I. SUMMARY:

CS/HB 117 exempts sales and leases to the Gasparilla Distance Classic Association, Inc., from the state sales tax.

The Revenue Estimating Conference has not reviewed this bill yet. The bill may have an insignificant negative impact on General Revenue.

This bill does not increase or otherwise change the rulemaking authority of a state agency.

II. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

A. PRESENT SITUATION:

Chapter 212, F.S., provides for the taxation on and exemption from transactions. Generally, it is the policy of the state to tax every person who engages in the business of: selling tangible personal property at retail, renting or furnishing things or services, storing for use or consumption, and leasing or renting tangible personal property.

The rate of taxation in Florida is six (6) percent of the sales or use price of each item or article of tangible personal property when sold at retail, computed on each taxable sale or use for the purpose of remitting the amount of tax due the state, and including each and every retail sale.

In addition to the state rate of 6 percent, local governments are authorized to levy one or more of six types of Local Discretionary Sales Surtaxes, ranging from up to 0.5 percent to 1.0 percent each.

Section 212.08(7), F.S., establishes a number of miscellaneous sales tax exemptions, including sales and leases to religious, charitable, scientific, educational, and veterans' institutions and organizations. Paragraph (o)2.b., specifically establishes an exemption from the payment of sales tax for "charitable institutions." "Charitable Institutions" are defined as corporations qualified as nonprofit pursuant to s. 501(c)(3), United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and other nonprofit entities, whose "sole or primary function" is to directly provide one or more of the following services, if a reasonable percentage of the services is provided free of charge or at a substantially reduced rate:

- medical aid;
- regular provision of physical necessities such as food, clothing and shelter;
- services to prevent alcoholism, drug abuse or suicide, or to alleviate mental, physical or sensory health problems;
- social welfare services, including adoption placement, child care or care for the elderly;
- medical research;
- legal services; and,
- food, shelter, medical care, adoption services, cruelty investigations, or education programs concerning animals.

According to the Department of Revenue, for the period of July 1 through December 31, 1995, sales tax exemption certificates were renewed for 520 charitable institutions and revoked for 124. Of 898 new applications for exemption, 154 were approved and 744 were denied.

IV. CONSEQUENCES OF ARTICLE VII, SECTION 18 OF THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION:

A. APPLICABILITY OF THE MANDATES PROVISION:

This bill does not require counties or municipalities to spend funds or to take an action requiring the expenditure of funds.

B. REDUCTION OF REVENUE RAISING AUTHORITY:

The bill is not projected to significantly reduce the authority of municipalities and counties to raise revenues.

C. REDUCTION OF STATE TAX SHARED WITH COUNTIES AND MUNICIPALITIES:

While the bill may reduce the amount of the Local Government Half Cent Sales Tax shared with municipalities and counties, it does not reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with municipalities and counties. Therefore, Article VII, Section 18(b), Florida Constitution does not apply.

V. COMMENTS:

There may be a constitutional question regarding the Equal Protection Clause of both the Florida and the U.S. Constitutions. The bill gives preferential treatment to the Gasparilla Distance Classic Association, Inc. over all other charitable institutions.

But, the courts have ruled that “[l]egislatures have especially broad latitude in creating classifications and distinctions in tax statutes.” Department of Revenue v. Magazine Publishers of America, Inc. 604 so. 2d 459 (Fla. 1992)(quoting Regan v. Taxation With Representation, 461, U.S. 540, 547 (1983). Such classifications and distinctions are constitutional if a rational basis exists between the classification and a legitimate state purpose. Magazine Publishers at 465. The bill is constitutional if the state has a legitimate purpose in treating the Gasparilla Distance Classic Association, Inc., differently than other charitable institutions.
