4. Project/Program Description

City of Naples - Naples Bay Red Tide/Septic Tank Mitigation Project is a joint partnership between the City of Naples and Collier County to convert 253 failing septic tanks to a centralized sanitary sewer system while enhancing the stormwater system to improve water quality to reduce nutrient loading in the sensitive impaired water of Naples Bay. This is a multi-year project with a total estimated construction cost for the centralized sanitary sewer system of $6.5 mil. This project location is within the US 41/ Goodlette Road corridor located within unincorporated Collier County, but within the potable water and sanitary sewer service areas of the City of Naples Utilities. The Naples City Council will established a special assessment district to assess the property owners for the capital cost of the new central sanitary sewer system that includes the system design. The funding request is limited to those funds that are expected to be expended in FY 22-23 .
