The current property owners would have the opportunity to receive compensation for their property and the tax payers of St. Johns County will not have to continue to expend funds to attempt to protect these structures. In addition new recreeation space would be available.

d. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

There area approximately 27 property owners in the threatened portion of Old A1A. The cessation of expenditures to protect the access to the houses and the expanded recreation would benefit all of the tax payers in St. Johns County.
