and insert: two licensed psychiatrists or psychologists, or one licensed psychiatrist and one licensed psychologist, designated by the Secretary of Children and Family Services. Both evaluators must concur. If one of the professionals performing the evaluation does not concur that the person meets the criteria for civil commitment, but the other professional concludes that the person meets the criteria, the Secretary of Children and Family Services shall arrange for further examination of the person by two independent licensed psychiatrists or psychologists or by one independent licensed psychiatrist and one independent licensed psychologist. If an examination by independent professionals is conducted, a petition to seek commitment under this act shall only be filed if both independent professionals who evaluate the person pursuant to this subsection concur that the person meets the
