12. Program Performance

a. What specific purpose or goal will be achieved by the funds requested?

Fulltime Jewish Day Schools and preschools will be more secure against the anti-Semitic and terroristic threats they face.

b. What activities and services will be provided to meet the intended purpose of these funds?

Funding will be used by Jewish schools and preschools to pay for contracted security services and target hardening like bullet proof glass, security doors, electronic access, and alarm and camera systems.

c. What direct services will be provided to citizens by the appropriation project?

On Campus security

d. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

Jewish schools and preschools will provide more security for their students, teachers, staff and parents. Our higher threat schools are aligning themselves with the national preparedness goals of DHS/FEMA, which is an ongoing, constant process. With the state funds, schools are working to deter, detect, delay and defend themselves, and review on a regular basis if they are consistently and constantly doing what it takes to accomplish this.

e. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured?

More than 13,000 preschool and K-12 students, approximately 1,500 teachers and school staff and thousands of parents.

f. What are the suggested penalties that the contracting agency may consider in addition to its standard penalties for failing to meet deliverables or performance measures provided for the contract?

Schools and pre-schools that provide inaccurate counts of their pre-school and k-12 students will be ineligible to apply for security funds for 3 years. Schools that include day care children or solely provide day-care services in the pre-school count or include part time students attending Hebrew school, private lessons , etc will be ineligible to apply for 3 years.

13. The owners of the facility to receive, directly or indirectly, any fixed capital outlay funding. Include the relationship between the owners of the facility and the entity.

Jewish day schools and preschools will receive the funding through the appropriate state of Florida Department. Teach Florida advocates on behalf of Jewish schools and families. Approximately 25% of the schools are member schools of Teach Florida, paying between $1000 to $10,000 depending on the size of the school. Membership dues are not related to government funding or advocacy outcomes.
