A bill to be entitled 1 An act relating to employment screening; 2 amending s. 64, ch. 95-228, Laws of Florida; 3 4 restricting an applicability provision relating to criminal offenses that was inadvertently 5 6 attributed to certain employment screening 7 provisions; providing legislative findings and 8 intent; providing a retroactive effective date. 9 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 10 11 12 Section 1. Section 64 of chapter 95-228, Laws of 13 Florida, is amended to read: Section 64. Except as otherwise provided herein, this 14 15 act shall take effect October 1, 1995; and section 787.025, Florida Statutes, as created by this act, and shall apply to 16 17 offenses committed on or after that date. 18 Section 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the applicability provision relating to criminal offenses 19 20 which was enacted in section 64 of chapter 95-228, Laws of Florida, should apply solely to the creation of section 21 787.025, Florida Statutes, relating to luring or enticing a 22 child, as indicated by Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 23 1536, as filed and first passed by the Senate on May 3, 1995, 24 and which was the original basis of chapter 95-228, Laws of 25 26 Florida. The Legislature finds that as a result of the amendment of such bill on May 5, 1995, by the House of 27 28 Representatives, which was concurred in by the Senate on the same day, such applicability was inadvertently attributed to 29 other provisions of law for which it was not intended. 30 31

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law and shall apply retroactively to June 9, 1995. HOUSE SUMMARY Restricts to s. 787.025, F.S., relating to luring or enticing a child, an applicability provision relating to criminal offenses that was inadvertently attributed to certain employment screening provisions by ch. 95-228, Laws of Florida, and provides for retroactive effect.
