1           Section 1. This act may be cited as the "Maurice Rosen
2 Act."

3           Section 2. The Division of Administrative Hearings is 4 directed to appoint an administrative law judge to conduct a
5 hearing and determine whether a basis for equitable relief
6 exists for the purpose of compensating claimants Freddie Lee 7 Pitts and Wilbert Lee for any wrongful act or omission of the 8 State of Florida, or officials thereof, which affected the 9 fundamental fairness of the criminal proceedings against the 10 claimants and resulted in their convictions. In conducting the 11 hearing, the administrative law judge shall review the trial
12 and appellate record of the criminal cases against the 13 claimants, the record of the legislative proceedings, and the 14 Cabinet pardon proceedings and shall report on the fundamental 15 fairness thereof. The Department of Legal Affairs is directed 16 to provide representation for the State of Florida.

17           Section 3. If the administrative law judge determines 18 by a preponderance of the evidence that the State of Florida,
19 or officials, thereof, committed a wrongful act and that a
20 basis for equitable relief exists, the administrative law
21 judge is authorized to award claimants Freddie Lee Pitts and 22 Wilbert Lee the amount of $500,000 each. The determination of 23 the administrative law judge shall be reported to the 24 President of the Florida Senate and the Speaker of the Florida 25 House of Representatives no later than July 1, 1998. The

7 reasonable attorney's fee including all costs to the claimants
8 in an amount not to exceed 25 percent of the compensation
9 awarded.

10           Section 6. This act shall take effect upon becoming a
