

1
2 An act relating to termination of parental 3 rights; amending s. 39.464, F.S.; providing 4 additional grounds for the termination of 5 parental rights; amending s. 39.469, F.S.; 6 revising language with respect to the powers of 7 disposition of the court concerning termination
8 of parental rights; amending s. 39.471, F.S.; 9 providing that certain orders are admissible in 10 evidence in subsequent adoption proceedings
11 relating to the child; amending s. 61.13, F.S.; 12 including reference to one of the grounds for 13 termination of parental rights as a rebuttable 14 presumption of detriment to the child when the 15 court is determining matters relating to the 16 custody of a minor child; providing that 17 termination of parental rights does not affect 18 grandparents' rights; providing an effective 19 date.

20
21 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

22
23 Section 1. Subsection (1) of section 39.464, Florida
24 Statutes, is amended to read:

25 39.464 Grounds for termination of parental rights.--

26 (1) The department, the guardian ad litem, a licensed 27 child-placing agency, or any person who has knowledge of the 28 facts alleged or who is informed of said facts and believes 29 that they are true, may petition for the termination of 30 parental rights under any of the following circumstances:

31

1           (a) When the parent or parents voluntarily executed a 2 written surrender of the child and consented to the entry of 3 an order giving custody of the child to the department or to a 4 licensed child-placing agency for subsequent adoption and the 5 department or licensed child-placing agency is willing to 6 accept custody of the child.

7           1. The surrender document must be executed before two 8 witnesses and a notary public or other person authorized to 9 take acknowledgments.

10          2. The surrender and consent may be withdrawn after 11 acceptance by the department or licensed child-placing agency 12 only after a finding by the court that the surrender and 13 consent were obtained by fraud or duress.

14          (b) When the identity or location of the parent or 15 parents is unknown and cannot be ascertained by diligent 16 search as provided in s. 39.4625 within 60 days.

17          (c) When the parent or parents engaged in conduct 18 toward the child or toward other children that demonstrates 19 that the continuing involvement of the parent or parents in 20 the parent-child relationship threatens the life or well-being 21 of the child irrespective of the provision of services.
22 Provision of services is evidenced by proof that services were 23 provided through a previous plan or offered as a case plan 24 from a child welfare agency.

25          (d) When the parent of a child is incarcerated in a 26 state or federal correctional institution and:

27           1. The period of time for which the parent is expected 28 to be incarcerated will constitute a substantial portion of 29 the period of time before the child will attain the age of 18
30 years;

31

1           2. The incarcerated parent has been determined by the 2 court to be a violent career criminal as defined in s.
3 775.084, a habitual violent felony offender as defined in s.
4 775.084, or a sexual predator as defined in s. 775.21; has 5 been convicted of first degree or second degree murder in 6 violation of s. 782.04 or a sexual battery that constitutes a 7 capital, life, or first degree felony violation of s. 794.011;
8 or has been convicted of an offense in another jurisdiction
9 which is substantially similar to one of the offenses listed
10 in this paragraph. As used in this section, the term 11 "substantially similar offense" means any offense that is 12 substantially similar in elements and penalties to one of 13 those listed in this paragraph, and that is in violation of a 14 law of any other jurisdiction, whether that of another state, 15 the District of Columbia, the United States or any possession 16 or territory thereof, or any foreign jurisdiction; and 17           3. The court determines by clear and convincing 18 evidence that continuing the parental relationship with the 19 incarcerated parent would be harmful to the child and, for 20 this reason, that termination of the parental rights of the 21 incarcerated parent is in the best interest of the child.

22           (e)(d) When the parent or parents engaged in egregious 23 conduct that endangers the life, health, or safety of the 24 child or the child's sibling or had the opportunity and 25 capability to prevent egregious conduct that threatened the 26 life, health, or safety of the child or the child's sibling 27 and knowingly failed to do so.

28           1. As used in this subsection, the term "sibling" 29 means another child who resides with or is cared for by the 30 parent or parents regardless of whether the child is related 31 legally or by consanguinity.

1           2. As used in this subsection, the term "egregious 2 abuse" means conduct of the parent or parents that is 3 deplorable, flagrant, or outrageous by a normal standard of 4 conduct. Egregious abuse may include an act or omission that 5 occurred only once but was of such intensity, magnitude, or 6 severity as to endanger the life of the child.

7           (f)~~(e)~~ A petition for termination of parental rights 8 may also be filed when a child has been adjudicated dependent, 9 a case plan has been filed with the court, and the child 10 continues to be abused, neglected, or abandoned by the 11 parents. In this case, the failure of the parents to 12 substantially comply for a period of 12 months after an 13 adjudication of the child as a dependent child constitutes 14 evidence of continuing abuse, neglect, or abandonment unless 15 the failure to substantially comply with the case plan was due 16 either to the lack of financial resources of the parents or to 17 the failure of the department to make reasonable efforts to 18 reunify the family. Such 12-month period may begin to run only 19 after the entry of a disposition order placing the custody of 20 the child with the department or a person other than the 21 parent and the subsequent filing with the court of a case plan 22 with a goal of reunification with the parent.

23           Section 2. Section 39.469, Florida Statutes, is 24 amended to read:

25           39.469 Powers of disposition; order of disposition.--

26           (1) If the court finds that the grounds for 27 termination of parental rights have not been established by 28 clear and convincing evidence, the court shall:

29           (a) If grounds for dependency have been established, 30 adjudicate or readjudicate the child dependent and:

31

1           1. Enter an order placing or continuing the child in 2 foster care under a case plan; or

3           2. Enter an order returning the child to the parent or 4 parents. The court shall retain jurisdiction over a child
5 returned to the parents or legal guardians for a period of 6 6 months, but, at that time, based on a report of the social 7 service agency and any other relevant factors, the court shall 8 make a determination as to whether its jurisdiction shall 9 continue or be terminated.

10           (b) If grounds for dependency have not been 11 established, dismiss the petition.

12           (2) If the child is in foster-care custody of the 13 department and the court finds that the grounds for 14 termination of parental rights have been established by clear 15 and convincing evidence, the court shall, by order, place the 16 child in the custody of the department for the purpose of 17 adoption or place the child in the custody of a licensed 18 child-placing agency for the purpose of adoption.

19           (3) If the child is in the custody of one parent and 20 the court finds that the grounds for termination of parental 21 rights have been established for the remaining parent by clear 22 and convincing evidence, the court shall enter an order 23 terminating the rights of the parent for whom the grounds have 24 been established and placing the child in the custody of the 25 remaining parent, granting that parent sole parental 26 responsibility for the child.

27           (4) If the child is neither in the custody of the 28 Department of Children and Family Services nor in the custody 29 of a parent and the court finds that the grounds for 30 termination of parental rights have been established for 31 either or both parents, the court shall enter an order

1 terminating parental rights for the parent or parents for whom 2 the grounds for termination have been established and placing 3 the child with an appropriate custodian. If the parental 4 rights of both parents have been terminated, or if the 5 parental rights of only one parent have been terminated and 6 the court makes specific findings based on evidence presented 7 that placement with the remaining parent is likely to be 8 harmful to the child, the court may order that the child be 9 placed with a custodian other than the department after 10 hearing evidence of the suitability of such intended 11 placement. Suitability of the intended placement includes the 12 fitness of the intended placement, with primary consideration 13 being given to the welfare of the child; the fitness and 14 capabilities of the proposed custodian to function as the 15 primary caretaker for a particular child; and the 16 compatibility of the child with the home in which the child is 17 intended to be placed. If the court orders that a child be 18 placed with a custodian under this subsection, the court shall 19 appoint such custodian as the guardian for the child as 20 provided in s. 744.3021. The court may modify the order 21 placing the child in the custody of the custodian and revoke 22 the guardianship established under s. 744.3021 if the court 23 subsequently finds that a party to the proceeding other than a 24 parent whose rights have been terminated has shown a material
25 change in circumstances which causes the placement to be no 26 longer in the best interest of the child.

27 (5)(3) If the court terminates parental rights, the 28 court shall enter a written order of disposition briefly 29 stating the facts upon which its decision to terminate the 30 parental rights is made. An order of termination of parental 31 rights, whether based on parental consent or after notice

1 served as prescribed in this part, permanently deprives the 2 parents or legal guardian of any right to the child.

3 ~~(6)(4)~~ The parental rights of one parent may be 4 severed without severing the parental rights of the other 5 parent only under the following circumstances:

6 (a) If ~~Where~~ the child has only one surviving parent;

7 (b) If ~~Where~~ the identity of a prospective parent has 8 been established as unknown after sworn testimony;

9 (c) If ~~Where~~ the parent whose rights are being 10 terminated became a parent through a single-parent adoption; 11 ~~or~~

12 (d) If ~~Where~~ the protection of the child demands 13 termination of the rights of a single parent; or.

14 (e) If the parent whose rights are being terminated 15 meets the criteria specified in s. 39.464(1)(d).

16 ~~(7)(5)~~ If the court terminates parental rights, it may 17 order that the parents or relatives of the parent whose rights 18 are terminated be allowed to maintain some contact with the 19 child pending adoption if the best interests of the child 20 support this continued contact. If the court orders such 21 continued contact, the nature and frequency of the contact 22 must be set forth in written order and may be reviewed upon 23 motion of any party, including a prospective adoptive parent 24 if a child has been placed for adoption. If a child is placed 25 for adoption, the nature and frequency of the contact must be 26 reviewed by the court at the time the child is adopted.

27 ~~(8)(6)~~ If the court terminates parental rights, it 28 shall, in its order of disposition, provide for a hearing, to 29 be scheduled no later than 30 days after the date of 30 disposition, in which the department or the licensed 31 child-placing agency shall provide to the court a plan for

1 permanency for the child. Thereafter, until the adoption of 2 the child is finalized or the child reaches the age of 18
3 years, whichever occurs first, the court shall hold hearings 4 at 6-month intervals to review the progress being made toward 5 permanency for the child.

6 Section 3. Subsection (6) of section 39.471, Florida
7 Statutes, 1996 Supplement, is amended to read:

8 39.471 Oaths, records, and confidential information.--

9 (6) No court record of proceedings under this part 10 shall be admissible in evidence in any other civil or criminal 11 proceeding, except that:

12 (a) Orders terminating the rights of a parent are ~~and~~ 13 ~~committing the child to a licensed child-placing agency or the~~ 14 ~~department for adoption shall be~~ admissible in evidence in 15 subsequent adoption proceedings relating to the child.

16 (b) Records of proceedings under this part forming a 17 part of the record on appeal shall be used in the appellate 18 court in the manner hereinafter provided.

19 (c) Records necessary therefor shall be admissible in 20 evidence in any case in which a person is being tried upon a 21 charge of having committed perjury.

22 Section 4. Subsection (2) of section 61.13, Florida
23 Statutes, 1996 Supplement, is amended to read:

24 61.13 Custody and support of children; visitation
25 rights; power of court in making orders.--

26 (2)(a) The court shall have jurisdiction to determine 27 custody, notwithstanding that the child is not physically 28 present in this state at the time of filing any proceeding
29 under this chapter, if it appears to the court that the child 30 was removed from this state for the primary purpose of

31

1 removing the child from the jurisdiction of the court in an 2 attempt to avoid a determination or modification of custody.

3 (b)1. The court shall determine all matters relating 4 to custody of each minor child of the parties in accordance 5 with the best interests of the child and in accordance with 6 the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act. It is the public 7 policy of this state to assure that each minor child has 8 frequent and continuing contact with both parents after the 9 parents separate or the marriage of the parties is dissolved 10 and to encourage parents to share the rights and 11 responsibilities, and joys, of childrearing. After considering 12 all relevant facts, the father of the child shall be given the 13 same consideration as the mother in determining the primary 14 residence of a child irrespective of the age or sex of the 15 child.

16 2. The court shall order that the parental 17 responsibility for a minor child be shared by both parents
18 unless the court finds that shared parental responsibility 19 would be detrimental to the child. The court shall consider 20 evidence of spousal or child abuse as evidence of detriment to 21 the child. The court shall consider evidence that a parent has 22 been convicted of a felony of the second degree or higher 23 involving domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28 and 24 chapter 775, or meets the criteria of s. 39.464(1)(d), as a 25 rebuttable presumption of detriment to the child. If the 26 presumption is not rebutted, shared parental responsibility, 27 including visitation, residence of the child, and decisions 28 made regarding the child, may ~~shall~~ not be granted to the 29 convicted parent. However, the convicted parent is ~~shall~~ not 30 ~~be~~ relieved of any obligation to provide financial support. If 31 the court determines that shared parental responsibility would

1 be detrimental to the child, it may order sole parental 2 responsibility and make such arrangements for visitation as 3 will best protect the child or abused spouse from further 4 harm.

5           a. In ordering shared parental responsibility, the 6 court may consider the expressed desires of the parents and 7 may grant to one party the ultimate responsibility over 8 specific aspects of the child's welfare or may divide those 9 responsibilities between the parties based on the best
10 interests of the child. Areas of responsibility may include 11 primary residence, education, medical and dental care, and any 12 other responsibilities that ~~which~~ the court finds unique to a 13 particular family.

14           b. The court shall order "sole parental 15 responsibility, with or without visitation rights, to the 16 other parent when it is in the best interests of" the minor 17 child.

18           c. The court may award the grandparents visitation 19 rights with ~~of~~ a minor child if it is in the child's best 20 interest. Grandparents ~~shall~~ have legal standing to seek 21 judicial enforcement of such an award. ~~Nothing in~~ This section 22 does not ~~shall~~ require that grandparents be made parties or 23 given notice of dissolution pleadings or proceedings, nor do 24 ~~shall~~ grandparents have legal standing as "contestants" as 25 defined in s. 61.1306. A ~~No~~ court may not ~~shall~~ order that a 26 child be kept within the state or jurisdiction of the court 27 solely for the purpose of permitting visitation by the 28 grandparents.

29           3. Access to records and information pertaining to a 30 minor child, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, 31 and school records, may ~~shall~~ not be denied to a parent

1 because the ~~such~~ parent is not the child's primary residential 2 parent.

3 (c) The circuit court in the county in which either 4 parent and the child reside or the circuit court in which the 5 original award of custody was entered have jurisdiction to 6 modify an award of child custody. The court may change the 7 venue in accordance with s. 47.122.

8 Section 5. The termination of parental rights does not 9 affect the rights of grandparents.

10 Section 6. This act shall effect October 1, 1997, and 11 applies to any person incarcerated after October 1, 1997, who 12 is sentenced to a term of incarceration which would qualify 13 under the provisions of this act, as well as to any persons 14 who are sentenced after that date.

15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31