I. SUMMARY:

This bill changes two current requirements necessary for appointment to the position of Adjutant General of the Florida National Guard (FNG). One change involves requiring the five years of service in the FNG be served continuously prior to appointment. The other change involves attaining the rank of colonel rather than major.

The bill also applies these changes to both Assistant Adjutant Generals (Air and Army). The bill provides that the most senior in rank of the two Assistant Adjutant Generals serves as acting Adjutant General.

This bill has no fiscal impact.

II. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

A. PRESENT SITUATION:

Subsection 250.10(1), Florida Statutes, provides for the appointment and duties of the Adjutant General of the Florida National Guard (FNG). The person appointed to serve as Adjutant General is required to have served as an officer of the FNG for at least five years and attained the rank of major or higher. Subsection 250.10(4) and (6), Florida Statutes, provides for the Adjutant General to employ Assistant Adjutant Generals of the (FNG) -- one for the Army National Guard, the other for the Air National Guard.

They must:

- A) be a federally recognized FNG officer;
- B) have served in the FNG for at least 5 years;
- C) have attained the rank of major or higher.

Under the current law, there is confusion as to which Assistant Adjutant General (Army or Air) carries out the Adjutant General's duties in his absence.

VI. AMENDMENTS OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES:

One amendment was adopted by the Committee on Community Affairs on February 26, 1997. The amendment was necessary because after the bill was introduced, the DMA realized that the proposed language did not offer the Adjutant General the optimum flexibility to make the temporary assignment of his duties to one of his Assistant Adjutant Generals. Therefore, the DMA desired the amendment to allow the Adjutant General greater flexibility to respond to circumstances where he may find it necessary to temporarily assign his duties and responsibilities to one of his Assistant Adjutant Generals (Army or Air).
