Representative(s) Rojas offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 3, between lines 17 and 18, of the bill

insert:

(g) The legislature may, by general law, provide procedures by which counties and municipalities may, for the purpose of their respective tax levies and subject to the provisions of general law, provide to renters who maintain their permanent residence on said rental property and who have attained age sixty-five and whose household income, as defined by general law, does not exceed twenty thousand dollars, ad valorem tax relief on all ad valorem tax levies. Such ad valorem tax relief shall be in the form and amount established by general law. The general law shall provide for the periodic adjustment of the income limitation prescribed in this subsection for changes in the cost of living.
