II. SUMMARY:

House Bill 3967 provides definitions and requirements for the election of supervisors for the Central County Water Control District in Hendry County.

The bill provides for :1) definitions for "qualified electors" and "governing board members"; 2) the composition of the board; 3) the terms of office; 4) requirements related to landowners meetings and; 5) the qualifications of electors.

III. SUBSTANTIVE RESEARCH:

A. PRESENT SITUATION:

The Central County Drainage District, an independent special district, was created in chapter 70-702, Laws of Florida, for the purpose of water and drainage control via means of construction and maintenance of water control infrastructure. The special act provides that the drainage district may levy a millage rate to raise revenue to support the water control functions of the special district. The Board of Supervisors for the district are elected, pursuant to chapter 298, relating to drainage and water control.

Chapter 298, Florida Statutes, provides that there shall be three supervisors elected for water control districts that are landowners within the district and residents of the county in which the district is located. The supervisors are elected by landowners, who are granted one vote per acre of land owned by them within the district. The supervisors currently serve three-year staggered terms.

The Central County Drainage District was re-named the Central County Water Control District in chapter 79-470, Laws of Florida.

Chapter 90-413, Laws of Florida, provides that the district may construct, acquire by donation or purchase recreational facilities and areas, including related facilities, and construct, operate, and maintain such recreational facilities for the benefit of district residents.

Chapter 94-481, Laws of Florida, provides that proxy voting was eliminated in the election of the Board of Supervisors for the Central County Water Control District.

Chapter 96-531, Laws of Florida, provides for an increase in the number of members serving on the district's board of supervisors.

E. SECTION-BY-SECTION RESEARCH:

Section 1: Adds section 9 to chapter 70-702, Laws of Florida.

Paragraph (1) of subsection 9 defines terms used in the section. A "qualified elector" means any person at least 18 years of age who is a citizen of the United States, a permanent resident of Florida, and a resident of the district who registers with the supervisor of elections of Hendry County. A "governing board member" means any duly elected member of the Board of Supervisors of Central County Water Control District elected pursuant to the section, provided that any board member elected by popular vote shall be a district elector and any board member elected on a one-acre/one vote basis shall meet the requirements of section 298.11, Florida Statutes.

Paragraph (2) provides for: the composition of the board; the terms of office; landowners meetings; and qualifications of electors. The bills provides for five members of the governing board, two of whom are elected by the qualified electors residing in the district and three of whom are elected at the annual meeting pursuant to section 298.11, Florida Statutes. Governing board members elected by qualified electors have 4 year staggered terms, while members elected pursuant to chapter 298, Florida Statutes, shall have 3 year staggered terms. The bill also provides for filling a vacant seat.

The annual landowners meeting is held pursuant to section 298.11, Florida Statutes, in October of each year commencing October 1999. At least one governing board member is elected at each annual meeting. The governing board members are elected by a majority of the acreage owners present and voting at the aforementioned meeting.

The non-partisan elections for governing board members are held and pursuant to Florida Election Code. If the expiration time for the term of an elected governing board member is beyond the normal expiration time for the term, the member holds office until the election of a successor. No proxy voting is permitted and the election of members at the annual meeting that is held pursuant to chapter 298, Florida Statutes. Those voting for members elected pursuant to chapter 298, Florida Statutes, must have paid the taxes on the property for which they receive a vote and provide evidence of that payment.

Section 2: Provides for the postponement of the 1998 annual meeting of the Central County Water Control District until a date in June 1998 to be set by the Board of Supervisors. In the event that section 1 of this act becomes law after the referendum required by section 3, there is no election of supervisors at the 1998 annual meeting of the district. The new governing board members for the two terms expiring in 1998 are elected by the qualified electors at the November 1998 general election. All terms for members of the governing board are extended until their successors are elected.

Section 3: Provides that this act is subject to a referendum at the district's meeting in June, 1998. Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall take effect upon becoming law.
