Jay Reeve, Ph.D.
President and Chief Executive Officer,
Apalachee Center, Tallahassee

Jay Reeve is President and Chief Executive Officer of Apalachee Center, in Tallahassee. Apalachee Center is a not-for-profit behavioral health center operating eight outpatient clinics, three acute behavioral health care inpatient units, and six residential programs across the eight counties of Florida's Big Bend region. Apalachee Center employs 450 staff, sees about 6,000 clients annually, and has an annual budget of about $26 million.

Dr. Reeve has been licensed as a clinical psychologist in Delaware, Florida, New York, and Rhode Island. Dr. Reeve joined Apalachee Center in 2005 when he was brought on board as the chief managed care officer, responsible for negotiating contracts with various insurance carriers. He was promoted to CEO in 2008.

Prior to joining Apalachee Center, Dr. Reeve lived in New England, where he was on faculty at the Brown Medical School Department of Psychiatry and Human Behavior. He has held academic posts at the University of Albany, Albany Medical College, Widener University, Immaculata College, the Massachusetts School of Professional Psychology, Brown University, the University of Hartford, and Florida State University. Dr. Reeve has been published in peer-reviewed journals on topics ranging from the psychotherapeutic treatment of HIV+ adolescents to the use of group psychotherapy on children's inpatient psychiatric units.

In 2014, Dr. Reeve was made a Fellow of the Florida Council for Community Mental Health, "in recognition of his unique and significant contributions to the Council." In 2010, Dr. Reeve was awarded the Visionary Leadership award by the National Council for Community Behavioral Health. He was the first Florida mental health provider to win the Big Bend Mental Health Coalition's "Walk the Walk" award in 2008. In 2005, he received the Brown Medical School's Outstanding Teaching Award in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.

Dr. Reeve received undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees from Tufts, Harvard, and Adelphi Universities.

Theresa Thweatt Rulien, Ph.D.
President and Chief Executive Officer,
Child Guidance Center, Jacksonville

Theresa Rulien is President and Chief Executive Officer of the Child Guidance Center in Jacksonville. The Child Guidance Center is a private, not-for-profit organization whose mission is to improve the lives of children and families by offering a full range of comprehensive, state-of-the-art behavioral health services, including treatment for anxiety disorders, low self-esteem, attention deficit disorders, sexual, physical, or emotional abuse, delinquency issues, suicidal thoughts, depression, Baker Act diversion, and other behavioral health conditions.

Dr. Rulien is a native of Jacksonville, having attended Duval County public schools for her primary and secondary education. She earned her associate's degree from Florida Junior College and continued her post-secondary education at the University of Florida by receiving her bachelor's degree in psychology, her master's and specialist degrees in counselor education, specializing in agency, correctional, and developmental counseling, and her doctorate also in counselor education with a specialty in marriage and family therapy. Dr. Rulien is dually-licensed in the state of Florida as a mental health counselor and a marriage and family therapist.

After graduation, Dr. Rulien was employed by Mental Health Services, Inc. in Gainesville as an outpatient therapist, working primarily with children and families involved in the Florida HRS system. She continued with MHS at the Alachua County Juvenile Detention Center as an assessment and referral specialist. After moving to Jacksonville, Theresa joined Psychological Associates (later Baptist Behavioral Health System) as an outpatient family therapist before opening a private practice with offices in the Arlington and Mandarin areas of Jacksonville.

Dr. Rulien joined Child Guidance Center in February 2005 to coordinate the development of the then Crisis Response Team (now Rapid Response Team). She was later promoted to program director, adding the Comprehensive Assessments and the Community Family Services teams to her direction. Theresa was selected to fill the position of President/Chief Executive Officer of Child Guidance Center beginning July 2010.

The Honorable T. Patterson “Patt” Maney County Court Judge, Okaloosa County

T. Patterson “Patt” Maney has been a county court judge in Okaloosa County since 1989. He serves on the Supreme Court’s Task Force on Mental Health and Substance Abuse Issues in the Courts, the Florida Defense Support Task Force, and the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicle’s Driving Under the Influence Program Review Board. For approximately seven years, Judge Maney served as the Baker Act/Marchman Act judge for Okaloosa County. He is a former gubernatorial appointee to the statutory Suicide Prevention Coordinating Council.

Judge Maney led the establishment of Okaloosa County’s Mental Health Court and, more recently, the Okaloosa County Veterans Docket. The Okaloosa County Veterans Docket became the Veterans Treatment Court, which serves veterans in the four-county First Judicial Circuit. Seven years ago, Judge Maney initiated an annual community-based “Stand Down for Homeless Veterans” event, which provides health care, including mental health screenings; personal hygiene and clothing items; state and federal benefits assistance; housing assistance; and hot meals.

Judge Maney also spearheaded a successful effort to persuade the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to locate a Vet Center in Okaloosa County, which offers a wide array of services to veterans and is a key resource for the Veterans Treatment Court and local veterans. A former Secretary of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs appointed Judge Maney to the department’s Advisory Committee on the Readjustment of Veterans.

Judge Maney served in the Army Reserve and retired as a brigadier general in 2007, with service in Panama, Haiti, Bosnia, and Afghanistan. Among his military awards are the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal with an oak leaf cluster, and the Purple Heart. He holds the Secretary of Defense Award for Outstanding Public Service, the Secretary of State’s Meritorious Honor Award, and the Afghan Ghazi Mir Batcha Kahn Superior Medal.

Kathleen A. Smith
Public Defender,
20th Judicial Circuit

Kathleen Smith was elected in 2008 as Public Defender for the 20th Judicial Circuit, serving the citizens of Charlotte, Collier, Hendry, Glades, and Lee counties.

Ms. Smith obtained her BA and Juris Doctorate from the University of Florida, and she recently earned her Master's Degree in Public Administration from Florida Gulf Coast University.

Ms. Smith began her law practice as an assistant Public Defender in 1990. She currently specializes in representing client's living with mental illness and is a past recipient of Advocate of the Year awarded by Lee Mental Health, Inc. Furthermore, Ms. Smith was honored with a Florida Senator's Proclamation for her advocacy on behalf of mentally ill clients. Ms. Smith was appointed on behalf of the Florida Public Defender Association to serve on Florida Supreme Court's Substance Abuse and Mental Health task force.

Bob Gualtieri
Sheriff, Pinellas County

Bob Gualtieri has been the Pinellas County Sheriff since November 2011. Sheriff Gualtieri began his career with the Sheriff's Office over 30 years ago and has served in many different capacities, including the agency's general counsel and the chief deputy (second in command).

Sheriff Gualtieri began his law enforcement career in 1982 when he joined the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office as a detention deputy working in the County Jail. He then worked for the Dunedin Police Department as a police officer before returning to the Sheriff's Office as a patrol deputy. During his career, Sheriff Gualtieri also served in the Investigative Operations and Narcotics Bureaus where he conducted complex international drug trafficking and money laundering investigations for eight years while serving on federal taskforces. In 1991 he was named Pinellas County Deputy Sheriff of the Year for his efforts in dismantling major drug trafficking organizations through the use of electronic surveillance.

Sheriff Gualtieri earned a bachelor's degree with high honors from Eckerd College. In 1998 he left the Sheriff's Office to attend Stetson University College of Law, from which he graduated cum laude. After graduating from law school, Sheriff Gualtieri entered private law practice with a firm in Tampa where he represented employers in labor and employment law litigation.

Sheriff Gualtieri returned to the Sheriff's Office in 2006, serving as general counsel and chief deputy until becoming Sheriff in 2011. During the economic downturn between 2009 and 2013, Sheriff Gualtieri oversaw a reduction in the Sheriff's Office budget of $108 million and the elimination of over 600 positions. During that same period, the Sheriff's Office reduced crime in its service area by over 20%.

Sheriff Gualtieri is an active member of Florida and national organizations that impact law enforcement policy, including the Florida Sheriff's Association, National Sheriff's Association, Major County Sheriff's Association, Police Executive Research Forum, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Sheriff Gualtieri is active in the community, serving on numerous boards, including the Boys & Girls Club of the Suncoast, Pinellas Homeless Leadership Board, Sheriff's Police Athletic League, and the Pinellas Education Foundation.

Donna P. Wyche, MS, CAP
Division Manager, Mental Health and Homelessness,
Orange County Health Services Department

Donna Wyche has spent over 30 years in the social service field in Florida. Her career spans over 15 years of clinical and administrative work in the private sector in community mental health and substance abuse. Since 1997 Ms. Wyche has been an employee of Orange County Government and has worked in the Department of Family Services.

Her list of accomplishments include the development and implementation of the Orange County Juvenile Assessment Center, the Central Receiving Center (CRC), in Orlando, and the Phase Two CRC Program, ANCHOR, which is a transitional housing program for the chronically homeless struggling with serious mental health and addiction issues.

The CRC project is a central point of access for individuals in crisis due to mental health issues or substance use disorders. Law enforcement use this facility for crisis services for Orange County, and it is a model for pre-booking jail diversion. The project opened April 2003. She continues to work on new phases of the CRC and on other projects to assist in alleviating homeless issues effecting Orange County. Currently under her leadership is the children's mental health initiative called "WrapAround Orange."

Ms. Wyche earned a master's degree in sociology with an emphasis on sociology of the family and is also a Certified Addiction Professional in the State of Florida.

John N. Bryant

Asst. Secretary for Substance Abuse and Mental Health, Department of Children and Families

John N. Bryant is Assistant Secretary for Substance Abuse and Mental Health at the Florida Department of Children and Families. Bryant previously served as Vice President for Legislative and External Affairs at the Florida Council for Community Mental Health, working with and advising state agencies on legislative and budget priorities, policy development, contract services, behavioral health program design, research, and advocacy.

Before that he worked with the DCF (and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services) for 36 years in multiple roles, both regionally and at the statewide level, including Chief of Operations for the Substance Abuse Program Office, Chief of the State Mental Health Treatment Facilities, Assistant Secretary for Mental Health Programs, Chief of Adult Mental Health, and other positions.

He completed course work for a master's degree in public health at the University of South Florida and has a bachelor's degree in social sciences from the University of West Florida.

201 Capitol
Tallahassee, Florida 32399

Dear Senator Garcia:

Please excuse me from Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services that will be held on Tuesday February 10, 2015 at 1:00 PM. I have a pressing community issue that requires my immediate attention and will not be returning to Tallahassee until Wednesday morning. I do expect to be present for the Committee meeting scheduled on Wednesday afternoon.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Tallahassee, FL 32399-1100

Dear Chairman Garcia:

Please accept this letter as a formal request to excuse myself from the Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services today, Tuesday, February 10th and tomorrow, Wednesday, February 11th. Given the expectancy of my first child, I had to tend to a personal matter with my family that has prevented me from being able to attend this week's committee meetings.

Please let me know if I can provide you with any further information. Thank you for your patience and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,
