1 have insulation in ceilings rated at R-19 or more, space
2 permitting. Thermal efficiency standards do not apply to a 3 building of less than 1,000 square feet which is not primarily 4 used as a principal residence and which is constructed and 5 owned by a natural person for hunting or similar recreational 6 purposes; however, no such person may build more than one 7 exempt building in any 12-month period.
