A bill to be entitled An act relating to restrictions on individuals qualifying for public office; amending s. 99.012, F.S.; requiring a person who is a subordinate officer, deputy sheriff, or police officer to resign upon qualifying for public office; providing for the effective date of such resignation; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

16 17

18

19

20

21

22 23

24

25

26

27

28

29

Section 1. Subsection (5) of section 99.012, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

99.012 Restrictions on individuals qualifying for public office. --

(5) A person who is a subordinate officer, deputy sheriff, or police officer must need not resign upon qualifying for public office. If pursuant to this section unless the person is seeking to qualify for a public office which is currently held by an officer who has authority to appoint, employ, promote, or otherwise supervise that person and who has qualified as a candidate for reelection to that office, the resignation must be effective not later than the date the candidate qualifies. Otherwise, the resignation must be effective not later than the date the officer would take office, if elected. However, upon qualifying, the subordinate officer, deputy sheriff, or police officer must take a leave of absence without pay during the period in which he or she is a candidate for office.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1998.

30 31

* HOUSE SUMMARY Requires a person who is a subordinate officer, deputy sheriff, or police officer to resign upon qualifying for public office. Provides that, if the person is seeking to qualify for a public office which is currently held by an officer who has authority to appoint, employ, promote, or otherwise supervise that person and who has qualified as a candidate for reelection to that office, the resignation must be effective not later than the date the candidate qualifies; otherwise, it must be effective not later than the date the officer would take office, if elected. elected.