Best Practices for Tertiary Health Service Licensure

Options for Consideration by AHCA and the Legislature

Background

- Ch. 2019-136, Laws of Florida, repealed Certificate of Need (CON) requirements for tertiary health services
 - Comprehensive rehabilitation
 - Neonatal intensive care units (NICUs)
 - Pediatric cardiac catheterization
 - Pediatric open-heart surgery
 - Organ transplantation
- The Legislature directed OPPAGA to
 - Study federal requirements and other states' licensing standards
 - Recommend best practices regarding licensing standards including volume, as applicable

Licensing Standards for Tertiary Health Services

Volume is One of Several Measures Related to Quality of Tertiary Health Services

Volume

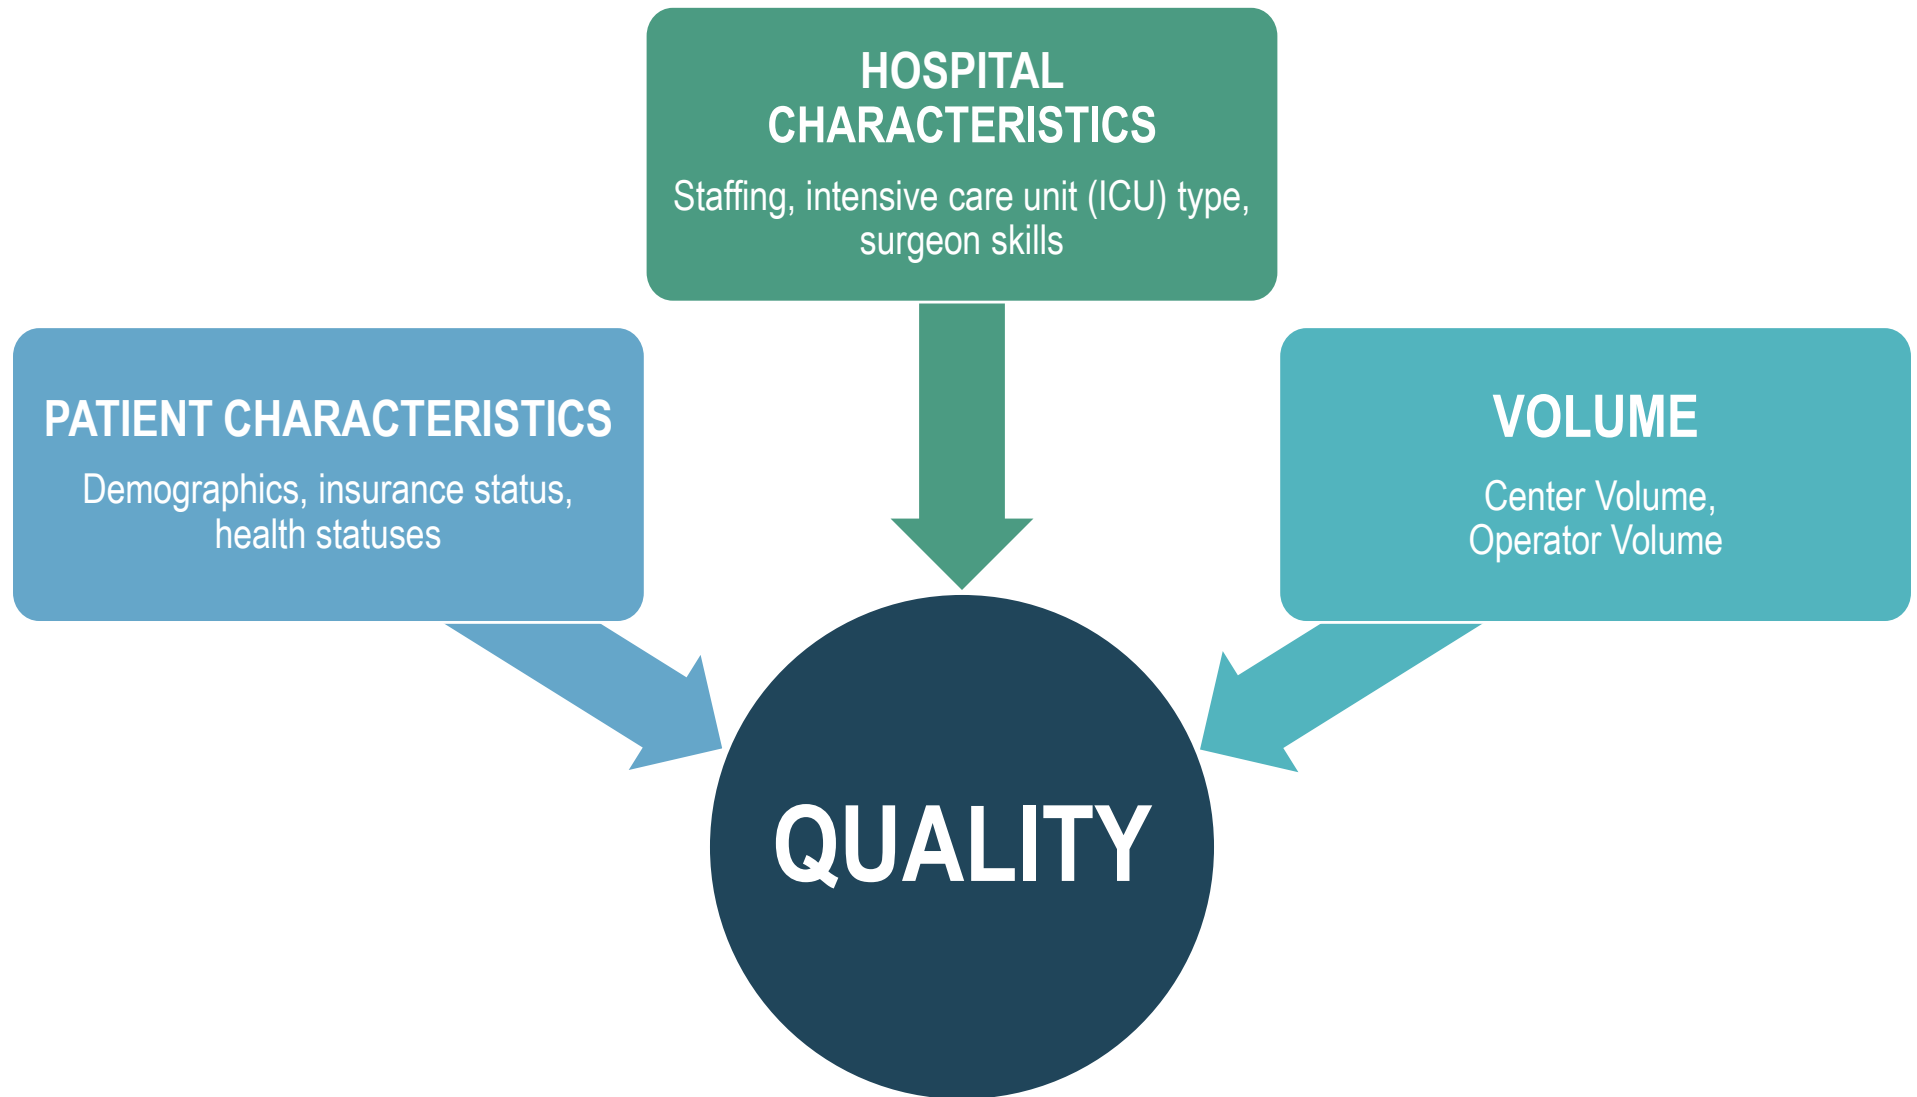

- There is consensus among researchers that volume of patients is positively related to successful outcomes for tertiary health services

Quality

- Academic studies do not provide consistent minimum volume recommendations but do identify several other factors related to tertiary health service quality

In Addition to Volume, Patient and Hospital Characteristics Affect Quality

Federal Requirements Primarily Apply to Two Tertiary Health Services

- Federal requirements for hospitals to participate in Medicare are the only federal requirements that apply across all five tertiary health services
- The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) establishes requirements that are applicable to comprehensive rehabilitation
- Hospitals that provide organ transplants must meet extensive additional requirements established by CMS and the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network (OPTN)

Other States Provide Limited Information on Best Practices for Licensure

- We selected a sample of six non-CON states and conducted an in-depth review of their licensing standards for tertiary health services
 - Comparable to Florida on one or more of the following factors: number of teaching hospitals; percent of individuals covered by Medicaid, Medicare, or who are uninsured; population size; and portion of the state that is rural
 - The six states selected were California, Colorado, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Texas, Utah
- We did not identify consistent licensing standards across all tertiary health services
- Pennsylvania, Texas and Utah licensing standards refer to professional medical association guidelines for neonatal care

Professional Medical Associations Are a Primary Source of Best Practices for Non-Organ Transplant Tertiary Health Services

Tertiary Health Service	Professional Medical Associations
Comprehensive Rehabilitation	Association of Rehabilitation Nurses
	American Occupational Therapy Association
	American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
	American Physical Therapy Association
	Academy of Neurologic Physical Therapy
Neonatal Care	American Academy of Pediatrics
	American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists
	Association of Women’s Health, Obstetrics and Neonatal Nurses
	National Association of Neonatal Nurses
Pediatric Cardiac Catheterization	American Academy of Pediatrics
	American College of Cardiology Foundation
	Society for Cardiovascular Angiography and Interventions
	Society of Thoracic Surgeons
	Society for Vascular Medicine
Pediatric Open-Heart Surgery	American Academy of Pediatrics
	American College of Surgeons
	American Heart Association

Pediatric Cardiac Technical Advisory Panel (PCTAP) Made Recommendations for Two Tertiary Health Services

- The Legislature directed AHCA to establish a technical advisory panel to develop procedures and standards for measuring outcomes of pediatric cardiac catheterization programs and pediatric cardiovascular surgery programs
- Panel is to recommend standards for pediatric cardiovascular centers related to quality of care, personnel, physical plant, equipment, emergency transportation, and data reporting
- PCTAP has drafted recommendations for these services

Best Practices for Tertiary Health Service Licensure

Best Practices Fall Into Several Categories and Vary Across Tertiary Health Services

Best Practice Category	Comprehensive Rehabilitation	NICU	Pediatric Cardiac Catheterization	Pediatric Open Heart Surgery
Patient Outcomes	X			X
Quality of Staffing	X	X	X	X

Comprehensive Rehabilitation

Patient Outcomes

- Professional medical associations recommend using patient outcomes measured as functional and cognitive gains from therapy

Federal Requirements

- Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) establish requirements
 - Level of intensity of therapy (e.g., minimum hours and days per week of therapy for positive outcomes)
 - Necessary equipment to implement treatment plan and sufficient space.

Other Recommended Practices

- Quality of staffing and facility availability

Neonatal Intensive Care Units (NICUs)

Stratified and Regionalized Care

- Recommended by American Academy of Pediatrics
- Four levels of care according to intensity required
- Referrals for care

Other recommended practices

- Quality of staffing, service availability, necessary equipment and technology, and staffing ratios

Pediatric Cardiac Catheterization

Quality Improvement Programs

- Professional medical associations recommend collection of data and systematic review of case outcomes

Volume

- Volume recommendations have been made by professional associations and PCTAP

Expert Consensus:

Labs should perform more than 100 cases per year and individual operators perform at least 50 cases per year

PCTAP:

Labs should perform at least 100 cases and 30 electrophysiology studies

Other Recommended Practices

- Quality of staffing, service availability, necessary equipment and maintenance, and staffing ratios

Pediatric Open Heart Surgery

Patient Outcomes

- Outcome assessment measured as mortality rates within certain thresholds

Volume

- PCTAP has established a volume recommendation
 - 100 cases per year, averaged over two years

Other Recommended Practices

- Quality of staffing, staffing ratios, service availability, and equipment

Organ Transplants

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)*

- Patient selection and waitlist criteria
- Protocols for organ recovery and receipt
- Quality assessment and performance improvement programs
- Data submission to OPTN

Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network (OPTN)*

- Training, qualifications, and responsibilities of primary transplant surgeon and physician
- Availability of appropriate equipment and services
- Transplant program performance
- Minimum volume of transplants to remain “functionally active”

* These are not exhaustive lists of federal requirements for transplant centers

Options for Consideration by AHCA

- > Comprehensive Rehabilitation
- > Neonatal Care
- > Pediatric Cardiac Care

Follow relevant professional medical association standards for tertiary health services licensure

In addition, AHCA could consider the following options:

Neonatal Care

Revise the designation of neonatal care to follow the American Academy of Pediatrics' 2012 recommendations for four levels

Pediatric Cardiac Catheterization

Require minimum volume recommended by relevant professional medical associations or PCTAP

Pediatric Open Heart Surgery

Require the minimum volume recommended by PCTAP

Option for Consideration by the Legislature

If the Legislature is interested in additional quality assurance for transplant centers, it could consider the following option:

Organ Transplantation

Direct AHCA to assemble a panel of transplant experts representing the state's transplant centers to develop consensus recommendations on volume

INTRODUCER: Senator Stargel and others

SUBJECT: Parental Consent for Abortion

DATE: November 12, 2019 REVISED: _____

I. Summary:

SB 404 creates s. 390.01117, F.S., to prohibit a physician from performing an abortion on a minor unless the physician has been presented with consent from the minor’s mother, father, or legal guardian. This requirement does not apply if the abortion is performed during a medical emergency where there was insufficient time to obtain consent. Additionally, the minor may petition the circuit court in the area where the minor resides to allow the abortion to proceed without obtaining consent. The court must issue an order authorizing the minor to obtain an abortion without consent if specified criteria are met.

The bill provides additional reporting requirements for a physician who has performed an abortion on a minor. The bill also establishes criminal penalties for a physician who knowingly or recklessly performs an abortion on a minor without parental consent and for any person who provides consent who is not authorized to do so. The bill specifies that failing to obtain consent is prima facie evidence of interference with family relations in an appropriate civil action.

The bill provides that the provisions of the bill may not be construed to create or recognize a right to abortion, to be construed as to limit the common law rights of parents or guardians, and that the Legislature does not intend to make lawful an abortion that is currently unlawful. The bill also provides that any provision of the bill held to be invalid or unenforceable must be construed so as to give it the maximum effect permitted by law and, if the provision is held to be entirely invalid or unenforceable, the provision is deemed severable from the remainder of the bill and may still apply to other persons in dissimilar situations or circumstances from the circumstances for which the provisions was ruled invalid or unenforceable.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Abortion in Florida

Under Florida law, abortion is defined as the termination of a human pregnancy with an intention other than to produce a live birth or remove a dead fetus.¹ The termination of a pregnancy must be performed by a physician² licensed under ch. 458, F.S., or ch. 459, F.S., or a physician practicing medicine or osteopathic medicine in the employment of the United States.³

The termination of a pregnancy may not be performed in the third trimester or if a physician determines that the fetus has achieved viability unless there is a medical necessity. Florida law defines the third trimester to mean the weeks of pregnancy after the 24th week and defines viability to mean the state of fetal development when the life of a fetus is sustainable outside the womb through standard medical measures.⁴ Specifically, an abortion may not be performed after viability or within the third trimester unless two physicians certify in writing that, in reasonable medical judgment, the termination of the pregnancy is necessary to save the pregnant woman's life or avert a serious risk of substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, other than a psychological condition. If a second physician is not available, one physician may certify in writing to the medical necessity for legitimate emergency medical procedures for the termination of the pregnancy.⁵

Sections 390.0111(4) and 390.0112(3), F.S., provide that if a termination of pregnancy is performed during the third trimester or during viability, the physician who performs or induces the termination of pregnancy must use that degree of professional skill, care, and diligence to preserve the life and health of the fetus, which the physician would be required to exercise in order to preserve the life and health of any fetus intended to be born and not aborted. However, the woman's life and health constitute an overriding and superior consideration to the concern for the life and health of the fetus when the concerns are in conflict. This termination of a pregnancy must be performed in a hospital.⁶

Case Law on Abortion

Federal Case Law

In 1973, the U.S. Supreme Court issued the landmark Roe v. Wade decision.⁷ Using the strict scrutiny standard, the Court determined that a woman's right to terminate a pregnancy is protected by a fundamental right to privacy guaranteed under the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.⁸ Further, the Court reasoned that state regulations limiting the exercise of this right must be justified by a compelling state interest and must be narrowly drawn.⁹

In 1992, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of a Pennsylvania statute involving a 24-hour waiting period between the provision of information to a woman and the performance of an abortion. In that decision, Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey,¹⁰ the Court upheld the statute and relaxed the standard of review in abortion cases involving adult women from “strict scrutiny” to “unduly burdensome.” An undue burden exists and makes a statute invalid if the statute’s purpose or effect is to place a substantial obstacle in the way of a woman seeking an abortion before the fetus is viable.¹¹

The Court held that the undue burden standard is an appropriate means of reconciling a state’s interest in human life with the woman’s constitutionally protected liberty to decide whether to terminate a pregnancy. The Court determined that, prior to fetal viability, a woman has the right to an abortion without being unduly burdened by government interference. Before viability, a state’s interests are not strong enough to support prohibiting an abortion or the imposition of a substantial obstacle to the woman’s right to elect the procedure.¹² However, once viability occurs, a state has the power to restrict abortions if the law contains exceptions for pregnancies that endanger a woman’s life or health.

Case Law on Parental Consent Laws

Federal Case Law

Both the U.S. Supreme Court and the Florida Supreme Court have addressed parental consent laws with varying conclusions. In *Bellotti v. Baird*¹³ the U.S. Supreme Court found that:

States validly may limit the freedom of children to choose for themselves in the making of important, affirmative choices with potentially serious consequences. [With these limitations on freedom] grounded in the recognition that, during the formative years of childhood and adolescence, minors often lack the experience, perspective, and judgment to recognize and avoid choices that could be detrimental to them.

Further, the Court, in finding the particular statute under review unconstitutional, but providing a path for parental consent laws to be constitutional, found that:

If the state decides to require a pregnant minor to obtain one or both parents’ consent to an abortion, it must provide an alternative procedure whereby authorization for the abortion can be obtained; pregnant minor is entitled in such a proceeding to show either that she is mature and well enough informed to make her abortion decision in consultation with her physician independently of her parents' wishes or that, even if she is not able to make the decision independently the abortion would be in her best interests; proceeding in which such a showing is made must assure that resolution of the issue and any appeals will be completed with anonymity and sufficient expedition to provide an effective opportunity for an abortion to be obtained.

Florida Case Law

However, the Florida Supreme Court has come to a differing decision based exclusively on the privacy rights guaranteed by article I, section 23 of the Florida Constitution.

In In re T.W. the Florida Supreme Court invalidated a parental consent law passed in 1988¹⁴ by finding that, "... the state's interests in protecting minors and in preserving family unity are worthy objectives. Unlike the federal Constitution, however, which allows intrusion based on a 'significant' state interest, the Florida Constitution requires a 'compelling' state interest in all cases where the right to privacy is implicated"¹⁵ and the state "does not recognize [the interests of protecting minors and preserving the family unit] as being sufficiently compelling to justify a parental consent requirement where procedures other than abortion are concerned."¹⁶

To demonstrate this point, the Florida Supreme Court cited s. 743.065, F.S. The Court stated:

Under this statute, a minor may consent, without parental approval, to any medical procedure involving her pregnancy or her existing child—no matter how dire the possible consequences—except abortion. Under In re Guardianship of Barry, 445 So.2d 365 (Fla. 2d DCA 1984) (parents permitted to authorize removal of life support system from infant in permanent coma), this could include authority in certain circumstances to order life support discontinued for a comatose child. In light of this wide authority that the state grants an unwed minor to make life-or-death decisions concerning herself or an existing child without parental consent, we are unable to discern a special compelling interest on the part of the state under Florida law in protecting the minor only where abortion is concerned. We fail to see the qualitative difference in terms of impact on the well-being of the minor between allowing the life of an existing child to come to an end and terminating a pregnancy, or between undergoing a highly dangerous medical procedure on oneself and undergoing a far less dangerous procedure to end one's pregnancy. If any qualitative difference exists, it certainly is insufficient in terms of state interest.¹⁷

The Florida Supreme Court also found that the parental consent statute was not the least intrusive means of furthering the state interest since, "although the instant statute does provide for a judicial bypass procedure, it makes no provision for a lawyer for the minor or for a record hearing."¹⁸

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

SB 404 creates s. 390.01117, F.S., entitled the Parental Consent for Abortion Act. The bill prohibits a physician from performing an abortion on a minor, defined as a person under the age of 18, unless the physician has been presented with consent. The bill defines “consent” as a notarized written statement signed by the minor and either her mother, her father, or her legal guardian declaring that the minor is pregnant, intends to seek an abortion, and that her mother, father, or legal guardian, as applicable, consents to the abortion because the abortion is in the best interest of the minor.

The bill provides exceptions to this requirement if:

- The physician performing the abortion certifies in the minor’s medical record that a medical emergency¹⁹ and there was insufficient time to obtain consent; or
- The consent requirement has been judicially waived.

Judicial Waiver of Consent

To obtain a judicial waiver of consent, a minor may petition any circuit court in the area where she resides and may participate in the proceedings on her own behalf. The petition must include a statement that the minor is pregnant and is unemancipated,²⁰ that consent from a parent or the legal guardian of the minor has not been obtained, and that the minor wishes to obtain an abortion without first obtaining consent.

The court must advise the minor that she has a right to court-appointed counsel and must provide her with counsel upon her request. A county is not required to pay the salaries, costs, or expenses of any counsel appointed by the court. The court also may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor who must maintain the confidentiality of the minor’s identity. The court may not charge filing fees or court costs for a petition under the bill at either the trial or appellate level.

The bill requires all court proceedings for such a petition to be confidential and to ensure the anonymity of the minor. The proceedings must be sealed and the minor may file her petition using a pseudonym or only her initials. All documents related to the petition are confidential and may not be made available to the public. Additionally, all hearings, including appeals, under the bill must remain confidential and closed to the public as provided by court rule.

The bill also declares that such petitions must be given precedence over other matters before the court and establishes accelerated timelines for such petitions as follows:

- The circuit court must rule and issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law within 3 business days after the petition is filed, except that the timeline may be extended at the request of the minor.

¹⁹ A “medical emergency” is defined in s. 390.01114(2)(d), F.S., as a condition that, on the basis of a physician’s good faith clinical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant woman as to necessitate the immediate termination of her pregnancy to avert her death, or for which a delay in the termination of her pregnancy will create serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function.

²⁰ A circuit court has jurisdiction to emancipate a minor residing in this state upon the filing of a petition under conditions and criteria found in ch. 743, F.S. An emancipated minor may be authorized by the court to perform all acts that the minor could perform if he or she were 18 years of age.

- If the court fails to rule within 3 days, the minor may petition for a hearing to the chief judge who must ensure the hearing is held within 48 hours and that an order is entered within 24 hours after the hearing.
- If the waiver is not granted, the minor may appeal and the appellate court must rule within 7 days after receipt of the appeal or remand the ruling to the circuit court.
- If remanded, the circuit court must rule within 3 days of the remand.
- The Florida Supreme Court may provide for an expedited appeal in rule for any minor to whom the circuit court denies a waiver. An order authorizing a waiver is not subject to appeal.

The court must issue an order waiving the consent requirement if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the minor is sufficiently mature to decide whether to terminate her pregnancy. In making such a decision, the court may consider whether there may be any undue influence over the minor's decision by another, as well as the minor's:

- Age.
- Overall intelligence.
- Emotional development and stability.
- Credibility and demeanor as a witness.
- Ability to accept responsibility.
- Ability to assess both the immediate and long-range consequences of her choices.
- Ability to understand and explain the medical risks of terminating her pregnancy and to apply that understanding to her decision.

The court may also grant a waiver of the consent requirement if the court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the minor is the victim of child or sexual abuse, as defined in s. 390.01114, F.S., inflicted by one or both parents or the minor's guardian, or if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that requiring consent is not in the best interest of the minor. Under the bill, the best-interest standard does not include the financial best interest, financial considerations, or the financial impact on the minor or her family if she does not terminate the pregnancy.

If the court finds evidence of child or sexual abuse of the minor by any person, the court must report the evidence of such abuse as provided in s. 39.201, F.S.

A court that conducts proceedings under the bill must:

- Provide for a written transcript of all testimony and proceedings;
- Issue a final written order containing factual findings and legal conclusions supporting its decision, including factual findings and legal conclusions relating to the maturity of the minor; and
- Order that a confidential record be maintained.

The bill also requests the Florida Supreme Court to adopt rules and forms for petitions to ensure that the proceedings under the bill are handled expeditiously, handled in a manner consistent with the bill, and protect the confidentiality of the minor's identity and of the proceedings.

Criminal and Civil Liability

The bill establishes additional criminal and civil liability as follows:

- Any person who willfully and intentionally, or with reckless disregard, performs an abortion on a minor without required consent commits a misdemeanor of the first degree. The bill provides that it is a defense to prosecution under the newly-created section of statute that the minor falsely represented her age or identity to the physician by displaying an apparently valid governmental record or identification such that a careful and prudent person would have relied on the representation. However, this defense does not apply if the physician is shown to have had independent knowledge of the minor's actual age or identity or if the physician failed to use due diligence in determining the minor's age or identity.
- Any person who provides consent who is not authorized to provide consent commits a misdemeanor of the first degree.
- Failure to obtain consent from a person from whom consent is required is prima facie evidence of failure to obtain consent and of interference with family relations in appropriate civil actions. Such prima facie evidence does not apply to any issue other than failure to obtain consent from the parent or legal guardian and interference with family relations in appropriate civil actions. The civil action may be based on a claim that the bill was a result of negligence, gross negligence, wantonness, willfulness, intention, or other legal standard of care. Exemplary damages may be awarded in appropriate civil actions relevant to violations of this section.

Reporting Requirements

The bill requires a physician who has performed an abortion on a minor in the past calendar month to submit a monthly report to the Department of Health which must include the following information for each minor upon whom an abortion was performed:

- If the abortion was performed with consent;
- If the abortion was performed during a medical emergency that excepted the minor from the consent requirement, and the nature of the medical emergency;
- If the abortion was performed with a judicial waiver of consent;
- Her age; and
- The number of times she has been pregnant and the number of abortions that have been performed on her.

Construction and Severability

The bill provides that its provisions:

- May not be construed to create or recognize a right to abortion.
- May not be construed to limit the common law rights of parents or legal guardians.
- Are not intended to make lawful an abortion that is currently unlawful.

Additionally, any provision of the bill held to be invalid or unenforceable by its terms, or as applied to any person or circumstance, must be construed so as to give it the maximum effect permitted by law, unless such holding is one of utter invalidity or unenforceability, in which event such provision shall be deemed severable and may not affect the remainder of the bill or the application of such provision to other persons not similarly situated or to other, dissimilar circumstances.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

C. Government Sector Impact:

SB 404 may have an indeterminate fiscal on the Department of Health and on the State Courts System related to implementing the requirements established by the bill.

VII. Related Issues:

SB 404 requires that a physician must be presented with a notarized statement of consent signed by a minor's parent or legal guardian prior to performing an abortion on the minor. The bill defines “minor” as a person under the age of 18 years but does not account for emancipated minors. In order to obtain a judicial bypass, the bill requires that a minor be unemancipated. (See lines 140-143.) Therefore, it is possible that the bill, as written, may prevent emancipated minors from obtaining abortions.

101 (2) DEFINITIONS.-As used in this section, the term:

102 (a) "Consent" means a notarized written statement signed by

104 declaring that the minor is pregnant, that she intends to seek

117 (5) REPORTS.—
 118 (a) A physician who has performed an abortion on a minor in 119 the past calendar month shall submit a monthly report to the 120 department which must include the following information for each
 121 minor upon whom an abortion was performed:
 122 1. If the abortion was performed with consent;
 123 2. If the abortion was performed during a medical emergency
 124 that excepted the minor from the consent requirement, and the 139 abortion and may participate in proceedings on her own behalf.

146 her request. The court also may appoint a guardian ad litem for 147 the minor. A guardian ad litem appointed under this subsection
 148 must maintain the confidentiality of the minor's identity.
 149 (b) Court proceedings under this subsection shall be 150 confidential and must ensure the anonymity of the minor. All
 151 court proceedings under this section shall be sealed. The minor 152 may file her petition in the court using a pseudonym or using 153 solely her initials. All documents related to this petition
 154 shall be confidential and may not be made available to the 155 public. These proceedings shall be given precedence over other
 156 pending matters to the extent necessary to ensure that the court
 157 reaches a decision promptly. The court shall rule, and issue
 158 written findings of fact and conclusions of law, within 3
 159 business days after the petition is filed, except that the 3-
 160 business-day limitation may be extended at the request of the 161 minor.
 162 1. If the court fails to rule within the 3-business-day
 163 period and an extension has not been requested, the minor may

 165 business-day period to the chief judge of the circuit, who must 166 ensure that a hearing is held within 48 hours after receipt of 167 the minor's petition and that an order is entered within 24

 170 consent, the minor has the right to an appeal. An appellate
 171 court must rule within 7 days after receipt of the appeal, but a
 172 ruling may be remanded with further instruction, in which case a 173 ruling must be made within 3 business days after the remand. The 176 the evidence presented to the circuit court, since the 177 proceeding is a nonadversarial proceeding.

178 (c) If the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence,
 179 that the minor is sufficiently mature to decide whether to 180 terminate her pregnancy, the court shall issue an order
 181 authorizing the minor to obtain an abortion without the consent
 182 of a parent or guardian. If the court does not make the finding 183 specified in this paragraph or paragraph (d), it must dismiss
 184 the petition. The court shall consider whether there may be any 185 undue influence by another on the minor's decision to have an 186 abortion and all of the following factors concerning the minor:

 198 that the petitioner is the victim of child abuse or sexual 199 abuse, as those terms are defined in s. 390.01114(2), inflicted 200 by one or both of her parents or her guardian, or finds, by

 206 best interest or financial considerations or the potential
 207 financial impact on the minor or her family if she does not
 208 terminate the pregnancy. If the court finds evidence of child
 209 abuse or sexual abuse of the petitioner by any person, the court
 210 shall report the evidence of child abuse or sexual abuse of the 211 petitioner, as provided in s. 39.201. If the court does not make
 212 the finding specified in this paragraph or paragraph (c), it
 213 must dismiss the petition.

214 (e) A court that conducts proceedings under this section
 215 shall:

216 1. Provide for a written transcript of all testimony and 217 proceedings;

218 2. Issue a final written order containing factual findings
 219 and legal conclusions supporting its decision, including factual
 220 findings and legal conclusions relating to the maturity of the 221 minor as provided under paragraph (c); and

222 3. Order that a confidential record be maintained.

223 (f) All hearings under this section, including appeals,
 224 shall remain confidential and closed to the public, as provided
 225 by court rule.

226 (g) An expedited appeal shall be made available, as the 227 Supreme Court provides by rule, to any minor to whom the circuit
 228 court denies a waiver of consent. An order authorizing an 229 abortion without consent is not subject to appeal.

230 (h) Filing fees or court costs may not be required of any 231 minor who petitions a court for a waiver of consent under this 232 subsection at either the trial or the appellate level.

233 (i) A county is not required to pay the salaries, costs, or 234 expenses of any counsel appointed by the court under this 235 subsection.

236 (7) RULEMAKING.—The Supreme Court is requested to adopt
 237 rules and forms for petitions to ensure that proceedings under 238 subsection (6) are handled expeditiously and in a manner
 239 consistent with this section. The Supreme Court is also 240 requested to adopt rules to ensure that the hearings protect the 241 confidentiality of the minor's identity and the confidentiality
 242 of the proceedings.

243 (8) CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND CIVIL REMEDIES.—

244 (a) Any person who willfully and intentionally performs an 245 abortion with knowledge that, or with reckless disregard as to 246 whether, the minor upon whom the abortion is to be performed is 247 unemancipated without obtaining the required consent commits a
 248 misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s.
 249 775.082 or s. 775.083. It is a defense to prosecution under this 250 section that the minor falsely represented her age or identity
 251 to the physician to be at least 18 years of age by displaying an 252 apparently valid governmental record of identification such that 253 a careful and prudent person under similar circumstances would 254 have relied on the representation. The defense does not apply if 255 the physician is shown to have had independent knowledge of the 256 minor's actual age or identity or failed to use due diligence in 257 determining her age or identity.

258 (b) Any person not authorized to provide consent under this 259 section who provides consent commits a misdemeanor of the first 260 degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

261 (c) Failure to obtain consent from a person from whom

262 consent is required under this section is prima facie evidence
 263 of failure to obtain consent and of interference with family
 264 relations in appropriate civil actions. Such prima facie
 265 evidence does not apply to any issue other than failure to 266 obtain consent from the parent or legal guardian and 267 interference with family relations in appropriate civil actions.
 268 The civil action may be based on a claim that the act was a
 269 result of negligence, gross negligence, wantonness, willfulness,
 270 intention, or other legal standard of care. Exemplary damages
 271 may be awarded in appropriate civil actions relevant to 272 violations of this section.

273 (d) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section
 274 constitutes grounds for disciplinary action under each
 275 respective practice act and under s. 456.072.

276 (9) CONSTRUCTION.—

277 (a) This section may not be construed to create or 278 recognize a right to abortion.

279 (b) This section may not be construed to limit the common
 280 law rights of parents or legal guardians.

281 (c) By enacting this section, the Legislature does not 282 intend to make lawful an abortion that is currently unlawful.

283 (10) SEVERABILITY.—Any provision of this section held to be 284 invalid or unenforceable by its terms, or as applied to any 285 person or circumstance, shall be construed so as to give it the 286 maximum effect permitted by law, unless such holding is one of 287 utter invalidity or unenforceability, in which event such 288 provision shall be deemed severable and may not affect the 289 remainder hereof or the application of such provision to other
 290 persons not similarly situated or to other, dissimilar

BILL ANALYSIS AND FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

INTRODUCER: Senator Stargel

SUBJECT: Public Records/Minor's Petition to Waive Consent/Abortion

DATE: November 12, 2019

REVISED: _____

I. Summary:

SB 406 creates s. 390.01118, F.S., to establish a public records exemption for any information that can be used to identify a minor who is petitioning a circuit court for a judicial waiver pursuant to the Parental Consent for Abortion Act established in SB 404. Specifically, the bill provides that any such information is:

- Confidential and exempt from article I section 24(a) of the State Constitution, if held by a circuit court or an appellate court; and
- Confidential and exempt from article I section 119.07(1) and section 24(a) of the State Constitution, if held by the office of criminal conflict and civil regional counsel or the Justice Administrative Commission.

The bill provides legislative findings that the public records exemption is a public necessity and provides that the public records exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will be repealed on October 2, 2025, unless reviewed and saved from repeal by the Legislature.

II. Present Situation:

Public Records Law

The State Constitution provides that the public has the right to inspect or copy records made or received in connection with official governmental business.¹ This applies to the official business of any public body, officer, or employee of the state, including all three branches of state government, local governmental entities, and any person acting on behalf of the government.²

Chapter 119, F.S., known as the Public Records Act, constitutes the main body of public records laws.³ The Public Records Act states “[i]t is the policy of this state that all state, county, and municipal records are open for personal inspection and copying by any person. Providing access to public records is a duty of each agency.”⁴

The Public Records Act typically contains general exemptions that apply across agencies. Agency- or program-specific exemptions often are placed in the substantive statutes relating to that particular agency or program.

The Public Records Act does not apply to legislative or judicial records.⁵ Legislative records are public pursuant to s. 11.0431, F.S. Public records exemptions for the Legislature are codified primarily in s. 11.0431(2)-(3), F.S., and adopted in the rules of each house of the Legislature.

A public record includes virtually any document or recording, regardless of its physical form or how it may be transmitted.⁶ The Florida Supreme Court has interpreted public records as being “any material prepared in connection with official agency business which is intended to perpetuate, communicate, or formalize knowledge of some type.”⁷

The Florida Statutes specify conditions under which public access to governmental records must be provided. The Public Records Act guarantees every person’s right to inspect and copy any state or local government public record at any reasonable time, under reasonable conditions, and under supervision by the custodian of the public record.⁸ A violation of the Public Records Act may result in civil or criminal liability.⁹

Only the Legislature may create an exemption to public records requirements.¹⁰ An exemption must be created by general law and must specifically state the public necessity justifying the exemption.¹¹ Further, the exemption must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. A bill enacting an exemption may not contain other substantive provisions¹² and must pass by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature.¹³

³ Public records laws are found throughout the Florida Statutes.

⁴ Section 119.01(1), F.S.

⁵ Locke v. Hawkes, 595 So. 2d 32 (Fla. 1992). Also see Times Pub. Co. v. Ake, 660 So. 2d 255 (Fla. 1995).

⁶ Section 119.011(12), F.S., defines “public record” to mean “all documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, data processing software, or other material, regardless of the physical form, characteristics, or means of transmission, made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by any agency.” Section 119.011(2), F.S., defines “agency” as “any state, county, district, authority, or municipal officer, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other separate unit of government created or established by law including, for the purposes of this chapter, the Commission on Ethics, the Public Service Commission, and the Office of Public Counsel, and any other public or private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of any public agency.”

⁷ Shevin v. Byron, Harless, Schaffer, Reid and Assoc. Inc., 379 So. 2d 633, 640 (Fla. 1980).

⁸ Section 119.07(1)(a), F.S.

⁹ Section 119.10, F.S. Public records laws are found throughout the Florida Statutes, as are the penalties for violating those laws.

¹⁰ FLA. CONST. art. I, s. 24(c).

¹¹ Id.

¹² The bill may, however, contain multiple exemptions that relate to one subject.

¹³ FLA. CONST. art. I, s. 24(c).

When creating or expanding a public records exemption, the Legislature may provide that a record is “confidential and exempt” or “exempt.”¹⁴ Records designated as “confidential and exempt” may be released by the records custodian only under the circumstances defined by the Legislature or pursuant to a court order. Records designated as “exempt” may be released at the discretion of the records custodian under certain circumstances.¹⁵

The Open Government Sunset Review Act (the Act) prescribes a legislative review process for newly created or substantially amended public records or open meetings exemptions,¹⁶ with specified exceptions.¹⁷ It requires the automatic repeal of such exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.¹⁸ The Act provides that a public records or open meetings exemption may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and is no broader than is necessary to meet such public purpose.¹⁹

Office of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel (Office)

In 2007, the Legislature created the Office to provide adequate representation to persons entitled to court-appointed counsel under the U.S. or Florida Constitution or as authorized by general law. In creating the Office, the Legislature intended to provide adequate representation in a fiscally sound manner, while safeguarding constitutional principles.²⁰ The Office provides counsel only in cases where a judge appoints the office. Counsel may be provided in both criminal and civil cases.²¹

The Justice Administrative Commission

The Justice Administrative Commission (JAC), created in 1965, provides administrative services on behalf of 49 judicial related offices. Currently, the JAC administratively serves 20 Offices of State Attorney, 20 Offices of Public Defender, 5 Offices of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel, 3 Offices of Capital Collateral Regional Counsel, and the Statewide Guardian ad Litem Program. Services provided are primarily in the areas of accounting, budget, financial services, and human resources. While the JAC administratively serves these offices, the JAC does not supervise, direct, or control the offices it serves.²²

¹⁴ If the Legislature designates a record as confidential, such record may not be released to anyone other than the persons or entities specifically designated in the statutory exemption. WFTV, Inc. v. The Sch. Bd. of Seminole, 874 So. 2d 48, 53 (Fla. 5th DCA 2004).

¹⁵ Williams v. City of Minneola, 575 So. 2d 683 (Fla. 5th DCA 1991).

¹⁶ Section 119.15, F.S. An exemption is substantially amended if the amendment expands the scope of the exemption to include more records or information or to include meetings as well as records (s. 119.15(4)(b), F.S.). The requirements of the Act do not apply to an exemption that is required by federal law or that applies solely to the Legislature or the State Court System (s. 119.15(2), F.S.).

¹⁷ Section 119.15(2)(a) and (b), F.S., provide that exemptions that are required by federal law or are applicable solely to the Legislature or the State Court System are not subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

SB 406 creates s. 390.01118, F.S., to establish a public records exemption for any information that can be used to identify a minor who is petitioning a circuit court for a judicial waiver pursuant to the Parental Consent for Abortion Act established in SB 404, if SB 404 becomes law. Specifically, the bill provides that any such information is:

- Confidential and exempt from article I, section 24(a) of the State Constitution, if held by a circuit court or an appellate court; and
- Confidential and exempt from article I, section 119.07(1) and section 24(a) of the State Constitution, if held by the office of criminal conflict and civil regional counsel or the Justice Administrative Commission.

The bill provides legislative findings of public necessity as follows:

- It is a public necessity to keep confidential and exempt from public disclosure information contained in a court record which could be used to identify a minor who is petitioning the court for a waiver from the statutory requirement that a parent or legal guardian give consent before the minor may obtain an abortion. The information contained in these records is of a sensitive, personal nature regarding a minor petitioner, release of which could harm the reputation of the minor, as well as jeopardize her safety. Disclosure of this information could jeopardize the safety of the minor in instances when child abuse or child sexual abuse against her is present by exposing her to further acts of abuse from an abuser who, if the information was not held confidential, could learn of her pregnancy, her plans to obtain an abortion, and her petition to the court.
- It is a public necessity to keep this identifying information in records held by the court confidential and exempt in order to protect the privacy of the minor. The State Constitution contains an express right of privacy in section 23 of article I. Further, the United States Supreme Court has repeatedly required parental-consent laws to contain judicial-bypass procedures and to preserve confidentiality at every level of court proceedings in order to protect the privacy rights of the minor. Without the confidentiality and exemption provided in this act, the disclosure of personal identifying information would violate the right of privacy of the minor and would place the constitutionality of the state's program providing for a judicial waiver of consent in question.

The bill also provides that the public records exemption is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will be repealed on October 2, 2025, unless reviewed and saved from repeal by the Legislature.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:Voting Requirement

Article I, section 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a newly created or expanded public record exemption. Because the bill creates a public record exemption, it requires a two-thirds vote for final passage.

Public Necessity Statement

Article I, section 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a bill that creates or expands an exemption to the public records requirements to state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption. Section 2 of the bill contains a statement of public necessity for the exemptions.

Breadth of Exemption

Article I, section 24(c) of the State Constitution requires an exemption to the public records requirements to be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law.

The public necessity statement in section 2 of the bill provides findings that the State Constitution contains an express right of privacy in section 23 of article I. Further, the United States Supreme Court has repeatedly required parental-consent laws to contain judicial-bypass procedures and to preserve confidentiality at every level of court proceedings in order to protect the privacy rights of the minor. Without the confidentiality and exemption provided in this act, the disclosure of personal identifying information would violate the right of privacy of the minor and would place the constitutionality of the state's program providing for a judicial waiver of consent in question.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

SB 406 provides that the bill's provisions take effect upon a senate bill, or other similar legislation, taking effect if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or extension thereof. However, the effective date does not provide a specific senate bill number to which the effective date is tied. The bill should be amended to provide that the bill takes effect upon SB 404 taking effect.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill creates section 390.01118 of the Florida Statutes.
