20 Section 1. Subsections (4) through (11), (13), and 21 (14) of section 465.003, Florida Statutes, are renumbered as 22 subsections (5) through (12), (14), and (15), respectively, 23 present subsection (12) is renumbered as subsection (13) and 24 amended, and a new subsection (4) is added to said section, to 25 read:

26 465.003 Definitions.--As used in this chapter, the 27 term:

28 (4) "Data communication device" means an electronic 29 device that receives electronic information from one source
30 and transmits or routes it to another, including, but not 31 limited to, any such bridge, router, switch, or gateway.

1 (13)~~(12)~~ "Practice of the profession of pharmacy"
2 includes compounding, dispensing, and consulting concerning 3 contents, therapeutic values, and uses of any medicinal drug 4 and consulting concerning therapeutic values and interactions
5 of patent or proprietary preparations, whether pursuant to 6 prescriptions or in the absence and entirely independent of 7 such prescriptions or orders, and other related cognitive 8 services. The phrase also includes any other act, service, 9 operation, or transaction incidental to, or forming a part of,
10 any of the foregoing acts, requiring, involving, or employing 11 the science or art of any branch of the pharmaceutical 12 profession, study, or training, and shall expressly permit a 13 pharmacist to transmit information from persons authorized to 14 prescribe medicinal drugs to their patients.

15 Section 2. Subsection (2) of section 465.017, Florida
16 Statutes, is amended to read:

17 465.017 Authority to inspect.--

18 (2) Except as permitted by this chapter, and chapters
19 406, 409, 455, 499, and 893, records maintained by ~~in~~ a 20 pharmacy relating to the filling of prescriptions and the 21 dispensing of medicinal drugs shall not be furnished, except 22 upon the written authorization of the patient, to any person
23 other than ~~to~~ the patient for whom the drugs were dispensed, 24 ~~or~~ her or his legal representative, ~~or to the department~~ 25 ~~pursuant to existing law,~~ or, in the event that the patient is 26 incapacitated or unable to request said records, her or his 27 spouse; to the department pursuant to existing law; to 28 treating practitioners and other pharmacists when, in the 29 professional judgment of the pharmacist, such release protects 30 or benefits the patient's health, well-being, or treatment; 31 or, to insurance carriers or other payors authorized by the

1 patient to receive such records. For purposes of this section, 2 records held in a pharmacy shall be considered held by the 3 owner of the pharmacy ~~except upon the written authorization of~~ 4 ~~such patient.~~ Such records may be furnished in any civil or 5 criminal proceeding, upon the issuance of a subpoena from a 6 court of competent jurisdiction and proper notice to the 7 patient or her or his legal representative by the party 8 seeking such records. Such records or any part thereof, if 9 transmitted through a data communication device and not 10 directly between a pharmacy and a treating practitioner, may 11 not be accessed, used, or maintained by the operator or owner
12 of the data communication device unless specifically 13 authorized by this section.

14 Section 3. Section 465.014, Florida Statutes, is 15 amended to read:

16 465.014 Pharmacy technician.--No person other than a 17 licensed pharmacist or pharmacy intern may engage in the 18 practice of the profession of pharmacy, except that a licensed
19 pharmacist may delegate to nonlicensed pharmacy technicians
20 those duties, tasks, and functions which do not fall within 21 the purview of s. 465.003(13)(12). All such delegated acts
22 shall be performed under the direct supervision of a licensed
23 pharmacist who shall be responsible for all such acts
24 performed by persons under his or her supervision. A pharmacy
25 technician, under the supervision of a pharmacist, may 26 initiate or receive communications with a practitioner or his 27 or her agent, on behalf of a patient, regarding refill
28 authorization requests. No licensed pharmacist shall supervise
29 more than one pharmacy technician unless otherwise permitted 30 by the guidelines adopted by the board. The board shall 31 establish guidelines to be followed by licensees or permittees

1 in determining the circumstances under which a licensed
2 pharmacist may supervise more than one but not more than three 3 pharmacy technicians.

4 Section 4. Paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section
5 465.015, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

6 465.015 Violations and penalties.--

7 (2) It is unlawful for any person:

8 (c) To sell or dispense drugs as defined in s.
9 465.003(8)~~(7)~~without first being furnished with a 10 prescription.

11 Section 5. Section 465.0196, Florida Statutes, is 12 amended to read:

13 465.0196 Special pharmacy permits.--Any person
14 desiring a permit to operate a pharmacy which does not fall
15 within the definitions set forth in s. 465.003~~(11)~~~~(10)~~(a)1., 16 2., and 3. shall apply to the department for a special
17 pharmacy permit. If the board certifies that the application
18 complies with the applicable laws and rules of the board 19 governing the practice of the profession of pharmacy, the 20 department shall issue the permit. No permit shall be issued 21 unless a licensed pharmacist is designated to undertake the 22 professional supervision of the compounding and dispensing of 23 all drugs dispensed by the pharmacy. The licensed pharmacist 24 shall be responsible for maintaining all drug records and for 25 providing for the security of the area in the facility in 26 which the compounding, storing, and dispensing of medicinal 27 drugs occurs. The permittee shall notify the department
28 within 10 days of any change of the licensed pharmacist
29 responsible for such duties.

30 Section 6. Subsection (3) of section 468.812, Florida
31 Statutes, is amended to read:

1 468.812 Exemptions from licensure.--

2 (3) The provisions of this act relating to orthotics
3 or pedorthics do not apply to any licensed pharmacist or to 4 any person acting under the supervision of a licensed
5 pharmacist. The practice of orthotics or pedorthics by a 6 pharmacist or any of the pharmacist's employees acting under 7 the supervision of a pharmacist shall be construed to be 8 within the meaning of the term "practice of the profession of 9 pharmacy" as set forth in s. 465.003(13)(~~12~~), and shall be 10 subject to regulation in the same manner as any other pharmacy
11 practice. The Board of Pharmacy shall develop rules regarding 12 the practice of orthotics and pedorthics by a pharmacist. Any 13 pharmacist or person under the supervision of a pharmacist
14 engaged in the practice of orthotics or pedorthics shall not 15 be precluded from continuing that practice pending adoption of 16 these rules.

17 Section 7. Subsection (19) of section 499.003, Florida
18 Statutes, is amended to read:

19 499.003 Definitions of terms used in ss.

20 499.001-499.081.--As used in ss. 499.001-499.081, the term:

21 (19) "Legend drug," "prescription drug," or "medicinal 22 drug" means any drug, including, but not limited to, finished 23 dosage forms, or active ingredients subject to, defined by, or 24 described by s. 503(b) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic
25 Act or s. 465.003(8)(~~7~~), s. 499.007(12), or s. 499.0122(1)(b)
26 or (c).

27 Section 8. This act shall take effect July 1 of the 28 year in which enacted.
