11. Program Performance

- a. What specific purpose or goal will be achieved by the funds requested?

SPCA Tampa Bay offers behavioral assessment and rehabilitation for animals, thus making society safer by ensuring dangerous animals do not re-enter the community and providing support for owners whose animals have behavior issues.

- b. What activities and services will be provided to meet the intended purpose of these funds?

Housing of stray animals, free vaccination for animals, and surgeries for animals.

- c. What direct services will be provided to citizens by the appropriation project?

Research studies have been conducted to show the benefits of animal care in easing depression, improving mental health, and reducing the likelihood of suicide.

- d. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

200,000 people in Pinellas County.

- e. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured?

Tracking the number of visitors and people that will be using the facility for strays and their own pets, measured by actual numbers and data.

- f. What are the suggested penalties that the contracting agency may consider in addition to its standard penalties for failing to meet deliverables or performance measures provided for in the contract?
