CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

County have combined their programs to serve the single SDA, with Hillsborough County being the grant recipient and administrative entity for Title II programs under the JTPA and the substate grantee for Title III programs under the JTPA, and

WHEREAS, the consolidation of JTPA functions under a single administrative and operating entity necessitates the transfer of certain City of Tampa employees, each of whom may or may not wish to take the option of remaining in the General Employees' Pension Plan for the City of Tampa (the "pension plan") once he or she becomes a Hillsborough County employee, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to chapter 23559, Laws of Florida, as amended, an individual must be an employee of the City of Tampa in order to participate in the pension plan, thereby making such participation possible only if the Florida Legislature adopts a special act authorizing such participation, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. City of Tampa employees to be transferred to Hillsborough County; election of pension plan; costs of plan for employees electing to remain in city's pension plan.—All classified City of Tampa employees who, on June 30, 1998, are assigned to the City of Tampa's Job Training Partnership Program shall be transferred on July 1, 1998, to Hillsborough County positions that are commensurate with their positions with the city. Each City of Tampa employee who is so transferred may, by the deadline prescribed under section 2 of this act, elect to remain a member of the General Employees'

Pension Plan of the City of Tampa for the duration of his or her employment by the county or may elect to become a member of the Florida Retirement System, with all its attendant rights. The county must pay to the city the employer's share of the pension costs for each employee who remains a member of the city pension plan, and the county must also deduct from each such employee's salary and remit to the city the employee's share of the pension costs. Any person who is hired by the county for its Job Training Partnership Program after June 30, 1998, becomes a member of the Florida Retirement System.

Section 2. Election procedures.--The election procedure is as follows:

- (1) Each employee who transfers from city to county employment and who is covered by this act must be given written notice of his or her right of election under section 1 of this act.
- (2) Each such transferred employee has 15 calendar days after the date of receipt of notice of his or her right of election to elect to remain a member of the city pension plan or to become a member of the Florida Retirement System.
- (3) An employee who elects to become a member of the Florida Retirement System or fails to make an election becomes a member of the Florida Retirement System effective July 1, 1998.

Section 3. This act shall take effect June 1 of the year in which enacted.
