1 family-oriented entertainment, cultural, educational,
 2 recreational, scientific, or historical activities; and which 3 is publicly recognized as a bona fide tourist attraction.
 4 However, the permits for businesses seeking to participate in 5 the attractions logo sign program shall be awarded by the 6 department annually to the highest bidders, notwithstanding
 7 the limitation on fees in subsection (5), which are qualified
 8 for available space at each qualified location, but the fees
 9 therefor may not be less than the fees established for logo
 10 participants in other logo categories. The department shall,
 11 if approved by the Federal Highway Administration, institute a 12 sign program to recognize regional or local heritage,
 13 historic, or scenic trails at interchanges on the interstate 14 highway system.
