Representative(s) Culp, Reddick, Roberts-Burke, and Sanderson offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 63, line 31,
Section 39. Subsection (9) of section 288.8175,
Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

288.8175 Linkage institutes between postsecondary institutions in this state and foreign countries.--

(9) The Department of Education shall review and make linkage-institute budget requests to the Governor and the Legislature. State appropriations for institutes created under this section must be made by a single lump-sum line item to the department, which must apportion the funds among the various institutes in accordance with criteria established by the department. The linkage institutes shall be eligible to apply on a competitive basis to the Office of Tourism, Trade, and Economic Development for the Targeted Market Pilot Project Grants Program as defined in s. 14.2015, designed to improve short and long term international business opportunities for Florida businesses.
