DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICT

Pursuant to Senate Rule 1.39, a Senator must disclose the nature of any interest in any matter on which he or she votes, including votes at the subcommittee level, committee level, and on the floor, if the interest would inure to the special private gain or loss of certain, specified persons or entities listed in Rule 1.39.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICT

03/10/2026

Date

Pursuant to Senate Rule 1.39, I am disclosing that certain provisions in Executive Appointment of Christina Brodeur
(Bill Number; Appointment; Suspension)

(Amendment Barcode)

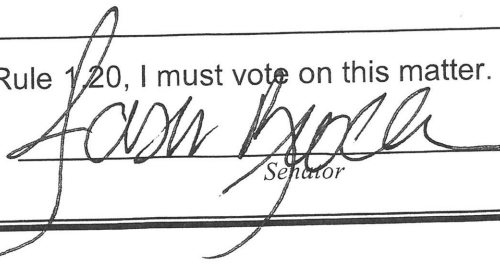

provide a special private gain or loss to (circle one):

1. A principal by whom I or my spouse, parent, or child is retained or employed;
2. A parent organization or subsidiary of a corporate principal by which I am retained or employed; or
3. An immediate family member or business associate of mine.

The nature of the interest and the persons or entities involved are specified below.

My spouse, Christina Brodeur, is on the list of executive appointments considered for Senate confirmation on her reappointment to the Florida Commission on Community Service. I voted on this confirmation on March 10, 2026. Although I will not receive a special private gain or loss, such reappointment may be construed as a special private gain to my spouse.

As established by Senate Rule 1.20, I must vote on this matter.
