Project Gadsden Wellness - Our Future's target population will be senior citizens, individuals that are considered homeless, and individuals with mental and/or physical disabilities. Gadsden County's population is comprised of 18 to 20 percent of senior citizens, the homeless population in Gadsden County is approximately 6 to 8 percent, and 5 to 7 percent of the population are individuals with mental and/or physical disabilities. One of the biggest challenges that the senior citizens encounter is inadequate housing. The citizens within the targeted populations struggle with having adequate housing because of a lack of clear titles and/or deeds, insufficient funding for repairs and renovations, and the inability to submit completed applications and other required documents (home insurance, clear deeds, land survey, etc.). The program aims to combat these problems by providing qualified citizens with assistance and stipends to overcome these obstacles.
