Representative(s) Reddick offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 62, between lines 21 and 22 of the bill

insert:

Section 49. For fiscal year 1999-2000, the Parole Commission, in cooperation with the Department of Management Services and the Department of Corrections and with assistance from a minimum of three academic researchers in the criminal justice field, is authorized to conduct a study to evaluate, investigate, and analyze the feasibility of implementing a program such as the State of Arizona's Proposition 200. The study will address recidivism issues, reimbursement efforts, and potential cost savings to the state by the release of certain drug offenders from correctional institutions. The findings and recommendations shall be submitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by January 1, 2000.
