III. SUBSTANTIVE RESEARCH:

A. PRESENT SITUATION:

Broward County is located on Florida's South Atlantic coast and consists of nearly 1,200 square miles and a population of approximately 1.3 million residents. Broward County currently contains 29 municipalities, the majority of which achieved their current corporate boundaries through a multitude of annexations.

In 1996, in cooperation with the Broward County Commission, the Broward County Legislative Delegation created the Ad Hoc Committee on Annexation Policy. The delegation charged the committee with the responsibility of developing and recommending policy to the Broward Legislative Delegation regarding the terms under which it would consider future annexations. The committee recommended that annexation of all the remaining unincorporated areas of Broward County should be encouraged to occur by the year 2010 and unincorporated areas remaining after 2010 will be subject to required annexation by the Florida Legislature.

The 1996 Florida Legislature adopted a special act (chapter 96-542, Laws of Florida) which exempts Broward County from the general law provisions in chapter 171, Florida Statutes. These provisions require a referendum of the electors of an annexing municipality where the total area annexed by a municipality during a calendar year cumulatively exceeds more than 5 percent of the total land area of the municipality or cumulatively exceeds more than 5 percent of the municipal population.

In addition, the special act requires that any annexation of unincorporated property within Broward County proposed to be accomplished pursuant to general law first must be considered at a public hearing conducted by the Broward County Legislative Delegation, pursuant to its adopted rules. The annexation is not effective until the first day of October following adjournment of sine die of the next regular legislative session following the accomplishment of all procedures necessary for annexation.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

This bill provides that the Broward County Legislative Delegation shall authorize studies of the impacts of the annexation of certain properties into the Cities of Deerfield Beach and Pompano Beach. Furthermore, the bill provides that the Broward County Board of County Commissioners shall schedule an election to determine the annexation of certain properties into either the City of Deerfield Beach or the City of Pompano Beach.

The bill provides that all public roads and public rights of way within the annexed areas are transferred from the jurisdiction of Broward County to the jurisdiction of the City of Deerfield Beach or the City of Pompano Beach. The annexing municipality is responsible for any transferred roads upon the effective date of this act.
