Code of Federal Regulations, adopted by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, provided there is no encroachment on any member operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use. Petroleum storage systems subject to regulation pursuant to chapter 376 are not considered underground facilities for the purposes of this act unless the storage system is located on a member operator's right-of-way or easement. Storm drainage systems are not considered underground facilities.

Section 3. Subsection (1) of section 556.103, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

556.103 Creation of the corporation; establishment of the board of directors; authority of the board; annual report.--

(1) The "Sunshine State One-Call of Florida, Inc." is hereby created as a not-for-profit corporation. Each Any operator of an underground facility in this state shall may be a member of the corporation and shall may use and participate in the system. The corporation shall be formed by June 1, 1993. The corporation shall administer the provisions of this act. The corporation shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established pursuant to this section.

Section 4. Section 556.104, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

556.104 One-call notification system.--The corporation shall establish a one-call toll-free telephone notification system which shall be operational by June 1, 1994. Any person who furnishes or transports materials or services by means of an underground facility in this state shall may elect to participate as a member operator of the system, except counties, municipalities, or municipal or cooperative electric utilities, or departments or agencies thereof, shall not be required to participate as a member operator until October 1, 1998. The purpose of the system is to receive notification of planned excavation or demolition activities and to notify member operators of such planned excavation or demolition activities. The system shall provide a single toll-free telephone number within this state which excavators can use to notify member operators of planned excavation or demolition activities.

Section 5. Subsection (4) of section 556.105, Florida Statutes, 1996 Supplement, is amended to read:

556.105 Procedures.--

(4) All member operators within the defined area of a proposed excavation or demolition shall be promptly notified through the system, except member operators with state-owned underground facilities located within the right-of-way of a state highway need not be notified of excavation or demolition activities and shall be under no obligation to mark or locate such facilities.

Section 6. Section 556.110, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

556.110 Costs assessed among member operators.--Member operators shall proportionately share in the cost of operating the system through monthly assessments made upon each member operator. However, any member which receives fewer than 10 notifications in any month shall not be assessed for such month.

Section 7. Paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of section 556.106, Florida Statutes, is hereby repealed.

Section 8. This act shall take effect October 1, 1997.
