II. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

A. PRESENT SITUATION:

The Hillsborough County Home Rule Charter took effect May 1985. The charter provides for local self-determination and grants all powers of a chartered county under Section I, Article VIII, Florida Constitution, 1968, as amended. One of the features of the Hillsborough County charter as described in "Home Rule Charter for Hillsborough County Florida, Approved by Hillsborough County Voters, September, 1983," is:

Special laws enacted by the Florida Legislature may be effective in Hillsborough County without approval by County electors if they relate to the following: civil service, aviation, the port, sports, transportation, hospitals, planning, environment, solid waste management, consumer affairs, resource recovery, criminal justice, historic preservation, and the arts. [Emphasis added.]

The Hillsborough County Civil Service Act (Act) was created by special act in 1951 and amended by subsequent special acts. In 1982 and 1985, the Act was recreated (codified) and provided for repeal of all existing prior acts. The Act currently in effect is chapter 96-519, Laws of Florida, which repealed chapters 85-424, 86-408, 87-575, and 94-407.

IV. COMMENTS:

The legislative liaison to the Hillsborough County delegation commented that this amendment to the special act provides specific grievance power to clarify the Civil Service Board's (Board) authority. This amendment to the special act allows the Board to provide appeals for grievances that were unfavorably resolved in-house.

House Rule 92(a), provides that “if a committee determines that a local bill may be enacted into law under the authority of a local governing body, that committee shall not report the bill to the Clerk.” The purposes of this local bill could be accomplished by a local ordinance but would require that the special acts related to the career service system be repealed by the Legislature and be converted to local ordinances.

The ordinances are then subject to modification or repeal by the local governing body as are other local ordinances. The entire contents of the act remain in full force and effect during the conversion process.
