Senate Amendment

On page 5, lines 17-19, delete those lines and insert: the proposed transport and use.

When evaluating applications to renew permits for the transport and use of ground or surface water across county boundaries or outside the watershed from which it is taken, the governing board or the department is directed to give significant weight to the value of the existing capital investment in water-related infrastructure made by the applicant. Where districtwide water supply assessments and regional water
