state agencies or political subdivisions to report to the Department of Financial Services (DFS) any gift or grant of $50,000 or more from a foreign source as specified may result in increases in workload or personnel costs. Workload and personnel costs for the Department of Management Services to screen each vendor as specified every five years in the online procurement system could also increase, and publishing disclosures as specified could generate additional expenditures.⁶⁷

In addition, requirements to disclose to DFS any gifts or grants of $50,000 or more from any foreign source may remove confidentiality of donors, with the potential to discourage some foreign donations or grants if anonymity or secrecy is important to the donor.⁶⁸

Failure of a state agency or political subdivision to provide records requested due to reasonable suspicion of a violation of obtaining the disclosures constitutes a $5,000 fine for the first violation and a $10,000 fine for any subsequent violation.⁶⁹

CS/CS by Appropriations on April 15, 2021:

The committee substitute modifies requirements concerning disclosure and reporting of foreign gifts and grants, international cultural agreements, and foreign travel.

Specifically, the committee substitute:

- Adds to the exemption from disclosure requirements a proposal to sell commodities to a university pursuant to Board of Governors (BOG) Regulation 18.001.
- Modifies the provision related to sponsored research and trade secrets in the section relating to university foreign gift reporting, to remove the exception relating to divisions of sponsored research or trade secrets and specify that information as a part of required disclosures are not confidential and exempt.
- Modifies a definition to clarify that political subdivision includes counties, cities, towns, villages, special tax school districts, special road and bridge districts, bridge districts, and all other districts in this state.
- Modifies the provision that a state agency, political subdivision, public school, state college, or state university authorized to expend state-appropriated funds or levy ad valorem taxes may not participate in any agreement with or accept any grant from a foreign country of concern, or any entity controlled by a foreign country of concern, if such agreement:
 - Constrains the freedom of contract of such public entity;
 - Allows the curriculum or values of a program in Florida to be directed or controlled by the foreign country of concern; or
 - Promotes an agenda detrimental to the safety or security of the United States or its residents.
- Additionally specifies that, prior to the execution of any cultural exchange agreement with a foreign country of concern, the substance of the agreement must be shared with federal agencies concerned with protecting national security or enforcing trade sanctions, embargoes, or other restrictions under federal law. If such federal agency provides information suggesting such agreement promotes an agenda detrimental to the safety or security of the U.S. or its residents, the public entity may not enter the agreement.

- Modifies the requirement for the Inspector General of BOG or of the Department of Education, to, within existing resources, randomly inspect or audit at least 10 percent of the total number of gifts or gift agreements received from institutions of higher education during the previous year, changing the audit amount to a minimum of 5 percent.
- Removes the requirement for the inspection or audit to examine the extent to which the institution of higher education exercised due diligence with respect to whether the gift was received from a foreign source, as well as the institution of higher education's compliance with the requirements.
- Modifies the civil penalty of 105 percent of the amount of the undisclosed gifts to which an institution of higher education that knowingly, willfully, or negligently fails to disclose required information must be subjected, to exclude the lesser penalty of at least 5 percent of the amount of the undisclosed gift imposed if a negligent failure is not a result of negligent management or is de minimis.
- Modifies provisions around disclosure of gifts to add a provision protecting a whistleblower who reports a failure to disclose a gift to the appropriate inspector general, Attorney General, or CFO. The bill states that such a whistle-blower is entitled to receive a reward in the amount of 25 percent of any penalty recovered by the BOG, the State Board of Education, the Attorney General, or the CFO, who is authorized to incur expenditures to provide such reward from the penalty recovery.
- Modifies the exception on information and records that may be confidential or exempt, to specify that information reported under disclosure requirements for gifts from a foreign source is not confidential or exempt from specified law, except for information protected by any statute that is a trade secret as defined in s. 688.002(4) or s. 812.081(1)(c), F.S.
- Modifies the requirement that each state university, or entity specified in law, with a research budget of $10 million or more, establish an international travel approval and monitoring program, which must require preapproval and screening by a designated research integrity office for any foreign travel and activities that are employment-related.

CS by Education on March 30, 2021:

The committee substitute modifies requirements concerning disclosure and reporting of foreign gifts and grants, screening of foreign researchers, and foreign travel.

- Application requirements to include additional information about past research and disclosure of non-university professional activities.
- Additional requirements to “reasonable steps” taken by the research integrity office.
- Authorization for the university or entity to direct approval of an applicant based on a risk-based determination.

The committee substitute further specifies that:

- The disclosure requirements for a gift or grant of $50,000 is a direct or indirect gift or grant.
- Information to be included in the gift or grant disclosure must include the amount and name and country of residence or domicile of the foreign source.
- The provision relating to an exemption from public records to allow university divisions of research records or trade secrets must remain confidential.
- Instead of keeping records of all teaching, presentations, and other activities related to the individual traveler’s professional, research, and academic activities undertaken during foreign travel, a university or entity must keep records of the purpose of the travel and any records related to the foreign activity review.

403 of prior employment or training, excepting employment or 404 training by an agency of the United States government, in a
405 foreign country of concern as defined in s. 286.101. Such 406 screening is required prior to interviewing such applicant or 407 offering to such applicant a position of employment or of

412 the governing board of the applicable entity must require the
413 following of applicants included in subsection (1):

414 (a) A foreign applicant must submit a complete copy of the
415 applicant's passport and most recently submitted Online

441 application required in subsection (2) prior to any interview of 442 or offer of a position to the applicant. Reasonable steps
443 include searching public databases for research publications and 444 presentations and public conflict of interest records to
445 identify any research publication or presentation that may have

446 been omitted from the application, contacting all employers of 447 the most recent 10 years to verify employment, contacting all
448 institutions of higher education attended to verify enrollment
449 and educational progress, searching public listings of persons
450 subject to sanctions or restrictions under federal law,
451 submitting the applicant's name and other identifying 452 information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation or any

456 university or applicable entity may also direct the office to

458 considering the nature of the research and the background and 459 ongoing affiliations of the applicant.

460 (4) The requirements of this section must be completed
461 before interviewing or offering any position to an individual
462 described in subsection (1) in any research or research-related
463 support position and before granting such individual any access
464 to research data or activities or other sensitive data. An 465 applicant who must be screened under this section may not be
466 employed in any research or research-related support position if 467 he or she fails to disclose a substantial educational,
468 employment, or research-related activity or publication or
469 presentation at the time of submitting the application required
470 in subsection (2), unless the department head, or a designee,
471 certifies in writing the substance of the nondisclosure and the 472 reasons for disregarding such failure to disclose. A copy of 473 such certification must be kept in the investigative file of the

484 Governors, the inspector general of an entity described in 485 subsection (1), or the Auditor General must perform an
486 operational audit regarding the implementation of this section.

 437 number of gifts or gift agreements received from institutions of 438 higher education pursuant to this paragraph during the previous 439 year. The inspection or audit shall examine the extent to which 440 the institution of higher education exercised due diligence with

455 (5) (a) An institution of higher education that knowingly,
 456 willfully, or negligently fails to disclose the information
 457 required by this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of 458 105 percent of the amount of the undisclosed gift, payable only 459 from nonstate funds of the institution of higher education or 460 the affiliate organization that received such gift. The 461 recovered funds must be deposited into the General Revenue Fund.
 462 The Board of Governors and the State Board of Education, as 463 applicable, may administratively enforce this section and impose
 464 the civil penalty as an administrative penalty. A lesser

581-03563A-21 20212010c1

465 penalty, but at least 5 percent of the amount of the undisclosed 466 gift may be imposed if a negligent failure is not a result of 467 negligent management or is de minimis.

468 (b) In the absence of enforcement by the Board of Governors
 469 or the State Board of Education, as applicable, the Attorney
 470 General or Chief Financial Officer may bring a civil action to 471 enforce this section. If such action is successful, the Attorney 472 General or Chief Financial Officer, as applicable, is entitled 473 to reasonable attorney fees and costs.

474 (6) Except as provided in s. 1004.22(2), or information
 475 protected by any statute that is a trade secret as defined in s.
 476 812.081(1)(c) or s. 688.002(4), information and records relating 477 to a gift from a foreign source are not confidential or exempt
 478 from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State
 479 Constitution.

480 (7) The Board of Governors may adopt regulations, and the 481 State Board of Education may adopt rules, to implement this 482 section.

 495 residents of the United States who have any affiliation with an 496 institution or program, or at least 1 year of prior employment
 497 or training, excepting employment or training by an agency of 498 the United States government, in a foreign country of concern as 499 defined in s. 286.101. Such screening is required prior to 500 interviewing such applicant or offering to such applicant a 501 position of employment or of visiting researcher. At the 502 discretion of the university or entity, other applicants for 503 such positions may be screened.

504 (2) In addition to satisfying all employment and enrollment
 505 qualifications imposed by federal law, the Board of Governors or 506 the governing board of the applicable entity must require the 507 following of applicants included in subsection (1):

508 (a) A foreign applicant must submit a complete copy of the 509 applicant's passport and most recently submitted Online

514 (b) All applicants described in subsection (1) must submit 515 a complete resume and curriculum vitae, including every

 529 not, include employment history before the most recent 20 years.

530 (3) The president or chief administrative officer of the 533 (2) and take reasonable steps to verify all attendance,

 534 employment, publications, and contributions listed in the 535 application required in subsection (2) prior to any interview of 536 or offer of a position to the applicant. Reasonable steps
 537 include searching public databases for research publications and
 538 presentations and public conflict of interest records to
 539 identify any research publication or presentation that may have 540 been omitted from the application, contacting all employers of 541 the most recent 10 years to verify employment, contacting all
 542 institutions of higher education attended to verify enrollment

 549 other steps deemed appropriate to the office. The university or 550 applicable entity may also direct the office to approve
 551 applicants for hire based on a risk-based determination

 555 before interviewing or offering any position to an individual
 556 described in subsection (1) in any research or research-related
 557 support position and before granting such individual any access
 558 to research data or activities or other sensitive data. An
 559 applicant who must be screened under this section may not be 560 employed in any research or research-related support position if 561 he or she fails to disclose a substantial educational,
 562 employment, or research-related activity or publication or
 563 presentation at the time of submitting the application required
 564 in subsection (2), unless the department head, or a designee,

 567 such certification must be kept in the investigative file of the 568 research integrity office and must be submitted to the nearest

 578 Governors, the inspector general of an entity described in 579 subsection (1), or the Auditor General must perform an
 580 operational audit regarding the implementation of this section.

BILL: PCS/SB 7060 (574708)

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

PCS/SB 7060 ratifies the Department of Environmental Protection's (DEP's) revisions to their biosolids rules, chapter 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code. The bill exempts the rules from review and approval by the Environmental Regulation Commission.

Chapter 2020-150, Laws of Florida, required the DEP to adopt rules for biosolids management and included provisions that the rule must:

- Require a new land application site permit or permit renewal issued after July 1, 2020, to:
 - Ensure a minimum unsaturated soil depth of two feet between the depth of biosolids placement and the water table level at the time biosolids are applied to the soil;
 - Prohibit applying biosolids to land with a seasonal high water table within six inches of the soil surface or depth of biosolids placement unless a department-approved nutrient management plan and water quality monitoring plan provide reasonable assurances that the land application of biosolids at the site will not cause or contribute to a violation of the state's surface water quality standards or groundwater standards; and
 - Require biosolids sites to enroll in a Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services Best Management Practices program;
- Require all permits to comply with these requirements by July 1, 2022; and
- Require biosolids sites to comply with the DEP's new rule within two years of the effective date of the rule.

The Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs (SERC) developed by the DEP determined that the proposed rule will likely increase regulatory costs in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after implementation of the rule. This amount triggers the statutory requirement for the rule to be ratified by the Legislature before it may go into effect.

The bill provides a declaratory statement and determination by the Legislature that the rule ratification fulfills an important state interest.

The act is effective upon becoming a law. At that time, the rule also becomes effective.

The bill will have an indeterminate negative fiscal impact on the DEP due to increased inspections and monitoring of application sites.

II. Present Situation:

Legislative Ratification

A rule is subject to legislative ratification if it:

- Has an adverse impact on economic growth, private sector job creation or employment, or private sector investment in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule;
- Has an adverse impact on business competitiveness, including the ability of persons doing business in the state to compete with persons doing business in other states or domestic markets, productivity, or innovation in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule; or
- Increases regulatory costs, including any transactional costs, in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule.¹

If a rule requires ratification by the Legislature, the rule must be submitted to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives no later than 30 days prior to the regular legislative session. The rule may not go into effect until it is ratified by the Legislature.²

Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs Requirements

A statement of estimated regulatory costs (SERC) is an analysis prepared by an agency before the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule other than an emergency rule. A SERC must be prepared by an agency for a proposed rule that:

- Will have an adverse impact on small business; or
- Is likely to directly or indirectly increase regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate in the state within one year after the implementation of the rule.³

A SERC must include:

² Section 120.541(3), F.S.

³ Section 120.54(3)(b)1., F.S.

- An economic analysis showing whether the rule exceeds the thresholds requiring legislative ratification;
- A good faith estimate of the number and types of individuals and entities likely to be required to comply with the rule, and a general description of the types of individuals likely to be affected by the rule;
- A good faith estimate of the cost to the agency, and to other state and local government entities, of implementing and enforcing the proposed rule, including anticipated effects on state or local revenues;
- A good faith estimate of the transactional costs (direct business costs) likely to be incurred by individuals and entities required to comply with the requirements of the rule;
- An analysis of the impact on small businesses, small counties, and small cities; and
- A description of regulatory alternatives submitted to the agency and a statement adopting the alternative or a statement of the reasons for rejecting the alternative in favor of the proposed rule.⁴

Biosolids

When domestic wastewater is treated, a solid, semisolid, or liquid byproduct, known as biosolids,⁵ accumulates in the wastewater treatment plant and must be removed periodically to keep the plant operating properly.⁶ Biosolids also include products and treated material from biosolids treatment facilities and septage management facilities regulated by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).⁷ The collected material is high in organic content and contains moderate amounts of nutrients that are needed by plants.⁸

The DEP has stated that wastewater treatment facilities produce about 340,000 dry tons of biosolids each year.⁹ Biosolids can be disposed of in several ways: transfer to another facility, placement in a landfill, distribution and marketing as fertilizer, incineration, bioenergy, and land application to pasture or agricultural lands.¹⁰ About one-third of the total amount of biosolids produced is used for land application¹¹ and is subject to regulatory requirements established by the DEP to protect public health and the environment.¹²

⁴ Section 120.541(2), F.S.

⁵ Section 373.4595, F.S.; see also Fla. Admin. Code R. 62-640.200(6). Biosolids are the solid, semisolid, or liquid residue generated during the treatment of domestic wastewater in a domestic wastewater treatment facility and include products and treated material from biosolids treatment facilities and septage management facilities. The term does not include the treated effluent or reclaimed water from a domestic wastewater treatment facility, solids removed from pump stations and lift stations, screenings and grit removed from the preliminary treatment components of domestic wastewater treatment facilities, or ash generated during the incineration of biosolids.

Biosolids may be used by land application in farming and ranching operations, forest lands, and public areas such as parks, or in land reclamation projects such as restoration of mining properties. Biosolids contain macronutrients (such as nitrogen and phosphorus) and micronutrients (such as copper, iron, and manganese) that are utilized by crops. The application of nutrient-rich biosolids increases the organic content of the soil, fostering more productive plant growth.¹³ There are approximately 140 permitted land application sites in Florida, with waste haulers being the most common site permittees.¹⁴ The map below shows the permitted sites.

Typically, Class B biosolids are used in land application.¹⁵ The highest quality of biosolids, known in Florida as “Class AA,” are distributed and marketed like other commercial fertilizers. The DEP does not track the sale of commercial fertilizers.

Biosolids are regulated under chapter 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code. The rules provide minimum requirements, including pollutant limits and monitoring and reporting requirements, for the treatment, management, use, and disposal of biosolids. The rules are applicable to wastewater treatment facilities, applicators, and distributors¹⁶ and include permit requirements for both treatment facilities and biosolids application sites.¹⁷

¹⁷ Fla. Admin. Code R. 62-640.300.

The application of Class A and Class B biosolids is banned in South Florida within the Lake Okeechobee, Caloosahatchee River, and St. Lucie River watersheds unless the applicant can affirmatively demonstrate that the nutrients in the biosolids will not add to nutrient loadings in the watershed.¹⁸ However, other communities have expressed concerns that runoff from farms and ranches that use biosolids can lead to toxic blue-green algae blooms and have sought bans locally.¹⁹

Rule 62-640, Florida Administrative Code

In 2018, the DEP created a Biosolids Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) to evaluate current biosolids management practices and explore opportunities to better protect Florida's water resources. The TAC convened four times in 2018 and 2019 and discussed current options for biosolids management in the state, potential improvements in biosolids management to protect our water resources, and looked at what research is necessary for successful improvements.²⁰ The DEP issued its first draft rule in October 2019 after the TAC disbanded, but withdrew the rule following the passage of the Clean Waterways Act.²¹

The Clean Waterways Act (Ch. 2020-150, Laws of Florida)

The Clean Waterways Act required the DEP to adopt rules for biosolids management and specified that any rules adopted may not take effect until ratified by the Legislature.

Section 403.0855, F.S., includes provisions that the rule must:

- Require a new land application site permit or permit renewal issued after July 1, 2020, to:
 - Ensure a minimum unsaturated soil depth of two feet between the depth of biosolids placement and the water table level at the time biosolids are applied to the soil;
 - Prohibit applying biosolids to land with a seasonal high water table²² within six inches of the soil surface or depth of biosolids placement unless a department-approved nutrient management plan and water quality monitoring plan provide reasonable assurances that the land application of biosolids at the site will not cause or contribute to a violation of the state's surface water quality standards or groundwater standards; and
 - Require biosolids sites to enroll in a Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (DACS) Best Management Practices program;
- Require all permits to comply with these requirements by July 1, 2022; and

- Require biosolids sites to comply with the DEP's new rule within two years of the effective date of the rule.

The DEP published its proposed rule implementing the provisions of s. 403.0855, F.S., on December 3, 2020. In addition to the requirements in the Clean Waterways Act, the proposed rule issued by the DEP:

- Revises the provisions for determining biosolids land application rates to include basing rates on nitrogen and phosphorus levels;
- Imposes groundwater and surface water monitoring requirements for land application sites; and
- Considers biosolids permit applications as projects of heightened public interest.

DEP Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs

The DEP anticipates the rule costing in excess of $1 million in the next five years. The DEP published a SERC on December 3, 2020.²³ The DEP projects the following changes would increase costs due to the revised rule:

- A significant reduction (estimated 75 percent) in biosolids land application which could lead to permitting more land to accommodate the current quantity of biosolids;
- Longer hauling distances to newly permitted land application sites;
- Additional site monitoring requirements and increased operational costs at land application sites;
- Loss of fertilizer cost savings by not being able to land apply biosolids;²⁴ and
- Possible transfer of biosolids out-of-state for management or disposal.

The DEP estimates that the cost of the proposed rule over the next five years will be $310,000,000 to continue land application of Class B biosolids, and $450,000,000-$600,000,000 to convert to Class AA biosolids (fertilizer).²⁵ There are innovative technologies to process biosolids for energy or fuel as an alternative to land application, but the DEP stated that there is limited evidence that these methods could serve as feasible alternatives and the costs are higher than the costs for conversion to Class AA biosolids.²⁶

In the SERC, the DEP states that the majority of biosolids are generated by utilities owned and operated by local government entities. Therefore, estimates for one-time capital costs and recurring costs will primarily affect local government entities. This includes 104 domestic wastewater treatment facilities that treat and land apply biosolids, and unknown numbers of small wastewater treatment facilities that send biosolids to larger treatment facilities and biosolids treatment facilities that treat and land apply biosolids.²⁷

Environmental Regulation Commission

The Environmental Regulation Commission (ERC) is an unpaid seven-member board within the DEP.²⁸ Under specified statutory provisions and with certain exceptions, the ERC must exercise the standard-setting authority of the DEP – approving, modifying, or disapproving proposed rules that contain standards.²⁹ In exercising its authority to set standards, the ERC must consider scientific and technical validity, economic impacts, and relative risks and benefits to the public and the environment.³⁰

The ERC is composed of seven state residents, appointed by the Governor for four-year terms, subject to confirmation by the Senate.³¹ The appointees must provide reasonable representation from all sections of the state, and be representative of agriculture, the development industry, local government, the environmental community, lay citizens, and members of the scientific and technical community who have substantial expertise related to water pollutants, toxicology, epidemiology, geology, biology, environmental sciences, or engineering.³² Most issues that go before the ERC relate to air pollution, water quality, or waste management.³³ The ERC is scheduled to meet monthly, but has not met since 2019.³⁴ According to the DEP’s website, two of the memberships to the ERC are vacant and the terms of the five listed members have lapsed.³⁵ However, the Governor recently appointed four members to the ERC.³⁶

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill ratifies the rules comprising ch. 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code, titled “Biosolids,” for the sole and exclusive purpose of satisfying any condition on effectiveness imposed under s. 120.541(3), F.S. Chapter 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code, proposed by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and published on December 3, 2020, in the Florida Administrative Register, Vol. 46, No. 234, pages 5281-5297, consists of rules:

- 62-640.100, entitled Scope, Intent, Purpose, and Applicability;
- 62-640.200, entitled Definitions;
- 62-640.210, entitled General Technical Guidance and Forms;
- 62-640.300, entitled General Requirements;
- 62-640.400, entitled Prohibitions;

The bill:

- Exempts the rules from review and approval by the Environmental Regulation Commission (ERC) under s. 403.804(1), F.S.;
- Directs that section one of the bill serves no other purpose and may not be codified in the Florida Statutes;
- Requires the DEP to publish a notice of the enactment of the exemption from review and approval by the ERC in the Florida Administrative Register; and
- Provides that section one of the bill does not:
 - Alter rulemaking authority delegated by prior law;
 - Constitute a legislative preemption of, or exception to, any other provision of law regarding adoption or enforcement of the rule cited; and
 - Does not cure any rulemaking defect or preempt any challenge on lack of authority or a violation of the legal requirements governing adoption of any rule cited.

The bill provides a declaratory statement and determination by the Legislature that section 1 of the bill fulfills an important state interest.

The act is effective upon becoming a law. At that time, the rule also becomes effective.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The county/municipality mandates provision of Art. VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution may apply to this bill because local governments may be required to expend funds to manage biosolids under the new requirements of the rule. The bill includes a legislative finding that the rule ratification fulfills an important state interest. The expenditures are required to comply with rules and law that applies to all persons similarly situated. Therefore, an exception from Art. VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution likely applies.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

According to the Department of Environmental's (DEP's) statement of estimated regulatory costs (SERC), there will likely be increased operational costs to biosolids treatment facilities and septage management facilities. There will also likely be impacts to biosolids haulers and the ranchers and farmers who own land application sites. Utility ratepayers and homeowners may ultimately bear the increased operational costs of wastewater treatment facilities.³⁷ See discussion of SERC in Section II on page six of the analysis.

C. Government Sector Impact:

According to the DEP's statement of estimated regulatory costs, there will likely be increased operational costs to wastewater treatment facilities.³⁸ See discussion of SERC in Section II on page six of the analysis.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends section 403.0855 of the Florida Statutes.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 7060 ratifies the Department of Environmental Protection's (DEP's) revisions to their biosolids rules, chapter 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code. The bill exempts the rules from review and approval by the Environmental Regulation Commission.

Chapter 2020-150, Laws of Florida, required the DEP to adopt rules for biosolids management and included provisions that the rule must:

- Require a new land application site permit or permit renewal issued after July 1, 2020, to:
 - Ensure a minimum unsaturated soil depth of two feet between the depth of biosolids placement and the water table level at the time biosolids are applied to the soil;
 - Prohibit applying biosolids to land with a seasonal high water table within six inches of the soil surface or depth of biosolids placement unless a department-approved nutrient management plan and water quality monitoring plan provide reasonable assurances that the land application of biosolids at the site will not cause or contribute to a violation of the state's surface water quality standards or groundwater standards; and
 - Require biosolids sites to enroll in a Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services Best Management Practices program;
- Require all permits to comply with these requirements by July 1, 2022; and
- Require biosolids sites to comply with the DEP's new rule within two years of the effective date of the rule.

The Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs (SERC) developed by the DEP determined that the proposed rule will likely increase regulatory costs in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after implementation of the rule. This amount triggers the statutory requirement for the rule to be ratified by the Legislature before it may go into effect.

The bill provides a declaratory statement and determination by the Legislature that the rule ratification fulfills an important state interest.

The act is effective upon becoming a law. At that time, the rule also becomes effective.

The bill will have an indeterminate negative fiscal impact on the DEP due to increased inspections and monitoring of application sites.

II. Present Situation:

Legislative Ratification

A rule is subject to legislative ratification if it:

- Has an adverse impact on economic growth, private sector job creation or employment, or private sector investment in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule;
- Has an adverse impact on business competitiveness, including the ability of persons doing business in the state to compete with persons doing business in other states or domestic markets, productivity, or innovation in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule; or
- Increases regulatory costs, including any transactional costs, in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule.¹

If a rule requires ratification by the Legislature, the rule must be submitted to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives no later than 30 days prior to the regular legislative session. The rule may not go into effect until it is ratified by the Legislature.²

Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs Requirements

A statement of estimated regulatory costs (SERC) is an analysis prepared by an agency before the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule other than an emergency rule. A SERC must be prepared by an agency for a proposed rule that:

- Will have an adverse impact on small business; or
- Is likely to directly or indirectly increase regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate in the state within one year after the implementation of the rule.³

A SERC must include:

² Section 120.541(3), F.S.

³ Section 120.54(3)(b)1., F.S.

- An economic analysis showing whether the rule exceeds the thresholds requiring legislative ratification;
- A good faith estimate of the number and types of individuals and entities likely to be required to comply with the rule, and a general description of the types of individuals likely to be affected by the rule;
- A good faith estimate of the cost to the agency, and to other state and local government entities, of implementing and enforcing the proposed rule, including anticipated effects on state or local revenues;
- A good faith estimate of the transactional costs (direct business costs) likely to be incurred by individuals and entities required to comply with the requirements of the rule;
- An analysis of the impact on small businesses, small counties, and small cities; and
- A description of regulatory alternatives submitted to the agency and a statement adopting the alternative or a statement of the reasons for rejecting the alternative in favor of the proposed rule.⁴

Biosolids

When domestic wastewater is treated, a solid, semisolid, or liquid byproduct, known as biosolids,⁵ accumulates in the wastewater treatment plant and must be removed periodically to keep the plant operating properly.⁶ Biosolids also include products and treated material from biosolids treatment facilities and septage management facilities regulated by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).⁷ The collected material is high in organic content and contains moderate amounts of nutrients that are needed by plants.⁸

The DEP has stated that wastewater treatment facilities produce about 340,000 dry tons of biosolids each year.⁹ Biosolids can be disposed of in several ways: transfer to another facility, placement in a landfill, distribution and marketing as fertilizer, incineration, bioenergy, and land application to pasture or agricultural lands.¹⁰ About one-third of the total amount of biosolids produced is used for land application¹¹ and is subject to regulatory requirements established by the DEP to protect public health and the environment.¹²

⁴ Section 120.541(2), F.S.

⁵ Section 373.4595, F.S.; see also Fla. Admin. Code R. 62-640.200(6). Biosolids are the solid, semisolid, or liquid residue generated during the treatment of domestic wastewater in a domestic wastewater treatment facility and include products and treated material from biosolids treatment facilities and septage management facilities. The term does not include the treated effluent or reclaimed water from a domestic wastewater treatment facility, solids removed from pump stations and lift stations, screenings and grit removed from the preliminary treatment components of domestic wastewater treatment facilities, or ash generated during the incineration of biosolids.

¹² Fla. Admin. Code R. 62-640.

Biosolids may be used by land application in farming and ranching operations, forest lands, and public areas such as parks, or in land reclamation projects such as restoration of mining properties. Biosolids contain macronutrients (such as nitrogen and phosphorus) and micronutrients (such as copper, iron, and manganese) that are utilized by crops. The application of nutrient-rich biosolids increases the organic content of the soil, fostering more productive plant growth.¹³ There are approximately 140 permitted land application sites in Florida, with waste haulers being the most common site permittees.¹⁴ The map below shows the permitted sites.

Typically, Class B biosolids are used in land application.¹⁵ The highest quality of biosolids, known in Florida as “Class AA,” are distributed and marketed like other commercial fertilizers. The DEP does not track the sale of commercial fertilizers.

Biosolids are regulated under chapter 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code. The rules provide minimum requirements, including pollutant limits and monitoring and reporting requirements, for the treatment, management, use, and disposal of biosolids. The rules are applicable to wastewater treatment facilities, applicators, and distributors¹⁶ and include permit requirements for both treatment facilities and biosolids application sites.¹⁷

¹⁷ Fla. Admin. Code R. 62-640.300.

The application of Class A and Class B biosolids is banned in South Florida within the Lake Okeechobee, Caloosahatchee River, and St. Lucie River watersheds unless the applicant can affirmatively demonstrate that the nutrients in the biosolids will not add to nutrient loadings in the watershed.¹⁸ However, other communities have expressed concerns that runoff from farms and ranches that use biosolids can lead to toxic blue-green algae blooms and have sought bans locally.¹⁹

Rule 62-640, Florida Administrative Code

In 2018, the DEP created a Biosolids Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) to evaluate current biosolids management practices and explore opportunities to better protect Florida's water resources. The TAC convened four times in 2018 and 2019 and discussed current options for biosolids management in the state, potential improvements in biosolids management to protect our water resources, and looked at what research is necessary for successful improvements.²⁰ The DEP issued its first draft rule in October 2019 after the TAC disbanded, but withdrew the rule following the passage of the Clean Waterways Act.²¹

The Clean Waterways Act (Ch. 2020-150, Laws of Florida)

The Clean Waterways Act required the DEP to adopt rules for biosolids management and specified that any rules adopted may not take effect until ratified by the Legislature.

Section 403.0855, F.S., includes provisions that the rule must:

- Require a new land application site permit or permit renewal issued after July 1, 2020, to:
 - Ensure a minimum unsaturated soil depth of two feet between the depth of biosolids placement and the water table level at the time biosolids are applied to the soil;
 - Prohibit applying biosolids to land with a seasonal high water table²² within six inches of the soil surface or depth of biosolids placement unless a department-approved nutrient management plan and water quality monitoring plan provide reasonable assurances that the land application of biosolids at the site will not cause or contribute to a violation of the state's surface water quality standards or groundwater standards; and
 - Require biosolids sites to enroll in a Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (DACS) Best Management Practices program;
- Require all permits to comply with these requirements by July 1, 2022; and

- Require biosolids sites to comply with the DEP's new rule within two years of the effective date of the rule.

The DEP published its proposed rule implementing the provisions of s. 403.0855, F.S., on December 3, 2020. In addition to the requirements in the Clean Waterways Act, the proposed rule issued by the DEP:

- Revises the provisions for determining biosolids land application rates to include basing rates on nitrogen and phosphorus levels;
- Imposes groundwater and surface water monitoring requirements for land application sites; and
- Considers biosolids permit applications as projects of heightened public interest.

DEP Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs

The DEP anticipates the rule costing in excess of $1 million in the next five years. The DEP published a SERC on December 3, 2020.²³ The DEP projects the following changes would increase costs due to the revised rule:

- A significant reduction (estimated 75 percent) in biosolids land application which could lead to permitting more land to accommodate the current quantity of biosolids;
- Longer hauling distances to newly permitted land application sites;
- Additional site monitoring requirements and increased operational costs at land application sites;
- Loss of fertilizer cost savings by not being able to land apply biosolids;²⁴ and
- Possible transfer of biosolids out-of-state for management or disposal.

The DEP estimates that the cost of the proposed rule over the next five years will be $310,000,000 to continue land application of Class B biosolids, and $450,000,000-$600,000,000 to convert to Class AA biosolids (fertilizer).²⁵ There are innovative technologies to process biosolids for energy or fuel as an alternative to land application, but the DEP stated that there is limited evidence that these methods could serve as feasible alternatives and the costs are higher than the costs for conversion to Class AA biosolids.²⁶

In the SERC, the DEP states that the majority of biosolids are generated by utilities owned and operated by local government entities. Therefore, estimates for one-time capital costs and recurring costs will primarily affect local government entities. This includes 104 domestic wastewater treatment facilities that treat and land apply biosolids, and unknown numbers of small wastewater treatment facilities that send biosolids to larger treatment facilities and biosolids treatment facilities that treat and land apply biosolids.²⁷

Environmental Regulation Commission

The Environmental Regulation Commission (ERC) is an unpaid seven-member board within the DEP.²⁸ Under specified statutory provisions and with certain exceptions, the ERC must exercise the standard-setting authority of the DEP – approving, modifying, or disapproving proposed rules that contain standards.²⁹ In exercising its authority to set standards, the ERC must consider scientific and technical validity, economic impacts, and relative risks and benefits to the public and the environment.³⁰

The ERC is composed of seven state residents, appointed by the Governor for four-year terms, subject to confirmation by the Senate.³¹ The appointees must provide reasonable representation from all sections of the state, and be representative of agriculture, the development industry, local government, the environmental community, lay citizens, and members of the scientific and technical community who have substantial expertise related to water pollutants, toxicology, epidemiology, geology, biology, environmental sciences, or engineering.³² Most issues that go before the ERC relate to air pollution, water quality, or waste management.³³ The ERC is scheduled to meet monthly, but has not met since 2019.³⁴ According to the DEP’s website, two of the memberships to the ERC are vacant and the terms of the five listed members have lapsed.³⁵ However, the Governor recently appointed four members to the ERC.³⁶

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill ratifies the rules comprising ch. 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code, titled “Biosolids,” for the sole and exclusive purpose of satisfying any condition on effectiveness imposed under s. 120.541(3), F.S. Chapter 62-640 of the Florida Administrative Code, proposed by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and published on December 3, 2020, in the Florida Administrative Register, Vol. 46, No. 234, pages 5281-5297, consists of rules:

- 62-640.100, entitled Scope, Intent, Purpose, and Applicability;
- 62-640.200, entitled Definitions;
- 62-640.210, entitled General Technical Guidance and Forms;
- 62-640.300, entitled General Requirements;
- 62-640.400, entitled Prohibitions;
- 62-640.500, entitled Nutrient Management Plan (NMP);

²⁹ Sections 403.803(13), 403.804, and 403.805(1), F.S. “Standard” is defined as any DEP rule relating to air and water quality, noise, solid-waste management, and electric and magnetic fields associated with electrical transmission and distribution lines and substations. The term does not include rules relating to internal management or procedural matters.

- 62-640.650, entitled Monitoring, Record Keeping, Reporting, and Notification;
- 62-640.700, entitled Requirements for Land Application of Class AA, A, and B Biosolids;
- 62-640.800, entitled Additional Requirements for Land Application at Reclamation Sites;
- 62-640.850, entitled Distribution and Marketing of Class AA Biosolids; and
- 62-640.880, entitled Additional Requirements Related to Biosolids Treatment Facilities.

The bill:

- Exempts the rules from review and approval by the Environmental Regulation Commission (ERC) under s. 403.804(1), F.S.;
- Directs that section one of the bill serves no other purpose and may not be codified in the Florida Statutes;
- Requires the DEP to publish a notice of the enactment of the exemption from review and approval by the ERC in the Florida Administrative Register; and
- Provides that section one of the bill does not:
 - Alter rulemaking authority delegated by prior law;
 - Constitute a legislative preemption of, or exception to, any other provision of law regarding adoption or enforcement of the rule cited; and
 - Does not cure any rulemaking defect or preempt any challenge on lack of authority or a violation of the legal requirements governing adoption of any rule cited.

The bill provides a declaratory statement and determination by the Legislature that section 1 of the bill fulfills an important state interest.

The act is effective upon becoming a law. At that time, the rule also becomes effective.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The county/municipality mandates provision of Art. VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution may apply to this bill because local governments may be required to expend funds to manage biosolids under the new requirements of the rule. The bill includes a legislative finding that the rule ratification fulfills an important state interest. The expenditures are required to comply with rules and law that applies to all persons similarly situated. Therefore, an exception from Art. VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution likely applies.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

According to the Department of Environmental's (DEP's) statement of estimated regulatory costs (SERC), there will likely be increased operational costs to biosolids treatment facilities and septage management facilities. There will also likely be impacts to biosolids haulers and the ranchers and farmers who own land application sites. Utility ratepayers and homeowners may ultimately bear the increased operational costs of wastewater treatment facilities.³⁷ See discussion of SERC in Section II on page six of the analysis.

C. Government Sector Impact:

According to the DEP's statement of estimated regulatory costs, there will likely be increased operational costs to wastewater treatment facilities.³⁸ See discussion of SERC in Section II on page six of the analysis.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends section 403.0855 of the Florida Statutes.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 7062 ratifies the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP)'s rules for the Central Florida Water Initiative (CFWI), Rules 62-41.300, 62-41.301, 62-41.302, 62-41.303, 62-41.304, and 62-41.305, Florida Administrative Code.

Chapter 2016-1, Laws of Florida, required the DEP to establish:

- Uniform processes for conducting permit reviews, setting minimum flows and minimum water levels within the boundaries of the CFWI Area, and establishing a variance process;
- Uniform methods for calculating residential per capita water use;
- A uniform definition of the term "harmful to water resources;" and
- Annual conservation and residential per capita water use goals for consumptive use permits.

The Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs (SERC) developed by the DEP determined that the proposed rule will likely increase regulatory costs in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after implementation of the rule. This amount triggers the statutory requirement for the rule to be ratified by the Legislature before it may go into effect.

Additionally, the bill:

- Provides a declaratory statement and determination by the Legislature that the act fulfills an important state interest.
- Revises the required rulemaking to include an annual supplemental irrigation requirement allocation for agricultural uses and a process for examining an agriculture user's average annual supplemental irrigation needs.

- Provides that these rules may not be construed to limit the ability of the department or a water management district to establish different supplemental irrigation requirements.
- Establishes a grant program within the DEP, subject to appropriation, for the CFWI, which will promote alternative water supply and protect groundwater resources. The bill requires the DEP to give priority to projects that use reclaimed water, create new surface water storage, enhance natural systems, recharge groundwater, optimize beneficial uses of water, expand water conservation programs, or that can demonstrate a significant financial hardship exists as a result of complying with the rules applicable to the CFWI Area.
- Revises the priority system for the Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund to give special consideration to projects that implement water supply plans and develop water sources as an alternative to continued reliance on the Floridan aquifer under the CFWI.

The estimated cost to the St. Johns River, Southwest Florida, and South Florida Water Management Districts of implementing the proposed rule is $637,000 and the estimated cost of monitoring and enforcing the proposed rule is $64,000.

The act is effective upon becoming a law. At that time, the rule also becomes effective.

II. Present Situation:

Legislative Ratification

A rule is subject to legislative ratification if it:

- Has an adverse impact on economic growth, private sector job creation or employment, or private sector investment in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule;
- Has an adverse impact on business competitiveness, including the ability of persons doing business in the state to compete with persons doing business in other states or domestic markets, productivity, or innovation in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule; or
- Increases regulatory costs, including any transactional costs, in excess of $1 million in the aggregate within five years after the implementation of the rule.¹

If a rule requires ratification by the Legislature, the rule must be submitted to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives no later than 30 days prior to the regular legislative session. The rule may not go into effect until it is ratified by the Legislature.²

Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs Requirements

A Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs (SERC) is an analysis prepared by an agency before the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule other than an emergency rule. An SERC must be prepared by an agency for a proposed rule that:

- Will have an adverse impact on small business; or

² Section 120.541(3), F.S.

- Is likely to directly or indirectly increase regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate in the state within one year after the implementation of the rule.³

An SERC must include:

- An economic analysis showing whether the rule exceeds the thresholds requiring legislative ratification;
- A good faith estimate of the number and types of individuals and entities likely to be required to comply with the rule, and a general description of the types of individuals likely to be affected by the rule;
- A good faith estimate of the cost to the agency, and to other state and local government entities, of implementing and enforcing the proposed rule, including anticipated effects on state or local revenues;
- A good faith estimate of the transactional costs (direct business costs) likely to be incurred by individuals and entities required to comply with the requirements of the rule;
- An analysis of the impact on small businesses, small counties, and small cities; and
- A description of regulatory alternatives submitted to the agency and a statement adopting the alternative or a statement of the reasons for rejecting the alternative in favor of the proposed rule.⁴

Consumptive Use Permits

A consumptive use permit (CUP) establishes the duration and type of water use as well as the maximum amount of water that may be withdrawn daily. Each CUP must be consistent with the objectives of the issuing Water Management District (WMD) or the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and may not be harmful to the water resources of the area.⁵ To obtain a CUP, an applicant must establish that the proposed use of water satisfies the statutory test, commonly referred to as “the three-prong test.” Specifically, the proposed water use must:

- Be a “reasonable-beneficial use”;⁶
- Not interfere with any presently existing legal use of water; and
- Be consistent with the public interest.⁷

Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund

The Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund, administered by the DEP, provides low-interest loans to eligible entities for planning, designing, and constructing public water facilities to provide safe drinking water and protect water quality.⁸ An investor-owned public water system that is legally responsible for public water services and serves no more than 1,500 connections is eligible for a loan. An investor-owned public water system that serves more than 1,500

³ Section 120.54(3)(b)1., F.S.

⁴ Section 120.541(2), F.S.

⁵ Section 373.219, F.S.

⁶ Section 373.019(16), F.S., defines reasonable-beneficial use as, “the use of water in such quantity as is necessary for economic and efficient utilization for a purpose and in a manner which is both reasonable and consistent with the public interest.” See also Fla. Admin. Code R. 62-40.410(2) for additional factors to help determine if a water use is a reasonable-beneficial use.

⁸ Section 403.8533, F.S.

connections may qualify for a loan only if the proposed project will result in the consolidation of two or more public water systems.⁹

Loan funding is based on a priority system that takes into account public health considerations, compliance, and affordability.¹⁰ The priority system shall give special consideration to:

- Projects that provide for the development of alternative drinking water supply projects and management techniques in areas where existing source waters are limited or threatened by saltwater intrusion, excessive drawdowns, contamination, or other problems;
- Projects that provide for a dependable, sustainable supply of drinking water and that are not otherwise financially feasible; and
- Projects that contribute to the sustainability of regional water sources.¹¹

Central Florida Water Initiative

The Central Florida Water Initiative (CFWI) is a collaborative water supply planning effort involving the DEP, the St. Johns River Water Management District (SJRWMD), the South Florida Water Management District (SFWMD), the Southwest Florida Water Management District (SWFWMD), the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (DACS), regional public water supply utilities, and other stakeholders.¹² These groups have been tasked with addressing the current and long-term water supply needs of Central Florida without causing harm to the water resources and associated natural systems.¹³

The CFWI Planning Area covers five counties, including Orange, Osceola, Polk, Seminole, and southern Lake Counties.¹⁴ The CFWI Planning Area is home to approximately 2.9 million people and supports tourism, agriculture, and an industrial and commercial sector.¹⁵ The area's population is projected to reach 4.4 million by 2040. The total average (surface and ground) water use in the area is projected to increase from 667 million gallons per day (mgd) in 2015 to 908 mgd in 2040. Of this amount, groundwater represents 635 mgd and 855 mgd, respectively. Public supply constitutes the largest water use in the CFWI Area.¹⁶

The areas encompassed by the CFWI Planning Area have traditionally relied on groundwater from the Floridan aquifer system as the primary source of water. Evaluations predict that fresh groundwater resources alone will be insufficient to meet 2040 projected water demands and currently permitted allocations for withdrawal without resulting in unacceptable impacts to water resources and related natural systems.¹⁷ These impacts can include drying out wetlands, reducing

Map of the CFWI Area

In the past, the three WMDs worked independently to resolve water resource issues, but the decisions of one district can affect the water resources of another.¹⁹ In 2006, the three WMDs agreed to a Central Florida Coordination Area (CFCA) Action Plan to address the near-term and long-term development of water supplies in the central Florida region.²⁰ The CFWI was created in 2009, building on the CFCA Action Plan.²¹ In November 2015, the WMDs’ respective governing boards approved the first ever joint regional water supply plan, the 2015 CFWI Regional Water Supply Plan (RWSP).²²

The guiding principles for the CFWI process were initially designed to ensure sufficient water was available by:

- Identifying the sustainable quantities of traditional groundwater sources available for water supplies that can be used without causing unacceptable harm to the water resources and associated natural systems.
- Developing strategies to meet water demands that are in excess of the sustainable yield of existing traditional groundwater sources.
- Establishing consistent rules and regulations for the three WMDs that meet their collective goals, and implement the results of the CFWI.²³

The guidelines were updated in April 2016, and adopted in the CFWI 2020 Guiding Document. The revised guiding principles include the following principles and goals:

- Review and update the 2015 CFWI RWSP, as well as the sustainable quantities of traditional groundwater sources available in the CFWI Area that can be used without causing unacceptable harm to the water resources and associated natural systems.
- Monitor progress of regional strategies and solutions identified in the 2015 CFWI Plan.
- Review and update strategies to meet water demands that are in excess of the sustainable yield of existing traditional groundwater sources.
- Establish consistent rules and regulations for the three WMDs that meet the specified goals and implement the results of the CFWI.
- Encourage funding for regional strategies necessary to achieve the objectives of the CFWI.²⁴

Chapter 2016-1, Laws of Florida

The DEP, in consultation with the WMDs and DACS, is required to adopt uniform rules for application within the CFWI, to comply with requirements set forth in s. 373.0465(2)(d), F.S., enacted during the 2016 legislative session. The Legislature found that development of alternative water supply instead of a continued reliance on the Floridan aquifer would benefit existing and future water users and natural water systems.²⁵

In developing the CFWI plan, the DEP, the WMDs, and the DACS are required to:

- Consider limitations on groundwater use and opportunities for new, increased, or redistributed groundwater uses that are consistent with CUP conditions;
- Establish a coordinated process for identifying water resources requiring new or revised conditions;
- Consider existing recovery or prevention strategies;
- Include a list of water supply options sufficient to meet the water needs of all existing and future reasonable-beneficial uses; and
- Identify, as necessary, which of the water supply sources are preferred water supply sources.²⁶

The required rulemaking affects CUPs within the CFWI Area and provides for:

- A uniform definition of the term “harmful to water resources”; and
- Establishing annual conservation and residential per capita water use goals for CUPs.²⁷

Rules 62-41.300-305, Florida Administrative Code

The DEP issued its first notice of rule development on December 30, 2016. Between 2017 and 2020, the DEP hosted eight rule development workshops for different portions of the rule. The draft rule was published on November 19, 2020,²⁸ and a public hearing on the proposed rule was held on December 11, 2020.²⁹ The draft rule, which incorporates the CFWI Supplemental Applicant’s Handbook, was revised on February 9, 2021, to incorporate certain lower cost regulatory alternatives submitted by stakeholders.³⁰

The proposed rules apply to CUP applicants and permittees with withdrawal points within the CFWI Area. The proposed rule issued by the DEP:

- Provides that the cumulative use of the Upper Floridan aquifer across the CFWI Area has caused detrimental effects to other users and the water resources of the state.³¹
- Sets out methods for calculating per capita water use and annual conservation goals.³²
- Limits water withdrawals from the Upper Floridan aquifer to the demonstrated 2025 demand (the existing permitted allocation) for public supply, industrial/commercial/institutional, and mining/dewatering water uses.³³
- Requires existing CUPs with withdrawal points within the CFWI Area to be modified to be consistent with the new rules.³⁴
- Provides for temporary allocations of water required to meet the applicant’s reasonable demand beyond the demonstrated 2025 demand while implementing an offset, substitution credit, land use transition, or alternative water supply.³⁵

- Adopts existing recovery and prevention strategies.³⁹

The DEP Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs

The DEP published an SERC on November 7, 2020.⁴⁰ The DEP estimates that the transactional cost of the proposed rule over the next five years will be $18.6 million, in permittee, applicant, and consultant time spent in water supply, conservation planning, and investments by public supply utilities to reduce per capita water use, as well as materials.⁴¹ However, according to the SERC, the costs to households and businesses located within the CFWI will be offset by the economic benefit to the CFWI economy, resulting in a net negative economic impact of less than $1,000,000 over the five-year period.⁴²

According to the DEP's SERC, due to the temporary allocations allowed for under the proposed rule, there will be little prospect of water shortages or impacts to expanded business operations, no impact to the number of Florida visitors, and no losses to a consumer value from the water shortage. However, there may be some impact to new businesses applying for a CUP.⁴³

The estimated cost to the SJRWMD, SWFWMD, and SFWMD of implementing the proposed rule is $637,000 and the estimated cost to agencies of monitoring and enforcing the proposed rule is $64,000.⁴⁴

The rules are anticipated to affect CUPs in the CFWI Area due to the prohibition of additional permitted water withdrawals from the Upper Floridan aquifer after 2025 for public supply and industrial/commercial/institutional water use permittees and applicants.⁴⁵ Thereafter, applicants and permittees would need to meet additional water demands with water from alternative sources. The transactional cost of the proposed rule by the year 2040 is estimated to be $190 million annually.⁴⁶

Agricultural Use Type Permittees and Applicants

Under the proposed rule, agricultural, landscape, and recreation use type permittees and applicants withdrawing water from the Upper Floridan Aquifer for irrigation are not limited to the demonstrated 2025 water demand. Instead, permitted quantities for supplemental irrigation are based on two thresholds of water use: a five-in-ten-year rainfall condition and a two-in-ten-year drought condition.⁴⁷

An allocation using a five-in-ten-year rainfall condition represents the amount of water required to meet average annual water demands.⁴⁸ An allocation using a two-in-ten-year drought condition represents the amount of water required to meet water demands generated from a rainfall deficit during a drought with the probability of recurring twice every ten years.⁴⁹ Compliance with these annual allocations is based on the quantity withdrawn over a rolling average of the previous 12-month period.

According to the DEP's SERC, the five-in-ten-year rainfall condition is used to better match actual water demands to their corresponding rainfall conditions and the two-in-ten-year drought condition allows for unusual water needs caused by weather conditions.⁵⁰

Concerns and Challenges

Several local governments and entities submitted lower cost regulatory alternatives (LCRA) and challenged the CFWI rule. The DEP accepted some of the LCRA submissions and issued a revised rule on February 9, 2021, that included modified language. The DEP rejected the remaining LCRA submissions, stating that they do not substantially accomplish the objectives of the law being implemented.⁵¹ The issues raised in the LCRAs that were rejected by the DEP included requests to:

- Remove provisions limiting allocation for permittees and applicants to the demonstrated 2025 demand, and alternatively, continue current CUPs and expedite adoption of minimum flows and minimum water levels in the CFWI Area. The LCRAs suggested that the rule would result in the unnecessary implementation of alternative water supply projects and water rate increases.
- Amend the annual conservation goals for public supply use permittees and applicants to a more feasible goal.
- Exempt permittees and applicants in certain water use caution areas from the rules.

⁵¹ Id. at 7-2.

In response to the rejected submissions, the DEP stated that:

- Existing and planned minimum flows and minimum water levels do not address all of the anticipated water resource impacts in the area and the proposed rules are designed to address harm to all water resources.⁵²
- The need for implementation of alternative water supply projects has been known for over 10 years and all permittees were on notice that their permits could be modified.⁵³
- The rule has to address both individual and cumulative harm to water resources in the CFWI Area.⁵⁴
- The rule provides for numerous alternatives and accommodations to address hardships.⁵⁵
- The suggested seven percent reduction in water use does not accomplish the objectives of the law being implemented.⁵⁶
- The conservation goals are feasible and many permittees are already meeting the goals. If a permittee cannot meet the goal, a variance is available.⁵⁷
- Exempting permittees and applicants from the rule is not consistent with legislative intent and the recovery strategies in the specific water use caution areas are not being met.⁵⁸

As a result, on March 1, 2021, the local governments and entities submitted several rule challenges to the Division of Administrative Hearings. The final administrative hearing on the challenges was canceled, and the case has been placed in abeyance due to the parties reaching a tentative settlement agreement.⁵⁹ A revised rule is also expected from the DEP.

Water Use Caution Areas

A water use caution area (WUCA) is a geographic area identified by a WMD as having existing water resource problems or where water resource problems are projected to develop during the next 20 years.⁶⁰

A WMD must determine, in its water supply assessment, whether sources of water are adequate to meet projected 20-year demands to supply water for all existing and projected reasonable-beneficial uses and to sustain the water resources and related natural systems.⁶¹ If a determination is made that the sources of water supply are not adequate, a regional water supply plan must be developed and the region must be designated as a WUCA.⁶²

The CFWI Planning Area was identified as a WUCA in the 2015 CFWI RWSP and verified as a WUCA in the 2020 CFWI RWSP.⁶³ The CFWI includes two existing WUCAs: the Southern WUCA and the Dover/Plant City WUCA.

The Southern WUCA encompasses approximately 5,100 square miles and includes all of Manatee, Sarasota, Hardee, and DeSoto Counties and portions of Hillsborough, Charlotte, Polk, and Highlands Counties.⁶⁴ It was established by the SWFWMD in 1992, due to environmental concerns related to groundwater withdrawals from growing demands in the area, which caused depressed aquifer levels.⁶⁵

The Dover/Plant City WUCA was established in 2011, following a historic freeze event in eastern Hillsborough County and western Polk County, when agricultural permittees pumped large quantities of groundwater to protect their crops from the freeze, resulting in declines in aquifer levels.⁶⁶ The DEP is currently evaluating both WUCAs to determine whether targets have been achieved.⁶⁷

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

CFWI Rule Ratification

Section 1 of the bill ratifies Rules 62-41.300, 62-41.301, 62-41.302, 62-41.303, 62-41.304, and 62-41.305, Florida Administrative Code, titled “Central Florida Water Initiative Area,” (CFWI) adopted by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), for the sole and exclusive purpose of satisfying any condition on effectiveness imposed under s. 120.541(3), F.S. The rule, proposed by the DEP and published on November 19, 2020, in the Florida Administrative Register, Vol. 46, No. 226, pages 5019-5025; February 9, 2021, in the Florida Administrative Register, Vol. 47, No. 26, pages 733-734; and March 26, 2021, in the Florida Administrative Register, Vol. 47, No. 59, pages 1506-1507, consists of rules:

Declaration of Important State Interest

The bill provides a declaratory statement and determination by the Legislature that the act fulfills an important state interest.

CFWI Rulemaking

Section 2 of the bill revises s. 373.0465, F.S. The bill revises the rulemaking authority to require the DEP, in consultation with the relevant water management districts and the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, to adopt uniform rules for application within the CFWI that include:

- A drought application for supplemental irrigation for agricultural uses which is based on a two-in-ten-year rainfall conditions or, if the applicant requests, is based on a five-in-ten-year rainfall condition alone or combined with the two-in-ten-year condition. The applicable water management district may also condition, for information purposes only, consumptive use permits to advise permittees that their annual use of water should be less than the drought condition that is the basis for the allocation or a more severe drought; and
- A process for the applicable water management district to annually examine an agricultural user's five year moving average supplemental irrigation water use against the annual supplemental irrigation needs in the five-in-ten-year rainfall condition beginning no earlier than five years following the effective date of the rules adopted under this section. If this annual examination indicates that the agricultural user's five year moving average use exceeds that needed in such rainfall condition for reasons other than prolonged periods of below average rainfall, the water management district may modify the agricultural user's permit to include an annual supplemental irrigation allocation based on both the amount of supplemental irrigation required during a two-in-ten-year rainfall condition and the amount of supplemental irrigation required during a five-in-ten-year rainfall condition as provided in rules adopted pursuant to this section. In such case, the supplemental irrigation allocation based on a five-in-ten-year rainfall condition shall be valid for only five years unless the agricultural user's five year moving average continues to exceed the amount of supplemental irrigation needed during the five-in-ten-year rainfall condition for reasons other than prolonged periods of drought.

The bill provides that the new rule requirements above may not be construed to limit the ability of the DEP or a water management district to establish different supplemental irrigation requirements as part of an existing or future recovery or prevention strategy adopted pursuant to s. 373.0363, s. 373.042, or s. 373.0421, F.S.

CFWI Grant Program

Section 3 of the bill establishes a grant program within the DEP, subject to appropriation, for the CFWI. The bill requires the DEP, in cooperation with the relevant water management districts, to provide grants for projects within the CFWI Area that will promote alternative water supplies and protect groundwater resources. The bill requires the DEP, in allocating grant program funds, to give priority to projects that use reclaimed water, create new surface water storage, enhance natural systems, recharge groundwater, optimize beneficial uses of water, expand water conservation programs, or that are able to demonstrate that a significant financial hardship exists as a result of complying with the rules applicable to the CFWI Area.

Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund Priorities

Section 4 of the bill revises the priority system for the Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund to give special consideration to projects that implement water supply plans and develop water sources as an alternative to continued reliance on the Floridan aquifer under the CFWI.

Effective Date

Section 5 of the bill provides that the act is effective upon becoming a law.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The county/municipality mandates provision of Art. VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution may apply to this bill because local governments may be required to expend funds to develop alternative water supply under the new requirements of the rule. The bill includes a legislative finding that the act fulfills an important state interest. The expenditures are required to comply with rules and law that applies to all persons similarly situated. Therefore, an exception from Art. VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution likely applies.

11 (2) This section serves no other purpose and shall not be 12 codified in the Florida Statutes. After this act becomes a law,
13 its enactment and effective dates shall be noted in the Florida
14 Administrative Code or the Florida Administrative Register, or 15 both, as appropriate. This section does not constitute 16 legislative preemption of or exception to any provision of law
17 governing adoption or enforcement of the rule cited, and is 18 intended to preserve the status of any cited rule as a rule
19 under chapter 120, Florida Statutes. This section does not cure
20 any rulemaking defect or preempt any challenge based on a 21 violation of the legal requirements governing the adoption of 22 any rule cited.

23 (3) The Legislature determines and declares that this
24 section fulfills an important state interest.

25 Section 2. Paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of section
26 373.0465, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

27 373.0465 Central Florida Water Initiative.-

28 (2)

29 (d) The department, in consultation with the St. Johns
30 River Water Management District, the South Florida Water
31 Management District, the Southwest Florida Water Management
32 District, and the Department of Agriculture and Consumer
33 Services, shall adopt uniform rules for application within the 34 Central Florida Water Initiative Area that include:

35 1. A single, uniform definition of the term "harmful to the 36 water resources" consistent with the term's usage in s. 373.219;

37 2. A single method for calculating residential per capita
38 water use;

39 3. A single process for permit reviews;

40 4. A single, consistent process, as appropriate, to set
41 minimum flows and minimum water levels and water reservations;

42 5. A goal for residential per capita water use for each 43 consumptive use permit; ~~and~~

44 6. An annual conservation goal for each consumptive use
45 permit consistent with the regional water supply plan; ~~-~~

46 7. A drought allocation for supplemental irrigation for 47 agricultural uses which is based on a 2-in-10-year rainfall
48 condition or, if the applicant so requests, is based on a 5-in-
49 10-year rainfall condition alone or combined with the 2-in-10-
50 year condition. The applicable water management district may 51 also condition, for information only purposes, consumptive use
52 permits to advise permittees that their annual use of water
53 should be less than the drought allocation in all years except 54 for the drought condition that is the basis for the allocation
55 or a more severe drought; and

56 8. A process for the applicable water management district
57 to annually examine an agricultural user's 5-year moving average
58 supplemental irrigation water use against the annual 59 supplemental irrigation needs in the 5-in-10-year rainfall
60 condition beginning no earlier than 5 years following the 61 effective date of the rules adopted under this section. If this 62 annual examination indicates that the agricultural user's 5-year
63 moving average use exceeds that needed in such rainfall
64 condition for reasons other than prolonged periods of below
65 average rainfall, the water management district may modify the 66 agricultural user's permit to include an annual supplemental 67 irrigation allocation based on both the amount of supplemental 68 irrigation required during a 2-in-10-year rainfall condition and 828060

69 the amount of supplemental irrigation required during a 5-in-10-
70 year rainfall condition as provided in rules adopted pursuant to 71 this section. In such case, the supplemental irrigation
72 allocation based on the 5-in-10-year rainfall condition shall be 73 valid for only 5 years unless the agricultural user's 5-year
74 moving average use continues to exceed the amount of 75 supplemental irrigation needed during a 5-in-10-year rainfall
76 condition for reasons other than prolonged periods of drought.

77
78 Subparagraphs 7. and 8. may not be construed to limit the 79 ability of the department or a water management district to 80 establish different supplemental irrigation requirements as part
81 of an existing or future recovery or prevention strategy adopted
82 pursuant to s. 373.0363, s. 373.042, or s. 373.0421. The uniform
83 rules must include existing recovery strategies within the 84 Central Florida Water Initiative Area adopted before July 1, 85 2016. The department may grant variances to the uniform rules if 86 there are unique circumstances or hydrogeological factors that 87 make application of the uniform rules unrealistic or 88 impractical.

89 Section 3. Section 373.0466, Florida Statutes, is created
90 to read:

91 373.0466 Central Florida Water Initiative grant program.-
92 Subject to appropriation, a grant program for the Central 93 Florida Water Initiative is established within the Department of 94 Environmental Protection.

95 (1) The department, in cooperation with the relevant water
96 management districts, shall provide grants for projects that 97 benefit the Central Florida Water Initiative Area which promote

98 alternative water supplies and protect groundwater resources.

99 (2) In allocating such funds, priority must be given to 100 projects that use reclaimed water, create new surface water
101 storage, enhance natural systems, recharge groundwater, optimize 102 beneficial uses of water, expand water conservation programs, or 103 are able to demonstrate that a significant financial hardship
104 exists as a result of complying with rules applicable to the 105 Central Florida Water Initiative Area.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 7076 establishes additional enforcement measures to address violations of gambling laws and the conduct of unauthorized gaming in the state, including the creation of the Florida Gaming Control Commission, and granting additional investigatory and prosecutorial authority to the Office of Statewide Prosecution in the Department of Legal Affairs.

CS/SB 7078, relating to Public Records and Public Meeting Exemptions/Florida Gaming Control Commission, is linked to this bill.

The bill will have an indeterminate fiscal impact on state government. See Section V, Fiscal Impact Statement.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the bill, the bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

II. Present Situation:

Background

In general, gambling is illegal in Florida.¹ Chapter 849, F.S., prohibits keeping a gambling house,² running a lottery,³ or the manufacture, sale, lease, play, or possession of slot machines.⁴ However, the following gaming activities are authorized by law and regulated by the state:

- Pari-mutuel⁵ wagering at licensed greyhound and horse tracks and jai alai frontons;⁶
- Slot machine gaming at certain licensed pari-mutuel locations in Miami-Dade County and Broward County;⁷ and
- Cardrooms⁸ at certain pari-mutuel facilities.⁹

A license to offer pari-mutuel wagering, slot machine gambling, or a cardroom at a pari-mutuel facility is a privilege granted by the state.¹⁰

The 1968 State Constitution states that “[l]otteries, other than the types of pari-mutuel pools authorized by law as of the effective date of this constitution . . .” are prohibited.¹¹ A constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 1986 authorized state-operated lotteries. Net proceeds of the lottery are deposited to the Educational Enhancement Trust Fund (EETF) and appropriated by the Legislature. Lottery operations are self-supporting and function as an entrepreneurial business enterprise.¹²

² See s. 849.01, F.S.

³ See s. 849.09, F.S.

⁴ Section 849.16, F.S.

⁵ “Pari-mutuel” is defined in Florida law as “a system of betting on races or games in which the winners divide the total amount bet, after deducting management expenses and taxes, in proportion to the sums they have wagered individually and with regard to the odds assigned to particular outcomes. See s. 550.002(22), F.S.

⁶ See ch. 550, F.S., relating to the regulation of pari-mutuel activities.

⁷ See FLA. CONST., art. X, s. 23, and ch. 551, F.S.

⁸ Section 849.086, F.S. See s. 849.086(2)(c), F.S., which defines “cardroom” to mean “a facility where authorized card games are played for money or anything of value and to which the public is invited to participate in such games and charged a fee for participation by the operator of such facility.”

⁹ The Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) has issued licenses to permitholders with 2021-2022 Operating Licenses to operate 27 cardrooms. See <http://www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/pari-mutuel-wagering/permitholder-operating-licenses-2021-2022/> (last visited Apr. 7, 2021).

¹² The Department of the Lottery is authorized by s. 15, Art. X, Florida Constitution. Chapter 24, F.S., was enacted by ch. 87-65, Laws of Fla., to establish the state lottery. Section 24.102, F.S., states the legislative purpose and intent for the operations of the state lottery.

Chapter 849, F.S., also authorizes, under specific and limited conditions, the conduct of penny-ante games,¹³ bingo,¹⁴ charitable drawings,¹⁵ game promotions (sweepstakes),¹⁶ and bowling tournaments.¹⁷ The Family Amusement Games Act was enacted in 2015 and authorizes skill-based amusement games and machines at specified locations.¹⁸

Regulation of Pari-mutuel Wagering

The Division of Pari-mutuel Wagering (division) in the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) regulates pari-mutuel wagering. The division has regulatory oversight of permitted and licensed pari-mutuel wagering facilities, cardrooms located at pari-mutuel facilities, and slot machines at pari-mutuel facilities located in Miami-Dade and Broward counties. According to the division, there were eight license suspensions, and $19,075 in fines assessed for violations of all pari-mutuel statutes and administrative rules in Fiscal Year 2019-2020.¹⁹

Ten permitholders were not issued operating licenses for Fiscal Year 2020-2021: two greyhound permitholders,²⁰ two jai alai permitholders,²¹ one limited thoroughbred permitholder,²² and five quarter horse permitholders.²³

Issuance of Pari-mutuel Permits and Annual Licenses

Section 550.054, F.S., provides that any person meeting the qualification requirements of ch. 550, F.S., may apply to the division for a permit to conduct pari-mutuel wagering. Upon approval, a permit must be issued to the applicant that indicates:

- The name of the permitholder;
- The location of the pari-mutuel facility;
- The type of pari-mutuel activity to be conducted; and
- A statement showing qualifications of the applicant to conduct pari-mutuel performances under ch. 550, F.S.

²³ ELH Jefferson (Jefferson County), DeBary Real Estate Holdings (Volusia County), North Florida Racing (Jacksonville), Pompano Park Racing (Pompano Beach), and St. Johns Racing (St. Johns County). See http://www.myfloridalicense.com/dbpr/pmw/documents/PermitholdersList_2020-2021.pdf (last visited Apr. 13, 2021).

A permit does not authorize any pari-mutuel performances until approved by a majority of voters in a ratification election in the county in which the applicant proposes to conduct pari-mutuel wagering activities. An application may not be considered, nor may a permit be issued by the division or be voted upon in any county, for the conduct of:

- Harness horse racing, quarter horse racing, thoroughbred horse racing, or greyhound racing at a location within 100 miles of an existing pari-mutuel facility; or
- Jai alai games within 50 miles of an existing pari-mutuel facility.

Distances are measured on a straight line from the nearest property line of one pari-mutuel facility to the nearest property line of the other facility.²⁴

After issuance of the permit and a ratification election, the division may issue an annual operating license for wagering at the specified location in a county, indicating the time, place, and number of days during which pari-mutuel operations may be conducted at the specified location.²⁵

Pursuant to s. 550.054(9)(b), F.S., the division may revoke or suspend any permit or license upon the willful violation by the permitholder or licensee of any provision of ch. 550, F.S., or any administrative rule adopted by the division, and may impose a civil penalty against the permitholder or license up to $1,000 for each offense.

Slot Machine Gaming Locations and Operations

Section 32 of Art. X of the State Constitution, adopted pursuant to a 2004 initiative petition, authorized slot machines in licensed pari-mutuel facilities in Broward and Miami-Dade, if approved by county referendum. The voters in Broward and Miami-Dade counties approved slot machine gaming. Slot machine gaming in the state is limited to Broward and Miami-Dade counties, and as authorized by federal law, in the tribal gaming facilities of the Seminole Tribe.

Sections 551.104(3), 551.116, and 551.121, F.S., address slot machine gaming operations, and:

- Restrict the issuance of slot machine licenses to licensed pari-mutuel permitholders, for slot machine gaming only at the facility where pari-mutuel wagering is authorized to be conducted by the permitholder;
- Limit slot machine gaming to 18 hours per day, Monday through Friday, and 24 hours on Saturdays and Sundays; and
- Prohibit the service of complimentary or reduced-cost alcoholic beverages to persons playing a slot machine, among other prohibitions.

²⁵ See s. 550.054(9)(a), F.S.

Cardrooms

Section 849.086, F.S., authorizes cardrooms at certain pari-mutuel facilities.²⁶ In Fiscal Year 2021-2022, 27 cardrooms are licensed to operate.²⁷ A license to offer pari-mutuel wagering, slot machine gaming, or a cardroom at a pari-mutuel facility is a privilege granted by the state.²⁸ A cardroom may be open 18 hours per day on Monday through Friday, and 24 hours per day on Saturday and Sunday.²⁹

Sections 849.086(5) and (6), F.S., provide that a licensed pari-mutuel permit holder that holds a valid pari-mutuel permit may hold a cardroom license authorizing the operation of a cardroom and the conduct of authorized games at the cardroom. An authorized game is a game or series of games of poker or dominoes.³⁰ Such games must be played in a non-banking manner,³¹ where the participants play against each other, instead of against the house (cardroom). At least four percent of the gross cardroom receipts of greyhound racing permit holders and jai alai permit holders conducting live races or games must supplement greyhound purses, and quarter horse permit holders must have a contract with a horsemen's association governing the payment of purses on live quarter horse races conducted by the permit holder.³²

Gaming Compacts with Seminole Tribe of Florida

In 2010, a gaming compact (2010 Compact) between the Seminole Tribe of Florida (Seminole Tribe) and the State of Florida (state) was ratified by the Legislature.³³ The 2010 Compact authorizes the Seminole Tribe to conduct certain Class III gaming for a 20-year period, and to offer banked card games for five years, through July 31, 2015. The 2010 Compact provides that any expanded gaming (beyond what is specifically acknowledged) allowed in the state relieves the Seminole Tribe of its obligations to make substantial revenue sharing payments.

Pursuant to s. 285.710(13), F.S., it is not a crime for a person to participate in raffles, drawings, slot machine gaming, or banked card games (e.g., blackjack or baccarat) at a tribal facility operating under the 2010 Compact. The 2010 Compact provides for revenue sharing in consideration for the exclusive authority granted to the Seminole Tribe to offer banked card games on tribal lands and to offer slot machine gaming outside Miami-Dade and Broward counties.

²⁶ Section 849.086, F.S. Section 849.086(2)(c), F.S., defines "cardroom" to mean a facility where authorized games are played for money or anything of value and to which the public is invited to participate in such games and charges a fee for participation by the operator of such facility.

³³ Ch. 2010-29, Laws of Fla.

Section 285.710(9), F.S., provides that money received by the state from a gaming compact is to be deposited into the General Revenue Fund and provides for the distribution of three percent of the amount paid by the Seminole Tribe to the specified local governments. The percentage of the local share distributed to the specified counties and municipalities is based on the net win per facility in each county and municipality.

The Seminole Tribe notified the state in May 2019, that it was discontinuing revenue share payments in accordance with the 2010 Compact, based on the results of federal litigation. The 2010 Compact remains in effect through July 31, 2030.

As designated in s. 285.710, F.S., the division of the DBPR carries out the state's oversight responsibilities under the 2010 Compact.

Class III Gaming under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act

Gambling on Indian lands is regulated by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988 (IGRA).³⁴ The 2010 Compact authorizes the Seminole Tribe to conduct specified Class III gaming activities at its seven tribal facilities in Florida.³⁵

Under IGRA, gaming is categorized in three classes:

- Class I gaming means social games for minimal value or traditional forms of Indian gaming engaged in by individuals for tribal ceremonies or celebrations;
- Class II gaming includes bingo and pull-tabs, lotto, punch boards, tip jars, instant bingo, other games similar to bingo, and certain non-banked card games if not explicitly prohibited by the laws of the state and if played in conformity with state law; and
- Class III gaming includes all forms of gaming that are not Class I or Class II gaming, such as banked card games (such as baccarat, chemin de fer, and blackjack (21), casino games such as craps and roulette, electronic or electromechanical facsimiles of games of chance, slot machines, and pari-mutuel wagering.³⁶

Amendment 3 to the State Constitution (Voter Control of Gambling)

During the 2018 General Election, the electorate approved an initiative constitutional amendment (Amendment 3, Voter Control of Gambling in Florida). The amendment is codified in the State Constitution as article X, section 30).³⁷

³⁴ See Pub. L. 100-497, 102 Stat. 2467, codified at 18 U.S.C. ss. 1166-1168 and 25 U.S.C. s. 2701 et seq.

³⁵ See paragraph F of Part III of the 2010 Compact. The Seminole Tribe has three gaming facilities in Broward County (The Seminole Indian Casinos at Coconut Creek and Hollywood, and the Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino-Hollywood), and gaming facilities in Collier County (Seminole Indian Casino-Immokalee), Glades County (Seminole Indian Casino-Brighton), Hendry County (Seminole Indian Casino-Big Cypress), and Hillsborough County (Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino-Tampa). Amendment 3 requires a vote proposed by citizen's initiative to amend the State Constitution pursuant to Article XI, section 3 to authorize "casino gambling" in Florida. Casino gambling is defined in section (b) of Amendment 3 as:

- Any of the "types of games typically found in casinos" and that are:
 - Within the definition of Class III gaming in the Federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, 25 U.S.C. 2701 et seq; and
 - In 25 [Code of Federal Regulations] (C.F.R.) § 502.4 upon the adoption of the amendment and any that are added to such definition of Class III gaming in the future.

Section (b) of Amendment 3 provides that casino gambling includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Any house banking game, including but not limited to, card games such as baccarat, chemin de fer, blackjack (21), and pai gow (if played as house banking games);
- Any player-banked game that simulates a house banking game, such as California blackjack;
- Casino games such as roulette, craps, and keno;
- Any slot machines as defined in 15 U.S.C. 1171(a)(1); and
- Any other game not authorized by Article X, section 15 [of the State Constitution, relating to state operated lotteries], whether or not defined as a slot machine, in which outcomes are determined by random number generator or are similarly assigned randomly, such as instant or historical racing.

Section (b) of Amendment 3 also further defines "casino gambling" as including the following devices:

- Any electronic gambling devices;
- Simulated gambling devices;
- Video lottery devices;
- Internet sweepstakes devices; and
- Any other form of electronic or electromechanical facsimiles of any game of chance, slot machine, or casino-style game, regardless of how such devices are defined under [the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act].

Under Amendment 3, the term casino "casino gambling" does not include:

...pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing, dog racing, or jai alai exhibitions. For the purposes of [Amendment 3], "gambling" and "gaming" are synonymous.

Additionally, Amendment 3 provides:

Nothing in [Amendment 3] shall be deemed to limit the right of the Legislature to exercise its authority through general law to restrict, regulate, or tax any gaming or gambling activities. In addition, nothing in [Amendment 3] shall be construed to limit the ability of the state or Native American tribes to negotiate gaming compacts pursuant to the Federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act for the conduct of casino gambling on tribal lands, or to affect any existing gambling on tribal lands pursuant to compacts executed by the state and Native American tribes pursuant to [the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act].

By its terms, Amendment 3 became effective on November 6, 2018, is self-executing, and no legislative implementation is required. If any part of Amendment 3 is held invalid for any reason, the remaining portion(s) must be severed from the invalid portion and given “the fullest possible force and effect.”

United States Gaming Regulatory Agencies (Gaming Commissions)

The National Council of Legislators from Gaming States (NCLGS) is an organization of state lawmakers which meets to discuss gaming issues, and includes committees on lotteries, pari-mutuels, casinos, responsible gaming, Indian gaming issues, and telephone/internet wagering.³⁸

Regulatory resources cited by NCLGS include the:

- Association of Racing Commissioners International, Inc. (ARCI), a non-profit corporation founded in the 1930’s to uphold uniform pari-mutuel racing rules and practice, serves as a resource for pari-mutuel rulings, including equine medication issues. The ARCI works to preserve the integrity of horseracing, jai-alai, and dog-racing.³⁹
- North American Gaming Regulators Association (NAGRA), created in 1984, includes as members federal, state, local, tribal, and provincial government gaming regulators.⁴⁰
- National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC), established under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, is an independent federal regulatory agency charged with the regulation of Indian gaming on Indian land, specifically to protect tribes from corrupt influences, including organized crime, to make sure it is tribes that are receiving the benefit of Indian gaming, and to ensure that fair playing practices that protect tribes and players are adhered to. The NIGC maintains a list of gaming tribes on its site, searchable by tribe or state.⁴¹
- International Association of Gaming Regulators (IAGR), which is an organization of international government agencies responsible for the regulation of gaming in their home jurisdictions concerned with sharing information and resources among each other on issues relevant to the regulation of gaming.⁴²

According to NAGRA, there are approximately 75 gaming regulatory agencies in the United States and Canada, including lottery commissions, pari-mutuel commissions, racing commissions, casino control commissions, and gambling control commissions.⁴³ Two of the most well-known gaming control entities are the Nevada Gaming Commission and Gaming Control Board,⁴⁴ and the New Jersey Casino Control Commission.⁴⁵

In Nevada, members of the Board and Commission are appointed by the Governor of Nevada to four-year terms. In addition to other requirements, each member must be a resident of Nevada and no member may hold elective office while serving. Members are also not permitted to possess any direct pecuniary interest in gaming activities while serving in their capacity as members.⁴⁶

The New Jersey Casino Control Commission (NJ commission) is the independent licensing authority of the state's casinos⁴⁷ and key employees⁴⁸, comprised of up to three members, appointed by the governor and confirmed by the state senate.⁴⁹ As a quasi-judicial panel, the NJ commission conducts hearings⁵⁰ on contested casino key employee license matters, and appeals⁵¹ from decisions and penalties imposed by the state's division of gaming enforcement. Commissioners serve staggered, five-year terms and may only be removed for cause.⁵² The commission notes:

The success and ongoing viability of the gaming industry remains inextricably linked to the public's confidence that the State of New Jersey will ensure that people in the industry possess good character, honesty and integrity. Stewardship over that public confidence is a principal responsibility of the Commission and its Chairman.

The NJ commission's regulatory efforts through the years have helped create an environment in which New Jersey's casinos can prosper and from which the citizens of New Jersey benefit. With proper regulatory controls, the industry serves as a catalyst to create economic benefits for Atlantic City, the Greater Atlantic City Region, and the entire State of New Jersey.⁵³

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 16.56(1)(a), F.S., relating to the Office of Statewide Prosecution in the Department of Legal Affairs (office), to authorize the office to investigate and prosecute, in addition to gambling offenses, any violation of ch. 24, F.S., (State Lotteries), ch. 285, F.S., (Indian Reservations and Affairs), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), ch. 550, F.S., (Parimutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S., (Gambling), including violations referred by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR), the Department of the Lottery, the Gaming Control Commission, or the Seminole Tribe of Florida.

Section 2 creates s. 16.71, F.S., to establish a Gaming Control Commission (commission), to be administratively housed in the Department Legal Affairs, Office of the Attorney General. The commission is a separate budget entity and serves as the agency head for all purposes. The commission is not subject to control, supervision, or direction by the Department of Legal Affairs or the Attorney General in the performance of its duties, including but not limited to personnel, purchasing transactions involving real or personal property, and budget matters.

Under the bill, the commission is a criminal justice agency, as defined in s. 119.011(4), F.S., which states a criminal justice agency is:

- Any law enforcement agency, court, or prosecutor;
- Any other agency charged by law with criminal law enforcement duties;
- Any agency having custody of criminal intelligence information or criminal investigative information for the purpose of assisting such law enforcement agencies in the conduct of active criminal investigation or prosecution or for the purpose of litigating civil actions under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act, during the time that such agencies are in possession of criminal intelligence information or criminal investigative information pursuant to their criminal law enforcement duties; or
- The Department of Corrections.

Commissioners

The commission consists of five members, one from each appellate district, to be appointed by the Governor by January 1, 2022, subject to Senate confirmation. Of the five members, at least one member must have at least 10 years of experience in law enforcement and criminal investigations, at least one member must be a certified public accountant licensed in this state with at least 10 years of experience in accounting and auditing, and at least one member must be an attorney admitted and authorized to practice law in this state for the preceding 10 years. After initial appointments to create staggered terms, all members will serve four year terms, but may not serve more than 12 years. The salary of a member is the same as a commissioner serving on the Public Service Commission (approximately $136,000 annually). Vacancies must be filled for the unexpired portion of a term.

A person is ineligible for appointment to the commission if they have been convicted of or found guilty of or pled nolo contendere to, regardless of adjudication, in any jurisdiction of:

- A felony or misdemeanor that directly relates to gambling, dishonesty, theft, or fraud within the 10 years immediately preceding such appointment; or
- A forcible felony or a sexual predator crime.

A person is also ineligible if they have had a permit or license issued under ch. 550, F.S., (Parimutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S., (Gambling), or a gaming license issued by any other jurisdiction denied, suspended, or revoked.

The Governor may remove a member for cause, including, but not limited to, circumstances in which the member:

- Commits gross misconduct or malfeasance in office;
- Substantially neglects or is unable to discharge duties as a member; or
- Is convicted of or found guilty of a felony or misdemeanor that directly relates to gambling, dishonesty, theft, or fraud.

The Governor may remove a member without cause subject to approval by a majority of the Senate. Upon the resignation or removal from office of a member, the Governor must appoint a successor, subject to confirmation of the Senate, to serve the remainder of the unfinished term.

A person may not be appointed by the Governor to the commission until a background investigation of the person is conducted by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) and the investigation is forwarded to the Governor.

A person who holds any office in a political party, who has been convicted of a felony, or who has been convicted of a misdemeanor related to gambling within the previous 10 years may not apply to the Governor for appointment.

The Governor may not solicit or request any nominations, recommendations or communications about potential candidates for appointment to the commission from:

- Any person that holds a permit or license issued under chs. 550, 551, or 849, F.S., an officer, official, or employee of such permit holder or licensee, or an ultimate equitable owner, as defined in s. 550.002(37), F.S., of such permit holder or licensee.
- Any officer, official, employee, contractor, or subcontractor of a tribe that has a valid and active compact with the state or an entity employed, licensed, or contracted by such tribe, or an ultimate equitable owner, as defined in s. 550.002(37), F.S., of such entity.
- Any registered lobbyist for the executive or legislative branch that represents any person or entity identified above.

The commission must appoint an executive director, no later than July 1, 2022, to supervise, direct, coordinate, and administer the activities needed to fulfill the commission's responsibilities. The executive director serves at the pleasure of the commission, may not be a commissioner, and must reside in and maintain the commission's headquarters in Leon County. Similarly, the executive director's salary is the same as a commissioner serving on the Public Service Commission (approximately $136,000 annually).

Commission Employees

All commission employees, except the executive director and attorneys, are subject to part II of ch. 110, F.S., relating to the Career Service System, which provides uniform personnel rules, guidelines, records, and reports related to employees and positions in career service developed by the Department of Management Services in consultation with affected agencies.

The commission's executive director is subject to part III of ch. 110, F.S., relating to the Senior Management Service System. Section 110.401, F.S., provides:

This part [III] creates a uniform system for attracting, retaining, and developing highly competent senior-level managers at the highest executive-management-level agency positions in order for the highly complex programs and agencies of state government to function effectively, efficiently, and productively. The Legislature recognizes that senior-level management is an established profession and that the public interest is best served by developing and refining the management skills of its Senior Management Service employees. Accordingly, training and management-development programs are regarded as a major administrative function within agencies.

Attorneys employed by the commission are subject to part V of ch. 110, F.S., relating to the Selected Exempt Service System. Section 110.601, F.S., provides:

This part [V] creates a system of personnel management the purpose of which is to deliver high-quality performance by those employees in select exempt classifications by facilitating the state's ability to attract and retain qualified personnel in these positions, while also providing sufficient management flexibility to ensure that the workforce is responsive to agency needs. The Legislature recognizes that the public interest is best served by developing and refining the technical and managerial skills of its Selected Exempt Service employees, and, to this end, technical training and management development programs are regarded as a major administrative function within agencies.

For a period of two years immediately preceding appointment to, or employment with, the commission, and while appointed or employed with the commission, a person may not:

- Hold a permit or license issued under ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), a license issued under ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S., (Gambling); be an officer, official, or employee of such permitholder or licensee; or be an ultimate equitable owner, as defined in s. 550.002(37), F.S.,⁵⁴ of such permitholder or licensee;
- Be an officer, official, employee, or other person with duties or responsibilities relating to a gaming operation owned by an Indian tribe that has a valid and active compact with the state; be a contractor or subcontractor of such tribe or an entity employed, licensed, or contracted by such tribe; or be an ultimate equitable owner, as defined in s. 550.002(37), F.S., of such entity; or
- Be a registered lobbyist for the executive or legislative branch, except while a commissioner when officially representing the commission.

Persons who fail to meet or violate the above requirements are ineligible for appointment to or employment with the commission, or if, within the two years immediately preceding such appointment or employment, he or she has solicited or accepted employment with; acquired any direct or indirect interest in; has any direct or indirect business association, partnership, or financial relationship with; or is a relative of, any person or entity who is an applicant, licensee, or registrant with the commission or the Division of Pari-mutuel Wagering (division) in the DBPR.

The term "relative" means a spouse, father, mother, son, daughter, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, cousin, nephew, niece, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law,

⁵⁴ Section 550.002, F.S., defines the term "ultimate equitable owner" to mean "a natural person who, directly or indirectly, owns or controls five percent or more of an ownership interest in a corporation, foreign corporation, or alien business organization, regardless of whether such person owns or controls such ownership through one or more natural persons or one or more proxies, powers of attorney, nominees, corporations, associations, partnerships, trusts, joint stock companies, or other entities or devices, or any combination thereof."

daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, or half-sister.

A person is ineligible for employment with the commission if:

- Convicted of a felony within five years of the date of application;
- Convicted of a misdemeanor within five years of the date of application which the commission determines bears a close relationship to the duties and responsibilities of the position for which employment is sought; or
- Dismissed from prior employment for gross misconduct or incompetence or if he or she intentionally made a false statement concerning a material fact in connection with his or her application to the commission.

If an employee of the commission is charged with a felony while employed by the commission, the commission must suspend the employee, with or without pay, and terminate employment with the commission upon conviction. If an employee is charged with a misdemeanor while employed, the commission must suspend the employee, with or without pay, and may terminate employment upon conviction if the commission determines that the offense bears a close relationship to the duties and responsibilities of the position held with the commission.

A commissioner or an employee must notify the commission within three calendar days of arrest for any offense. In addition, a commissioner or an employee must provide detailed written notice of the circumstances to the commission if the member or employee is indicted, charged with, convicted of, pleads guilty or nolo contendere to, or forfeits bail for:

- A misdemeanor involving gambling, dishonesty, theft, or fraud;
- A violation of any law in any state, or a law of the United States or any other jurisdiction, involving gambling, dishonesty, theft, or fraud which substantially corresponds to a misdemeanor in Florida; or
- A felony under the laws of Florida or any other state, the United States, or any other jurisdiction.

All employees authorized by the commission must have access to and the right to inspect premises licensed by the division, to collect and remit taxes, and to examine the books and records of all licensees and permitholders. The authorized employees must require strict compliance by each licensee and permitholder with Florida law relating to such licenses and permits.

Restrictions After Appointment or Employment

For the two years immediately following the date of resignation or termination from the commission, a commissioner or an employee may not:

- Hold a permit or license issued under ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), a license issued under ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), or ch. 849, F.S., (Gambling), be an officer, official, or employee of such permitholder or licensee, or be an ultimate equitable owner, as defined in s. 550.002(37), F.S., of such permitholder or licensee.
- Appear before the commission representing any client or industry regulated by the commission.

- Lobby the Governor or any agency of the state, members or employees of the Legislature, or any county or municipal government or governmental agency.

In addition, for the two years immediately following the date of resignation or termination from the commission, a commissioner may not accept employment by or compensation from:

- A business which, directly or indirectly, owns or controls a person regulated by the commission.
- A person regulated by the commission;
- A business entity which, directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of a person regulated by the commission, or
- A business entity or trade association that has been a party to a commission proceeding within the two years preceding the member's resignation or termination of service on the commission.

Violations are subject to the penalties for violations of standards of conduct for public officers, employees of agencies, and local government attorneys provided in s. 112.317, F.S., and a civil penalty of an amount equal to the compensation which the person receives for the prohibited conduct.

Commission Law Enforcement Officers

Each employee serving as a law enforcement officer for the commission must meet the qualifications for employment or appointment as a law enforcement officer under s. 943.13, F.S., and be certified as a law enforcement officer by the Department of Law Enforcement under ch. 943, F.S. Upon certification, each law enforcement officer has statewide jurisdiction and is subject to and has the same authority provided in ch. 901, F.S., for law enforcement officers generally. Each officer also has arrest authority pursuant to s. 901.15, F.S., and possesses the full law enforcement powers granted to other peace officers of this state, including the authority to make arrests, carry firearms, serve court process, and seize contraband and the proceeds of illegal activities.

The responsibilities of each officer are:

- Primarily, to investigate, enforce, and prosecute, throughout the state, violations and violators of ch. 24, F.S., (State Lotteries), ch. 285, F.S., (Indian Reservations and Affairs), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S. (Gambling), and the rules adopted thereunder, as well as other state laws that the division officers or all state law enforcement officers are specifically authorized to enforce; and
- Secondly, to enforce all other state laws, provided that the enforcement is incidental to exercising the officer's primary responsibilities described above.

The bill provides an officer may exercise the powers of a deputy sheriff only after consultation or coordination with the appropriate local sheriff's office or municipal police department, or when the division participates in the Florida Mutual Aid Plan during a declared state emergency.

Seizure of Contraband

The commission and its law enforcement officers are specifically authorized to seize any contraband in accordance with the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act. For purposes of this section, “contraband” has the same meaning as the term “contraband article” in s. 932.701(2)(a)2., F.S., which includes any gambling paraphernalia, lottery tickets, money, currency, or other means of exchange which was used, was attempted, or intended to be used in violation of the gambling laws of the state.

The commission is specifically authorized to store and test any contraband that is seized in accordance with the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act and to adopt rules and implement such authorization.

Commission’s Powers and Duties

The commission must meet at the call of the chair, or at the request of a majority (three members constitute a quorum) of its members, and:

- Exercise all state regulatory and executive powers respecting gambling, including, without limitation, pari-mutuel wagering, cardrooms, slot machine facilities, oversight of gaming compacts executed by the state pursuant to the Federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, and any other forms of gambling authorized by the state constitution or law, but not lottery games operated by the state.
- Establish procedures consistent with ch. 120, F.S., (Administrative Procedure Act) to ensure adequate due process in exercising its regulatory and executive functions.
- Ensure that Florida law is not interpreted in any manner that expands the activities authorized in ch. 24, F.S., (State Lotteries), ch. 285, F.S., (Indian Reservations and Affairs), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S. (Gambling).
- Review any matter within the scope of the jurisdiction of the division.
- Review the regulation of licensees, permitholders, or persons regulated by the division and the procedures used by the division to implement and enforce the law.
- Review the procedures of the division used to qualify applicants for a license, permit, or registration.
- Refer criminal violations of ch. 24, F.S., (State Lotteries), ch. 285, F.S., (Indian Reservations and Affairs), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S., (Gambling) to the appropriate state attorney or to the Office of Statewide Prosecution, as applicable.
- Exercise all other powers and perform any other duties prescribed by the Legislature.

The bill authorizes the commission to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance and testimony, administer oaths and affirmations, take evidence, and require by subpoena the production of any books, papers, records, or other items relevant to the commission’s duties or powers. The commission may meet in any city or county of the state.

The commission chair may schedule hearings to determine whether enforcement of the gaming laws of this state is sufficient to protect residents from an abuse or misinterpretation of law that may expand gaming or gambling in this state. The chair may direct that a hearing be held before one member or a panel of less than the full commission, and must adopt rules to provide for the filing of a report for hearings held by a single commissioner or a panel and prescribe the requirements for the content and filing of such reports.

The commission may submit written recommendations to enhance the enforcement of Florida gaming laws to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and is authorized to contract or consult with other state agencies as may be needed to discharge its duties.

The commission is required to submit an annual report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The report must, at a minimum, include all of the following:

- Recent events in the gaming industry, including pending litigation, pending facility license applications, and new pending rules.
- Actions of the commission relative to the implementation and administration of this section.
- State revenues and expenses associated with each form of authorized gaming. Revenues and expenses associated with pari-mutuel wagering must be further lineated by the class of license.
- Performance of each pari-mutuel wagering licensee, cardroom licensee, and slot licensee.
- A summary of disciplinary actions taken by the commission.
- Receipts and disbursements of the commission,
- A summary of actions taken and investigations conducted by the commission.
- Any additional information and recommendations that the commission considers useful or that the Governor, the President of the Senate, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives requests.

The commission's exercise of executive powers in the area of planning, budgeting, personnel management, and purchasing must conform to state law. The commission must develop annual budget requests pursuant to ch. 216, F.S., relating to Planning and Budgeting; while a budget is not subject to change by the Department of Legal Affairs or the Attorney General, it must be submitted by the Department of Legal Affairs to the Governor for transmittal to the Legislature.

All rules adopted pursuant to ch. 24, F.S., (State Lotteries), ch. 285, F.S., (Indian Reservations and Affairs), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S. (Gambling), prior to the effective date of the act are preserved and remain in full force and effect.

The commission must exercise all of the regulatory and executive powers granted to it, and apply, construe, and interpret all laws and administrative rules, in a manner consistent with the gaming compact ratified, approved, and described in s. 285.710(3), F.S.

The bill requires the commission to annually, prior to the issuance of an operating license, confirm that each permit holder has submitted proof with their annual application for a license, in such a form as the commission may require, that the permit holder continues to possess the qualifications prescribed by ch. 550, F.S., and that the permit has not been disapproved by voters in an election.

Section 3 creates s. 16.712, F.S., related to commission background screening. This section provides that prior to serving on the commission or being employed by the commission, a person must submit their fingerprints for a fingerprint-based search by the FDLE and the Federal Bureau of the Investigation (FBI) databases for state and national criminal arrest records. If the person is a foreign national, he or she must also submit any necessary documentation to allow the commission to conduct a criminal history records check in the person's home country.

The FDLE must retain and enroll all such submitted fingerprints in the national retained print arrest notification program at the FBI when the FDLE begins participation in the program. The commission must notify the FDLE when any person whose fingerprints have been retained is no longer a commissioner or employee of the commission. The costs of fingerprint processing, including the cost for retaining fingerprints, will be borne by the commission.

Section 4 creates s. 16.715, F.S., to provide standards of conduct for commissioners and employees and prohibit ex parte communications. Commissioners are public officers, and employees are public employees, subject to the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees set forth in part III of ch. 112, F.S., (Code of Ethics). Commissioners and employees are also governed by standards of conduct and provisions limiting ex parte communications, as provided in the bill, similar to the standards applicable to commissioners serving on the Public Service Commission. Many of the prohibitions involve activities with persons regulated by the commission (regulated entity).

Standards of Conduct

Under the bill, a commissioner or a commission employee:

- May not accept anything from any business entity which, either directly or indirectly, owns or controls any regulated entity, or from any business entity which, either directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of any regulated entity.
- May attend conferences and associated meals and events that are generally available to all conference participants without payment of fees in addition to the conference fee.
- May attend meetings, meals, or events while attending a conference, that are not sponsored, in whole or in part, by any representative of any regulated entity and that are limited to commissioners only, committee members, or speakers, if the commissioner is a member of a committee of the association of regulatory agencies that organized the conference or is a speaker at the conference;
- May attend a conference for which conference participants who are employed by a regulated entity have paid a higher conference registration fee than the commissioner, or to attend a meal or event that is generally available to all conference participants without payment of any fees in addition to the conference fee, and that is sponsored, in whole or in part, by a regulated entity.
 - If during the course of an investigation by the Commission on Ethics into an alleged violation, a person is alleged to have given or provided a prohibited gift, that person must be given notice and an opportunity to participate in the investigation and relevant proceedings to present a defense; and

- If the Commission on Ethics determines that the person gave or provided a prohibited gift, the person may not appear before the gaming control commission or otherwise represent anyone before that commission for a period of two years.
- May not act in an unprofessional manner at any time during the performance of his or her official duties.
- Must avoid impropriety in all of his or her activities and must act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the commission.
- May not directly or indirectly, through staff or other means, solicit anything of value from:
 - Any regulated entity;
 - Any business entity that, whether directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of any regulated entity; or
 - Any party appearing in a proceeding considered by the commission in the last two years.
- Must annually complete at least four hours of ethics training that addresses, at a minimum, s. 8, Art. II of the State Constitution, the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees, and the public records and public meetings laws of this state; this requirement may be satisfied by completion of a continuing legal education class or other continuing professional education class, seminar, or presentation, if the required subjects are covered.

While employed, and for two years after service or employment with the commission, a commissioner or employee:

- May not accept any form of employment with or engage in any business activity with:
 - Any business entity which, either directly or indirectly, owns or controls any regulated entity;
 - Any regulated entity; or
 - Any business entity which, either directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of any regulated entity.
- May not have any financial interest, other than shares in a mutual fund, in:
 - Any regulated entity;
 - Any business entity which, either directly or indirectly, owns or controls any regulated entity; or
 - Any business entity which, either directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of any regulated entity.
- Must immediately sell any prohibited financial interest; if the commissioner, the employee, or a relative (defined in s. 16.71(2)(e), F.S., created by the bill) living in the same household as a commissioner or an employee acquires such prohibited financial interest during his or her term of office as a result of events or actions beyond the commissioner's, the employee's, or the relative's control.
- May not accept anything from a party in a proceeding currently pending before the commission.
 - If, during the course of an investigation by the Commission on Ethics into an alleged violation, a person is alleged to have given or provided a prohibited gift, that person must be given notice and an opportunity to participate in the investigation and relevant proceedings to present a defense.
 - If the Commission on Ethics determines that the person gave or provided a prohibited gift, the person may not appear before the gaming control commission or otherwise represent anyone before that commission for a period of two years.

- May not personally represent before the commission another person or entity for compensation, unless employed by another state agency.

Under the bill, a commissioner:

- May not serve as the representative of any political party or on any executive committee or other governing body of a political party; serve as an executive officer or employee of any political party, committee, organization, or association; receive remuneration for activities on behalf of any candidate for public office; engage on behalf of any candidate for public office in the solicitation of votes or other activities on behalf of such candidacy; or become a candidate for election to any public office without first resigning from office.
- May not make any public comment, during his or her term of office, regarding the merits of any proceeding under ss. 120.569 and 120.57, F.S., relating to decisions affecting substantial interests and hearings involving disputed issues of material fact, currently pending before the commission.
- May not lobby the Governor or any state agency, members or employees or the Legislature, or any county or municipal government or governmental agency, except to represent the commission in an official capacity.

The above standards of conduct may be more restrictive than the Code of Ethics, but may not be construed to contravene that code's restrictions. In the event of a conflict, the more restrictive provision applies.

The Commission on Ethics must accept and investigate any alleged violations of the above standards of conduct pursuant to the procedures contained in the Code of Ethics as described in ss. 112.322 through 112.3241, F.S. The Commission on Ethics must provide the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives with a report of its findings and recommendations. The Governor is authorized to enforce the findings and recommendations of the Commission on Ethics, pursuant to the Code of Ethics.

A commissioner may request an advisory opinion from the Commission on Ethics, pursuant to s. 112.322(3)(a), F.S., regarding the standards of conduct or the prohibitions set forth in ss. 16.71 and 16.715, F.S., created by the bill.

A commissioner, commission employee, or a relative living in the same household may not place a wager in any facility licensed by the commission or operated by an Indian tribe that has a valid and active compact with the state.

Ex Parte Communications

The bill defines "ex parte communications" as any communication that is:

- Not served on all parties to a proceeding, if the communication is written or printed or in electronic form; or
- Made without adequate notice to the parties and without an opportunity for the parties to be present and heard, if it is an oral communication.

A commissioner may not initiate or consider ex parte communications concerning the merits, threat, or offer of reward in any proceeding that is currently pending before the commission, or that the commissioner knows or reasonably expects will be filed with the commission within 180 days after the communication. An individual may not discuss ex parte with a commissioner the merits of any issue that he or she knows will be filed with the commission within 180 days. These prohibitions do not apply to commission staff.

If a commissioner knowingly receives a prohibited ex parte communication relative to a proceeding to which the commissioner is assigned, the commissioner must place on the record of the proceeding copies of:

- All written communications received;
- All written responses to the communications; and
- A memorandum stating the substance of all oral communications received and all oral responses made.

The commissioner must give written notice to all parties to the ex parte communication that such matters have been placed on the record. Any party who desires to respond to an ex parte communication may do so. The response must be received by the commission within 10 days after receiving notice that the ex parte communication has been placed on the record. The commissioner may, if the commissioner deems it necessary to eliminate the effect of an ex parte communication, withdraw from the proceeding, in which case the chair must substitute another commissioner for the proceeding.

Any individual who makes an ex parte communication must submit to the commission a written statement describing the nature of such communication, to include:

- The name of the person making the communication;
- The name of the commissioner or commissioners receiving the communication;
- Copies of all written communications made and all written responses to such communications; and
- A memorandum stating the substance of all oral communications received and all oral responses made.

The commission must place on the record of a proceeding all such communications. Any commissioner who knowingly fails to place on the record any such communications within 15 days of the date of such communication, is subject to removal and may be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000.

The Commission on Ethics must receive and investigate sworn complaints of violations of the standards of conduct or prohibitions against ex parte communications, pursuant to the procedures contained in the Code of Ethics as described in ss. 112.322 through 112.3241, F.S.

If the Commission on Ethics finds that there has been a violation of the standards of conduct or prohibitions against ex parte communications by a commissioner, it must provide the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives with a report of its findings and recommendations. The Governor is authorized to enforce the findings and recommendations of the Commission on Ethics, pursuant to the Code of Ethics, and to remove from office a commissioner who is found by the Commission on Ethics to have willfully and knowingly violated the standards is subsection. The Governor must remove from office a commissioner who is found by the Commission on Ethics to have willfully and knowingly violated the standards of conduct or prohibitions against ex parte communications, after a previous finding by the Commission on Ethics that the commissioner willfully and knowingly violated the standards of conduct or the prohibitions against ex parte communications in a separate matter.

If a commissioner fails or refuses to pay the Commission on Ethics any civil penalties for such violations, the Commission on Ethics may bring an action in any circuit court to enforce such penalty.

If, during the course of an investigation by the Commission on Ethics into an alleged violation of the standards of conduct or prohibitions against ex parte communications, allegations are made as to the identity of the person who participated in the ex parte communication, that person must be given notice and an opportunity to participate in the investigation and relevant proceedings to present a defense. If the Commission on Ethics determines that the person participated in the ex parte communication, the person may not appear before the commission or otherwise represent anyone before that commission for a period of two years. Section 5 amends s. 285.710, F.S., effective July 1, 2022, to provide that the commission is the state compliance agency designated as the state agency with authority to carry out the state's oversight responsibilities under the 2010 Compact with the Seminole Tribe, rather than the division.

Section 6 provides for a Type Two transfer pursuant to s. 20.06(2), F.S., effective July 1, 2022, of all powers and duties, personnel, administrative rules, and funding of the DBPR, relating to the regulation of pari-mutuel wagering, slot machines, and cardrooms, and the state compliance agency's oversight responsibilities for authorized gaming compacts. The Department of Legal Affairs will provide administrative support to the commission until the transfer is complete, but the commission is not subject to control, supervision, or direction by the Department of Legal Affairs, including, but not limited to, personnel, purchasing, transactions involving real or personal property, and budgetary matters. Those employees transferred from the DBPR to the commission retain and transfer accrued leave balances.

Section 7 amends s. 932.701, F.S., to include in the definition of "contraband article" certain gaming related terms, including, equipment, gambling device, apparatus, material of gaming, proceeds, substituted proceeds, real or personal property, and Internet domain name. This section also updates the violations in this section to include violations of ch. 24, F.S., (State Lotteries), ch. 285, F.S., (Indian Reservations and Affairs), ch. 546, F.S., (Amusement Facilities), ch. 550, F.S., (Pari-mutuel Wagering), ch. 551, F.S., (Slot Machines), or ch. 849, F.S., (Gambling).

Section 8 directs the Division of Law Revision to prepare a reviser's bill to conform the Florida Statutes to the Type Two transfer described in Section 6.

Section 9 provides that except as otherwise expressly provided in the bill, the bill takes effect July 1, 2021.

376 books, papers, records, or other items relevant to the 377 performance of the duties of the commission or to the exercise
378 of its powers.

379 (5) Hearings shall be held before the commission, except 380 that the chair may direct that any hearing be held before one
381 member of the commission or a panel of less than the full 382 commission. The commission shall adopt rules to provide for the 383 filing of a report when hearings are held by a single 384 commissioner or a panel, which rules shall prescribe the time

388 from abuse and misinterpretation of the law or create expansion
389 of gaming or gambling in this state.

390 (6) The commission may submit written recommendations to

415 commission considers useful or that the Governor, the President
416 of the Senate, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives

309496

417 requests.

418 (8) The commission's exercise of executive powers in the 419 area of planning, budgeting, personnel management, and 420 purchasing shall be as provided by law.

421 (9) The commission shall develop a budget request pursuant 422 to chapter 216 annually. The budget is not subject to change by 423 the Department of Legal Affairs or the Attorney General, but it
424 shall be submitted by the Department of Legal Affairs to the

439 an operating license, annually that each permitholder has 440 submitted proof with their annual application for a license, in 441 such a form as the commission may require; that the permitholder

443 550; and that the permit has not been disapproved by voters in 444 an election.

482 of conduct provided in this subsection. Nothing shall prohibit 483 the standards of conduct from being more restrictive than part 484 III of chapter 112. Further, this subsection may not be 485 construed to contravene the restrictions of part III of chapter
486 112. In the event of a conflict between this subsection and part 487 III of chapter 112, the more restrictive provision shall apply.

488 (b)1. A commissioner or employee of the commission may not 489 accept anything from any business entity which, either directly 490 or indirectly, owns or controls any person regulated by the 491 commission or from any business entity which, either directly or

539 which, either directly or indirectly, owns or controls any 540 person regulated by the commission; or in any business entity
541 which, either directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or a
542 subsidiary of any person regulated by the commission. If a
543 commissioner, an employee, or a relative living in the same

550 of this subsection, the term "relative" has the same meaning as 551 provided in s. 16.71(2)(e).

552 7. A commissioner or an employee may not accept anything
553 from a party in a proceeding currently pending before the 554 commission. If, during the course of an investigation by the 555 Commission on Ethics into an alleged violation of this
556 subparagraph, allegations are made as to the identity of the 557 person giving or providing the prohibited gift, that person must 558 be given notice and an opportunity to participate in the 559 investigation and relevant proceedings to present a defense. If 560 the Commission on Ethics determines that the person gave or 561 provided a prohibited gift, the person may not appear before the

579 unprofessional manner at any time during the performance of 580 official duties.

581 11. A commissioner or an employee must avoid impropriety in 582 all activities and must act at all times in a manner that 583 promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of 584 the commission.

585 12. A commissioner or an employee may not directly or 586 indirectly, through staff or other means, solicit anything of 587 value from any person regulated by the commission, or from any 588 business entity that, whether directly or indirectly, is an

322 Section 3. Section 16.715, Florida Statutes, is created to 323 read:

324 16.715 Florida Gaming Control Commission standards of 325 conduct; ex parte communications.-

326 (1) STANDARDS OF CONDUCT.-

327 (a) In addition to the provisions of part III of chapter
 328 112, which are applicable to commissioners on the Florida Gaming
 329 Control Commission by virtue of their being public officers, the 330 conduct of commissioners shall be governed by the standards of 331 conduct provided in this subsection. Nothing shall prohibit the 332 standards of conduct from being more restrictive than part III
 333 of chapter 112. Further, this subsection may not be construed to 334 contravene the restrictions of part III of chapter 112. In the 335 event of a conflict between this subsection and part III of 336 chapter 112, the more restrictive provision shall apply.

337 (b)1. A commissioner may not accept anything from any 338 business entity which, either directly or indirectly, owns or 339 controls any person regulated by the commission or from any 340 business entity which, either directly or indirectly, is an 341 affiliate or subsidiary of any person regulated by the 342 commission. A commissioner may attend conferences and associated 343 meals and events that are generally available to all conference 344 participants without payment of any fees in addition to the 345 conference fee. Additionally, while attending a conference, a
 346 commissioner may attend meetings, meals, or events that are not 347 sponsored, in whole or in part, by any representative of any 348 person regulated by the commission and that are limited to

580-04017-21 20217076__

349 commissioners only, committee members, or speakers if the 350 commissioner is a member of a committee of the association of 351 regulatory agencies that organized the conference or is a
 352 speaker at the conference. It is not a violation of this 353 subparagraph for a commissioner to attend a conference for which 354 conference participants who are employed by a person regulated
 355 by the commission have paid a higher conference registration fee
 356 than the commissioner, or to attend a meal or event that is 357 generally available to all conference participants without 358 payment of any fees in addition to the conference fee and that 359 is sponsored, in whole or in part, by a person regulated by the 360 commission. If, during the course of an investigation by the
 361 Commission on Ethics into an alleged violation of this
 362 subparagraph, allegations are made as to the identity of the 363 person giving or providing the prohibited gift, that person must 364 be given notice and an opportunity to participate in the 365 investigation and relevant proceedings to present a defense. If 366 the Commission on Ethics determines that the person gave or 367 provided a prohibited gift, the person may not appear before the 368 commission or otherwise represent anyone before the commission
 369 for a period of 2 years.

370 2. A commissioner may not accept any form of employment
 371 with or engage in any business activity with any business entity
 372 which, either directly or indirectly, owns or controls any 373 person regulated by the commission, any person regulated by the 374 commission, or any business entity which, either directly or
 375 indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of any person
 376 regulated by the commission.

377 3. A commissioner may not have any financial interest,

580-04017-21 20217076__

 379 the commission, in any business entity which, either directly or 380 indirectly, owns or controls any person regulated by the 381 commission, or in any business entity which, either directly or 382 indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of any person
 383 regulated by the commission. If a commissioner acquires any 384 financial interest prohibited by this subsection during his or 385 her term of office as a result of events or actions beyond the 386 commissioner's control, he or she shall immediately sell such 387 financial interest or place such financial interest in a blind
 388 trust at a financial institution. A commissioner may not attempt 389 to influence, or exercise any control over, decisions regarding 390 the blind trust.

391 4. A commissioner may not accept anything from a party in a
 392 proceeding currently pending before the commission. If, during 393 the course of an investigation by the Commission on Ethics into 394 an alleged violation of this subparagraph, allegations are made 395 as to the identity of the person giving or providing the 396 prohibited gift, that person must be given notice and an 397 opportunity to participate in the investigation and relevant
 398 proceedings to present a defense. If the Commission on Ethics
 399 determines that the person gave or provided a prohibited gift,
 400 the person may not appear before the commission or otherwise
 401 represent anyone before the commission for a period of 2 years.

402 5. A commissioner may not serve as the representative of 403 any political party or on any executive committee or other
 404 governing body of a political party; serve as an executive
 405 officer or employee of any political party, committee,
 406 organization, or association; receive remuneration for

407 activities on behalf of any candidate for public office; engage 408 on behalf of any candidate for public office in the solicitation
 409 of votes or other activities on behalf of such candidacy; or 410 become a candidate for election to any public office without 411 first resigning from office.

412 6. A commissioner, during his or her term of office, may 413 not make any public comment regarding the merits of any 414 proceeding under ss. 120.569 and 120.57 currently pending before
 415 the commission.

416 7. A commissioner may not conduct himself or herself in an 417 unprofessional manner at any time during the performance of his 418 or her official duties.

419 8. A commissioner must avoid impropriety in all of his or 420 her activities and must act at all times in a manner that 421 promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of 422 the commission.

423 9. A commissioner may not directly or indirectly, through 424 staff or other means, solicit anything of value from any person
 425 regulated by the commission, or from any business entity that,
 426 whether directly or indirectly, is an affiliate or subsidiary of 427 any person regulated by the commission, or from any party
 428 appearing in a proceeding considered by the commission in the 429 last 2 years.

430 (c) A commissioner must annually complete at least 4 hours
 431 of ethics training that addresses, at a minimum, s. 8, Art. II
 432 of the State Constitution, the Code of Ethics for Public
 433 Officers and Employees, and the public records and public
 434 meetings laws of this state. This requirement may be satisfied
 435 by completion of a continuing legal education class or other

580-04017-21

436 continuing professional education class, seminar, or 437 presentation, if the required subjects are covered.

438 (d) The Commission on Ethics shall accept and investigate
 439 any alleged violations of this subsection pursuant to the 440 procedures contained in ss. 112.322-112.3241. The Commission on 441 Ethics shall provide the Governor, the President of the Senate,
 442 and the Speaker of the House of Representatives with a report of 443 its findings and recommendations. The Governor is authorized to 444 enforce the findings and recommendations of the Commission on 445 Ethics, pursuant to part III of chapter 112. A commissioner may 446 request an advisory opinion from the Commission on Ethics,
 447 pursuant to s. 112.322(3)(a), regarding the standards of conduct
 448 or prohibitions set forth in this section or s. 16.71.

449 (2) EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS.-

450 (a) A commissioner may not initiate or consider ex parte
 451 communications concerning the merits, threat, or offer of reward
 452 in any proceeding that is currently pending before the 453 commission or that he or she knows or reasonably expects will be 454 filed with the commission within 180 days after the date of any 455 such communication. An individual may not discuss ex parte with 456 a commissioner the merits of any issue that he or she knows will 457 be filed with the commission within 180 days. This paragraph 458 does not apply to commission staff.

 460 communication relative to a proceeding other than as set forth
 461 in paragraph (a), to which he or she is assigned, he or she must 462 place on the record of the proceeding copies of all written 463 communications received, all written responses to the 464 communications, and a memorandum stating the substance of all

465 oral communications received and all oral responses made, and 466 shall give written notice to all parties to the communication
 467 that such matters have been placed on the record. Any party who 468 desires to respond to an ex parte communication may do so. The 469 response must be received by the commission within 10 days after 470 receiving notice that the ex parte communication has been placed
 471 on the record. The commissioner may, if he or she deems it
 472 necessary to eliminate the effect of an ex parte communication
 473 received by him or her, withdraw from the proceeding, in which 474 case the chair shall substitute another commissioner for the 475 proceeding.

476 (c) Any individual who makes an ex parte communication
 477 shall submit to the commission a written statement describing 478 the nature of such communication, to include the name of the 479 person making the communication, the name of the commissioner or 480 commissioners receiving the communication, copies of all written 481 communications made, all written responses to such
 482 communications, and a memorandum stating the substance of all
 483 oral communications received and all oral responses made. The 484 commission shall place on the record of a proceeding all such 485 communications.

486 (d) Any commissioner who knowingly fails to place on the 487 record any such communications, in violation of this subsection, 488 within 15 days of the date of such communication is subject to 489 removal and may be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed 490 $5,000.

491 (e)1. It shall be the duty of the Commission on Ethics to 492 receive and investigate sworn complaints of violations of this 493 subsection pursuant to the procedures contained in ss. 112.322-

580-04017-21

20217076__

494 112.3241.

495 2. If the Commission on Ethics finds that there has been a
 496 violation of this subsection by a commissioner, it shall provide 497 the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of 498 the House of Representatives with a report of its findings and 499 recommendations. The Governor is authorized to enforce the 500 findings and recommendations of the Commission on Ethics,
 501 pursuant to part III of chapter 112 and to remove from office a 502 commissioner who is found by the Commission on Ethics to have 503 willfully and knowingly violated this subsection. The Governor
 504 shall remove from office a commissioner who is found by the 505 Commission on Ethics to have willfully and knowingly violated
 506 this subsection after a previous finding by the Commission on 507 Ethics that the commissioner willfully and knowingly violated
 508 this subsection in a separate matter.

509 3. If a commissioner fails or refuses to pay the Commission
 510 on Ethics any civil penalties assessed pursuant to this 511 subsection, the Commission on Ethics may bring an action in any 512 circuit court to enforce such penalty.

513 4. If, during the course of an investigation by the 514 Commission on Ethics into an alleged violation of this 515 subsection, allegations are made as to the identity of the 516 person who participated in the ex parte communication, that 517 person must be given notice and an opportunity to participate in 518 the investigation and relevant proceedings to present a defense.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Technical Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 7078, which is linked to the passage of SB 7076 (2021), related to Gaming Enforcement, makes confidential and exempt from public copying and inspection requirements certain information obtained by the Florida Gaming Control Commission (commission). Portions of the commission's meetings during which exempted or confidential and exempt information is discussed are also exempt from open meeting requirements.

This exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will repeal on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and saved from repeal by the Legislature.

The bill provides a statement of public necessity as required by the State Constitution.

Section 24(c) of Article I of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a newly created or expanded public record or public meeting exemption. Because the bill creates a new public records exemption, it requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature for final passage.

The bill is not expected to impact state or local revenues and expenditures.

The bill will become effective on the same date that SB 7076 (2021) or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof and becomes law.

II. Present Situation:

Public Records

Section 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution sets forth the state's public policy regarding access to government records. This section guarantees every person a right to inspect or copy any public record of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government. The Legislature, however, may provide by general law for the exemption of records from the requirements of section 24(a) of Article I of the State Constitution.¹ The general law must state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption² and must be no broader than necessary to accomplish its purpose.³

Public policy regarding access to government records is addressed further in s. 119.07(1)(a), F.S., which guarantees every person a right to inspect and copy any state, county, or municipal record, unless the record is exempt. Furthermore, the Open Government Sunset Review Act⁴ provides that a public record or public meeting exemption may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose. In addition, it may be no broader than necessary to meet one of the following purposes:

- Allow the state or its political subdivisions to effectively and efficiently administer a governmental program, which administration would be significantly impaired without the exemption;
- Protect sensitive personal information that, if released, would be defamatory or would jeopardize an individual's safety; however, only the identity of an individual may be exempted under this provision; and
- Protect trade or business secrets.⁵

The Open Government Sunset Review Act requires the automatic repeal of a newly created public record exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.⁶

Open Meetings Laws

The State Constitution also provides that the public has a right to access governmental meetings.⁷ Each collegial body must provide notice of its meetings to the public and permit the public to attend any meeting at which official acts are taken or at which public business is transacted or discussed.⁸ This applies to the meetings of any collegial body of the executive branch of state government, counties, municipalities, school districts, or special districts.⁹

Meetings of the Legislature are governed by section 4(e) of Article III of the State Constitution, which states: "The rules of procedure of each house shall further provide that all prearranged gatherings, between more than two members of the legislature, or between the governor, the president of the senate, or the speaker of the house of

Public policy regarding access to government meetings is also addressed in the Florida Statutes. Section 286.011, F.S., which is also known as the “Government in the Sunshine Law,”¹⁰ or the “Sunshine Law,”¹¹ requires all meetings of any board or commission of any state or local agency or authority at which official acts are to be taken, to be open to the public.¹² The board or commission must provide the public reasonable notice of such meetings.¹³ Public meetings may not be held at any location that discriminates on the basis of sex, age, race, creed, color, origin, or economic status, or which operates in a manner that unreasonably restricts the public’s access to the facility.¹⁴ Minutes of a public meeting must be promptly recorded and open to public inspection.¹⁵

Failure to abide by open meetings requirements will invalidate any resolution, rule, or formal action adopted at a meeting.¹⁶ A public officer or member of a governmental entity who violates the Sunshine Law is subject to civil and criminal penalties.¹⁷

The Legislature may create an exemption to open meetings requirements by passing a general law by at least a two-thirds vote of both the Senate and the House of Representatives.¹⁸ The exemption must explicitly lay out the public necessity justifying the exemption and must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the exemption.¹⁹ A statutory exemption which does not meet these two criteria may be unconstitutional and may not be judicially saved.²⁰

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 creates s. 16.71(14), F.S., to make information obtained by the Florida Gaming Control Commission (commission) that is exempt or confidential and exempt²¹ from s. 119.07(1), F.S., or s. 24(a) Art I. of the State Constitution retains its exempt or confidential and exempt status. A record classified as exempt from public disclosure may be disclosed under certain circumstances. See *WFTV, Inc. v. Sch. See Op. Att’y Gen. Fla. (1985).

entities as needed in the performance of its official duties and responsibilities, but such entities must maintain the exempt or confidential and exempt status of the information.

The bill provides portions of commission meetings during which information that is exempt or confidential and exempt is discussed are exempt from s. 286.011, F.S., and s. 24(b), Art I. of the State Constitution.

The bill provides:

- The commission chair must advise the commission at a public meeting that, in connection with the performance of a commission duty, it is necessary that the commission hear or discuss information that is exempt or confidential and exempt.
- The chair's declaration of necessity for closure and the specific reasons for such necessity must be stated in a document that is a public record that must be filed with the official records of the commission.
- The entire closed session must be recorded. The recording must be maintained by the commission and include the times of commencement and termination of the closed session, all discussion and proceedings, and the names of all persons present. No portion of the session may be off the record.

Further, only members of the commission, Department of Law Enforcement staff supporting the commission's function, and other persons whose presence is necessary for the presentation of exempt or confidential and exempt information may be allowed to attend the exempted portions of the commission meetings. The commission must assure that any authorized closure of its meetings is limited, in order to maintain the general policy in Florida in favor of public meetings.

The bill provides the recording of, and any minutes and notes generated during a closed portion of a commission meeting are confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), F.S., and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution, until such time as the information discussed is no longer exempt or confidential and exempt.

This section provides that the exemptions are subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will repeal on October 2, 2026, unless the Legislature reviews and reenacts the exemptions by that date.

Section 2 provides public necessity statements as required by section 24(c) of Article I of the State Constitution. As to information obtained by the commission, the public necessity statement provides in the absence of this exemption, sensitive confidential or exempt information would be disclosed. As to portions of meetings of the commission at which confidential and exempt information is discussed, the public necessity statement provides the release of confidential and exempt information via a public meeting defeats the purpose of a public records exemption, and the harm to the public that would result from the release of such information substantially outweighs any minimal public benefit derived therefrom.

Section 3 provides that this act takes effect on the same date that SB 7076 (2021) or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof and becomes a law.

IV. Constitutional Issues:A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The mandate restrictions do not apply because the bill does not require counties and municipalities to spend funds, reduce counties' or municipalities' ability to raise revenue, or reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties and municipalities.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:Vote Requirement

Section 24(c) of Article I of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a newly created or expanded public record or public meeting exemption. The bill creates new public record exemptions. Thus, the bill requires a two-thirds vote for final passage.

Public Necessity Statement

Section 24(c) of Article I of the State Constitution requires a public necessity statement for a newly created or expanded public record or public meeting exemption. The bill creates new public record exemptions. Section 2 of the bill contains a statement of public necessity for the exemption.

Breadth of Exemption

Section 24(c) of Article I of the State Constitution requires a newly created or expanded public record or public meeting exemption to be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. The bill creates public record exemptions for sensitive investigative materials, which does not appear to be broader than necessary to accomplish its purpose.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The commission may experience increased workload and incur associated costs in complying with the exemptions created by the bill in handling public records requests, redacting confidential and exempt information prior to releasing a record, and closing portions of commission meetings. However, it is anticipated that any associated costs could be handled with existing resources.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill creates a new subsection (14) in section 16.71 of the Florida Statutes, which is created by the linked bill, SB 7076.

12 information may be released by the commission to other

16 the information.

17 (b) Portions of meetings of the commission during which
18 information made exempt or confidential and exempt is discussed
19 are exempt from s. 286.011 and s. 24(b), Art I. of the State
20 Constitution.

21 1. The chair of the commission shall advise the commission
22 at a public meeting that, in connection with the performance of 23 a commission duty, it is necessary that the commission hear or 24 discuss information that is exempt or confidential and exempt.

25 2. The chair's declaration of necessity for closure and the 26 specific reasons for such necessity shall be stated in writing
27 in a document that shall be a public record and shall be filed
28 with the official records of the commission.

29 3. The entire closed session shall be recorded. The 30 recording shall include the times of commencement and 31 termination of the closed session, all discussion and 32 proceedings, and the names of all persons present. No portion of 33 the session shall be off the record. Such recording shall be 34 maintained by the commission.

35 (b) Only members of the commission, Department of Law

38 of exempt or confidential and exempt information shall be

40 meetings. The commission shall assure that any closure of its 41 meetings as authorized by this paragraph is limited so that the 42 general policy of this state in favor of public meetings is 43 maintained.

44 (c) A recording of, and any minutes and notes generated
45 during, that portion of a commission meeting which is closed to 46 the public pursuant to this subsection are confidential and 47 exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State
48 Constitution until such time as the information discussed is no
49 longer exempt or confidential and exempt.

50 (d) This subsection is subject to the Open Government
51 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.115 and is repealed
52 on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
53 through reenactment by the Legislature.

54 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
55 necessity to maintain the exempt or confidential and exempt
56 status of any exempt or confidential and exempt information
57 obtained by the Florida Gaming Control Commission. In the
58 absence of this exemption, sensitive confidential or exempt
59 information would be disclosed. In addition, the Legislature
60 finds that it is a public necessity that portions of meetings of 61 the Florida Gaming Control Commission wherein confidential and
62 exempt information is discussed be made exempt from public
63 meetings requirements. The release of confidential and exempt
64 information via a public meeting defeats the purpose of a public
65 records exemption. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that the 66 harm to the public that would result from the release of such
67 information substantially outweighs any minimal public benefit
68 derived therefrom.

69 Section 3. This act shall take effect on the same date that 70 SB 7076 or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation
71 is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension

84 Section 2. (1) The Legislature finds that it is a public
 85 necessity to maintain the exempt or confidential and exempt
 86 status of any exempt or confidential and exempt information
 87 obtained by the Florida Gaming Control Commission. In the

88 absence of this exemption, sensitive confidential or exempt
 89 information would be disclosed. In addition, the Legislature
 90 finds that it is a public necessity that portions of meetings of 91 the Florida Gaming Control Commission wherein confidential and
 92 exempt information is discussed be made exempt from public
 93 meetings requirements. The release of confidential and exempt
 94 information via a public meeting defeats the purpose of a public
 95 records exemption. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that the
 96 harm to the public that would result from the release of such
 97 information substantially outweighs any minimal public benefit
 98 derived therefrom.

99 (2) The Legislature finds that during limited portions of 100 the meetings of the Florida Gaming Control Commission it is 101 necessary that the commission be presented with and discuss
 102 details, information, and documents related to active criminal
 103 intelligence information or active criminal investigative 104 information. These presentations and discussions are necessary
 105 for the commission to make its decisions for licensing of 106 persons for pari-mutuel and gaming activities, and for decisions
 107 related to gaming enforcement and enforcement of gambling laws
 108 as required by the Legislature under this act. The Legislature
 109 finds that to reveal the contents of documents containing active 110 criminal investigative or intelligence information or to allow 111 active criminal investigative or active criminal intelligence
 112 matters to be discussed in a meeting open to the public
 113 negatively impacts the ability of law enforcement agencies to 114 efficiently continue their investigative or intelligence
 115 gathering activities. The Legislature finds that information
 116 coming before the commission that pertains to active criminal

580-04018-21

117 investigations or intelligence should remain confidential and 118 exempt from public disclosure. The Legislature finds that the 119 Florida Gaming Control Commission may, by declaring only those 120 portions of commission meetings in which active criminal 121 investigative or active criminal intelligence information is to 122 be presented or discussed closed to the public, assure an 123 appropriate balance between the policy of this state that 124 meetings be public and the policy of this state to facilitate 125 efficient law enforcement efforts. Accordingly, the Legislature
126 finds that the harm to the public that would result from the 127 release of such information substantially outweighs any minimal
128 public benefit derived therefrom.

129 Section 3. This act shall take effect on the same date that

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 7080 updates provisions in Florida law that are inconsistent with the prohibition of racing of greyhounds codified in Article X, section 32 of the State Constitution, titled “Prohibition on Racing of and Wagering on Greyhounds or other Dogs.”

The bill revises requirements for greyhound permitholders, jai alai permitholders, and harness horse permitholders to conduct live racing or games, by amending chapter 550, Florida Statutes (Pari-Mutuel Wagering), chapter 551, Florida Statutes (Slot Machines), and chapter 849, Florida Statutes (Gambling). The bill also includes technical drafting changes, conforming changes, and eliminates obsolete language related to requirements for live racing or games.

Under the bill, a permitholder or licensee may not conduct live greyhound racing or dogracing for wagering, and the Division of Pari-mutuel Wagering (division) in the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke any permit or license under ch. 550, Florida Statutes, and impose a civil penalty of up to $5,000 for such conduct.

The bill provides a pari-mutuel permitholder may not be issued an operating license for the conduct of pari-mutuel wagering, slot machine gaming, or the operation of a cardroom if the permitholder did not hold any type of operating license on January 1, 2021.

Under the bill, a permit for the operation of a pari-mutuel facility, cardroom, or slot machine facility may only be held by permitholders with permits on January 1, 2021, and new permits may not be approved or issued after January 1, 2021.

The bill revises racing requirements for thoroughbred and limited intertrack wagering license permitholders.

Under the bill as to cardroom licensing, such licenses may not be issued to any permitholder that did not hold a valid pari-mutuel wagering permit on January 1, 2021. In addition, the bill provides that only thoroughbred permitholders must conduct a minimum of live racing performances (known as the “90 percent rule”) to renew a cardroom license.

The bill may have an indeterminate negative fiscal impact to state government revenues. See Section V, Fiscal Impact Statement.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2021, but only if SB 7076 (2021) (Gaming Enforcement) or similar legislations is adopted in the same legislative sessions and becomes law.

II. Present Situation:

Background

In general, gambling is illegal in Florida.¹ Chapter 849, F.S., prohibits keeping a gambling house,² running a lottery,³ or the manufacture, sale, lease, play, or possession of slot machines.⁴ However, the following gaming activities are authorized by law and regulated by the state:

- Pari-mutuel⁵ wagering at licensed greyhound and horse tracks and jai alai frontons;⁶
- Slot machine gaming at certain licensed pari-mutuel locations in Miami-Dade County and Broward County;⁷ and
- Cardrooms⁸ at certain pari-mutuel facilities.⁹

A license to offer pari-mutuel wagering, slot machine gambling, or a cardroom at a pari-mutuel facility is a privilege granted by the state.¹⁰

⁵ “Pari-mutuel” is defined in Florida law as “a system of betting on races or games in which the winners divide the total amount bet, after deducting management expenses and taxes, in proportion to the sums they have wagered individually and with regard to the odds assigned to particular outcomes. See s. 550.002(22), F.S.

⁸ Section 849.086, F.S. See s. 849.086(2)(c), F.S., which defines “cardroom” to mean “a facility where authorized card games are played for money or anything of value and to which the public is invited to participate in such games and charged a fee for participation by the operator of such facility.”

⁹ The Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) has issued licenses to permitholders with 2021-2022 Operating Licenses to operate 27 cardrooms. See <http://www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/pari-mutuel-wagering/permitholder-operating-licenses-2021-2022/> (last visited Apr. 12, 2021).

The 1968 State Constitution states that “[l]otteries, other than the types of pari-mutuel pools authorized by law as of the effective date of this constitution . . .” are prohibited.¹¹ A constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 1986 authorized state-operated lotteries. Net proceeds of the lottery are deposited to the Educational Enhancement Trust Fund (EETF) and appropriated by the Legislature. Lottery operations are self-supporting and function as an entrepreneurial business enterprise.¹²

Chapter 849, F.S., also authorizes, under specific and limited conditions, the conduct of penny-ante games,¹³ bingo,¹⁴ charitable drawings,¹⁵ game promotions (sweepstakes),¹⁶ and bowling tournaments.¹⁷ The Family Amusement Games Act was enacted in 2015 and authorizes skill-based amusement games and machines at specified locations.¹⁸

Regulation of Pari-mutuel Wagering

The Division of Pari-mutuel Wagering (division) in the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) regulates pari-mutuel wagering. The division has regulatory oversight of permitted and licensed pari-mutuel wagering facilities, cardrooms located at pari-mutuel facilities, and slot machines at pari-mutuel facilities located in Miami-Dade and Broward counties. According to the division, there were eight license suspensions, and $19,075 in fines assessed for violations of all pari-mutuel statutes and administrative rules in Fiscal Year 2019-2020.¹⁹

Issuance of Pari-mutuel Permits and Annual Licenses

Section 550.054, F.S., provides that any person meeting the qualification requirements of ch. 550, F.S., may apply to the division for a permit to conduct pari-mutuel wagering. Upon approval, a permit must be issued to the applicant that indicates:

- The name of the permitholder;
- The location of the pari-mutuel facility;
- The type of pari-mutuel activity to be conducted; and
- A statement showing qualifications of the applicant to conduct pari-mutuel performances under ch. 550, F.S.

A permit does not authorize any pari-mutuel performances until approved by a majority of voters in a ratification election in the county in which the applicant proposes to conduct pari-mutuel wagering activities. An application may not be considered, nor may a permit be issued by the division or be voted upon in any county, for the conduct of:

- Harness horse racing, quarter horse racing, thoroughbred horse racing, or greyhound racing at a location within 100 miles of an existing pari-mutuel facility; or
- Jai alai games within 50 miles of an existing pari-mutuel facility.

Distances are measured on a straight line from the nearest property line of one pari-mutuel facility to the nearest property line of the other facility.²⁴

After issuance of the permit and a ratification election, the division may issue an annual operating license for wagering at the specified location in a county, indicating the time, place, and number of days during which pari-mutuel operations may be conducted at the specified location.²⁵ Section 550.5251, F.S., specifies the requirements for annual operating licenses to be issued to thoroughbred permitholders by March 15 of each year, including the number and dates of all performances to be conducted for the racing season commencing the following July 1.

Two conversions occurred, Gulfstream Park Thoroughbred After Racing Program (GPTARP) (Hallandale, Broward County), which was licensed to operate in 2019-2020, and Ocala Thoroughbred Racing (Marion County), which was not licensed to operate, and is not yet subject to annual application requirements for thoroughbred permitholders set forth in s. 550.5251, F.S.

Pursuant to s. 550.054(9)(b), F.S., the division may revoke or suspend any permit or license upon the willful violation by the permitholder or licensee of any provision of ch. 550, F.S., or any administrative rule adopted by the division, and may impose a civil penalty against the permitholder or license up to $1,000 for each offense.

Section 550.054(14), F.S., authorizes conversion of jai alai permits to greyhound permits, under limited conditions.

Limited Intertrack Wagering

Section 550.6308, F.S., relating to the conduct of limited intertrack wagering in support of thoroughbred breeding in Florida, requires:

- A minimum of 15 days of thoroughbred horse sales;
- The conduct of at least one day of nonwagering thoroughbred racing with a $250,000 purse per year for two consecutive years;
- Intertrack wagering to be conducted:
 - For up to 21 days in connection with sales;
 - Between November 1 and May 8;
 - Only with the consent of other permitholders that run live racing in the county, between May 9 and October 31; and
 - During the weekend of the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, the Belmont, and a Breeders' Cup Meet conducted after May 8 and before November 1.
- The conduct of intertrack wagering by the limited intertrack license permitholder only on thoroughbred racing, unless the consent of all thoroughbred, jai alai, and greyhound racing permitholders in the same county is obtained; and
- The payment of purses by limited intertrack license permitholder of 2.5 percent for its intertrack wagering on greyhound races or jai alai games.

Slot Machine Gaming Locations and Operations

Section 32 of Art. X of the State Constitution, adopted pursuant to a 2004 initiative petition, authorized slot machines in licensed pari-mutuel facilities in Broward and Miami-Dade, if approved by county referendum. The voters in Broward and Miami-Dade counties approved slot machine gaming. Slot machine gaming in the state is limited to Broward and Miami-Dade counties, and as authorized by federal law, in the tribal gaming facilities of the Seminole Tribe.

Sections 551.104, F.S., addresses slot machine gaming operations, and:

- Restricts the issuance of slot machine licenses to licensed pari-mutuel permitholders, for slot machine gaming only at the facility where pari-mutuel wagering is authorized to be conducted by the permitholder;
- Requires the licensee to be in compliance with chs. 551 and 550, F.S.;
- Conducts a full schedule of live racing or games as defined in s. 550.002(11), F.S.; and
- Provides other requirements regarding ownership, law enforcement access, computer systems, security, records, and audits.

Cardrooms

Section 849.086, F.S., authorizes cardrooms at certain pari-mutuel facilities.²⁶ In Fiscal Year 2021-2022, 27 cardrooms are licensed to operate.²⁷ A license to offer pari-mutuel wagering, slot machine gaming, or a cardroom at a pari-mutuel facility is a privilege granted by the state.²⁸ A cardroom may be open 18 hours per day on Monday through Friday, and 24 hours per day on Saturday and Sunday.²⁹ An initial cardroom license may be issued to a pari-mutuel permitholder only after its facilities are in place and it has conducted its first day of live racing. In order to renew a cardroom license, the licensee must have requested, as part of its annual pari-mutuel license application, to conduct at least 90 percent of the total performances it had conducted in the prior fiscal year.

Sections 849.086(5) and (6), F.S., provide that a licensed pari-mutuel permitholder that holds a valid pari-mutuel permit may hold a cardroom license authorizing the operation of a cardroom and the conduct of authorized games at the cardroom. An authorized game is a game or series of games of poker or dominoes.³⁰ Such games must be played in a non-banking manner,³¹ where the participants play against each other, instead of against the house (cardroom). At least four percent of the gross cardroom receipts of greyhound racing permitholders and jai alai permitholders conducting live races or games must supplement greyhound purses, and quarter horse permitholders must have a contract with a horsemen's association governing the payment of purses on live quarter horse races conducted by the permitholder.³²

Prohibition on Racing of and Wagering on Greyhounds or other Dogs

Amendment 13 was adopted in 2018 with 69.06 percent support of the electorate. The amendment, titled "Prohibition on Racing of and Wagering on Greyhounds or other Dogs, is codified in s. 32, Art. X of the Florida Constitution.³³ The amendment bans all racing of and wagering on live dog racing in Florida after December 31, 2020, and allows greyhound permitholders to stop racing after December 31, 2018, without affecting other pari-mutuel activities as authorized by law. The Legislature is directed to specify civil or criminal penalties for violations.

²⁶ Section 849.086, F.S. Section 849.086(2)(c), F.S., defines "cardroom" to mean a facility where authorized games are played for money or anything of value and to which the public is invited to participate in such games and charges a fee for participation by the operator of such facility.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 550.002, F.S., to revise live racing requirements affected by the adoption of s. 32, Art. X of the State Constitution (popularly known as Amendment 13). The constitutional amendment prohibits, after December 31, 2020, the conduct of live racing of greyhounds in Florida by gaming or pari-mutuel permitholders, and wagering by any person on the outcome of such racing in the state. Technical drafting changes, conforming changes, and elimination of obsolete language are also included.

Section 2 of the bill is a technical revision amending s. 550.0115, F.S., relating to operating licenses, to clarify references to annual operating licenses.

Section 3 amends s. 550.01215, F.S., relating to operating license applications filed annually with the division of the DBPR, for the conduct of pari-mutuel wagering, including intertrack and simulcast wagering. The application of each permitholder must indicate whether the permitholder intends to accept wagers on intertrack and simulcast events.

The requirement for pari-mutuel permitholders to conduct live racing or games is revised by the bill to provide:

- A greyhound permitholder may not conduct live racing, as such racing is prohibited in Florida after December 31, 2020.
- A jai alai permitholder, harness horse racing permitholder, or quarter horse racing permitholder may elect not to conduct live racing or games.
- A thoroughbred permitholder must conduct live racing.

A greyhound permitholder, jai alai permitholder, harness horse racing permitholder, or quarter horse racing permitholder that does not conduct live racing or games:

- Retains its permit;
- Is a pari-mutuel facility as defined in s. 550.002(23), F.S.
- Is eligible, but not required, to be a guest track, and if the permitholder is a harness horse racing permitholder, is eligible to be a host track for purposes of intertrack wagering and simulcasting pursuant to ss. 550.3551, 550.615, 550.625, and 550.6305, F.S.; and
- Remains eligible for a cardroom license.

For a greyhound permitholder, jai alai permitholder, harness horse racing permitholder, or quarter horse racing permitholder that does not conduct live racing or games, but has been issued a slot machine license, the facility where such permit is located:

- Remains an eligible facility as defined in s. 551.102(4), F.S.;
- Continues to be eligible for a slot machine license pursuant to s. 551.104(3), F.S.; and
- Is exempt from ss. 551.104(4)(c) and (10) and 551.114(2) and (4), F.S.

Under the bill, a permitholder or licensee may not conduct live greyhound racing or dogracing for wagering, and the division is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke any permit or license under ch. 550, F.S., and impose a civil penalty of up to $5,000 for such conduct.

The bill provides a pari-mutuel permitholder may not be issued an operating license for the conduct of pari-mutuel wagering, slot machine gaming, or the operation of a cardroom if the permitholder did not hold any type of operating license on January 1, 2021. This provision does not apply to limited thoroughbred permitholders issued permits pursuant to s. 550.3345, F.S.

Under the bill, the division may approve changes in racing dates after a license has been issued if there is no objection from any permitholder conducting live racing or games within 50 miles.

The bill further provides that for Fiscal Year 2021-2022 only, the division may approve changes to a permitholder's operating dates if the request is received before July 1, 2021.

The bill repeals an obsolete provision relating to greyhound racing permits.

Section 5 amends s. 550.0351, F.S., to delete the authorization for a "dogracing permitholder" to hold charity or scholarship racing days. In addition, the authorization for "hound dog derby" racing events at greyhound permitholder facilities is deleted.

Section 6 amends s. 550.0425, F.S., relating to the attendance of minors to pari-mutuel events, to delete an exception granting access to kennel compound areas for the minor children of greyhound trainers, kennel operators, or other licensees employed in the kennel, when supervised by a parent or legal guardian.

Section 7 amends s. 550.054, F.S., to retain current law for existing permits converted to greyhound permits and remove this method of converting permits. Under the bill, a permit for the operation of a pari-mutuel facility, cardroom, or slot machine facility may only be held by permitholders with permits on January 1, 2021, and new permits may not be approved or issued after January 1, 2021.

Section 8 amends s. 550.09511(4), F.S., to delete a requirement for payment of daily license fees and tax on admissions and bets, if fewer than 100 live jai alai games are conducted in a calendar year.

165 the permitholder or licensee for a violation of this 166 subparagraph. All penalties imposed and collected must be 167 deposited with the Chief Financial Officer to the credit of the 170 applications through February 28.

171 (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, other than

176 operating license on January 1, 2021.

177 (2) After the first license has been issued to a
178 permitholder, all subsequent annual applications for a license
179 shall be accompanied by proof, in such form as the division may

181 qualifications prescribed by this chapter, and that the permit
182 has not been disapproved at a later election.

184 March 15. Each permitholder shall operate all performances at 527596

185 the date and time specified on its license. The division shall

187 after a license has been issued. The division may approve 188 changes in racing dates after a license has been issued when 189 there is no objection from any operating permitholder located
190 within 50 miles of the permitholder requesting the changes in 191 operating dates. In the event of an objection, the division
192 shall approve or disapprove the change in operating dates based 193 upon the impact on operating permitholders located within 50
194 miles of the permitholder requesting the change in operating 195 dates. In making the determination to change racing dates, the 196 division shall take into consideration the impact of such 197 changes on state revenues. Notwithstanding any other provision

199 division may approve changes in operating dates for a jai alai

204 performances specified on its license at the date and time
205 specified, the division shall hold a hearing to determine
206 whether to fine or suspend the permitholder's license, unless
207 such failure was the direct result of fire, strike, war, or
208 other disaster or event beyond the ability of the permitholder
209 to control. Financial hardship to the permitholder shall not, in 210 and of itself, constitute just cause for failure to operate all
211 performances on the dates and at the times specified.

212 (5) In the event that performances licensed to be operated
213 by a permitholder are vacated, abandoned, or will not be used

527596

214 for any reason, any permitholder shall be entitled, pursuant to
215 rules adopted by the division, to apply to conduct performances
216 on the dates for which the performances have been abandoned. The 217 division shall issue an amended license for all such replacement
218 performances which have been requested in compliance with ~~the~~
219 ~~provisions of this chapter and division rules.~~

220 ~~(6) Any permit which was converted from a jai alai permit~~
221 ~~to a greyhound permit may be converted to a jai alai permit at~~

224 ~~period of 12 consecutive months.~~

237 respect to the implementation and enforcement of the statutes
238 and rules governing the conduct of pari-mutuel wagering, so long
239 as she or he acted in good faith. This section shall not limit
240 liability in any situation in which the negligent maintenance of 241 the premises or the negligent conduct of a race contributed to 242 an accident; nor shall it limit any contractual liability.

254 ~~nonprofit organization for the purpose of conducting "hound dog~~ 255 ~~derbies" or "mutt derbies" if only dogs other than those usually~~ 256 ~~used in dogracing (greyhounds) are permitted to race and if~~
257 ~~adults and minors are allowed to participate as dog owners or~~
258 ~~spectators. During these racing events, betting, gambling, and~~
259 ~~the sale or use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited.~~

280 ineffectual to authorize any pari-mutuel performances until 281 approved by a majority of the electors participating in a
282 ratification election in the county in which the applicant
283 proposes to conduct pari-mutuel wagering activities. In 284 addition, an application may not be considered, nor may a permit

310 ~~to conduct greyhound racing. A permitholder of a permit~~
311 ~~converted under this section shall be required to apply for and~~

322 ~~cross the county boundary and such location is approved under~~ 323 ~~the zoning regulations of the county or municipality in which~~ 324 ~~the permit is located, and upon such relocation may use the~~ 325 ~~permit for the conduct of pari-mutuel wagering and the operation~~
326 ~~of a cardroom. The provisions of s. 550.6305(9)(d) and (f) shall~~ 327 ~~apply to any permit converted under former subsection (14) of~~ 328 ~~this section, Florida Statutes 2020, ~~this subsection~~ and shall~~ 329 ~~continue to apply to any permit which was previously included~~

527596

354 direct result of fire, strike, war, pandemic, or other disaster
355 or event beyond the ability of the permitholder to control.
356 Financial hardship to the permitholder shall not, in and of 357 itself, constitute just cause for failure to operate and pay tax
358 on handle.

426 at a jai alai fronton may impose a civil penalty against any 427 occupational licensee for violation of the pari-mutuel laws or 428 any rule adopted by the division. The penalty may not exceed 429 $1,000 for each count or separate offense or exceed 60 days of 430 suspension for each count or separate offense.

431 (2) All penalties imposed and collected pursuant to this 432 section at each horse ~~or dog~~ racetrack or jai alai fronton shall 433 be deposited into a board of relief fund established by the 434 pari-mutuel permitholder. Each association shall name a board of 435 relief composed of three of its officers, with the general
436 manager of the permitholder being the ex officio treasurer of 437 such board. Moneys deposited into the board of relief fund shall 438 be disbursed by the board for the specific purpose of aiding
439 occupational licenseholders and their immediate family members
440 at each pari-mutuel facility.

441 Section 12. Section 550.1647, Florida Statutes, is amended
442 to read:

443 550.1647 Greyhound permitholders; unclaimed tickets;
444 breaks.-All money or other property represented by any 445 unclaimed, uncashed, or abandoned pari-mutuel ticket which has

527596

446 remained in the custody of or under the control of any greyhound
447 permitholder authorized to conduct ~~greyhound racing~~ pari-mutuel 448 wagering pools in this state for a period of 1 year after the 449 date the pari-mutuel ticket was issued, if the rightful owner or 450 owners thereof have made no claim or demand for such money or 451 other property within that period of time, shall, ~~with respect~~
452 ~~to live races conducted by the permitholder,~~ be remitted to the 453 state pursuant to s. 550.1645; however, such permitholder shall 454 be entitled to a credit in each state fiscal year in an amount 455 equal to the actual amount remitted in the prior state fiscal 456 year which may be applied against any taxes imposed pursuant to 457 this chapter. In addition, each permitholder shall pay, from any 458 source, ~~including the proceeds from performances conducted~~
459 ~~pursuant to s. 550.0351,~~ an amount not less than 10 percent of 460 the amount of the credit provided by this section to any bona
461 fide organization that promotes or encourages the adoption of 462 greyhounds. As used in this chapter, the term "bona fide 463 organization that promotes or encourages the adoption of 464 greyhounds" means any organization that provides evidence of 465 compliance with chapter 496 and possesses a valid exemption from 466 federal taxation issued by the Internal Revenue Service. Such 467 bona fide organization, as a condition of adoption, must provide 468 sterilization of greyhounds by a licensed veterinarian before
469 relinquishing custody of the greyhound to the adopter. The fee
470 for sterilization may be included in the cost of adoption.

471 Section 13. Section 550.1648, Florida Statutes, is 472 repealed.

473 Section 14. Section 550.175, Florida Statutes, is amended
474 to read:

527596

476 petition of 20 percent of the qualified electors of any county
477 wherein any pari-mutuel wagering racing has been licensed and

479 county shall provide for the submission to the electors of such 480 county at the then next succeeding general election the question
481 of whether any permit or permits theretofore granted shall be 482 continued or revoked, and if a majority of the electors voting 483 on such question in such election vote to cancel or recall the 484 permit theretofore given, the division may not thereafter grant
485 any license on the permit so recalled. Every signature upon 486 every recall petition must be signed in the presence of the

491 the county at the time of the signing of the petition. Not more
492 than one permit may be included in any one petition; and, in all 493 elections in which the recall of more than one permit is voted 494 on, the voters shall be given an opportunity to vote for or 495 against the recall of each permit separately. Nothing in this 496 chapter shall be construed to prevent the holding of later
497 referendum or recall elections.

498 Section 15. Subsection (1) of section 550.1815, Florida
499 Statutes, is amended to read:

500 550.1815 Certain persons prohibited from holding racing or 501 jai alai permits; suspension and revocation.—

502 (1) A corporation, general or limited partnership, sole
503 proprietorship, business trust, joint venture, or unincorporated

527596

504 association, or other business entity may not hold any 505 horseracing or greyhound ~~degrading~~ permit or jai alai fronton
506 permit in this state if any one of the persons or entities
507 specified in paragraph (a) has been determined by the division
508 not to be of good moral character or has been convicted of any 509 offense specified in paragraph (b).

- 510 (a)1. The permitholder;
- 511 2. An employee of the permitholder;
- 512 3. The sole proprietor of the permitholder;
- 513 4. A corporate officer or director of the permitholder;
- 514 5. A general partner of the permitholder;
- 515 6. A trustee of the permitholder;
- 516 7. A member of an unincorporated association permitholder;
- 517 8. A joint venturer of the permitholder;
- 518 9. The owner of more than 5 percent of any equity interest

522 including any immediate family member of the owner, or holder of 523 any debt, mortgage, contract, or concession from the 524 permitholder, who by virtue thereof is able to control the 525 business of the permitholder.

- 526 (b)1. A felony in this state;
- 527 2. Any felony in any other state which would be a felony if 528 committed in this state under the laws of this state;
- 529 3. Any felony under the laws of the United States;
- 530 4. A felony under the laws of another state if related to 531 gambling which would be a felony under the laws of this state if 532 committed in this state; or

534 Section 16. Subsection (2) of section 550.24055, Florida
535 Statutes, is amended to read:

536 550.24055 Use of controlled substances or alcohol
537 prohibited; testing of certain occupational licensees; penalty;
538 evidence of test or action taken and admissibility for criminal
539 prosecution limited.—

540 (2) The occupational licensees, by applying for and holding 541 such licenses, are deemed to have given their consents to submit 542 to an approved chemical test of their breath for the purpose of 543 determining the alcoholic content of their blood and to a urine
544 or blood test for the purpose of detecting the presence of 545 controlled substances. Such tests shall only be conducted upon 546 reasonable cause that a violation has occurred as shall be 547 determined solely by the stewards at a horseracing meeting or
548 the judges or board of judges at a ~~dog track~~ or jai alai meet.
549 The failure to submit to such test may result in a suspension of 550 the person's occupational license for a period of 10 days or
551 until this section has been complied with, whichever is longer.

552 (a) If there was at the time of the test 0.05 percent or 553 less by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, the person is 554 presumed not to have been under the influence of alcoholic 555 beverages to the extent that the person's normal faculties were 556 impaired, and no action of any sort may be taken by the 557 stewards, judges, or board of judges or the division.

558 (b) If there was at the time of the test an excess of 0.05
559 percent but less than 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the 560 person's blood, that fact does not give rise to any presumption
561 that the person was or was not under the influence of alcoholic

527596

562 beverages to the extent that the person's faculties were 563 impaired, but the stewards, judges, or board of judges may 564 consider that fact in determining whether or not the person will 565 be allowed to officiate or participate in any given race or jai
566 alai game.

567 (c) If there was at the time of the test 0.08 percent or 568 more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, that fact is 569 prima facie evidence that the person was under the influence of 570 alcoholic beverages to the extent that the person's normal
571 faculties were impaired, and the stewards or judges may take
572 action as set forth in this section, but the person may not 573 officiate at or participate in any race or jai alai game on the 574 day of such test.

575
576 All tests relating to alcohol must be performed in a manner
577 substantially similar, or identical, to the provisions of s.
578 316.1934 and rules adopted pursuant to that section. Following a
579 test of the urine or blood to determine the presence of a
580 controlled substance as defined in chapter 893, if a controlled
581 substance is found to exist, the stewards, judges, or board of 582 judges may take such action as is permitted in this section.

583 Section 17. Paragraph (d) of subsection (5), paragraphs (b)
584 and (c) of subsection (6), paragraph (a) of subsection (9), and 585 subsection (13) of section 550.2415, Florida Statutes, are
586 amended to read:

587 550.2415 Racing of animals under certain conditions
588 prohibited; penalties; exceptions.—

589 (5) The division shall implement a split-sample procedure
590 for testing animals under this section.

527596

591 ~~(d) For the testing of a racing greyhound, if there is an~~ 592 ~~insufficient quantity of the secondary (split) sample for~~ 593 ~~confirmation of the division laboratory's positive result, the~~ 594 ~~division may commence administrative proceedings as prescribed~~
595 ~~in this chapter and consistent with chapter 120.~~

596 (6)

597 ~~(b) The division shall, by rule, establish the procedures~~
598 ~~for euthanizing greyhounds. However, a greyhound may not be put~~ 599 ~~to death by any means other than by lethal injection of the drug~~
600 ~~sodium pentobarbital. A greyhound may not be removed from this~~
601 ~~state for the purpose of being destroyed.~~

602 ~~(c) It is a violation of this chapter for an occupational~~
603 ~~licensee to train a greyhound using live or dead animals. A~~
604 ~~greyhound may not be taken from this state for the purpose of~~ 605 ~~being trained through the use of live or dead animals.~~

606 (9) (a) The division may conduct a postmortem examination of 607 any animal that is injured at a permitted racetrack while in 608 training or in competition and that subsequently expires or is 609 destroyed. The division may conduct a postmortem examination of 610 any animal that expires while housed at a permitted racetrack,
611 association compound, or licensed kennel ~~or~~ farm. Trainers and 612 owners shall be requested to comply with this paragraph as a
613 condition of licensure.

614 ~~(13) The division may implement by rule medication levels~~
615 ~~for racing greyhounds recommended by the University of Florida~~
616 ~~College of Veterinary Medicine developed pursuant to an~~
617 ~~agreement between the Division of Pari-mutuel Wagering and the~~ 618 ~~University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine. The~~ 619 ~~University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine may provide~~

527596

620 ~~written notification to the division that it has completed~~
621 ~~research or review on a particular drug pursuant to the~~ 622 ~~agreement and when the College of Veterinary Medicine has~~ 623 ~~completed a final report of its findings, conclusions, and~~ 624 ~~recommendations to the division.~~

625 Section 18. Subsection (8) of section 550.334, Florida
626 Statutes, is amended to read

627 550.334 Quarter horse racing; substitutions.—

628 ~~(8) To be eligible to conduct intertrack wagering, a~~
629 ~~quarter horse racing permitholder must have conducted a full~~
630 ~~schedule of live racing in the preceding year.~~

631 Section 19. Subsections (2) and (4), paragraph (a) of 632 subsection (6), and subsection (11) of section 550.3551, Florida
633 Statutes, are amended to read:

634 550.3551 Transmission of racing and jai alai information;
635 commingling of pari-mutuel pools.—

636 (2) Any horse track, ~~dog track,~~ or fronton licensed under 637 this chapter may transmit broadcasts of races or games conducted
638 at the enclosure of the licensee to locations outside this 639 state.

640 (a) All broadcasts of horseraces transmitted to locations
641 outside this state must comply with the provisions of the 642 Interstate Horseracing Act of 1978, 92 Stat. 1811, 15 U.S.C. ss.
643 3001 et seq.

644 (b) Wagers accepted by any out-of-state pari-mutuel
645 permitholder or licensed betting system on a race broadcasted
646 under this subsection may be, but are not required to be,
647 included in the pari-mutuel pools of the horse track in this 648 state that broadcasts the race upon which wagers are accepted.

527596

649 The handle, as referred to in s. 550.0951(3), does not include
650 any wagers accepted by an out-of-state pari-mutuel permitholder
651 or licensed betting system, irrespective of whether such wagers
652 are included in the pari-mutuel pools of the Florida
653 permitholder as authorized by this subsection.

654 (4) Any greyhound permitholder or jai alai permitholder ~~dog~~
655 ~~track or fronton~~ licensed under this chapter may receive at its 656 licensed location broadcasts of dograces or jai alai games
657 conducted at other tracks or frontons located outside the state
658 ~~at the track enclosure of the licensee during its operational~~
659 ~~meeting~~. All forms of pari-mutuel wagering are allowed on 660 dograces or jai alai games broadcast under this subsection. All 661 money wagered by patrons on dograces broadcast under this 662 subsection shall be computed in the amount of money wagered each 663 performance for purposes of taxation under ss. 550.0951 and 664 550.09511.

665 (6) (a) ~~A maximum of 20 percent of the total number of races~~
666 ~~on which wagers are accepted by a greyhound permitholder not~~ 667 ~~located as specified in s. 550.615(6) may be received from~~
668 ~~locations outside this state.~~ A permitholder conducting live
669 races or games may not conduct fewer than eight live races or 670 games on any authorized race day except as provided in this 671 subsection. A thoroughbred permitholder may not conduct fewer 672 than eight live races on any race day without the written 673 approval of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' Association and 674 the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association,
675 Inc., unless it is determined by the department that another
676 entity represents a majority of the thoroughbred racehorse
677 owners and trainers in the state. If conducting live racing, a

527596

678 harness permitholder may conduct fewer than eight live races on 679 any authorized race day, ~~except that such permitholder must~~ 680 ~~conduct a full schedule of live racing during its race meet~~
681 ~~consisting of at least eight live races per authorized race day~~
682 ~~for at least 100 days.~~ Any harness horse permitholder ~~that~~ 683 ~~during the preceding racing season conducted a full schedule of~~
684 ~~live racing may, at any time during its current race meet,~~
685 receive full-card broadcasts of harness horse races conducted at 686 harness racetracks outside this state at the harness track of 687 the permitholder and accept wagers on such harness races. ~~With~~ 688 ~~specific authorization from the division for special racing~~
689 ~~events, a permitholder may conduct fewer than eight live races~~
690 ~~or games when the permitholder also broadcasts out of state~~
691 ~~races or games. The division may not grant more than two such~~ 692 ~~exceptions a year for a permitholder in any 12-month period, and~~ 693 ~~those two exceptions may not be consecutive.~~

694 (11) Greyhound permitholders ~~tracks~~ and jai alai
695 permitholders ~~frontons~~ have the same privileges as provided in 696 this section to horserace permitholders ~~horse tracks~~, as 697 applicable, subject to rules adopted under subsection (10).

698 Section 20. Subsections (1), (3), (4), (5), and (6) of 699 section 550.3615, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

700 550.3615 Bookmaking on the grounds of a permitholder;
701 penalties; reinstatement; duties of track employees; penalty;
702 exceptions.-

703 (1) Any person who engages in bookmaking, as defined in s.
704 849.25, on the grounds or property of a pari-mutuel facility
705 commits ~~permitholder of a horse or dog track or jai alai fronton~~
706 ~~is guilty of~~ a felony of the third degree, punishable as 527596

707 provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
708 Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 948.01, any person
709 convicted under the provisions of this subsection shall not have 710 adjudication of guilt suspended, deferred, or withheld.

711 (3) Any person who has been convicted of bookmaking in this 712 state or any other state of the United States or any foreign 713 country shall be denied admittance to and shall not attend any 714 pari-mutuel facility ~~racetrack or fronton~~ in this state during 715 its racing seasons or operating dates, including any practice or 716 preparational days, for a period of 2 years after the date of 717 conviction or the date of final appeal. Following the conclusion
718 of the period of ineligibility, the director of the division may 719 authorize the reinstatement of an individual following a hearing
720 on readmittance. Any such person who knowingly violates this 721 subsection commits ~~is guilty of~~ a misdemeanor of the first
722 degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

723 (4) If the activities of a person show that this law is 724 being violated, and such activities are either witnessed or are 725 common knowledge by any pari-mutuel facility ~~track or fronton~~
726 employee, it is the duty of that employee to bring the matter to 727 the immediate attention of the permitholder, manager, or her or 728 his designee, who shall notify a law enforcement agency having 729 jurisdiction. Willful failure by the pari-mutuel facility ~~on the~~ 730 ~~part of any track or fronton~~ employee to comply with the 731 provisions of this subsection is a ground for the division to 732 suspend or revoke that employee's license for pari-mutuel
733 facility ~~track or fronton~~ employment.

734 (5) Each permittee shall display, in conspicuous places at 735 a pari-mutuel facility ~~track or fronton~~ and in all race and jai

527596

736 jai alai daily programs, a warning to all patrons concerning the 737 prohibition and penalties of bookmaking contained in this 738 section and s. 849.25. The division shall adopt rules concerning 739 the uniform size of all warnings and the number of placements
740 throughout a pari-mutuel facility ~~track or fronton~~. Failure on 741 the part of the permittee to display such warnings may result in 742 the imposition of a $500 fine by the division for each offense.

743 (6) This section does not apply to any person ~~attending a~~
744 ~~track or fronton~~ or employed by or attending a pari-mutuel
745 facility ~~a track or fronton~~ who places a bet through the 746 legalized pari-mutuel pool for another person, provided such 747 service is rendered gratuitously and without fee or other 748 reward.

749 Section 21. Section 550.475, Florida Statutes, is amended
750 to read:

751 550.475 Lease of pari-mutuel facilities by pari-mutuel
752 permitholders.—Holders of valid pari-mutuel permits for the 753 conduct of any pari-mutuel wagering ~~jai alai games, dogracing,~~
754 ~~or thoroughbred and standardbred horse racing~~ in this state are 755 entitled to lease any and all of their facilities to any other
756 holder of a same class valid pari-mutuel permit ~~for jai alai~~
757 ~~games, dogracing, or thoroughbred or standardbred horse racing,~~ 758 when located within a 35-mile radius of each other; and such 759 lessee is entitled to a permit and license to conduct intertrack
760 wagering and operate its race meet or jai alai games at the 761 leased premises.

762 Section 22. Subsection (1) of section 550.5251, Florida
763 Statutes, is amended to read:

764 550.5251 Florida thoroughbred racing; certain permits;

527596

765 operating days.—

766 (1) (a) Each thoroughbred permitholder shall annually,
767 during the period commencing December 15 of each year and ending
768 January 4 of the following year, file in writing with the 769 division its application to conduct one or more thoroughbred
770 racing meetings during the thoroughbred racing season commencing 771 on the following July 1. Each application shall specify the 772 number and dates of all performances that the permitholder
773 intends to conduct during that thoroughbred racing season. On or 774 before March 15 of each year, the division shall issue a license
775 authorizing each permitholder to conduct performances on the 776 dates specified in its application. Up to February 28 of each
777 year, each permitholder may request and shall be granted changes
778 in its authorized performances; but thereafter, as a condition
779 precedent to the validity of its license and its right to retain 780 its permit, each permitholder must operate the full number of 781 days authorized on each of the dates set forth in its license.

782 (b) A thoroughbred permitholder that has conducted live
783 racing for at least 5 years prior to July 1, 2020, and that has 784 not filed with the division an application to conduct one or 785 more thoroughbred racing meetings under this section for the 786 thoroughbred racing season commencing July 1, 2021, retains its 787 permit; is a pari-mutuel facility as defined in s. 550.002(23);
788 if such permitholder has been issued a slot machine license, the 789 facility where such permit is located remains an eligible
790 facility as defined in s. 551.102(4), continues to be eligible
791 for a slot machine license pursuant to s. 551.104(3), and is 792 exempt from ss. 551.104(4)(c) and (10) and 551.114(2); is 793 eligible, but not required, to be a guest track; and remains

527596

794 eligible for a cardroom license.

795 Section 23. Subsections (2) and (8) of section 550.615,
796 Florida Statutes, are amended, and subsection (11) is added to 797 that section, to read:

798 550.615 Intertrack wagering.—

799 (2) A pari-mutuel permitholder that has met the applicable
800 requirement for that permitholder to conduct live racing or 801 games under s. 550.01215(1)(b), if any, on January 1, 2021, Any 802 ~~track or fronton licensed under this chapter which in the~~ 803 ~~preceding year conducted a full schedule of live racing is~~

809 there are only three permitholders, all of which are greyhound
810 permitholders, if any permitholder leases the facility of 811 another permitholder for all or any portion of the conduct of 812 its live race meet pursuant to s. 550.475, such lessee may 813 conduct intertrack wagering at its pre-lease permitted facility
814 throughout the entire year, ~~including while its live meet is~~ 815 ~~being conducted at the leased facility, if such permitholder has~~ 816 ~~conducted a full schedule of live racing during the preceding~~
817 ~~fiscal year at its pre-lease permitted facility or at a leased~~
818 ~~facility, or combination thereof.~~

819 (11) Any greyhound permitholder licensed under this chapter
820 to conduct pari-mutuel wagering is qualified to, at any time,

824 Section 24. Subsection (2) of section 550.6305, Florida
825 Statutes, is amended to read:

826 550.6305 Intertrack wagering; guest track payments;

832 ~~pari-mutuel permitholder may conduct intertrack wagering without~~ 833 ~~combining pari-mutuel pools on not more than three races in any~~
834 ~~week, not to exceed 20 races in a year. All other provisions~~
835 ~~concerning pari-mutuel takeout and payments, including state tax~~

Delete lines 189 - 295

there is no objection from any operating permitholder that is conducting live racing or games and that is located within 50 miles of the permitholder requesting the changes in operating dates. In the event of an objection, the division shall approve or disapprove the change in operating dates based upon the impact on operating permitholders located within 50 miles of the

601528

11 permitholder requesting the change in operating dates. In making 12 the determination to change racing dates, the division shall 13 take into consideration the impact of such changes on state
14 revenues. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and for 15 the 2021-2022 state fiscal year only, the division may approve
16 changes in operating dates for a jai alai permitholder, harness
17 horse racing permitholder, or quarter horse racing permitholder
18 if the request for such changes is received before July 1, 2021.

19 (4) In the event that a permitholder fails to operate all
20 performances specified on its license at the date and time
21 specified, the division shall hold a hearing to determine
22 whether to fine or suspend the permitholder's license, unless
23 such failure was the direct result of fire, strike, war, or
24 other disaster or event beyond the ability of the permitholder
25 to control. Financial hardship to the permitholder shall not, in 26 and of itself, constitute just cause for failure to operate all
27 performances on the dates and at the times specified.

28 (5) In the event that performances licensed to be operated
29 by a permitholder are vacated, abandoned, or will not be used
30 for any reason, any permitholder shall be entitled, pursuant to
31 rules adopted by the division, to apply to conduct performances
32 on the dates for which the performances have been abandoned. The 33 division shall issue an amended license for all such replacement
34 performances which have been requested in compliance with ~~the~~
35 ~~provisions of~~ this chapter and division rules.

36 ~~(6) Any permit which was converted from a jai alai permit~~
37 ~~to a greyhound permit may be converted to a jai alai permit at~~

50 arising out of, or from, the performance by such permittee,
51 director, employee, steward, judge, or other person of her or 52 his duties and the exercise of her or his discretion with
53 respect to the implementation and enforcement of the statutes
54 and rules governing the conduct of pari-mutuel wagering, so long
55 as she or he acted in good faith. This section shall not limit
56 liability in any situation in which the negligent maintenance of 57 the premises or the negligent conduct of a race contributed to
58 an accident; nor shall it limit any contractual liability.

59 Section 5. Subsections (1) and (7) of section 550.0351,
60 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

61 550.0351 Charity racing days.—

62 (1) The division shall, upon the request of a permitholder,
63 authorize each horseracing permitholder, ~~dogracing permitholder,~~

66 ~~(7) In addition to the charity days authorized by this~~
67 ~~section, any dogracing permitholder may allow its facility to be~~
68 ~~used for conducting "hound dog derbies" or "mutt derbies" on any~~

72 ~~used in dogracing (greyhounds) are permitted to race and if~~
73 ~~adults and minors are allowed to participate as dog owners or~~
74 ~~spectators. During these racing events, betting, gambling, and~~
75 ~~the sale or use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited.~~

76 Section 6. Subsection (4) of section 550.0425, Florida

97 approved by a majority of the electors participating in a

601528

98 ratification election in the county in which the applicant
99 proposes to conduct pari-mutuel wagering activities. In

612 reasonable cause that a violation has occurred as shall be

613 determined solely by the stewards at a horseracing meeting or

614 the judges or board of judges at a ~~dogtrack or~~ jai alai meet.

615 The failure to submit to such test may result in a suspension of

616 the person's occupational license for a period of 10 days or

617 until this section has been complied with, whichever is longer.

618 (a) If there was at the time of the test 0.05 percent or

624 (b) If there was at the time of the test an excess of 0.05

633 (c) If there was at the time of the test 0.08 percent or

634 more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, that fact is

635 prima facie evidence that the person was under the influence of

636 alcoholic beverages to the extent that the person's normal

637 faculties were impaired, and the stewards or judges may take

638 action as set forth in this section, but the person may not

642 All tests relating to alcohol must be performed in a manner
643 substantially similar, or identical, to the provisions of s.
644 316.1934 and rules adopted pursuant to that section. Following a
645 test of the urine or blood to determine the presence of a
646 controlled substance as defined in chapter 893, if a controlled
647 substance is found to exist, the stewards, judges, or board of 648 judges may take such action as is permitted in this section.
