Provide quality rural healthcare access, primarily in the form of primary and palliative care, to the citizens of Taylor, Madison, Jefferson, Wakulla, Gadsden, Liberty, Franklin and Leon counties, through 2 mobile medical units, which will deliver a range of health services, staffed by a combination of physicians/nurse practitioners, nurses, community health workers and other health professionals.

b. What activities and services will be provided to meet the intended purpose of these funds?

Primary and palliative care services for predominantly chronically ill senior citizens who are at risk for not accessing other healthcare services due to socio-economic factors, or who utilize more expensive forms of care, such as emergency room services.

c. What direct services will be provided to citizens by the appropriation project?

Direct care by physicians/nurse practitioners - assessments and treatment of chronic conditions with the goal of patients remaining in their residences.

d. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

The initial target population will be the 157,331 rural county residents comprising of Taylor, Madison, Jefferson, Gadsden, Liberty, Wakulla and Franklin counties of Florida. Of this population, according to the Florida Department of Elder Affairs 2022 assessment, 41,379 are age 60 years and older, of which 9,478 live alone. These services will target elderly patients who have chronic conditions with one or more co-morbidities.

e. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured?

Reduced unnecessary hospitalizations, emergency room visits, EMS transport. This will predominantly be measured using claims data (Medicare, Medicaid, commercial) from a twenty-four month period prior to using the mobile units, to the twelve-month period after. Success will be measured in total average cost of care for the targeted demographic.

f. What are the suggested penalties that the contracting agency may consider in addition to its standard penalties for failing to meet deliverables or performance measures provided for the contract?

As with current value-based reimbursement models, penalties can include being partially at risk for not achieving expected savings, and fully at risk for costs greater than the baseline average cost per patient (initial 24-month term baseline).
