11 Representative(s) Sanderson, Lynn, and Frankel offered the 12 following:

14 Amendment (with title amendment)

15 remove from the bill: Everything after the enacting clause

17 and insert in lieu thereof: Section 1. The Department of 18 Children and Family Services shall contract with a private 19 nonprofit corporation to implement the Healthy Families
20 Florida program. The private nonprofit corporation shall be 21 incorporated for the purpose of identifying, funding,
22 supporting, and evaluating programs and community initiatives
23 to improve the development and life outcomes of children and 24 to preserve and strengthen families with a primary emphasis on 25 prevention. The private nonprofit corporation shall implement 26 the program. The program shall work in partnership with 27 existing community-based home visitation and family support 28 resources to provide assistance to families in an effort to 29 prevent child abuse. The program shall be voluntary for 30 participants and shall require the informed consent of the 31 participants at the initial contact. The Kempe Family Stress

1 Checklist shall not be used.

2 Section 2. There is hereby appropriated to the 3 Department of Children and Family Services the sum of $10
4 million from tobacco settlement receipts residing in the 5 department's Grants and Donations Trust Fund to implement this 6 act.

7 Section 3. This act shall take effect on July 1 of the 8 year in which enacted.
